B Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without to the cine) of Spermatorrhoea or Sembal weak-ness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c. The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-douse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of rnal medicine or the application of the Men's Suits, $3.50, $5.00 to $20.00. Boys' knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once which every sufferer, no scatter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheapy, privately, and radically.
