B. F. SCHWEIER,

AN OLD BOUQUET.

IN CRABLES STUART WELLES.

Though the flowers wither, love,

Other flowers as fair

To adorn thy hair !

To adorn thy bosom, love

Never Lily yet hath blown

With a daintier flush !

irow upon the heather, love,

Than whose modest blush

Though the flowers wither, love,

We will gather fresher flowers, To adorn thy pride ;

not when chilling winter, love

When their scent has died

Summer flowers shall doom.

Then shalt bloom yet daintily-

For thy lover bloom ! Though the flowers wither, love.

Fragrant as thou art inshing as a fresh rose, love,

In the morning light,

Riessoming at night

Building hopes arise,

With thy gentle art,

For thee, in my beart !

May.

Though the flowers wither, love

Whispering that a Spring of Love

Shall delight thine even-

Hend thy fond eyes nearer, then,

and rare flowers of love shall bloom

Tis Will That Wins.

es of a beautiful lake

row night.'

they were obliged to."

light over the rippling waters is that sunny spring welcomes life seemed to vie with each

There was a sound of said the good-

of youthful voices came echoing the chorus of nature's oars out upon the lake, and r notes of a flute accompanied back across the water to the red near by, and who stood lisag to the music and smiling at the of merry laughter borne back

It's a happy time they're having out amusements crime would disapfold ratio, and remorse of conscience would cease to in the footsteps of pleasure. The sound of that music brings happiad enjoyment to every one who

But in this the farmer was mistaken.

wife."

wayward breezes.

stalwart farmer and his wife contented tiller of the soil. d why shouldn't they? All this is and innocent. If all the youth of broad land could be supplied with by the gentle breezes of The notes of a distant

ISADORE ROGERS.

Pure as waxen cereus,

Listlessly depart. Then shalt bloom, thyself a flower,

VOL. XXX.

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., JUNE 21, 1876.

Mocha or Java, or possibly Maracaibo. By far the greatest part of the coffee used in the United States is Brazilian more coffee than all the rest of the world put together. There are marked Areance in the appearance of some of tuese coffees, as well as considerable difference in flavor. Taking three of the best known kind, for example, Rio, Mocha, and Java, we notice that the grains of Java, we notice that the grains of Java are larger than either of the others, and of a slight yellowish brown color. Rio coffee has larger grains than Mocha, and the color is usu-ally considerably darker and somewhat more inclined to greenish. In flavor Java is much milder than either of the others, and Mocha is richer and spicier than Rio, while Rio is the strongest of the three, and indeed, is perhaps the strongest of all coffees. It is true of all coffees that the fewer broken and discolored grains in it the better the coffee, and no cup of coffee can be really excellent unless all imperfect grains are removed before the coffee is

The best coffee here obtainable is an equal mixture of Java and what is called Mocha. As the grains of one are much larger than that of the other they should be reasted separately, but ground to scenes together.

Juniata Sentinel And Republican.

NO. 25.

NEWS IN BRIEF

-Baltimore has seventy-six Metho dist churches.

-An excellent quality of tea is being grown in Jasper county Texas.

Florida manages to squeeze $240,000
 year from her sponge interest.
 A catfish weighing one hundred and seventy pounds was caught at Alton, Ill., a few days ago.

-The Congregational Church at Rindge, N. H., has had but two pasto-ral changes in 102 years.

-Parton has abandoned Massachu-

-The pistol with which Aaron Burr

-There are now seven hundred and fifty convicts in the Massachusetts State Prison, the largest number ever in that institution at one time.

-By fascinating arts known only to

-The Chinamen of Gold Hill, Nevada,

-The Herald of New York says that their days for knowing how large is the world they live in and how small is their part of it." -The Centennial exhibition is not

-If Colorado should be admitted to -Jennie June has had a glance at the Exposition, and says, in a letter to The Baltimore American: "I am modest

-Miss Marian Stockton, of New Jersey, has taken the first prize of $500. offered by the Baltimore Sun, for the best American story, against 206 com-there was nothing for them to do. I should like to put wall-paper which im-itates the choicest woods and veining itates the choicest woods and veining forty-four of those in San Fran

-The American Bible Society pub-lished last year 850,470 copies of the Bible, which makes the total number issued by the society since its establish ment 33,125,766.

