Moody and Sankey leave Liverpool to-day for the United States. New Goods received this week at Cheap John's New Store.

Only a few days longer remain for the taking of trout legally. This is the day for the end of the world, according to Millers.

Think of it—snow at Denver, Colorado, last Saturday, the 31st of July. T. J. Middagh's mare, Lydie, took third money at Lewistown last week.

Among the new advertisements we publish a call for a Temperance Campaign. B. F. Butler will defend John Siney, who will be tried for conspiracy in Clearfield in September.

Ex-President Andrew Johnson died at his home in Tennessee, last Saturday, of paralysis. The Bridge Company have had the river bridge swept, to the satisfaction of the public that cross it.

Emil Schott will sell White Shirts 25 per cent cheaper than anybody else, at Cheap John's New Store. The Fair at Riverside Park will begin on Wednesday, the 23rd, and end on Friday, the 24th of September.

The M. E. Sabbath School of this place will hold their annual picnic to-morrow (Thursday) at Macosta. "Knights of the Union" is the name of a new organization, composed of honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the late war.

Philadelphia market quotations on Monday—Wheat, red, $1.25 to 1.38; amber, $1.10 to $1.22. Rye, $1.00 to 1.05. Corn $0.50 to $0.55. Great rains have damaged crops and destroyed property along streams to an alarming extent in the States of Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Missouri and Nebraska.

Greater inducements than ever offered before in Notions, Fancy Goods and Trimmings at Cheap John's New Store. H. C. Dem is now the sole proprietor of the Altoona Tribune, he having bought E. B. McGraw's interest in the paper for $12,000. Mr. McGraw expects to move to Colorado.

The first and second prizes at the Lewistown fair last week were won by Juniata county men. Samuel B. Rickonback took the first, on a half mile heat in 2:22. H. S. Goshen took the second. The Sheriff of this county posted up handbills at Ebersburg, on Wednesday, offering at Sheriff's sale the road-bed or right of way of the Ebersburg and Cresson Branch Railroad.—Altoona Tribune.

The old Blue Stem wheat, that used to be so prolific, has been given a fresh trial in Nittany Valley, Centre county, with the most satisfactory result. The average yield is declared to be 35 bushels to the acre. The new twenty cent silver pieces have already made their appearance. They are a little smaller than the "old quarters" and have a smooth edge or rim, by which they may be distinguished from the latter coin.

Mr. Elliott Robinson, a citizen of Howard county, Indiana, but formerly a citizen of this county, was home here among his native hills, seeing his relatives and friends. He is a member of the Tuscarora Robinson family. The editor of the Chicago Tribune suggests that both parties nominate as candidates for the Vice-Presidency next year an ex-rebel. Put a jacket on that man and send him to an insane asylum; he is deranged in mind.

Cheap John, having more room and better facilities for showing his goods, he is determined to sell Goods cheaper than ever, regardless of cost. Now is the time for Bargain at Cheap John's New Store. The Harrisburg High Boys, and Young America base ball clubs beat our Juniata club last week, at Harrisburg. Of course to match games some one must always be beaten. It would have been a little too good if the Juniata club had come out victor.

The Methodist congregation in this place have extended an invitation to the Presbyterian congregation here, to join them in union worship in the church of the former while the church of the latter congregation is undergoing repairs. The kind invitation has been accepted, and therefore next Sabbath both Rev. Mr. Fenechaper and Rev. Mr. Sherrard will preach, the one in the morning, the other in the evening.

The following contemptible paragraph appeared in the Democrat and Register last week: "A cousin of Simon Cameron on Thursday last, at his own request, was sent to the Blair county poor house. Simon don't do on poor relations." It is likely that if the editors of the Democrat and Register would look among their own friends, they would not write such paragraphs about Senator Cameron and his distant relatives.

Last Wednesday the Democrats of Lancaster county elected delegates to the State Convention to assemble at Erie in September, and instructed them to vote for Mr. B. M. North, of that county, for Governor. Mr. North is originally from McAllesterville, this county.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Juniata Valley Bank last Monday, convened to elect a Board of officers, the old Board was re-elected, excepting Senator Patterson, who despatched that he wished to withdraw as an officer. Mr. Joseph Rothrock was elected to the place he vacated.

Last Wednesday night thieves entered the spring house of Robert McMeen, in Turbett township, and stole therefrom a quantity of bread and butter. Some nights previous to that theft the spring house of Mr. Kohler, who resides in the same neighborhood, was robbed of bread and butter and sixteen pounds of sausage.

