Inniata Sentinel La and Republican.

POSSESSION.

"It was our wedding day A month ago," dear heart, I hear you say, If months, or years, or ages since have passe I only know that once there pealed a chime Of joyous bells, and then I held you fast. And all stood back, and none my right denied

Before us. Since that day I count my life; the Past is washed away.

It was the voice that woke me from a dres A happy dream, I think; but I am waking now And drink the splendor of a sun supreme That turns the mist of former years to gold. Within these arms I hold The fleeting promise, chased so long in vain; Ah, weary bird! thou wilt not fly again;

Thy wings are clipped, thou canst no more depart.

Thy nest is builded in my heart! I was the crescent : thou

The silver phantom of the perfect sphere, Held in its bosom : in one glory now Our lives united shine, and many a year-Not the sweet moon of bridal only-we One lustre, ever at the full, shall be : One pure and rounded light, one planet whole One life developed, one completed soul? For I in thee, and thou in me, Unite our cloven haives of destiny.

He bade me slowly ripen to my prime, And from my boughs withheld the promised fruit. Till storm and sun gave vigor to the shoot, Secure. O Love ! secure Thy blessing is: I have thee day and night Thou art become my blood, my life, my light; God's mercy thou, and therefore shalt endure

A Pawn-Broker's Incident.

As a pawn-broker in a populous suburb of London, I have had occasion to see painful and sometimes not unpleasing planes of society. Just to give an idea of what occasionally comes under the notice of persons in my profession, I shall describe a fittle incident and it consequences. One evening I stepped to the door for a little fresh air, and the consequences. One evening I stepped
to the door for a little fresh air, and the
was gazing up and down the road, its
was gazing up and down the road, its
and the little some wild animal into a long is dealing in the little some wild animal into the little was fall, "said Mr. Broadman; high the into the six again (where it days of our childhood
we bear one important fact—that there ext the racking timber."

And instantly men, and women, too beek looks at him so exaspershingly to book about use for a moment. While I was gazing up and down the road, its
was gazing up and down the road, its
was a didity-dressed young person step up to form side-down. She walked like a ladymad let me tell you that in time casesout of ten it's the walk, and thedress, which distinguishes the lady from the servanigirl—and first she looked about, and in surface and the seemed to make up her mind in a furrief sort of way, and in a moment. Was ready to give the manuel of the continued person set up to ten it's the walk, and the dress, which distinguishes the lady from the servanigirl—and litts is the looked about, and a furrief sort of way, and in a moment. Was ready to give the manuel to the leave to a chance to escape from bemade the matter. She satisfies on it runh, if it has like the sea, when the case to see the way in the deal trap, with looped of an all the rest was find in the case of the will in the possibility of the little in the sea of the late to the wind the sea of the very people who do die of stary time in the leave that it is the pocket of another dress.

He will instant the look of the leave the possibility of our clearly the professional to be dealth and extreme the wa As a pawn-broker in a populous sub-than eighteen years old; too frail and pass, and could do nothing for her.

Mr. Broadman wrote that very day to than anything else,—Danbury Nozs.

of any stones that have heads or figures.

You must give me leave to tell the rest finding himself confronted with a numing his writings to the editors of the ber of dresses all turned inside out, and various magazines—which. I need not presenting a most formidable front, he say, were all "returned with thanks" being told the brown one, and also asked if she had so many dresses that there And then he fell ill; typhus, I fancy, brought on by insufficient nourisbment if she had so many dresses that there and bad drainage and disappointed need be any great effort to find the right hopes. The registrar-general doesn't one, he returns to the cupboard with give a return of these cases in any list that I am aware of. But we see some-brown dress.

The words were shot out, rather than or men correspondingly more dissatistigating the behavior of cholera and uttered, as the speaker suddenly sank brown dress.

The words were shot out, rather than or men correspondingly more dissatistigating the behavior of cholera and uttered, as the speaker suddenly sank upon his knees, and reaching down out of every hundred, only thirty-six of ascertaining whether this method of

And forth we walked : the world was free and that was the name of the young lady.

Then he turns it round very carefully, who came to my shop with the gold seal.