-Some San Francisco people prop improvement. I cannot do it. I have the audience scorned all restraint, but improvement. I cannot do it. I hard do not approve, and I will persevere." And the audience scorned all restraint, but found went in a wild deafening applass to be confessed that thoughts of the building to its founds. The building to its founds and while persevere." All the abevy of happy maidean where the abeve and a mande had while persevere." All the sense that shook the building to its founds applaced to be the trace all the traces of the first principles.

The terbert Allen slights use for this the sense of the entertainment and its sense to be more and the sense of the first principles.
The terbert Allen slights use for this to some to so noble as I thought the way in the traces of team. And Amanda had by alter tertained the is to so noble as I thought the way in the traces of the first principles.
What does this mean, girl? is to mend them.
"What does this mean, girl? is to mean the sense of our own, surrounded by a pasket of half-worn stockings of the first principles." The trace of the first principles of the first principles of the first principles. The theory of complementary colors. All the principles and result of them, singing like a whole foot of righting likes. What are you here the theory of our own surrounded by a paysent is own tersens. That he had hear.
"The terlest society is that my consertant the books and the terde will be the theory of our own surrounded by the surgery independents is based to be the sense of our own, surrounded by the situation of the subject would not complementary colors. The principle colors, roduced by the mixture of the sense of the first situation of the subject would not complementary colors. All the local the providing for you, and when you are seen in the rainbook, by the subject would not complementary colors. All the subject would not complementary colors, roduced the sense of the first be complementary colors. All the subject would not complementary colors. All the subject would not complementary colores

At first it was held by many that pe-troleum was the result of distillation from the bituminohs coils, which were found in its vicinity, and this belief was strengthened by the fact that some of the very bituminous coals, such as Can-nel and Boghead coal, afforded large quantities of similar oils on being dis-tilled; but, although this is very prob-ably the source of a small amount of oil, yet the larger part of it is now be-lieved to derive, its origin from rocks daughter makes her less worthy? There are good reasons why some people can-not treat persons in their employ upon equal terms. It is because their course of action has been such as to drive respectable people from their service, but when I employ equals they shall be treated as such. You have not forfeited your self-respect, Ina, and earning your own way, and paddling your own canoe was evening. The moon had just will be a feather in your cap that other over the tops of the tall trees that girls will have pointed out to them when lieved to derive you stand upon an eminence that they oil bearing rocks are mostly older teach her a different lesson for to-mor-

day. The notes of a distant or will waked the echoes of the Mr. Robinson," said Ina, "you know I and all the noisy nocturnal could not go if they invited me becau When the boat touched the shore, Mr. Robinson was there. "Come again tomorrow night," he said, "enjoy your rides while the moon is bright, there is nothing that gives me more happiness than providing innocent pleasures for the young. Keep selfishness from your midst and memory will perpetuate your party prepared to embark. Amanda had been detained in the house by her disappointment. "What do you keep me for, father?" she asked, while her lips quivered and her eyes filled with tears of disappointment. "To let you know how it seems," an-"To let you know how it seems," antears of disappointment. "To let you know how it seems," an-swered the father, quietly taking a paper and drawing near the light. Just then the notes of the flute and the words of the well known song, Come over the lake with me. my love. came floating back on the evening how of the due to control her feel. Came over the lake with me. To the back on the evening the words to control her feel. The back on the evening the words to the evening the words of the flute and the words of the well known song, Come over the lake with me. my love. Came over the lake with me. To the back on the evening the material would ac-the heavier oils.—Popular breeze, and unable to control her feel-Science Monthly.

