Attest:

WM. M. ALLISON, Secretary, pro tem.

Mifflintown, June 10, 1876.

THE Hamburg murder, or massacre, awakened a lively debate in Congress.

THERE are about fifteen hundred bills of different kinds in Congress by Democratic Congressmen to get money out of the Treasury. Empty will be no name for the United States Treasury if they get possession of it.

"IN the late, or rather present Congress, eighty different bills for constructing railways by Government aid or land subsidy have been offered, and that chiefly by Democrats." Reader, do you recollect how the Democracy, during the last Congressional contest, denounced all such work?

THE cotton claims presented in the Lower House of Congress since the Democracy got possession of it amount to two hundred millions of dollars. If you wish to help to pay these claims votes for Tilden and Hendricks, and that will only be a beginning.

THE war in Europe now is a sort of a religious war. Now that the sword is at work both on the side of the Cross and the Crescent. The Cross being the strongest, why not drive the Turk and the Cresent out of Europe? The barbarity of the Turks equals that of the Indians, almost.

WHAT a fine lot of reformers the Democrats have in Congress. How they have shrieked and blustered over the salary and wages of everybody except their own salary of five thousand dollars. Such heroism is wonderful. Everybody but me. Great reformers!

BOSS Tweed and Mr. Tilden are considerably alike, in a certain particular. They are alike in that they both grew immensely rich by levying immoderate prices on those for whom they worked. Tweed made his money on the contracts in New York city. Tilden made his money by charging monstrous fees on clients. It will require a hair-splitting process, that cannot result satisfactorily, to tell the difference in the morality of shaving the public, generally, through contracts, or shaving an individual or corporation. The process of operation of Tweed and Tilden was not so different. The difference lies in the parties operated on.

THE record of Hays and Wheeler squares so completely with what is right that the Democracy have failed to find a single thing to hang an objection on, and that is not only the case with their record, but it is also the case with their private characters. To make up for this loss of a subject they have commenced anew to assail President Grant. They are like the dog that barked at the moon. The dog is dead long ago, and the moon still rolls on. They will die as a party, and centuries after they are dead President Grant will loom up among the brightest historical characters, and as one of the champions of the best set of political principles ever advocated among men.

The Democratic Victory in Alabama.

The Democratic victory in Alabama it appears was brought about by unfair means, as may be learned from the Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, as follows:

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 11, 1876.

Hon. Geo. E. Spencer:

The election was conducted under new laws, under color of which thousands upon thousands of Republican voters were denied the right of suffrage. In no proper sense was there an election by the people in Alabama on last Monday.

CHARLES E. MAYER,
Chairman Republican State Executive Committee.

Other despatches of a similar character have been received at Washington.

IN the last campaign the Democracy denounced every one that favored appropriations for the improvement of river navigation. With all that denunciation staring them in the face, their branch of Congress, the other day, voted $300,000 for the Tennessee river, a sum utterly beyond any proper objects of expenditure in the present state of the public Treasury, and the general prostration of business interests. For three or four worthless rivers in North Carolina, the sum of $146,000 is appropriated by this bill; for the rivers and harbors of Georgia $167,000 are appropriated. For the State of Texas alone, the enormous sum of $402,500 is lavished; while the hungry little State of West Virginia asks for and receives, to improve the navigation of its creeks and rivers, the prodigious amount of $345,000 of the public money.—Pittsburg Gazette.

A Juniata County Man on the Southern Situation.

The Hamburg, S. C., massacre was the first cause of a debate in the United Senate, last week. Senator John J Patterson took a part in the debate. From the Senator's speech we publish extracts as follows:

Governer Chamberlain is an honest man and did not transmit the information in regard to Hamburg to the President until he had ascertained the whole truth. The Democratic party of South Carolina to-day was divided as to whether it should nominate a candidate or accept Governor Chamberlain and support him when nominated by the Republicans. His course had been approved by both parties, and it was fair to presume that he was an honest man and told the truth. He (Patterson) knew of the "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain" resorted to in the South by the Democrats to carry elections, and had no doubt as to the truth of all these statements. The other branch of Congress had been engaged all the session in a wild hunt for Republican thieves and they had caught some. He was glad of it. He would be the last man to attempt to protect Republican thieves, and he hoped the Democrats would catch them. The Republicans were all willing to aid the Democrats in catching Republican thieves, but the Democrats would not aid the Republicans in catching Democratic murderers. He then spoke of the Hamburg trouble, and said he regretted to see that many of the most respectable men of the State were charged with being implicated in that affair.

* * * * * * *

The preservation of human life in the South was of more importance than the question of who might be President of the United States. If the election of Tilden would stop these murders in the South he did not know but what he would be willing to have him elected. The great body of the Southern people were brave and generous, and wanted to do what was right, and if the Democratic leaders would let them alone they would do right. He commented at great length upon laws passed by the South Carolina Democratic Legislature in 1865 in the days of the reconstruction, and argued that the Southern people were unwilling to accord to the colored men of the South the rights secured to them by the war. If Samuel J. Tilden were to go to Edgefield county to-morrow, the chances were that M. C. Butler, who was concerned in the Hamburg affair, would be the chairman of the committee to receive him. He would certainly be a member of the committee. Let Mr. Tilden be elected President by the votes of the honest people, and everybody would say Amen; but for the sake of civilization it should not go abroad that he could not be elected unless he got the votes of all the murderers in the South. He argued that South Carolina was a Republican state by a large majority, and if she should be taken out of the list of Republican States and the whole South should become Democratic, it would simply be that section arrayed against the North again, and it meant war. There would be a new horror, and the penalty would be visited upon the people of the South again by the North. The Democratic party of the North encouraged the Democrats of the South to go into the war, and when they got them into that trouble sneaked back. The result was the Democrats of the South had a supreme contempt for the Northern Democracy. He defended the present Legislature of South Carolina, and said it was as wise and useful as the Legislature of any other State in this Union. In conclusion, he said he spoke in favor of peace and harmony, and declared that there had been more men murdered in the South for opinion's sake since the war than were killed on the Federal side in any battle of the war.

