LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The Spring election is coming on apace, and candidates are already talked of. Harry Wharton, of Huntingdon, failed to get the amount as far as heard from—$125,000.

The services began in the Lutheran church at the opening of the Week of Prayer have been continued this week.

Some nights ago the store-room of John Motzer, in Mexico, was entered and robbed of several hundred dollars' worth of goods.

Between Monday morning and Tuesday morning the temperature changed from that of a thawing to that of a freezing point that forced ice 1 1/2 inches thick.

Philadelphians Markets.—Wheat, Penn'a., $1.20; Rye, 88c; Corn, 60c; Oats, 42c; Beef, 14c; Pork, 16c; Hogs, 16c; Sheep, 5c per pound.

The attendance on the services held in the Presbyterian and Lutheran churches last week were larger than in usually the case during the Week of Prayer.

There was a fire west of this place on Tuesday evening. From the appearance of the light some people conjectured it to be in Millin county, others conjectured it to be in Lackawanna county, this county.

Two men named Williams and Maxwell were arrested in Harrisburg, last week, as the parties who robbed the store of Isadore Schwarz in Newport, Perry county, some time since.

The mild weather last week enabled farmers who desired to do so to plough fields to corn planting. This is not the only latitude in which such mild weather prevailed.

This Huntingdon Journal of last week says: On Monday night of last week some black-hearted scoundrel made an attempt to burn the building occupied by L. B. Kluge, as a photograph gallery, on Allegheny street, between Third and Fourth.

Three prisoners escaped from the county jail on Monday morning of last week, by means of a rope-ladder thrown over the rail by some outside party.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph of the 8th inst., says: We made mention of the fact, a few days ago, that Jeremiah Balsbaugh, residing near Hummelstown, had a horse and wagon stolen while he was attending church, and today we chronicle a similar occurrence as happening to his brother, Christian Balsbaugh.

Mr. B. attended worship in Hummelstown last night, leaving his horse hitched outside the church. While he was thus occupied a thief named Israel Fox drove off with horse and wagon in the direction of Lebanon.

Mr. Balsbaugh telegraphed to Harrisburg and Lebanon, warning the police authorities to be on the lookout. The dispatch arrived at Lebanon shortly after eleven o'clock, and the case was taken in charge by Officer Ringle, who started in search of the stolen property.

Mr. Balsbaugh fully identified his property, and it was sent home, the thief, after having the ball in his arm extracted, was brought to this city to day at noon.

A story is told of a German woman living in Lawrence, Massachusetts, who has given birth to eleven children in four confinements—one, two, three, and at last five at a birth. When Napoleon the First was asked by Madame de Stael, whom he cordially disliked, who was in his estimation, the greatest woman in France, the blunt soldier curtly replied, "She who bears the most children."

FRED G. MILLER, formerly sheriff of Clearfield county, left his home in Clearfield, on Nov. 30, last, for Indiana, Pa., since which time he has not been heard of. He is thought to be laboring under mental derangement. Any information concerning his whereabouts communicated to D. W. Moore, Esq., Clearfield, will be duly appreciated by his friends.

A Kentucky Love Letter. [From the Courier-Journal.] The following is a verbatim et literatim copy of an important document which forms a portion of the records of a suit now pending in one of the courts of this city.

THE Perry County Advocate says: On Wednesday night of last week the granary of Mr. William Lupfer, living just outside the limits of Bloomfield, was visited, the granary door forced open and several bushels of wheat stolen.

On Monday of last week Mr. Andrew Shreffler, of Jackson township, went into his stable, and throwing a saddle on a horse, frightened the animal, which kicked Mr. Shreffler in the abdomen with both hind feet.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

IS IT YOU? Who said that you would like to get such Clothing as City People wear, rather than the wholesale goods commonly sold? This will tell you how to do it.

You Can Save Enough TO PAY FOR THE TRIP In buying a Suit at Oak Hall from anywhere in this County to the City of Philadelphia, and have a day of eight-night-sleeping. Wanamaker & Brown stand by this statement, and so will you after one trial.

Character of the Goods we sell! For Men & Boys. NO one is so well as we manufacture our goods, some of them in our own building. They are well cut, well made, and finished. They can be relied upon. No one else in the city manufactures as many styles as we do.

Exactly where the Store is. This is important indeed, because unscrupulous people having stores in Philadelphia, counterfeiting our signs, emblems, advertisements, and so on, are everywhere. There is but one Oak Hall in Philadelphia, it is a large building, the size of four ordinary stores, and is in the South-west corner of SIXTH and SIXTH and Market Streets.

Those who cannot come to the City. We send patterns of material and prices by mail when requested. Persons who have made-up goods sent by Express, by sending us the express bill, and a description of the goods, and the price of the goods, we will return the money and pay the express bill to Philadelphia. You should be sure to see our name on the building and over the door.
