

B. F. SOHWEIER,

VOL. XXIX.

boro Mass.

made of hot Scotch.

in the 2d of November.

NEWS IN BRIEF

-Silver has been discovered at Attle-

-The most fashionable nightcaps are

-There will be eleven State elections

NO. 44.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., NOVEMBER 3, 1875.

THREE GYPSIES

BY WILLIAM HENRY GOODTEAR. From the German of "Lenau."

I saw three Gypsies on the heath. My carriage rolled along : One played the violin And sang a flery song.

One, with a pipe in hand, Looked through the smoke As though all in the land None better luck bespoke

One slept beside the tree His harp did hang upon. To breathe a wind-swept melody His heart a dream had wou.

Rags were the clothes they wore ; Rags they had always worn,

But in their souls they bore For fate a heartfelt scorn Three-fold they taught me all,

When life's day turns to night-To fiddle, smoke and sleep away, With three-fold scorn its spite.

Long toward the Gypsies turned. 1 watched in traveling on : The Gypsies brown in faces burned. The locks burned black with sun gathering twilight the lurid blue flames that burst from the top of the tall chim-neighboring windows and house-tops. The scene within the foundry was weird and almost awful. The swarthy forms of the workmen, partly lighted by the yellow glare, moved about like and ponderous chains crossing, half black, half golden, under the glowing under Mt. Ætma.

The Bell of St. John's.

 bish fell at his feet. He had barely by the musical appeals of a celebrated Parisian amateur planiste, who gave a sweird and almost awful. The swarthy by the yellow glare, moved about like and ponderous chains crossing, half black, half golden, under the glowing under Mt. Ætma.
 bish fell at his feet. He had barely by the wellow diagent to get out of the way and save oncert at the hotel Geneve, in Geneva, infor tour special entertainment, and the swarthy forms of the workmen, partly lighted is flesh at a hundred points. The rest, and house tops. bish fell at his feet. He had barely particular to the way and save concert at the hotel Geneve, in Geneva, infor tour special entertainment, and the swarthy for them. The joints most affected may have for support to come a lady in the same for our special entertainment, and the swarth and been swallowed up for-ter. By seven o'clock comparative quiet im the verywhere. The engines in the sever of the same the town special form courter of the same stime for supper. All the men threw bish fell at his feet. He had barely swarthy for them. Treeollect once a lady in the same to concert at the hotel Geneve, in Geneva, informs of the workmen, partly lighted is flesh at a hundred points. The rest, is all a horrible, unintellighted dream, the earth and been swallowed up for-ter. By seven o'clock comparative quiet im casendes, into this fairy vale of Switzerland, and it was with some of ther majority loints with come time for supper. All the men threw
 It was as if he had suddenly sunk into the every where. The engines of the workmen, partly lighted from che

The town clock struck six. It was the men three time for supper. All the men three time for supper. All the men three time structure to the last end structure tot end structure to the last end structu their outer clothing. 'Be back in half an hour sharp!' cried with smoke, stood in silent groups the forge-master. 'We shall make the about the remains of the furnace. It lujah in that, and it may well begin here. Long may this bell praise God! He saved it in the ruins of the furnace with his eyes on the furnace, absorbed and intent Suddenly something startled him. There was a slight noise, and a burning crack appeared near the top of the fur-ing brick fell out and rolled to the ground at his feet! The lad opened his mouth to shriek, by one wise thought in the ruins of a human brain. Our furnace is rebuilt, and behold, this dear boy has his reason again! The bell and the boy shall glorify Gol together!' 'Amen !' murmured all the listeners.

ground at his feet ! The lad opened his mouth to shriek, but so terrified was he that the sounds stuck in his throat, as if he had been in a fit of nightmare.

dious burden, the boy was lifted and carried after it, and both went out into A thin rea stream followed the fallen brick, and trickled down the furnace the sunny day together, the rough men standing in the doorways, waving their side like running lava. Then came another alarming noise, and a thin gap hands. half-way down the masonry let out Little "Inventor" afterward well half-way down the masonry let out more of the hissing metal. Where was George? Was the un-faithful fellow still hunting for his the hunting with whose matchless richness of tone his

No. 4. PARIS, August 17th, 1875.