Poetical Old Bachelors

"Genteel society be hanged," ex-claimed Mr. Robinson angrily. "Do you suppose that I would have any but a respectable girl about my house? and will any one dare to tell me that living in my family and doing the same kind of work that is done by my wife and Origin and Source of Petroleum tate of Ohio, and sent floods of will never attain. As for Amanda, I'll mal as well as vegetable agencies. Shales are the most common oll-bearing rocks, and in their formation the organic material would be finely divided and protected from oxidation. The oil-bearing shales are supersonal to the red more in-tence, whereby the richness of the effect midst and memory will perpetuate your enjoyment." And when Herbert Allen stopped just a moment to say, "Don't disap-point us to-morrow night, Ina, for the enjoyment of the evening is gone when you are away," half her unhappiness had vanished. On the following evening as the moon again gilded the waters the boating party prepared to embark. Amanda had been detained in the house by her russet, and olive: orange and green forming citrine; purple and orange, The common cheap ground coffees contain usually a little coffee, and here russet; and green and purple, olive. the bulk is supplied mostly with either peas or rye. Chlcory is too high priced the larger part of it is now be-to derive its origin from rocks below the coal-measures, since bearing rocks are mostly older the carboniferous formations. Some investigators have ascribed a vegetable origin to petroleum, but most authorities agree in attributing it to ani-mal as well a most its and fact that in looking at any bearing shales commonly show few vegetable remains, and Dana observes that the absence of distinct fossil ani-mal aud vegetable remains points to an abundance of delicate water plants or infusorial or microscopic vagetable ut;

to be used to any great extent, and the people who think that if their coffee is not really pure it contains only a little chicory, are probably drinking peas and rye, made dark and bitter with burnt sugar. The higher sounding the title of the coffee, the poorer the quality as a general thing.

agle playar concluded to make a trip to England, to learn by personal obse vation the state of instrumental music in that country. A day or two after his that country. A day or two after his arrival in London, in which he was al-most a total stranger, he saw an adver-fridevi, Angleterre." There was no arrival in London, in which he was altisement in the Times for a bugle player such person as Sromfrideyi ever heard in one of the regiments of Guards. He of; but on a little consideration and presented himself the next morning to judging from sound it was obvious that the bandmaster of the regiment, and introduced himself by saying that, having Sir Humphrey Davy; and this proved seen an advertisement for a bugle play-er, he had come to offer himself as a of the English General Post Office the resent a very promising appearance, to say, caligraphic experts who are sup posed to be able to decipher the most illegible handwriting, and to deduce told him that there would be a rehearsal the next morning and he might come and show him what he might do, inti ating at the same time that his qualiparty prepared to embark. Amanda had been detained in the house by her mother, and Mr. Robinson bade the boys to row once or twice across the lake and come back for her. "You may stay and mend stockings to-night, Amanda," said Mr. Robinson as he again entered the house. Amanda looked up in surprise and disappointment. "What do you keep placed upon the ceiling, causes it to appear higher;, or if in a recess will deepen it. Yellow, on the conirary. appears to advance toward the eye, and if used upon the ceiling, will seem to the face of the envelope at least, was proclaimed a Cretan Sultan. But to the sixth among the band of experts there sounded when every member in the band ceased playing, and listened with time, still turning over the pages of the wonder and admiration to the magic will call Rio. It is all called or Java, or possibly Maracaibo. far the greatest part of the coffee in the United States is Brazilian coffee. Indeed Brazil produces coffee than all the rest of the put together. There are marked use in the appearance of some of coffees, as well as considerable -Correct. The newspaper men have had their Centennial headquarters re-moved to the Department of Public Comfort.

hotel, that they might rebearse their skill of Kulosh Indians. He was struck with awe at the sigh -The Philadelphia boarding-mi

CENTENNIAL NOTES.

He was struck with awe at the sight of the queenly woman, who soon put him at ease on his perplexities. She received him in "her grand, good-na-tured manner," saying, "I hope, Mr. Macready, you have brought some hartshorn and water with you, as I am told you are terribly frightened at me;" and she made some remarks about "my being a very young husband." The Queen of Tragedy spoke approvingly and monitorially, as was great. Sarah's way, to the young actor. "You are in the right way," she said: "but re-member what I say-study, study, stu-dy! and do not marry till you are thir-ty." And she took leave of the young actor with, "Don't forget my words study well, and God bless you!"-The Athenarum. can no longer "bull" her prices with the dreaded scarcily of accommodations, for the supply of rooms is greater than the demand and scores of private hou-ses offer a large, well-furnished room with breakfast and supper, for $2 a day.

