On Tues—There will be an Auction Sale of Store Goods at A. J. Hertzler's Cash Store, R. R. Avenue, Patterson, Pa., consisting of Dry Goods, Notions, Boots and Shoes, &c., on Saturday, August 21, 1875, afternoon and evening.

A few days ago, odd pieces of stones, as they seemed to be at first sight, but which afterwards proved under examination to be pieces of Plaster of Paris with openings in the shape of a hole, were found in the corner of the Bryson house that now belongs to Mr. Geo. Smith, and which he is repairing.

Mr. Smith himself was engaged at work at the corner when the "quaker things" were found. Their finding was soon noted, and speedily spread along Main street, among the people. A wise and imaginative man thought they were Indian relics, another conjectured that they were of Celtic origin, and so the conjectures of the parties ran far and wide over two continents, until one of the party broke a piece off one of the curiosities, and discovered that it was made of Plaster of Paris, and that broke the chain that until then influenced all who then, for it immediately became clear to all that they were figural moulds and not relics of some distant race of people.

Mr. Hummel, to demonstrate to the entire satisfaction of all, took a piece into his shop, and there melted lead and poured it into one; the result was the figure of a sheep and lamb. There was a cucumber mould, one for a radish, one for an apple, a pear and others.

On scientific subjects there is certainly no better authority in this country than the Scientific American. The following hints from it should therefore receive some attention: "If mosquitoes or other bloodsuckers infest our sleeping rooms at night, we uncork a bottle of the oil of pennyroyal, and these insects leave in great haste, nor will they return so long as the air in the room is loaded with the fumes of that aromatic herb. If rats enter the cellar, a little powdered potato, thrown into their holes, or mixed with meal and scattered in their runways, never fails to drive them away. Cayenne pepper will keep the buttery and store-room free from ants and cockroaches. If a mouse makes entrance into any part of your dwelling saturate a rag with cayenne in solution, and stuff it into the hole, which can then be repaired with either wood or mortar. No rat or mouse will eat the rag for the purpose of opening communication with a depot of supplies."

We were among the crowd of curious observers of two sets of shields for villainous deprecators, in the Express car attached to the Sunday evening Atlantic train. They were the masks and breastplates used by the men who attempted to rob the Express car on the Vaudaia railroad, in Illinois, on the 8th of July last. They were of heavy steel plate, and so constructed as to make them impervious to the force of any bullet, as the test marks which they bore proved. The villains who wore them were evidently prepared to face danger, as no provision had been made for defence from an attack in the rear; and having successfully drawn the fire of the express messenger, their way was expected to be clear to the covered body. These articles were evidently manufactured in order, and we believe bore the mark of the maker; so that the object in taking them to New York may mean something far more significant than the retention of them as relics of a desperate adventure. A large number of persons inspected the outside looking things—far more formidable as a defensive shield than helmet or armor of crusaders of old—on the Tribune.

Just One More Kiss.

Just one more kiss, my darling, Before I say, "Adieu!" Just one more kiss, I pray you, To seal my love to you.

Let me clasp you hand more closely, That had so soft and white; Let me see one smile of promise Before I say "Good night!"

Let me see those eyes so beautiful, Once more upon me rest; Let me hear one word of comfort From the lips I oft have blest.

Oh, how am I to leave thee, More dear to me than life; How can I be without thee In the world's broad field of strife!

I leave thee, yes, I have thee, I leave thee in God's care; May thy guardian angel keep thee, When I no more am here.

Then one more kiss, my darling, Before we must part; Just one more kiss, I pray you, And with it take my heart.

Mr. Schweitzer—Haying and wheat harvest are over, and the oats are nearly all gathered in, in this neighborhood.

Corn will be reasonably good if frosts do not come too early. Potatoes are very promising. There is a larger acreage of potatoes out this season in this section than has been for many years.

It seems everybody thought he would plant a good many, as his neighbor's were likely to be destroyed by the bugs; then he could sell his at a good price, but now all are seemingly doing well.