The Paris papers have followed the example of the journals of Florence and Venice, and announced us as a "caravan" and "convoi" taking the

The "fool" had done a deed worthy general on a field of battle. "caravan" and "convoi" taking the Was it too late? Every moment new city by storm. We are regarded by one desperate thrust with the sharp point up the terrible tunnel—a few quick, prying strokes! Stand back, now! The confining clay fell away, and the yellow-white flood spurted out with re-sistless force. It leaped into the clay-lined troughs, and hissed its way, flam-ing down to the mouth of the ball.

ing, down to the mouth of the bell-

Hints About Rheumatism.

 Hints About Rheamatism.
 Hospitality.
 no object in doing so in this country. A Tottes Column.

 A painful disorder, writes an English physician, very common in this country, which attacks principally the larger, joints—the shoulders, knees, elbows, ite.—is theumatism. It may be chronic or acute. It seems to arise from the imfammatory action induced by exposure to damp and cold upon a certain conditioned to be wree asked to define to turn away wholly from the routine of our daily life to make our guests wellof our daily life to make course. The advantarize to a outer out down the world becanuse i

Hospitality.

In whatever form it occurs, the same or similar remedies are useful in its cure or few "are worthy to sit at one's table." alleviation, though applied in different cases, modified by the circumstances and symptoms most urgent. Acute, com-monly called rheumatic fever some-times attacks a person so suddenly that the gross to hed without pain and wakes times attacks a person so suddenly that What could he do⁵ He did what per-have dared to do. Rushing to the months of the furnace, he seized the long iron of dhat stod near, and tapped the vent. One desperate thrust with the sharp point up the terrible tunnel—a few quick, prying strokes! Stand back, now! The confining clay fell away, and the ness, headache, then succeed shivering, alternating with flushes of heat, quick-him or her. If I do, it always offends. Therefore I am obliged to send word sense of fatigue; afterward is feit a sense of fatigue; afterward is feit a cannot move or bear the slightest touch. sacrifice on your part of time, or at The source of the upper stones toppled over, some of the upper stones toppled over, some as a sort of Rottschild association, and appeals for every charity, are made to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under the source of the upper stone to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under the source of the upper stone of the upper stone to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under the source of the upper stone of the upper stone of the upper stone of the upper stone to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under to the refunding of money boxes were ratted under the source of the upper stone o After a fortnight the fever subsides, and what postponement of imperative duties.

had quenched the flames that had caught the building, and the men, blackened with smoke, stood in silent groups about the remains of the furnace. It had fallen to pieces, and nothing was with some difference in the paintful joints with ender the building, and the men, blackened in this regard has always elicited my ad-miration. They take up a newspaper or a book, and read, in each other's pres-much to say that the forty and extran-gance of Imperialism plunged that coun-try into misfortunes from which the the first of the working classes extricated read. Pretty soon I felt my father

no object in doing so in this country. A

her. There are no such hoards in Eng-hand. If we had an indemnity to pay, "What is the matter, Louie ?" he next year.

