The barn on the farm of Dr. Henry Orally, in West township, Huntingdon county, was destroyed by fire on Friday night a week. A quantity of grain and hay were consumed in it.

The East and West put it thus, by the New York World announcing that "Democracy is everywhere holding its own," and the Chicago Inter-Ocean answering, "Yes, no doubt, sink-fall of Bourbon, as usual."

The Harrisburg Trotting Park stalls were fired on Sunday evening and entirely consumed. Nine horses were burned to death, four of which, the Telegraph says, belonged to D. P. Sulouff. There was no insurance.

"Father, Bring Home Your Money Tonight," a new temperance song and chorus. Words by Mrs. M. A. Kilder. Music by Wm. F. Sherwin. Price 30 cents, mailed. Horace Waters & Sons, Publishers, 481 Broadway, New York.

An exchange says: Small-pox prevails in Cumberland, Md., to such an extent that it has been decided to allow no public assemblies until the pestilence abates. No stilt building can be erected for a hospital, and the erection of tents in which the afflicted ones can be cared for, has been recommended.

Huntingdon Presbytery has appointed committees throughout its district to arrange for a series of meetings in the congregations within its jurisdiction, to "put the house in order" for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit which the general spirit of the people indicate is to take place this winter in this county.

The Third Annual Presbyterian Sabbath School Convention, under the direction of the Committee of the Presbytery of Huntingdon, will be held at McVeytown, December 7th and 8th, 1875. Opening services at 11 A. M. of Tuesday, Dec. 7th. The annual sermon will be preached at 2:30 P. M., by Rev. W. J. Chichester, of the Second Presbyterian Church of Altoona. The Convention will close Wednesday, at 9 P. M.

The War Department of the General Government has arranged to send the weather reports of the Department to all of the Post Offices that receive a daily mail. Post Master Books in Mifflin and Messrs. Brown & Wilson in Patterson, put accurate weather reports on the Government bulletin board in their respective offices. People now go to the Post Office not only to get their letters and papers, but to consult on the weather, and receive information in regard thereto.

An exchange tells this blood-chilling accident: On Monday, 25th ult., Jas. Phillips, of Tobochna township, Luzerne county, went gunning for deer. His dog started up a large buck and he followed. He saw an unusual movement in a clump of bushes ahead of him, scanned the agitation closely and concluded the deer had taken refuge there. He fired, and going to ascertain the result of his shot, he found a little boy nine years old riddled with gunshot, covered with blood and dead. Besides the little fellow lay a basket half filled with beech nuts which he had been gathering. The child was an orphan and lived with a family named Sheibel.

THE editor of the Detroit Sun catches it from a lady for writing about the pull-back dress. This is the way she scolds him: "You newspaper men have a good deal to say lately about the pull-back dress worn by ladies of fashion, and I think it comes with a very bad grace from you, too, for I never saw a pair of pantaloons in my life that didn't have a pull-back to them in the shape of a strap and buckle behind. Better cut off your own pull-backs before you say anything about ours."

The New York Graphic tells in verse, how the pull-back dress is to be rejected at the door of Paradise:

A little Pull-back sought one day The gates of Paradise;

St. Peter wiped his spectacles And rubbed his ancient eyes.

And through of female angels came With curious gaze the while,

Intent, as ladies always are, To see the latest style.

The Saint put on his glasses then— An observation took:

"What! What!?" he said, "this travesty The laws of 'modesty' look!"

"Tied back in front! Fillet up behind! 'Twill never do, I fear!"

The thing is too ridiculous— You cannot enter here."

What did she do? My curious friend, She got behind a tree;

And in a jiffy she was dressed, As angels ought to be.

St. Peter kissed her then, and said, "Pass in, my little dear;

But mind, you mustn't introduce Such naughty fashions here."

"At a special meeting of the grand lodge of Knights of Pythias of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, to consider what public demonstration shall be made by the Order in honor of the Centennial year, it was decided, 1st, that there shall be a parade of the members of the Order during the 4th week of August, 1876; 2d, that there shall be a public reception held by the Supreme Lodge in the Academy of Music or other hall; that a medal shall be struck in commemoration of the event; and 4th, that a banquet, ball or festival shall be held in honor of the Supreme Lodge."