The second brood of bugs are just now making their appearance, but the potatoes are so far matured that the bugs are not likely to do them much injury.

Mr. John Gooding, of Susquehanna township, owns a horse that was 20 years old last spring, and is yet doing nearly his full share of work on the farm.

A short time ago Joel Dressler lost a fine heifer, which was found dead in the woods, near the residence of Geo. Marks, having been stabbed in the belly with a knife, so that the intestines were protruding. Any animal who will do such an act is a fit subject for the hot place we read about. Who did the deed is not fully known, but it may leak out yet.

Politics is at a low ebb, notwithstanding the consternation Democratic journals are endeavoring to create with the cry of "Treasury rings" and "Treasury robberies." The only effect the cry produces, is a reflection, on the part of the tax-payers, on the old Democratic management of the State finances.

If, during Republican management, when there is no State tax on real estate, and the State being reduced over a million of dollars annually, there is still room for such heavy Treasury robberies, the tax-payers are anxious to know, when we had Democratic management, a three-mill State tax on every dollar's worth of land, and the State debt increasing a million or so every year, how enormous the "Treasury robberies" must then have been.

Will those so familiar with the State finances give some light on the subject? Yours, &c., AMICUS.

CANDIDATES' CARDS.

CARD FROM THOS. MORROW, Esq., EAST WATERFORD, Aug. 11, 1875.

B. F. Schweitzer: Dear Sir, Permit me to file some objections previous to accepting the nomination for County Commissioner.

I would require the removal of the County Seat, either to McCoysville or Eastwaterford, including the new Court House.

I consider I have been on the track long enough, suffering glorious defeats for non-paying offices, for the sake of the party.

Did I notice a number of good men's names announced for the office, having age on their side, which, according to the course of nature, ought to win, and will do better than I, perhaps, on a long haul.

With my sincere desire for the success of the party to render the most good to the most people, which I sincerely hope and pray, I am one of that chosen number.

I remain very respectfully, T. MORROW.

COUNTY TREASURER. We are authorized to announce the name of H. A. STAMBUCH, of Millintown, as a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to Republican rules.

We are further authorized to state that in the event of his election to that office by the people of Juniata, that not one dollar of the county money will be used for his own personal benefit, or the benefit of any one else, but shall be applied to its legitimate use and purpose.

JURY COMMISSIONER. We are authorized to announce the name of DAVID CENNINGER, of Millford township, as a candidate for Jury Commissioner, subject to the rules of the Republican party.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY. We are authorized to announce the name of LOUIS E. ATKINSON, Esq., of Millintown, as a candidate for District Attorney, subject to Republican rules.

COMMISSIONER. Editor Sentinel and Republican: Please announce the name of MICHAEL COLLENS, Esq., of Van Wert, as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner. Mr. Colrens is one of our best working Republicans in the county, and one of our best citizens.

COMMISSIONER. Editor Sentinel and Republican: Allow me to announce the name of THOMAS W. SMITH, Esq., as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, at the Republican primary election. Mr. Smith is one of our best citizens, is well known throughout the county, and his intelligence, energy, integrity and business qualifications commend him for that position.

COMMISSIONER. Editor Sentinel and Republican: Please announce to the Republicans of Juniata county, RICHARD DOLY, of Deale township, as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the result of the Primary Election.

COMMISSIONER. Mr. Doyle is a veteran in the Republican ranks, and, if nominated, will fight as veterans do.

COMMISSIONER. Mr. Editor: I would announce, through the columns of the Sentinel and Republican, to the Republicans of Juniata county, WILLIAM GROSSBAUER, of Turbett township, as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner.

COMMISSIONER. Mr. Grossinger is a rising young man, and is abundantly qualified in every way to discharge the duties of the office.

Medical.

Ayer's Hair Vigor.

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color. A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair.

It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth.

Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced.

Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness.

The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit, but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.
