

GWENDOLYNE.

Neath the dusky cottage eaves. In a window framed in leaves. There's a young girl, who had torn her habit and was on her way up stairs to repair her mischief.

The Inkeeper's Child.

The Inn where my heroine was born and lived was the only one in the neighborhood of the town of Cardale.

Cham the French Caricaturist.

The London Press draws the following sketch of a most distinguished artist. The most modest of men, he is also the most astonishing in appearance.

Who Hark Wisdom.

He who turneth away his head when he pinneth up a fire. Ye young folk who perchance on her bridal raiment, and the bridegroom approach.

Can't do it vs. Try.

Can't do it sticks in the mud; but Try soon drags the wagon out of the mud. The fox said "Try," and he got away from the hounds.

Who Hark Wisdom.

He who turneth away his head when he pinneth up a fire. Ye young folk who perchance on her bridal raiment, and the bridegroom approach.

Can't do it vs. Try.

Can't do it sticks in the mud; but Try soon drags the wagon out of the mud. The fox said "Try," and he got away from the hounds.

Who Hark Wisdom.

He who turneth away his head when he pinneth up a fire. Ye young folk who perchance on her bridal raiment, and the bridegroom approach.

Egypt of To-Day.

It needs but a glance to show us how peculiar the position of Egypt at the present day is. A flourishing province of a great and dourishing and dying empire, it would long ere now have shown its allegiance and raised its independence but for foreign repression.

Speaking Disrespectively of the Equator.

We heard a sermon recently on the subject of irrational reverence. It was entitled "The Nile Valley and the Equator."

Calling on a New Neighbor.

A new family moved into the neighborhood on Friday, and at dinner the next day Mrs. Cobleigh said to her husband, "I should like to call on them."

Comparative Savings.

The French papers publish interesting returns of the savings banks of that country. In France there are 1,000 depositories, and 325,000 francs, or $107,000,000 on deposit January 1, 1875.

The Violet as a Bonapartist Emblem.

The Violet, speaking of this flower as the symbol of one of the political parties in France, narrates the following: The adoption of the emblem dates from the first year of the Restoration.

Many are Called, &c.

Ethan Allen, of Revolutionary war fame, was in church one Sunday with a number of friends listening to a very high Calvinistic minister (exact stature not remembered).

Who Hark Wisdom.

He who turneth away his head when he pinneth up a fire. Ye young folk who perchance on her bridal raiment, and the bridegroom approach.

Can't do it vs. Try.

Can't do it sticks in the mud; but Try soon drags the wagon out of the mud. The fox said "Try," and he got away from the hounds.

Who Hark Wisdom.

He who turneth away his head when he pinneth up a fire. Ye young folk who perchance on her bridal raiment, and the bridegroom approach.

The Use of the Novel.

Where are we to look, if not to novels, for the truest and most highly finished pictures of life? What could make up to us for the loss of such writers as Thackeray, Dickens, George Eliot, and Sir Walter Scott?

TOOTHY COLLEGE.

Suppose the little fellows should think that they were much to be envied. They would not be at all. They would be as good as dead.

The Lion That Had no Remarkable Qualities.

Most boys who get into the newspapers are very remarkable boys. They have not only brains, but looks, or actions, or color, that attract the particular attention of anybody.

Sculptors of our own Faces.

The human face is a sublime, a beautiful, a mysterious revelation. The life of the face is a revelation of the soul.

Who Hark Wisdom.

He who turneth away his head when he pinneth up a fire. Ye young folk who perchance on her bridal raiment, and the bridegroom approach.

Can't do it vs. Try.

Can't do it sticks in the mud; but Try soon drags the wagon out of the mud. The fox said "Try," and he got away from the hounds.

Who Hark Wisdom.

He who turneth away his head when he pinneth up a fire. Ye young folk who perchance on her bridal raiment, and the bridegroom approach.

Can't do it vs. Try.

Can't do it sticks in the mud; but Try soon drags the wagon out of the mud. The fox said "Try," and he got away from the hounds.

Who Hark Wisdom.

He who turneth away his head when he pinneth up a fire. Ye young folk who perchance on her bridal raiment, and the bridegroom approach.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