SHERIFF LASHLEY, of Bedford county, it is said, has destroyed eighteen or twenty fish baskets in the Juniata river within the past two weeks.

He had notices served on him of the existence of four, but when he took up the war path he found the above number. Somebody will yet get into difficulty on the fish question.

The writer of this paragraph should be handed over to the tender mercies of the ladies for punishment:

A dishwashing machine is the latest invention. They will continue to invent washers, wringers, ironers, sewing machines and one thing and another till women will not be worth fifteen cents a dozen.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

In accordance with the act of Assembly of April 9, 1867, I hereby call upon and invite the teachers of the Common Schools and other institutions of learning in Juniata county to assemble together in the Court House, at Mifflintown, Monday, Nov. 29, 1875, at 1 P. M., and organize themselves into a Teachers' Institute, to be devoted to the improvement of teachers in the science and art of education, to continue in session at least five days. All friends of education are respectfully invited to attend and participate.

JOHN M. GARMAN, Co. Supt. Com. Schools.

As Instructors and Lecturers, Prof. A. N. Raub, of Lock Haven, Dr. J. H. Shumaker, of Chambersburg, and Mrs. Anna Randall Diehl, of New York, will be present. Prof. J. H. Shumaker will lecture—subject—"The Earth and Man." Mrs. Diehl will lecture on "What I Saw in Europe." Among subjects for discussion there will be, "Committing Rules before they are Understood," "Confining Study to School Hours," "Paying Teachers According to Certificate," "Co-Education of Sexes," "Should the School Taxes be Collected, and Expenditures of Schools be paid by the State?" Wednesday, December 1st, will be Directors' day. Directors will be addressed by Dr. P. L. Greenleaf, on the "Functions and Duties of School Directors." The Doctor will be followed by S. M. Shelley, on the question, "Should Directors be Paid for their Services?" There should be a general turnout of Directors to participate in the discussion of this question.

THE GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN MISERY.

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope. Price six cents.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Spasmodic, or Spasmodic Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incurability, resulting from Self-Abuse, etc.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

THE WEEKLY PRESS, FOR 1876.

The special leading features of the WEEKLY PRESS, in which it claims pre-eminence, are its CORRESPONDENCE, AGRICULTURAL PAGE, and LITERARY STANDING.

ORIGINAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE PRESS is unequalled either in character, quality, or amount, and will constitute a special feature for 1876. Hon. John W. Forney's letters from Europe, which have grown so popular and attractive, will be regularly continued. Special European tours have been provided for. In this country the correspondence includes regular writers from Chicago, California, Colorado, New Mexico, and elsewhere. Special tours over the country have also been arranged, as well as casual correspondence from China and Japan.

AGRICULTURAL PAGE. This is a marked specialty. Its management is in the hands of the able and experienced Mr. Mehan, whose reputation throughout the world as a practical agriculturist is well known. Mr. Mehan's high scientific position in Europe and the United States is a matter of common fame, and his flourishing farm and nursery near this city are the best evidences of his practical fitness for his important position.

LITERARY CHARACTER. In its literary character the WEEKLY PRESS has always ranked prominent among the journals of Pennsylvania. The name of Dr. H. Shelton Mackenzie, not to mention that of the late Dr. J. M. McKim, contribute to its pages, is alone sufficient guarantee of its position and standing.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY PRESS. One copy, one year, including pre-paid postage, $2.00. Five copies, including pre-paid postage, $9.50. Ten copies, including pre-paid postage, $16.00. Twenty copies, including pre-paid postage, $29.00. Fifty copies, including pre-paid postage, $60.00. Ten copies, to one address, including pre-paid postage, $15.00. Twenty copies, to one address, including pre-paid postage, $27.00. Fifty copies, to one address, including pre-paid postage, $55.00. One hundred copies, to one address, including pre-paid postage, $110.00. To the greatest number of Clubs of Ten or more, an extra copy will be given.

All orders should be addressed to JOHN W. FORNEY, Editor and Proprietor, S. W. Cor. 7th and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.