Mr. Emanuel Wetzer, a citizen of Walker township, fell from the eave of the roof of his barn, which he was repairing last Wednesday afternoon. The accident occurred by the breaking of the ladder on which he stood. He was quite severely hurt in the neck, one rib was broken and a second cracked or fractured. His recovery is doubtful.

When President Grant attends a yacht race, or a horse race, or a summer resort, Democrats talk about it in the most enthusiastic way. They, however, never report his attendance at church. The other day he attended a camp-meeting at the seaside. As yet the Democrats have not found it out, or reported the fact if they know it.

The Democrat and Register last week published an old Democratic assessment call on Democratic officials for $20 per head for election purposes, with a few changes. The changes were the placing of names of Republicans where the names of Democrats used to be. Just as the old Democratic mud bosses, supervisors, post masters, &c., about it, and see how they will blush. It is quite innocent and fresh in the Democrat and Register to try to get off such an old document as a new one. Can't you change some other old Democratic documents that create success last fall caused them to get out their old papers? They'll use them again on their friends just as soon as they get into power.

EDITOR ROYAL, Aug. 2, 1876.

Mr. Editor: In perusing the news of our county as dispensed through your valuable journal, and finding nothing either in way of news or other matter about our "royal post," the thought suggested itself that perhaps it would be as well to let "all whom it may concern" know that the ancient "berg" of Perryville, but more recently Post Royal, has not sunk into oblivion, notwithstanding the fact that it does not figure in the paper. The truth of the matter is, the place is about as stirring as it ever was, and if only about a dozen or so of candidates could be induced to trot out for the Commission-ership, the outside world would know that "we still live." Politics are at a low ebb, but rest assured we will do our full share towards rolling up the 25,000 majority for our excellent standard-bearer, Gen. John F. Hartranft. Men who, three years ago, opposed him are now heartily for him, acknowledging that he has been and is one of the very best Governors our great State has ever had.

Speaking of politics it may not be out of place to note that one day last week a meeting was held at this place with the object of furthering the interests of the Temperance party. What the result was I have not learned. It is likely that more will be heard of it before the election. Of course every Democrat sees clearly that the best thing the Republicans could do, would be to support the Temperance ticket; but that is quite "too thin"—"burned children dread the fire." One dose is generally enough, and the Local Option lesson is not forgotten. The Hlande Factory is running full time again. The works were stopped for a few weeks in consequence of needed repairs, and also to enable the proprietors to put new machinery in place. It is pleasing to state that their business is on the increase. Our respected and near neighbor, Mr. Noah Hertzler, has built an addition to his store room, which, when completed, will make it one of the best in the county. He is a thorough business man (and advertiser some), and never lets a chance slip for a business operation. Quite a village has grown up around him, and in time old Post will be in the borough limits.

Your balloonists will have to look to their laurels. We have had six successful ascensions during the past week, finishing out on Saturday evening with the Levathan. Hundreds witnessed it in town and from the Fair Grounds, where our christian friends of the M. E. church were holding a festival, where old and young spent a pleasant afternoon and evening, and put themselves outside of ice cream and other things to the amount of about $80 profit. For the past two weeks two of our most estimable citizens have been seriously ill, G. W. Jacobs, Esq., and Capt. J. B. Thompson. The Squire was moving weeds, and accidentally cut himself on the knee. Nothing serious was apprehended for the first few days, but inflammation set in and he became bedfast, suffering intense pain, the limb having swollen to immense proportions. His friends were alarmed, fearing amputation would be necessary, but by skillful treatment that has been availed, and he is on a fair way of recovery. Capt. Thompson was taken with hemorrhage of the lungs, one attack following the other in alarmingly quick succession, until he was prostrated to a degree that excited the fears of every one, and for a time but faint hopes were entertained of his recovery. I am pleased to be able to state that he is recovering, and will be about again in a few weeks.

On Saturday evening, 31st ult., Capt. J. P. Wharton lost a very interesting daughter, aged 13 years, by death. She was sick but a short time. She suffered with a typhoid fever of the most malignant type. The family have the sympathy of their neighbors and friends in their sad bereavement. We had had a plentiful supply of rain of late, and growing crops show it amazingly, but less this letter might grow long and tedious to you, I would most respectfully,

SAY QUIT. FOR SALE—Two new Wagons, suitable for either two or three horses, with beds and hind and side locks.—Call on D. B. McWILLIAMS, Oakland Mills, Pa. aug-4t

ANATOMY, July 27, 1875.