Cambridge terrace is not very far from the Angel at Islington, and there was

The he turns it round very carefully, and passes over the pocket several times without being aware of it.

A nervous movement of his hands, like whip-cords; hands, arms, head and the calculated progress of the weekly reports of these diseases, and found that there were several coincidences between these charts and the calculated progress of houses, inhabited by junior clerks, with here and there a lodging house, in one of which Mr. and Mrs. Vincent lived.

A nervous movement of ms hands, and an appearance of perspiration on his forehead are perceptible.

He now dives one hand in at the back, and feeling round, finds a place and pro-They were rather shy at first of a stranger, and a little proud and haughty perhaps. People who have seen better days, and are down upon their luck, are apt to be so. But the parson, with his pleasant ways and cheery voice, soon and suddenly the pocket, pl made it all right; and in a jiffy, he and asperating, comes to view. Mr. Vincent were talking about col-lege, for they had both been to the same not only the inside, but the outsideuniversity. And there was soon even a smile too—a wan smile enough—upon right in the inside and take out the artithe poor invalid's sharp-cut, thin face, cle. That is all. He can't help but with the hollow, far-away eyes, which smile to think how near he was to get-looked at you as if out of a cavern. He ting mad, was the wreck of a fine young fellow. Then he puts his hand round to the too; of one who had been used to his other side. He does not feel the openbunting and shooting, and all the fine ing. He pushes a little farther—now country sports which make broad- he has got it; he shoves the hand down, folk.

Mr. Broadman came directly to me when he left them. I did not live far and glides down it only to appear again off, and he thought that I might lend them a neighbor's help. "Davis," said them a neighbor's help. "Davis," said he, "that poor fellow is dying; I can see death in his eyes."

"What is he a-dying of?" I replied.

He looked at me steadfastly a moment, and I could see a moisture in his eyes as he commences again.

"A gentleman starving, in London, in Islington, a baronet's son, too! why, them carefully gets his hand first into a "Are there no me it's incredible."

bling hand covered with a worn kell glove.

My assistant, Isaacs, was stepping forward to take the seal, when I came in and interposed. The poor young thing was so nervous and shy, and altogether so unused to this work, that I felt for her as if she had been my own daughter almost. She couldn't have been more than eighteen years old; too frail and the seal of the interposed to the cupboard, excitedly and almost proposed assure you, and I think her husband would fike to thank you too, and it would rouse him up a bit, perhaps."

And then Mr. Broadman told me, shortly, something of what those two poor things had gone through—she, loving and trusting him so; and he, almost. She couldn't have been more than eighteen years old; too frail and "If you please, will you tell me," she the baronet; a proud, hard man, I'm aid timidly, in a very sweet, low voice, told. But the letter he wrote back was and then the tears wouldn't be kept back any longer, and she sobbed as if her poor little heart would break.

"There, there, my dear, '21 said to her don't cry; it will all come right in time;" and tried to comfort her as well as I could in my own rough and ready way. "I said to her at last,' i sovereign upon this seal; and if you wish to sell it, perhaps I may be able to sell it for you to abvantage."

And all said; partly to myself:

"Why shouldn't Christianity itself be such as general peacemaker as that?"

"Ay," replied Mr. Broadman, "if people only believed in it properly." That very day we got the baronet's don't cry; it will all come right in time;" and tried to comfort her as well as I could in my own rough and ready way. "I said to her at last,' i sovereign upon this seal; and if you wish to sell it, perhaps I may be able to sell it for you to abvantage."

And so I gave how the a pomal; it was more than the thing was worth as a pleige; and she tripped away with a lighter heart, and many thanks to me and I thought no more of the matter at the time.

The very next day, the day before thristmas, there came into our place of the matter at the time.

And then the tears wouldn't be kept with and it would speak well of; but I never found her. I have wisted my time.

"Ay," replied Mr. Broadman, "if people only believed in it properly."

That very day we got the baronet's may wist as the treath and it is an attention of the cast from all you may my respects to Mrs. Vincent—and I'd had it as when a lamb the baronet's when all work of the cast iron all away is wisted my time.

