Follow Up the Plough.

BY WILL S. HATS.

Hard times are now upon us, And the people are in devit; The country's full of trouble, And the worst is coming yet. 'Tis not without its causes, And we'll plainly tell you now, The other the treat he only way to stop it Is to follow up the plough.

CHORTS-Then follow up the plough, boys, Follow up the plough ; If you would build the country up, Just follow up the plough. Then tollow up the plough, boys, Follow up the plough ; If you would build the country up, Just follow up the plough.

Fill up your fields and prairies, With a crop that's "good as gold." And mine your hills and valleys wide, For iron, salt and coal. The earth is the producer, And we can tell you how To make a princely fortune-'Tis follow up the plough.

There are too many people Who from their duty shirk. Who'd rather make a fortane By some other means than work. The man who plants potatoes, Corn, wheat or cotton, now, Is king among the "moneyed men," He follows up the plough.