Mr. B. F. Schaefer—Dear Sir, As you frequently ask your friends to report to you items that may prove interesting to your many readers, we may occasionally, when opportunity affords, do so. When we read in the county papers of so many bold robberies, attempts at burglary, cases of assault and battery, drunkenness, &c., in other places, we are led to think that we have escaped remarkably well in this quiet, industrious and peaceable community, in and around Vanwert, but we were alarmed on last Sabbath evening, about 7 o'clock, when word came up the road that three thieves had entered the house of Mr. Barner, residing about three-fourths of a mile south of this place, and that a son of Mr. Barner had been shot at three times. The parents were not at home; the rest of the family also were absent from the house at the time, excepting the boy, who was at the barn attending the live stock. The dog at the house kept up a fearful barking. The boy hearing this went to the house and walking quietly up the stairway, and looking into a room, he espied three men examining the bureau drawers. He ran out to give the alarm, but he scarcely got five rods from the house when he was fired at three times. Mr. Oberholzer's family heard the reports of the revolvers. The news soon came to us, when Messrs. W. Kuriz, J. Oberholzer and sons, J. Fire, D. Weis, R. Moist, J. Shirk, myself and others soon reached the house, armed to suit the occasion, and determined to capture the villains if possible. But the rascals had fled. They had taken out everything that had been in the bureau and thrown the articles on the floor. A chest, which Mr. B. had locked before leaving home, was opened and ransacked.

Two daughters of Mr. Barner returned home from Sunday-school while their brother had gone to notify the neighbors, and finding things upside down, one remarked to the other, that the brother doubtless had endeavored to make them believe that there were burglars about. They tried to open the stair-door to go upstairs, but the door was bolted and locked. They then went to milk, and did not know that there had actually been robbers in the house until our posse told them. The robbers doubtless saw us coming, and made their escape into a cornfield near by, and thence to the woods. It appears they wanted money, but in their hurry they had thrown a small amount out on the floor, but it was wrapped up so that they did not recognize it. I don't know that it would be out of place to add just here that our inoffensive neighbor, Mr. Michael G. Long, residing on a farm one mile west of this place, has been terribly annoyed with that might be properly termed sneak-thieves, of the most ignorant and cowardly kind. Last fall he noticed that some of his fine fowls had left very suddenly on several occasions, and at another time some wheat had been taken away very mysteriously. It appears that one or two of his neighbors had had and other things stolen. Mr. Long had business last spring that required him to be away from home three days and nights. The person who attacked the live stock and horses, and was not there after night during the absence of Long, but he noticed that corn was being taken every night; that some person or persons had got in at the top of the crib, the door of which was locked, and had taken probably several bushels of corn ears. He reported the fact to Mr. Long, on his return. The same week about a quarter of a barrel of fish was taken out of the cellar, and the door shut up as before. This aroused Long. He determined to keep up a watch. The second night thereafter, when the family had retired and blown the light, a young pup gave the alarm that there were some unwelcome visitors about. Mr. L. looked out of the window and saw two persons about entering the barn. He asked them what they wanted. They wheeled and ran away up the lane. Another night, shortly after, Mr. Long was awakened by the pup, and looked out just in time to see a man run away from the cellar door, (which was locked this time); he had worked considerably at the lock to get it open. The cowardly villain ran up through the orchard like a sheep-thief. When those sounders read this article they will understand that we mean what we say when we tell them that we are prepared to give them a warm reception. This thieving must be stopped. We intend to keep up a close watch for the scoundrels. We are willing to say nothing more about the corn, wheat, fish or poultry, but if we are fortunate enough to trap them, or see them again in mischief, we will positively punish them to the full extent of the law, or one or both will go up that hill limping, or get a bullet hole put through the back of their shirts.

PREPARING FOR THE CENTENNIAL.

Among the live things done by Philadelphia towards rendering the Centennial a success is the enlargement of the St. Cloud Hotel on Arch street above Seventh. This popular house has always been a favorite with visitors from this part of the State, and we may say with sensible people generally, and the recent addition of some thirty new rooms, all beautifully furnished, together with a new Ladies' Parlor on the first floor, will make the St. Cloud more attractive than ever. It has a first-class elevator, and the table and accommodations throughout are not surpassed anywhere, while the charges are but three dollars per day. The positions of Room clerk and Cashier, are respectively and admirably filled by Mr. Harry Dennison and Mr. J. T. Skiles.

Pursuant to call the Committee on Permanent Certificate met in the Superintendent's office, Millintown, on Saturday, July 31, 1875, and on motion adjourned to meet for the purpose of examining applicants, on Thursday, August 26th, at 2 o'clock sharp. HOLMES DRYNGER, Secretary.