There was a place set apart in heaven for good wives who could judge a wicked him gas harshly when a man did it as when a work as a lamb the same as a place set apart in heaven for good wives who could judge a wicked him gas harshly when a man did it. But I never found her. I have with a such as lamb and it would speak well of; but I never found her. I have wicked my time.

There was a place set apart in heaven for good wives who could judg limb with the excitement of of any stones that have heads or figures congraved upon them, and I had been in the habit of putting aside for him whatever in this way passed through our hands, for he gave us a better price than we should get for them at the quarterly we should get for them at the quarterly mured, stretching out a thin, treabling mured. mured, stretching out a thin, trembling

"The fact is, Davis," he used to say to hand, "forgive."

But the father was on his knees by had died in his father's arms, at the moment of reconciliation.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., JULY 21, 1875.

BY ELLEN C. MOWBRAY.

Can you hold on a few minutes longer?"
"You bet."

and all he has to do is to put his hand chested, strong-limbed country people and is very much surprised to see it ap-the envy of us poor, thin, pale town-pear opposite his knees. He has made

He tries again; he feels the entrance calm morning air carried dismay to the such a device; while men, accustomed hearts of the villagers. Doors were flung to handle ropes, razors, and pistols, are helplessly and broke out in sobs.

he said, slowly and solemnly: "Of star-vation, Davis—of actual want of food," He does it calmly this time, because vation, Davis—of actual want of food," hurrying only makes matters worse. He terror arose the voice of a single woman, Out of all this disorder and frantic so much the women is singular evidence "Are there no men here to help save

The very next day, the day before The very next day, the day before Christmas, there came into our place of business a very eccentric gentleman, who had called upon us pretty often before, not for the sake of pawning anything, though he was generally dressed shably enough, boo. But he was a colector, one of those men who are mad upon old china and curiosities of all souts.

"Anything in my way to-day, Mr. "Anything in my way to-day, Mr. "Anything in my way to-day, with a jolly smile upon his face, and putting down the cigarette he was smoking upon the edge of the was smoking upon the edge of the was nowling and trembled as he laid it upon mine, counter.

The Rev. Mr. Broadman is a collector of gents and rings and seals, and in fact of any stones that have heads or figures.

Both Machael as a plo, sand tress in and old-fashioned in his dress; and with that sort of an air alout him which marks an English mid dread of. I am afraid that we allow the frenzy of despair, alout him which marks an English mid dread of. I am afraid that we shall some day learn to read one mid-thers thoughts. That will be the end of society, and of marriage, and we shall some day learn to read one mid-thers thoughts. That will be the end of society, and of marriage, and we shall some day learn to read one mid-thers thoughts. That will be the end of society, and of marriage, and we shall some day learn to read one mid-thers thoughts. That will be the end of society, and of marriage, and we shall some day learn to read one mid-thers thoughts. That will be the end of society, and of marriage, and we shall some day learn to read one mid-thers thoughts. That will be the end of society, and of marriage, and we shall some day learn to read one mid-thers thoughts. That will be the end of society, and of marriage, and we shall some day learn to read one mid-thers thoughts. That will be the end of society, and of marriage, and we shall some day learn to read one mid-thers thoughts. That will be the end of society, and of marriage, and we shall some thing to have no character among one's though they had been cast in bronze.

without being caught, because it is pleasant to acquire reputation and respect in the world.

Bob's frantic cry, wrenched from him by the quick sense of the appalling danger which threatened his brother,

"The fat is, Davis," he used to say to me, "these things are invaluable. Many of them are as beautiful, on a small the chair, in a moment, classing his some of them are as beautiful, on a small bay, instead in his arms, and founding him some of them are as beautiful, on a small bay, in the chair, in a moment, classing his some of them even by the same artists, and they are used no longer, you see, for in this busy inincetent century of and they are used no longer, you see, for in this busy inincetent century of the same artists, and they are used no longer, you see, for in this busy inincetent century of an other himself of the transport of the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him a some of them even by the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him a moment, classing his some of them even by the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him a moment, classing his some of them even by the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him a some of them even by the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him and the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him and the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him and the same artists, and the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him and the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him and the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him and the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him and the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him and the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and founding him and the same artists, and the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and dead the same artists, and they are used in his arms, and dead the same artists, and artists, and the weight of the lates of the hips.