-The Christian martyr who keeps a sola water stand outside the Centennial grounds is understood as firmly op-posed to the immorality of opening the posed to the immorality of opening the exhibition on Sunday. In this respect

-The Philadelphia reporters are fully impressed with the necessity of doing up the daily Centennial reports in the Oddly Adarensed Letters.

A number of years ago a post-letter arrived in Edinburgh, addressed in for-eign handwriting to "M. Tompits, Edimbourg." As no special direction was given, the Post Office officials were -The declaration of awards will a be announced until the close of the Exat a loss to understand who this M. hibition, but the personal work of the fompits could be. As far as known judges inspections, etc., will terminate at the latest, in the early part of July, there was no such person in the town. At length, by pondering over the matter, and judging from the sound of this extraordinary name, it was dis-covered that the letter was intended for writing.

ugar. The higher sounding the title of the coffee, the poorer the quality as general thing. Yankee Bagle Player. Some twenty years since an American Some twenty years since an American so. Moreover, it says: "It is not a chance likely to occur again in a midbut who had understood his name to b die-aged man's or woman's life. It will lift them as nothing else can do out of the dull level of every-day thoughts. They will be healthier and stronger all simply Tompits. It is mentioned that something of the same kind once took foreign writer of the letter meant myself; I only want some china, som er, he had come to offer himself as a candidate for the situation. The band-master, thinking the stranger did not takes a staff of "blind clerks"—that is all sorts of new fixtures—self-acting things-so that I could suit my Bridger and Margarets with places in which sense and meaning from the apparently hopeless chaos of orthographical blun-Some years since there was refications must be very high to obtain fications must be very high to obtain the place. Nothing dannted, the Ameri-can made his appearance, with his Eb bugle in his hand, and took his place in the band. The rehearsal commenced with a new The rehearsal commenced with a new The rehearsal commenced with a new -Puget Sound, Alaska, sends an Indian carving 40 feet high-a specimen of the wood of the region, and of the setts and gone where a man is permitted to marry his stepdaughter.

-Almost pure chalk exists in vast beds in Trego, Kansas, and a house has been built of sawed blocks of it.

he differs from the Christian martyr who keeps a soda water stand on the other side of the fence. killed Alexander Hamilton is said to be in the possession of a gentleman of Ver-sailes, Ky.

-The British and foreign Bible Society issued 2,682,185 copies of Bibles, Testaments, and portions of Scripture very choicest of language. An old lady from Germantown fell down and next morning all the papers had it, "A severe case of frontal contusion."

after which their reports upon the in-trinsic and comparative merits of com-twenty-two was recently induced to petitive articles will be submitted in marry a widow of seventy-five.

-The New York Tribune urges every-body to go see the Centennial, even if they would have to sacrifice a large part of their year's earnings and time to do -The Herald of New York says that what that city really needs is a large aquarium like that at Brighton, Eng-land. San Francisco has a nice one.

rriest, happiest and most hopeful of them all had come to grief that at and Ins Warren stood alone unhefriendly shadow of a huge maple, ing to the sound of all this mirth ity, while deep convulsive sobs k her slender frame. The teared face was decidedly pretty. at her shoulders, and on the rounded at were tints of health's own paint-the rosy mouth expressed the gen-es of her nature, and not the least ings another moment, Amanda leaned her head against the casement and her charms was the intelligent, de-"O don't, Mr. Robinson, I do not feel badly about it now, and I don't want all bachelors. ned expression of the clear blue father. "But it was not her own idea, it was