ness of puise, hot skin, thirst and a sense of fatigue; afterward is feit a gnawing pain in one or more of the gnawing pain in one or more of the graves without any wound to his or her is descriptive, for "Salig" is, in all probability, derived from "Selig"— is descriptive, for "Salig" is, in all probability, derived from "Selig"— is descriptive, for "Balige Fraulien." Their very name is descriptive, for "Salig" is, in all probability, derived from "Selig"— is descriptive, for "Balige Fraulien." Their very name is descriptive, for "Salig" is, in all probability, derived from "Selig"— is descriptive, for "Balige Fraulien." Their very name is descriptive, for "Salig" is, in all probability, derived from "Selig"— is descriptive, for "Balige Fraulien." Their very name is descriptive, for "Salig" is, in all probability, derived from "Selig"— is descriptive, for "Balige Fraulien." Their very name is descriptive, for "Salig" is, in all probability, derived from "Selig"— is descriptive, for "Balige Fraulien." Is descriptive, for "Salig" is descriptive, for " and blue eyes beaming with sweetness. Their sovereign is the beneficent and gracious goddess Hulda, the especial patroness of the flax culture, which is most cultivated. There have always been many superstitions connected with flax. It is supposed that it will only flower at the time of day at which it was originally sown. He who sows it is must first seat himself thrice on the sack, turning to the east. Stolen seeds i mingled with the rest cause the crop to thrive. Flax, when in bloom, acts as a talisman against witcheraft, and sorcery stalks. When the threads are spin or woven into shirts under certain incanta-to woven into shirts under certain incanta-to woven into shirts under certain incanta-to woven into shirts under certain incanta-tal stalks. When the threads are spun or woren into shirts under certain incanta-tions, the wearer is secure from ac-cidents or wounds. It was Hulda who first taught mortals the art of growing flax, or spinning, and of weaving it. Her habitation is in the caves of the mountains; there she dwells with ner maidens and their attendant dwarfs, in splendid palaces and grottoes, the walls maidens and their attendant dwarfs, in soleodid palaces and grottoes, the walls of which sparkle with inlaid gold and jewels, while the domed roof is of transparent crystal. Moreover, there are beautiful gardens, leafy woods and even verdant meadows, on which feed chamois—the especial favorites of the Salige Fraulien. However, the Salige Fraulien did not always remain in sepearance, and its chief feature was an unselish benevolence. Legendsof their numerous good deeds abound in the Ober Inn Thal, the Outz Thal, and the Vinschgan, which are the poorest dis-

-A Potter Co. (Pa.) bee-tree has yielded 150 pounds of honey. -The next World's Fair after the Centennial will be held at Rome. -The New Jersey cranberry-growers report a large falling off in this season's crop. -Rumor has it that A. T. Stewart will build a grand hotel in Washington

TOUTHS COLUMN.

the boarding-house business cowhide delinquent boarders.

-The amount of sand paper annually produced in the United States is estimated at 200,000 reams.

-The tailors of St. Louis have formed base ball club. Eighty-one of them will constitute the first nine.

-Two couples were recently married in an Iowa cornfield. Their first son should be named Kernel Cobb.

-The total amount paid by New York churches for their choirs is not less than half a million dollars a year.

-Another distinguished artist is on oute for America. The planist Bulow

-The stamp duty on patent medi-cines manufactured in Great Britain

the Chicago University, has been elected President of the Indiana State Univer-

-Georgia is drilling a battalion composed of companies in Augusta, Atlanta, Macon and Savannah, for the Centennial.

-Mrs. Lizzle Ehling is a young æronant who recently made an ascent at Harrisburg, Pa., without breaking her neck.

-The Pacific ocean is somewhat deep in places. The greatest depth, as found by the British ship Challenger was five face, 'the bell is cast !' 'Who did this?' asked every excited it ought to be done. Two years before, he had been an in telligent, promising lad. He was the son of a designer connected with the foundry company, and had always been allowed free access to the shops, and to mingle with the men and watch their broke, with its load, and an iron fragment struck him on the head, inflicting said. 'Does he say anything in his delirium ?' a dangerous injury. From this he par-tially recovered, and only partially, for his reason was impaired. But his natially recovered, and only partially, for his reason was impaired. But his na-tural love for machinery and mechanical experiments remained, and as he re-gained his bodily strength, he spent most of his time making small wheels and shafts, and putting together odd contrivances, which he would exhibit