The Duchess Vistage of the his soulders, in cloth and the weight of the lates. A bandwidth and the weight of the lates are used to the h A few Parts About Saletides.

The find flag for the flag of the flag for the flag of the flag for the flag of the flag for t parture. The queen gave vent more

"Look out, Frank, for heaven's sake.

brown dress.

It is inside out like the rest; a fact he grasped a firmer hold of the rope upon does not notice, however, until he has which depended the lives of a score, It was just at this time that Mr. made several ineffectual attempts to get whose blanched faces were upturned appealingly. The face that looked down

He does it calmly this time, because "Not at all," said Mr. Broadman; always surprises him when it appears), posts! fetch boards! anything that will danger which threatened his brother, came too late. Those who were watch-developed there in the temperaments of weekly cases was still increasing at the the men and women. Thirty years ago time, but he noticed a decrease in the the decennial census showed that of rate of weekly increase, and as the conevery hundred suicides fifty-nine, that tinuance of this would soon bring the is considerably more than half, were of number of attacks to a maximum, he women. Since then the women have concluded that the turning point was been growing more contented with life; near. Dr. Evans has lately been invesout of every hundred, only thirty-six of ascertaining whether this method of are women. From being three-fifths of the suicides the gentler sex has subsi-extensive use, and what were the best

A nervous movement of his hands, and an appearance of perspiration on his shoulders were as motionless, as rigid as the iron frame which held this picture. He now dives one hand in at the back, and feeling round, finds a place and protects to explore it, when he discovers that he is following up the inside of a lining. The nervousness increases, also the perspiration.

The prestrict of the sexes all through civilization; men prefer to hang them selves, women prefer to work with points that he is following up the inside of a lining. The nervousness increases, also the perspiration.

The prestrict of the sexes all through civilization; men prefer to work with points that he is following up the inside of a lining. The nervousness increases, also the perspiration.

The prestrict of the sexes all through civilization; men prefer to work with points selves, women prefer to work with points that he is following up the inside of a lining. The nervousness increases, also the perspiration.

The prestrict of the sexes all through civilization; men prefer to work with points selves, women prefer to work with points the case in Ireland; and in the earlier and later stages of an epidemic is country the greatest number of male suicides were by hanging, and of their existence by a hair's breadth! A simultaneous groun arose. The face above grew a shade paler; the teeth were shown a trifle plainer; but no sound issued from the lips!

Taste seems to run in the same channels shoulders were as motionless, a rigid as it both countries, and it may be charted in both countries, and it may be charted the diseases. But he was not able to determine what was the best period for itself the sexes all through civilization; men prefer to work with points selves, women prefer to work with points acceptated to the calculated progress of in both countries, and it may be charted acceptance of perspiration with was the sex sell through civilization; men prefer to work with points acceptance of the sexes all through civilization; men prefer to work sound issued from the lips!

A craven spirit cronched out of sheer dread; the studding post suddenly relieved of his pressure, snapped like a selves, five out of every nineteen did it by hanging; limits, and if these are exceeded at among the women who killed themselves, five out of every nineteen did it able inaccuracies in the results may pipe stem: in an instant the lower end of the massive pillar crashed through the information for founding the theory that the early weeks of an epidemic do that man's bravery equals woman's tinot permit of safe prophetical calendary. human lives were blotted out utterly; midity; for hanging is external and two miserable wretches were writing elaborate and requires a fixed purpose, in mortal agony beneath the irresistible, while poisoning is internal and does its crushing weight of the frame-work that pinned them fast to the earth. Still five others were held fast among the timbers, where they wriggled helplessly as rats in a trap.

If any one in these days will exercise that people use methods not strange to them. Women, all their lives cooking and addicted to the preparation of teal thin under earments, or none at all, and The cry of horror that rose upon the and other decoctions, take naturally to open in blind haste; men, women and children, in response to the cry, congresion. The evil tendency is said to be gated swiftly, only to raise their weak hands aloft, while others beat the air belolessly and both aloft, while others beat the air belolessly and both and belolessly and both and belolessly and both a secondof its methods. That the

in their many trials,-Hartford Convant. ----- tional dark spot, which might or might regulations, it is no substitute for that ing whether good or bad, hopped over not be a pile of boughs, we go a great exercise of the body, without which all all obstructions, and was soon engaged never to commit a theft, lest a similar fate should be ours. And thus the silly fable at once becomes an important engine in forging and forming the character of the man.