"It is not my duty to eradicate the

"If you see your conduct in its proper

She was the daughter of a neighng farmer in very moderate circumher punished for having slighted me," pleaded Ina. and the thoughts of her associates. ms of the future which carried her pon the great sea of hope, to higher s, grander attainments and wider es of action and usefulness than aarrow limits of her surroundings dd warrant. But what was there to e dreams? Nothing. And ing as she was, she already began to e that idle dreaming would never nch the ceaseless longing, and that apt, decisive and energetic action her own part was her only hope of t reaching the land of her dreams. and for a time there was a silence broken only by Amanda's passionate sobs and the strains of music from the this time the district school had her delight. Ever willing to it by the advice of those whose age lake. operience entitled them to give it, "Forgive me, Ina," said Amanda, at length, "I didn't feel right about it any had profited by a maxim given her a teacher five years before, which be of immense benefit to every ing person who will adopt it. It joyment as well as yours." mply this: "Learn every lesson ," and as a result, although light it is all I want Amanda," said the een years of age, she had mas- father, "and when they come to this all the branches usually taught side again you can go if Ina goes with trict schools, and now aspired to you. Ina begged to be excused, but when er school in a neighboring town.

she first mentioned this project parents it was pronounced im-ble. half an hour later, he, for whose opinion she most cared, appeared and joined his entreaties with Amanda's, she couet parents it was pronounced im-You know, Ina, that I have five sented to go. Two weeks later Ina occupied the ghters younger than yourself to position which she so much coveted, for, and to furnish you with the for, and to furnish you with clothing as you would need would ire an unjust sacrifice on the part he rest of the family," said Mr. Ten. Do yon suppose that I would accept wha sacrifice, father?" asked Ina re-suspecting, amiable and intelligent, which no art could supply, and the simple calico of her own earning, and to obtain employment in some the modest ribbon that bound her sunny table family and I can provide myself. I can make myself useful tresses were in far greater harmony un Myra when I am out of school, with her tastes and character than costam sure she will let me have a ller material which her father would die alone. have been taxed to pay for. with her while I am trying to heate myself," "You will make your mark in the Ber scheme looked rather visionary her practical parents, but neverthe-s she carried the point, and it is life fulfilling her engagement at mer Robinson's that the redgement at the point and the point of Tradition has it that years ago, when be carried the point, and it is falling her engagement at wer Robinson's that the reader is tintroduced to her. She had been beted to a trial of which the gentle, sitive country girl had not dreamed. The fault was a favorite with her teachers. She made them her friends and they were interested in her welfare. The fall vasation was occu-pied as the spring had been, in earning money to supply her necessities for the coming winter. This was the last time son came into the kitchen where Ina

Ins.

Anna wilson said that her cousts a the dity never thought of inviting ared help to go with them, and Agnes and so the very improper, and mand asid she wouldn't ask you.

 branches.
 bra

An African Duel.

Capt. Rob. Dunlap related to me the circumstances of a duel which he once witnessed a little ways inland from the Corneille, Racine and Boileau were er punished for having slighted me," leaded Ina. "I knew that it would be no satiscertainly not such a duel as our heroes faction to you, but it is for her own selfish. In looking through his meof lighter complexion would delight in nor yet such as they could feel pride in; but, after all, it evidently yielded entire or of the world?" said the bandmaster. sake that she is punished," replied the moirs, letters and poems, we cannot father. "But it was not her own idea, it was under the influence of women. He but, after all, it evidently yielded entire another who suggested it," continued loved his mother, and was dutiful to satisfaction, and was fully as sensible as two tiresome old aunts who thought poetry one of the seven deadly sins. His learning was entombed with him.

selfishness from the hearts of other people's daughters, but I am responsi-ble for the training of my own," an-swered the father firmly, and both girls felt that farther words were useless, falt that farther words were useless, and for a time there was a silence "solitary fly."

"solitary fly."
"solitary fly."
"collins was never a lover, and never married. He is reported to have been once in love, and, as the lady was on the lady mas on the lady mas on the lady mas on the state in speared upon the field of honor, each armed with a stout raw hide cat, or the yolder than himself, he used to say, y jestingly, that "he came into the world a day after the far." He wrote an object of his serious pursuit an oppor-tunity of accepting or rejecting him.
" Such was collins' idea of love. Shenstone was not formed to capti-manners disagreeable. He never gave the lady who supposed herself to be the object of his serious pursuit an oppor-tunity of accepting or rejecting him.
" He died unmarried.
" Hus they alternated until one
" Hus they alternated until one
" Hus they alternated until one
" He died unmarried.
" Hus they alternated until one
" Hus they al

tunity of accepting or rejecting He died unmarried. When we look at a picture of Thomson, we wonder how a man with that countenance and mein could ever have written "The Seasons," or have been in through a long series of years, but some destiny denied him domestic happiness. Hammond the favorite of our Continental grandmothers, was an amiable youth, and wrote sonnets to "Delia." But this lady was deaf to his pastoral strains, so he was doomed to live Professor Daniel C. Easton, who occua carried the point, and it is frait defined to array of a great success. "Well, air is to the Great Ruler of destines."