This peculiar trait in the young fel-low gained for him the humorois title of the "Inventor." All the men felt a great kindness for him, even though their manner toward him was occasion-ally harsh and impatient.

deeply moved. Two months later the great bell hung

Such was the person left to help watch Such was the person left to help watch the great blast for the casting of the king bell of the chime of St. John's. Faithfully he kept his place before the furnace, while the man George sat down at a little distance and began to eat his supper. Doubtless the latter intended to keep a general oversight, but he cer-to keep a general oversight, but he certainly made the inventor's eyes do the most of the looking. Whether he felt a fast getting back his strength. His most of the looking. Whether he left a kind of reckless trust in the instinct of his half-witted companion, or indolently concluded that nothing wrong could happen, he was sadly to blame for charging himself so little with the imstory of the casting, and the disaster in the foundry, but it all sounded like a 'wild romance to him. 'I remember nothing that happened,' said, he, shaking his head with a smile. 'It's all new to me, all new and strange portant duty that was before him. Not a word was said by either watcher

A of a word was said by either watcher and only the deep roar of the furnace was heard through the vast foundry. George finished his supper, and saun-tered into one of the tool shops to find his pipe. "Inventor" sat alone before his great blast. The one rational faculty George inished his supper, and said tered into one of the tool shops to find his pipe. "Inventor" sat alone before his great blast. The one rational faculty of his feeble mind enabled him to com-prehend what it meant, and even some-thing of the magnitude of the enterprise that was ripening inside those burning wells. He knew that the formace was thing of the magnitude of the energines in the second seco

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

"Who did this?' asked every excited or years before, he had been an in-int, promising lad. He was the 'a designer connected with the 'ry company, and had always been d free access to the shops, and to with the men and watch their But one day a great lifting-chain with its load, and an iron frag-truck him on the head, inflicting

Does he say anything in his defirium?
'Does he say anything in his defirium?'
whispered the master.
'O, ves, he raves all the time about the big bell mould. 'I hope it will fill—I hope it will fill.'
hope it will fill, 'he says.'
The men exchanged glances. It was indeed true. The idio had cast the great bell of St. John's. Just then the physician came out. 'Perhaps he will recover his reason by this shock and sickness,' he said, 'Such things have hannend.'

shoulder as we rowed over the still dark lake, and the girlish face still and pale, that gleamed under the fire of a boat-that gleamed under the fire of a boat-man's torch, brought to mind the weird funeral scene of Tennyson's heroine foating on the barge by night to her cavernous grave. But, the morning sun that dawned only too soon for some of us, dispelled all the gloomy impres-sions of the night scene, and there were at least thirty of our forty diaries filled out on the page that dated our crossing the Brunig Pass, with stars and emblems the halter .-- J. A., Animal World.

clivity above as, and it semedas if it opaced access the place of dacoby vision was revealed in the server and daceper than the place of dacoby vision was revealed in the server and daceper than the place of dacoby vision was revealed in the server and daceper than the place of dacoby vision was revealed to be framework and the server and daceper than the server and daceper than the place of dacoby vision was revealed to be framework and the server and daceper than the probability of the server and daceper than the server and daceper than the probability is consistent and the server and daceper than the server and date and almost simular per the server and almost simular per the field gate, that support of the chrone of wing the server and daceper of the chrone of wing and the server and gate of the server and the server and gate of the server and due take of this ready coefficiency in the prime of life use first and y continuing them selves; in the prime of life use first and y coefficiency in and y coefficienc

Why Men Smoke.

The princip pass, with stars and employ the interval of a pass with stars and employ the interval of a pass with stars and employ the interval of a pass with the pass with the pass with the pass with the interval churches in New York costs nearly $49,400. Trinity Church leads with an annual expenditure of $15,000. In five Romaa Catholic churches in that city the annual outlay for music is $10,500.

Growth of Man.

was always obliged to enter it towards asket in hand, and so lure it towards Improvidence of English Workmen judgment and bear witness against us! -Julius Here.