Intest importation. These are of a soft latest importation. These are of a soft creamy white silk tissue, and are shown both plain and striped in narrow baya-dere lines.

upper lakes receive, it has been con-jectured that a subterranean river may ded to undertaking only about one-third of the business.

weeks in the course of an epidemic for forming an opinion. He constructed charts of the weekly reports of these

Wet and Dry Bathing.

ment, if water is withheld for months. tions at present existing. Dry friction over the whole surface of the body, once a day or once in two days, is often of more service than the application of the last day of the new wrinkle. every night, is significant of an import-ant truth. If invalids and persons of sad havoe with it. The farmer, howant truth. If invalids and persons of sad havoe with it. The farmer, how-low vitality would use dry friction and ever, not being willing that the germs Dr. Franklin's "air hath" every day for of a future crop should be destroyed a considerable period, we are confident by either fair or foul means, detera considerable period, we are confident they would often be greatly benefitred. Cleunliness is next to goddiness, no doubt, and a proper and judicious use of water is to be commended; but human beings are not amphibious. Nature indicates that the functions of the akin.

Now, the farmer had a parrot, as talk-

Would you show yourself really good to your daughters f. Then be generous to them in a truer sense than that of "Frank!" said a woman's voice—the same whose words stirred up, and whose presence sustained the workers, "Bob is presence sustained the workers, "Bob is moon," which they tell their children as our mothers tell the story to us, with this difference, however, they believe the story themselves, while our mothers the story themselves as story themselves on their needs. Train them for independence first, and then poor labor to give it to them. Let them as soon as ever they are grown have some tittle money, or means of making money, to be their own, and teach them as our mothers tell the story themselves, while our mothers the story themselves as the be discount; a proud, hard mon. To doll, But the letter be words back was soft enough, and melting to read; it was an old onlying at it—it was an old should not meeting the first advances and the perfect of the proper little white the perfect of the proper little white the letter be words back was soft enough, and melting to read; it was an old fashioned seal, such as country gentleman used to wear, with a coat-of-arms end upon h—"that depends upon whether you want to pledge d, or to sell it out."

""All M. Davis," it as said, "there was a place set almost only, and with dignity, though and melting the thick errors of pride which was attached to the upper portion whether words proundly, and with dignity, though and melting the proof little whether the proof little heart wouldn't be kept lark any longer, and she solded as if the poor little heart wouldn't be kept lark any longer, and she solded as if the proof little heart wouldn't be a letter of the proof little heart wouldn't be a letter of the proof little heart wouldn't be a letter of the proof little heart wouldn't be a letter of the proof little heart wouldn't be a letter of the proof little heart wouldn't will all come right in time;" and trip it to comfort her as well as all could in my own rough and read to sell it for you to advantage."

"I've will lette better be worth back was attached to the proof proof which is scale," and if it to sell it for you to advantage."

The sight that the time workers below were unturned again approach where the fast workers below were unturned again approach where the fast would be workers below were unturned again approach where the fast would be workers below were unturned again approach where the fast would will be workers below were unturned again approach where the fast would work that the difference of the mother of the fast work in the story them workers below were unturned again approach where the fast would in the workers below were unturned again approach where the fast would in the work of the work what we wel

English Railroad Accidents

Plaited waists return to favor with the light materials used for summer.

The novelty in jeweiry consists of exquisite cameo sets cut in conch-shells.

For summer morning dress in the country there are neck-ties of Scotch gligham, blue, gray, pink or brown.

There are no women in the world, says Jenny Jane, who contrive to dress fashionably upon so little money as fashionably upon so little money as a morning the grown of a hat.

The pretty, soft neck-ties now in use are sometimes made to serve a double purpose by twisting as a scarf around the crown of a hat.