New Orleans is fragrant with new potatoes, and encourages the farmers to get up and get them again. Massachusetts female suffragists are up and at them again. Mrs. Titton will keep a boarding-house on the Hudson. A National Congress of bankers will meet at Saratoga, N. Y., July 20. The Connecticut State Prison cleared $7.12 above its expenses last year. Geo. W. Childs denies that he has ever written a line of obituary poetry. The first woman physician in Canada has just been licensed to practice. The shares of the Chemical Bank of New York sell for $1,000—par value $100. Rome, Ga., is organizing a cotton factory. $6,000 has already been subscribed. One of the 1,320 students in Oberlin College, Ohio, 623—nearly one-half—are women. Gov. Bagley, of Michigan, has signed the bill reducing the tax on insurance premiums to 2 per cent. Dispatches from various points in Mexico encourage the hope that the cold weather has killed the grasshoppers. The Topeka Commonwealth says there was never a better prospect for an abundant harvest in Kansas than the present. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has reduced the fare from New York to Chicago to sixteen dollars and twenty-five cents. Twenty thousand alligator skins are tanned every year, and the business has become an important branch of industry at the South. There are 27,408 telegraph stations in the United States, 16,375 in America, 1,125 in Europe, 254 in Australia, and 127 in Africa. Mr. Charles A. Dana is about to resign the editorship of the New York Tribune, and make a tour of Europe for the benefit of his health. The base ballists have got a white stocking club, a brown stocking club and a red stocking club. Where's the striped stocking organization? Eleven hundred and twenty empty houses in the town of Pittsburg, Kan., and Allegheny attest the severity of the depression in the iron industry. Mr. Cushing has notified the State Department that the Spanish Government has paid the whole of the Virginia indemnity. Mr. Wood B. Smith, of Calhoun county, Iowa, proposes to have his name changed by legislative enactment. He'd rather be Wood B. something else. And now Wm. A. Mount, of Breckinridge, Ky., comes forth and says he has a clock that was ticking 100 years ago at Concord Mass. It is still ticking. Jim Fisk's father is going to the Holy Land. The old man seems to want to put in many years between Jerusalem and himself as his means will permit. The editors of South Carolina, representing 21 newspapers, have formed a Press Association, with James A. Hoyt, of Anderson, Intelligencer, as President. The mortality of the United States was not so great as it might have been considering that 1,636,326 pounds of arsenic and 16,823 pounds of lead were consumed here. The educational law passed by the last Texas Legislature fixes the compensation of public schools in that State at 10 cents a month for each pupil in actual attendance. An imbecile, named Robert Wilson was arrested in Brooklyn and booked as an actor. On inquiry it was found that the only parts he played were the blind beggar and the madman. The war rumors current in Europe are generally discredited by the London papers. Dispatches from Paris state that no cause of conflict exists between Germany and France. Major Ben. Perry Moore has returned from Mexico and reports an earnest disposition on the part of the Mexican Government to suppress the trouble in the Yucatan. Mr. Bancroft expresses the opinion that the Western Reserve of Ohio contains a more intelligent population than any other territory of the same extent in the United States. An imbecile, named Robert Wilson was arrested in Brooklyn and booked as an actor. On inquiry it was found that the only parts he played were the blind beggar and the madman. The war rumors current in Europe are generally discredited by the London papers. Dispatches from Paris state that no cause of conflict exists between Germany and France. Major Ben. Perry Moore has returned from Mexico and reports an earnest disposition on the part of the Mexican Government to suppress the trouble in the Yucatan. Mr. Bancroft expresses the opinion that the Western Reserve of Ohio contains a more intelligent population than any other territory of the same extent in the United States. The revenue raised in England in the financial year 1874-75 was the largest which has ever been received at the Exchequer in the time of peace. It amounted to $1,000,000,000. Baltimoreans don't know what to drink. The hydrant water tastes like fly, and the doctors say that the pump and well water is so impure that it produces typhoid fever. The Honorable George H. Pendleton is confident that the Democratic party, with wisdom in its councils and energy in its action, can carry Ohio by a large majority next year. Hon. James R. McCreary, has been nominated by the Democrats for Governor of Kentucky, and Hon. Benjamin Hill is elected to Congress in Georgia, in place of McMillan deceased. A spelling match in San Francisco, and when the guests are congregated two game roosters are put in the pit and allowed to peck at each other as long as they like. A first class mathematical estimation that it will require 274,892,000,000 quarts of peanuts to celebrate the Centennial. He is now figuring on the number of gum drops and popcorn balls. An investigation into the accounts of contractors for State repairs in Massachusetts has resulted in the disallowance of some $105,000 of claims, and a censure of the authorities who contracted the work. The President of the Handel and Haydn Society—the pride of Boston—has resigned his office. Mr. Bates has been a member of that melodious society for twenty-one years for forty of those years at its head. Before the Government of the United States comes to Long Branch for the Summer, it will visit its stock farm in Michigan. Those looking for it will call at either of the above places, where intelligence of its whereabouts may be gained. In 1871, 2,100,000 pounds of buffalo were shipped over the Kansas Pacific railway, and in the same year, over the Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, 2,000,000 pounds; 1,313,000 pounds; meat, 331,800 pounds. The M. E. Church South has appointed a Committee of Fraternization to the next General Conference of the M. E. Church North, and also Commissioners to meet a like commission for the purpose of removing all obstacles to formal fraternity. A post of the Grand Army of the Republic, in Providence, R. I., will erect as a monument in a cemetery in that city a thirty-two pound cannon mounted on the government. It will be surmounted by a ten inch shell, and lighted by its own fire.