The cow was killed, the farmer was killed. Do you suppose the killing of that cow was the reason? No, it was the beginning of a political campaign. This was it. The cow was killed with rebel generals, and what would happen, with Mr. Tilden at the head of the Government? Would the dog wag the tail or the tail wag the dog?"

The Berks County Centennial Fair will be held in the city of Reading, Pa., on the 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th of September next.

From the extent of the preparations that have been made, it is believed that this will be the most successful Fair ever held in the county. Berks always excels in her Fine Fruit Displays, and as there is an immense crop of fruit in the county this year, a grand exhibition in this department may be expected. A large number of applications for space in the different departments, and for the display of fruit, are already on file. The celebrated Ringgold Band will furnish music during the Fair. There will be a Ballroom, Ascension, and many new and attractive features. Three Thousand Dollars are offered in Premiums, besides Medals and a special Centennial Diploma. There will be races every day on a half-mile track.

Mr. LESTER ANDERSON informs us that a few evenings ago he had occasion to set a rat trap just inside the door of his smoke house, and in the morning, his wife on going to the house for meat, expected to find a rat in the trap, when, what was her astonishment to find inside a large copperhead snake fast in the trap, and in the morning, his wife on going to the house for meat, expected to find a rat in the trap, when, what was her astonishment to find inside a large copperhead snake fast in the trap. When killed and measured it was found to be 3 feet 4 inches long.—Ovidian Leader.

As aged lady, Mrs. Coulter, of Dublin township, Fulton county, a short time ago, after retiring for the night, she experienced a sensation of something crawling about her person. She arose hastily, made an examination of the bed, but found nothing. Mrs. Coulter, during the night, actually wears a gingham handkerchief, and in the morning observed at the foot of the bed what she supposed was the handkerchief atore-said. It was a copperhead snake, which coiled around the right arm of the lady and sank its fangs into the second finger of her hand. Her eyes are entreated her recovery, although she is suffering considerably.—Fulton Democrat.

Democratic County County Convention.

The Democratic County Convention met in the Court House last Monday afternoon, to nominate a county ticket.

The Convention was called to order by the chairman of the County Committee, Dr. Lucien Banks.

Dr. G. B. Aarold was chosen Chairman of the Convention, and John E. Hollenbach and James Cresswell were chosen Secretaries.

The Chair called for credentials, which were speedily handed up, thus: Millintown—Jacob Sulof, Jas A. Cresswell, Fernanagh—Enoch Horning, Wm. Ush, Walker—D. Noddy, E. D. Arnold.

Thompson—A. Wetzel, Thos. Patton, Delaware—E. C. Lantz, Jos. Longacre, Monroe—Geo. Hecksbach, John Neiman, Selinsgrove—L. A. Dimm, J. H. Patterson, Susquehanna—Jacob Schmeider, H. R. Reed, Patton—J. E. Hollenbach, Wm. Egolf, Millintown—John Waldmuth, F. Lawver, Port Royal—J. E. Hollenbach, J. Dunbar, Turbitt—F. Goodman, D. Kilmer, Spruce Hill—John Yoder, John Wischnapf, Bales—A. C. Beale, F. Pinkelberg, Cack—M. W. Clark, J. H. Mayberry, Tuscarora—Jos. Beale, Jos. Kennedy, Black Log—James Hurling, Geo. Smith.

Porter F. K. urged objections to the turned out. He wished to produce the evidence of fraud and unfair dealing. The Chair did not hear Mr. Frick, and declared that the nomination of a ticket for Congress to be the next business.

Mr. Stenger, the present incumbent, was nominated unanimously.

A candidate for State Senator was the next nominated, with the privilege to choose his own conferees. Dr. D. M. Crawford was unanimously nominated.

The nomination of a candidate for Assembly was the next order of business. The candidates before the Convention were Dr. Lucien Banks, James G. Beale, Thos. D. Gorman, Hon. Lewis Burchfield, Joseph Hill, Daniel Conn, and Samuel Dimm, Sr. The ballots cast for the candidates were as follows:

1st. 2d. 3d. 4th. 5th. 6th. 7th. 8th. Banks, 8 8 9 9 9 9 9 9 Beale, 2 7 8 8 8 8 8 8 Gorman, 2 7 8 8 8 8 8 8 Burchfield, 3 3 2 2 3 3 3 3 Hill, 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 Conn, 7 7 6 6 6 6 6 6 Dimm, 7 7 6 6 6 6 6 6

9th. 10th. 11th. 12th. 13th. 14th. 15th. 16th. Banks, 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 9 Gorman, 8 7 9 9 8 8 8 8 8 8 Burchfield, 6 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 5 Beale, 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 Conn, 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 Dimm, 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4

17th. 18th. 19th. 20th. 21st. 22d. 23d. 24th. Banks, 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 Gorman, 9 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 Burchfield, 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 Hill, 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 Dimm, 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4

At the conclusion of the taking of the 2nd ballot, Mr. David Waldmuth stated in the body of the audience and stated that the audience could not hear. He hoped that Democrats would not be afraid to speak out. He asked delegates to speak out by signing names. Democrats should never be afraid.