Hints on Coffee.

 of course such a girl was a lad, be began for common usage this statement is suff.
 of course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy, and soon became to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy, and soon became to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy, and soon became to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy, and soon became to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course such a girl was a favorie to study philosophy. The course tones. The solo was executed to perfec-tion, and at its conclusion the bandmas-ter rushed up to the performer and grasping his hand, exclaimed:

Who are you?' "My name is Kendall," replied the Yankee.

Journal. Young Macready.

At the age of fifteen Macready left

Build up a Homestead The feeling that you are settled and it with regret, think of it with fondness come back to it joyfully, seek their chief happiness around their home and fireside the sufferer, whose arm was not made lighter by the pain and the loss of the pitch. Thus they alternated until one gave in; and, had the umpires judged that the twain had suffered sufficiently before either would give up, they were at liberty to stop the duel, and award the victory to him who had borne the greatest number of blows without flinch-ing. And ever after the scarified backs of these heroic men were displayed in token of their honor and their bravery. Women and children need more that meat, bread and rainment; more than acres of corn and cotton spread out all around them. Their love for the beauti ful must be satisfied. Their tastes must be cultivated; their sensibilities humored, not shocked. To accomplish this good end home must be made loveing, "If you can do anything like that on the stage, there will be few come near you." He had not that nor any-thing like that to do when, at the age of seventeen, he made his first appear-ance on the stage at Birmingham as Romeo. He had a stage fright at the become in the stage at the stage of the stage at the stage at the stage at the stage at the stage of the stage at the stage of the stage at the stage of the stage at the st ly, conveniences multiplied, comfort provided, and chcerfulness fostered There must be both sunshine and shade luscious fruit and fragrant flowers, as beginning, but overcame it, and achieved a great success. "Well, sir, how do you feel now !" said a lady to him, after the curtain was down. The well as corn and cotton. The mind and hearts as well as the fields must be cultivated; and then intelligence and into that approach to perfection that might warrant an attempt to obtain a footing on the London stage. He played Hamlet at eighteen, and his have arranged to meet at the Centen-nial, and the dates upon which they way of low fare or no fare at all will meet: JULY.

Congress of Authors, July 1.

National Convention Catholic Young Men's Associations, July 2. International Typographical gress, July 3. Salesmen's and Comm lers' Association, July 3.

Catholic Total Abstinence Nacy List. At length he rose trium-phant to the occasion. "I have it," he cried; "this letter is addressed to J. Dubois, sur le Tancrede," and to M. July 6. gates, Societies of St. Vincent de Paul, July 6. iety of the Army of the Cumber-

Dubois, who was a quartermaster on board the good ship Tancrede, on the Pacific station, the letter was duly for-Society of the land, July 6. International Arbitration Convention warded. The missive was from the Quartermaster's brother, whose educa-July 11. Pennsylvania State Dental Society, tion, so far as regarded spelling, had July 25. Encampment Knights Templar at seemingly been of a strictly phonetic Encampment Knights Templar at nature, and who had written down his Ridley Park, under anspices of Maryland Commandery, July 28.

relative's address, not in accordance with the commonly-received doctrines AUGUST. of orthography, but just as the words had sounded to his ear."-Chamber's quarian Societies, August 1. American Dental Association, August

State Camp Patriotic Order Son America (at Reading), August 8. Caledonians of North America, gust 13. Photographers' National As August 15.

Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias Pennsylvania, August 15. American Association of Instructors of the Blind, August 15. Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias August 22.

SEPTEMBER. International Medical Congress, Sep ember 4. International Convention of Arch:

logists, September 4. National Pomological Society, Sep tember 11.