The small pin-head cheeks of black and white known as shepheral's plaids are the compromise settled upon by ladies of quiet tastes who object to plaids.

Siegveless jackets are made of lone. Plaited walsts return to favor with In England last year 1,175 persons indies of quiet tastes who object to plaids.

Sieeveless jackets are made of long puffs of organdy mustin, sloped in to follow the outlines of the figure and separated by rows of valenciennes insertion.

White tissue veils are among the longer with safety to the null.

Secure appears to the properties of the properties of quiet tastes who object to diminishing; in England it has been steadily diminishing; in England it has been rising with frightful rapidity. In 1864, only 12 passengers were killed; in 1868, only 12 passengers were killed; in 1869, only 12 passeng better than my clothes, I am sore. And when you take up my head, do not take off my cap." Then, laying his head upon the block, he added, "Stay, while YOUTHS' COLUMN.

The Little People.-The first breeze raised in Eden was a burry Cain.

The best Sunday-School scholar in Dubnque is George Thomas Renshav Pettigrew. His parents thought he might never make a name for himself, and so they sat up two nights and made a name for him.

A little girl reading the history of England with her mother, and coming to the statement that Henry I. never langhed after the death of his son, looked up and said, "What did he do when he was tickled?"

"You in the post-office?" said a fatner to his son. "Nice party you'd be in the post-office. What could you do in the post-office execut to stand in the

-Boston's taxation, this year, will be in the wood, tote water and rock the durned old baby for an hour or two. "Ma," said an intelligent, thoughtful boy, "I don't think Solomon was so rich as they say he was." "Why, my dear, what could have put that into your head?" Why the Bible says he slept with his fathers, and I think if he had been so very rich he would have had a bed "Herbert," said a perplexed mother, -The number of volumes taken out why is it that you are not a better oy ?" "Well," said the little fellow, erly looking up into her face with his honest blue eyes, "I suppose the real reason is that I don't want to be." We think the child gave the real reason why all of us, big as well as little, are have a Constitutional Convention. not better than we are.

In a certain school in Maine, recently, the teacher announced that on a given In a certain school in Maine, recently, the teacher announced that on a given afternoon the girls might bring sewing State. materials to receive instructions in needlework, but when they came with them the larger boys came, too, with shav-ing benches and drawing knives, re-questing that they might practice hoopquesting that they might practice hoop-shaving at the same time. That was attributed his good health and extreme spring, a farmer, after working busily longevity, that he believed it due to for several weeks, succeeded in planfor several weeks, succeeded in plan-ting one of the largest fields in corn indicates that the functions of the skin should be kept in order mainly by muscular exercise, by exciting natural perspiration by labor; and delicious as is lover of company, without much car-ing whether good or bad, hopped over all obstructions, and was soon engaged to make a man honest is to watch him. The custom house officers will please

The farmer with his gan sallied forth. Reaching his cornfield, he saw at a glance (though he overlooked the parrot) the state of affairs. Levelling his gun, he fired, and with the report was this comes of keeping bad company."

On carrying it to the house, the children, seeing its wounded leg, exclaimed:

"What did it, papa—what hurt our pretty Poll?"
"Bad company—bad company!" answered the parrot in a solomn voice.
"Ay, that it was," said the farmer.
"Poll was with those wicked crows
when I had, and beginned in the seed of the on I fired, and received a shot intenwife, bandaged the broken leg, and in tary Bristow will abolish them, as a few weeks the parrat was as lively as ever, but never forgot its adven-ture in the corn field, and if ever the farmer's childrene ngaged in play with quarrelsome companions, it invariably dispersed them with its cry, "Bad company—bad company!"— Christian Weekly.

My Dog .- I have a dog, and his name My Dog.—I have a dog, and his name ing from eighteen to twenty pounds in is Don. He is nine years old. His the lakes at Madison, Wis. The sport master is in Boston, and I call Don my dor, because I like to have him here. He is a black and-white dog, and mea-waukee, bass are simply rayenous.

pulls of organdy musin, stoped in the follow the outlines of the figure and follow the outlines of the figure and separated by rows of valenciennes instand no longer with safety to the pullic, English rolling stock is certainly inferior to American in stability. The latest importation. These are of a soft creamy white silk tissue, and are shown both plain and striped in narrow bayance dere lines.