LIFE, GROWTH, BEAUTY.

London Hair Color Restorer.

London Hair Color Restorer.

Not a Dye; makes harsh hair soft and silky; cleanses the scalp from all impurities, causing the hair to grow where it has fallen off or become thin.

Can be applied by the hand, as it does not stain the skin or soil the finest linen. As a Hair Dressing it is the most perfect the world has ever produced. The hair is renovated and strengthened, and natural color restored without the application of mineral substances.

Since the introduction of this truly valuable preparation into this country, it has been the wonder and admiration of all classes, and as it has proved to be the only article that will absolutely, without deception, restore gray hair to its original color, health, softness, lustre and beauty, and produce hair on bald heads of its original growth and color.

This beautiful and fragrantly perfumed article is complete within itself, no washing or preparation before or after its use, or accompaniment of any kind being required to obtain these desirable results.

HERE IS THE PROOF

OF ITS

SUPERIOR EXCELLENCE.

Read this Home Certificate, testified to by Edward B. Garrigues, one of the most competent Druggists and Chemists of Philadelphia, a man whose veracity none can doubt.

I am happy to add my testimony to the great value of the "London Hair Color Restorer," which restored my hair to its original color, and the hue appears to be permanent. I am satisfied that this preparation is nothing like a dye but operates upon the secretions. It is also a beautiful hair dressing and promotes the growth. I purchased the first bottle from Edward B. Garrigues, druggist, Tenth and Coates streets, who can also testify my hair was quite gray when I commenced its use.

MRS. MILLER,
No. 730 North Ninth street, Phila.

Dr. Swayne & Co., Respected friends: I have the pleasure to inform you that a lady of my acquaintance, MRS. Miller, is delighted with the success of your "London Hair Color Restorer." Her hair was falling rapidly, and was quite gray. The color has been restored, the falling off entirely stopped, and a new growth of hair is the result.

E. B. GARRIGUES,
Druggist, cor. Tenth & Coates, Phila.

Boston Testimony.

July 22, 1871.—Dr. Swayne & Son: Last winter while in Trenton, N. J., I procured six bottles of "London Hair Color Restorer," which I like very much, in fact better than anything I have used in the last nine years. If you please, send me one dozen bottles, C. O. D., care of W. S. Fogler & Son, druggists, No. 724 Tremont street, Boston.

Respectfully yours,
ADA BAKER,
No. 59 Rutland Square.

Dr. Dalton, of Philadelphia, says of it: The "London Hair Color Restorer" is used very extensively among my patients and friends, as well as by myself; I therefore speak from experience.

THE LUNGS.

CONSUMPTION.

This distressing and dangerous complaint and its premonitory symptoms, neglected cough, night sweats, hoarseness, wasting flesh, fever—permanently cured by "Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry."

BRONCHITIS—A premonitor of Pulmonary Consumption, is characterized by catarrh, or inflammation of the mucus membrane of the air passages, with cough and expectoration, short breath, hoarseness, pains in the chest For all bronchial affections, sore throat, loss of voice, coughs,

DR. SWAYNE'S

Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry

IS A SOVEREIGN REMEDY.

Hemorrhage, or Spitting of Blood, may proceed from the larnyx, trachia, bronchia or lungs, and arises from various causes, as undue physical exertion, plethora, or fullness of the vessels, weak lungs, overstraining of the voice, suppressed evacuation, obstruction of the spleen or liver, &c.

Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

The only standard remedy for hemorrhage, bronchial and all pulmonary complaints. Consumptives, or those predisposed to weak lungs, should not fail to use this great vegetable remedy.

Its marvelous power, not only over consumption, but over every chronic disease where a gradual alterative action is needed. Under its use the cough is loosened, the night sweats diminished, the pain subsides, the pulse returns to its natural standard, the stomach is improved in its power to digest and assimilate the food, and every organ has a purer and better quality of blood supplied to it, out of which new recreative and pastic material is made.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR—SIX BOTTLES $5.00. If your druggist or storekeeper has not got it, we will deliver half dozen bottles to any address or receipt of price.

☞ Should the bowels be costive, or headache accompany your disease, the patient should procure a box of

Dr. Swayne's Tar Pills.

Take first a few doses of Pills, and follow with Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry.

The Pills will evacuate the bowels, which is of the first importance, relieve the congested liver, purify the blood, strengthen the nerves, improve the appetite and remove all billiousness. 25 cents a box—5 boxes $1. Prepared only by DR. SWAYNE & SON, 330 North Sixth street, Philadelphia. Sold by all prominent Druggists.