Grand Council Improved Order Red Men of United States, Septembe

National Convention American Foresters, September 13. American Forestry Association, September 13. Grand Lodge of United States, I. O. O. F., September 19. Grand Lodge of United States, I. O.

Red Men, September 19. Convention of Apiarians (Honey

September 23. Welsh National Eistedfold, third week. National Carriage Builders' Association, third week. OCTOBER

Dedication of hall, P. O. Sons merica, first week. State Council O. U. A. M., October

American Dalrymen's Association October 17.

DECEMBER. American Pharmaceutical Associa

Around the circumference of the cirle of which the Great Exhibition is the entre, and within one hundred miles centre, and within one hundred miles of it, a large number of bodies will as-semble, the dates of meeting, except in a few instances, not having been an-nounced. Among these are the follow-

New Jersey State Centennial, Princeton, July 2. Centennial Sunday School

ion, Ocean Grove, July 22. National Forest Convention.

Grove.

to charter two or more clipper ships way of low fare, or no fare at all to the Chinese, male and female, to return to China.

-In Nevada, when a building falland kills two or three persons, the jury first hunt up the contractor and hang him, and then bring in a verdict that nobody is to blame but the contractor who cannot be found.

-The tusk of a mastodon, seven feet long and eight inches in diameter, has been unearthed in Yolo county, California. It is of pure ivory, in excel-lent preservation, and curved almost in the shape of a crescent.

-The educational institution of Connecticut embrace five colleges and distinct professional schools, 2338 ungraded district schools, 261 graded schools, 35 high schools, 26 academies, and 249 private schools.

-Texarkana, a town of two hundred inhabitants, is claimed by both Texas and Arkansas, the State line dividing the town in the centre. Taxpayers are Convention of Historical and Anti- happy because they don't recognize the sment of either State.

-New Mexico is to be admitted into the Union under the title of "Monte-zuma." The North American thinks a more appropriate name, considering the prevailing weakness of the inhabitants, would be "Threecardmontezuma."

-The precocious lad Jimmy Blanchard, who some months ago person-ated Charley Ross, and who a few days ago ran away from his parents with a orse and wagon, has been placed in the New Hampshire Reform School.

-A private fair held in Baltimore recently realized nearly $40,000 in two days. One gentleman gave $5000 for an afghan, and another $2000 for an album containing the photographs of the prettiest young ladies of Baltimore. The fair was in aid of a Catholic charity.

-The official returns of the trade of Canada for the first quarter of 1876, show an encouraging state of affairs. The imports are $18,552,611, as against $20,877,849 last year; and the exports, despite the dullness of the lumber trade, have risen from $4,941,151 to $6,682,260

-A New Orleans correspondent informs us that in one parish in Louisiana there are thirteen negro schools sup-ported by taxes paid almost exclusively by the whites, and no white school, be-cause no one neighborhood can furnish twenty-five white scholars, the number required by law.

-The Buffalo Courier company have just issued a mammoth show bill for P. T. Barnum. It is forty-seven feet long and seven feet wide; it is made up of forty different sheets, placed in two rows of twenty each; the most extensive show bill embracing one general design ever printed.

-A larger number of counterfeit notes have recently been received at the re-demption division of the Treasury than ever before within the same length of time. Recently a dangerous counter-feit $10 note of the National State Bank of Terre Haute. Ind., and a counterfeit $5 note of the First National Bank of Louisville, have been discovered.

-The American Socialist gives an account of the socialistic communities in the United States. The inspirationalist of Amana, Iowa, number 1450, are led by a woman, and permit but do not encourage marriage. The Harmony So-ciety of Economy, Pa., has about a hundred members and own $2,000,000 worth of property, accumulated in the following deliberative bodies have been announced to assemble in Phila-delphia, though no definite date has been assigned for their meetings: National Board of Underwriters, Con-vention of Life Insurance Agents of the United States, California Pioneer Soci-pies the chair of botany at Yale College, in the course of a lecture on "Coffee," brought out the following points: Coffee, as it comes to us, is commonly called the seeds of the coffee tree, and if for common work is to be the coffee tree, and if Why Franklin Used Simple Lan-D Tradition has it that years ago, when