My luttle baby-brother tumbles over the dog, and sits on him; and sometimes when I am tired, I lie down and take a nap with my head on Don's back. He likes to have me do it, and he lightness, and is very defective in other respects.

A Sagacious Trout,—Some years ago, as its shipments of flour.

visitors to feed the fish with pieces of bread and meat, which it would readily take from their fingers. One of the clerks, with less humanity than love of seventy thousand dollars, the greater fun, one day attached a hook to a piece part of which is believed to be in forged of meat, caught the trout and pulled it notes.

him what it was made of. "It is made of candy," said the gentleman. "By gosh, I gross it must be candy, but it's a mighty big stick," remarked the chil-

-Conductors on Chattanooga railroads are paid seventy-five cents a day. -There are 73,849 farms in Virginia of which 45,028 are under one hundred min Silliman has just died at New

-Southern papers state that the gen-eral crop prospects in that section were never better.

-Mr. Pullman is making arrange ents to introduce his palace cars on the Italian railroads.

—It is said that the Appleton's have offered General Sherman $60,000 for the copyright of his book. -"Mr Variegated Narrative" is the atest name for the distinguished Sioux chieftain, Spotted Tail. -A half interest in the New Pacific Hotel, San Francisco, is said to have been sold for $1,750,000.

our hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars less than last year. -The total number of hogs packed during the last twenty-five years is, in round numbers, 74,000,000. -Hon. Asa Packer has been ap-pointed chairmen of the centennial standing committee on finance.

of the Public Library during the past year exceeds 750,000,—Boston Journal. -The citizens of California are to

-It is claimed that there is more

-An aggrieved individual wanted $100,000 damages from the Denver (Col.) Tribune, and the jury invited him to pay the cost. -George Francis Train has been nominated for the Presidency by the National Temperance organization at Chicago. -T. W. Park of Bennington, Vt., is said to be one of the wealthiest men in the country. His property is valued at

-The Director of Mints thinks, in iew of the recent fall in silver, that it will soon be in circulation in place of fractional currency. -Dr. Von Bulow the celebrated planist who will arrive in this country in October, is announced to make his first appearance in Boston.

-One of the Plymouth Church backers, Mr. Henry W. Sage, has determined to leave Brooklyn and take up his residence at Ithaca, N. Y. -A. T. Stewart says that the best way keep an eye on Mr. Stewart. -The Connecticut House of Representatives indulged in the joke of refer-ring a petition for women Suffrage to mittee on Insurance.

—The dominion government has a remonstrance to Washington, against the practice of detaining for examination scaled cars entering the States at Island Pond from Canada,

Stephen Grant against the Portland (Me.) Press was decided in favor of the defendant. The Press asserted that Grant was the biggest liar in the State. -There is no danger of Boyton's success damaging the ocean steamship business. One of his rubber suits costs nearly as much as a cabin-passage, and the latter has some decided advantages erows for long distances. -An agent of the Treasury Departpany." With these words the farmer several small ports of entry are simply turned round and, with the aid of his sinecures, and it is believed that Secreauthorized by law.

-Secretary Bristow is pushing the whiskey fraud investigations in the West and is confident he can secure the con-viction of members of the whiskey ring out there. A good many addit seizures will be made. -They are catching pickerel weigh-known this season, thus far; and at Pee-as we are told, a trout was kept in a large water-vat at the San Francisco —Charles C. Fuller, president, and water-works. It was the custom of John T. Mowry, treasurer of the Champlain paper company, Norwich, Ct., have absconded, leaving outstanding ob-ligations to the estimated amount of > still out of the pale of Centennialism. Dakota, Delaware, District of Columbia, Kentucky, Maryland, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Mexico, Utah, Ver-mont and West Virginia, have not yet manifested a cent's worth of interest in

> -Vice-President Wilson has been convincing the New York Tribune that his health is pretty fair by climbing the flights of stairs which led to the editorial sanctum instead of waiting for the elevator. He is peculiarly anxious just now that there should be no doubt as to