After the 6th ballot the name of Mr. Beale was withdrawn.

After the 6th ballot a citizen in the audience said Mr. Conn had 4 votes cast for him, but it was agreed generally that the citizen's count was not correct, a mistake that he made through the defective acoustic qualities of the room.

After the announcement of the 10th ballot Porter Frick asked the Chair if he had voted twice. This was another manifestation of the room not carrying the sound properly.

The voting for Assemblyman consumed a "long time," and wearied the patience of many. A delegate moved, and a fellow delegate seconded the motion to suspend the nomination of Assemblyman for a while and take up the nomination of other candidates, after the announcement of the 17th ballot, but the Chairman did not hear the sound of the motion, and of course the nominating went.

The name of Mr. Bell was withdrawn after the 18th ballot. On the announcement of the 20th ballot the name of Judge Burchfield was withdrawn.

The declaration of Mr. Garman's nomination was greeted by a burst of applause by the audience.

The nominations and ballots for the office of Sheriff were rendered thus:

1st. 2d. 3d. 4th. 5th. Crum, M. Hench, 15 15 16 17 Wm. D. Walls, 15 16 17 19 M. H. Cresse, 2 1 David Koons, 2 1

Mr. W. Walls was declared the nominee for Sheriff.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for the office of Register and Recorder. The candidates before the convention were, J. W. Pielt, I. D. Musser, Geo. King, Geo. Reynolds, C. A. Lauer and Samuel Stroup. The ballots resulted as follows:

1st. 2d. 3d. 4th. 5th. 6th. 7th. Pielt, 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 Musser, 6 8 9 9 7 7 11 King, 3 3 3 3 3 3 3 Reynolds, 11 12 12 12 11 11 14 Lauer, 9 10 10 10 10 10 11 Stroup, 3 2 2 2 2 2 2

5th. 6th. 7th. 8th. 9th. 10th. 11th. 12th. 13th. Pielt, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 Musser, 11 15 15 15 16 19 Reynolds, 14 14 13 17 17 17 Lauer, 11 9 5 4 3 3 3 Stroup, 3 2 2 2 2 2 2

After the 5th ballot the name of Mr. Stroup was withdrawn. On the announcement of the 6th ballot the name of Mr. King was withdrawn. Upon the announcement of the 12th ballot the name of Mr. Lauer was withdrawn. Applause in the audience was loud when Mr. Musser was declared the nominee.

The nomination of an Associate Judge for the east side of the river resulted as follows:

1st. 2d. 3d. 4th. John Sartain, 12 12 12 13 Noah A. Elder, 15 18 19 Joseph Sellers, 11 9 6 6

Mr. Elder was declared the nominee for the east side of the river.

The nomination of an Associate Judge for the west side of the river was made by the following ballot:

Jacob Frank 6; Francis Bartley 22; Thomas Coder 8.

Mr. Bartley was declared the nominee for the west side of the river.

James W. Hamilton and Jonathan McCoy were put in nomination for Jury Commissioner, which resulted in first ballot for Mr. Hamilton 20, for Mr. McCoy 10.

A committee on resolutions was appointed and reported a series, endorsing the St. Louis platform, Mr. Stenger as Congressman, and recommending him for reelection; also recommending Dr. Crawford for election to the State Senate, and endorsing the nominee for Assembly and the ticket generally.

A. J. Patterson was chosen Chairman of the County Committee.

The outside attendance on the Convention was larger than the attendance of any preceding political convention held in the county, but it would require the power of a Seer to tell whether it presaged victory or defeat for the Democracy, so tangled and intermixed were the remarks that casually fell from the members of the party.

There comes from Boone county, Iowa, the story of a man who, growing weary of his wife's absence on a visit to her mother, hurried her return by having a photograph of his house taken, with himself and his wife standing side by side on the porch. This he sent to his better half, and she returned by the next train.

The Fall Session of the Bloomsburg State Normal School will open on Monday, August 28th. This school offers the very best facilities for professional and classical instruction.

Buildings spacious, inviting and commodious. Location beautiful and easy of access. Teachers efficient and alive to their work. Discipline uniform and thorough. Faculty—Marion Clark, J. H. Mayberry, Tuscarora—Jos. Beale, Jos. Kennedy, Black Log—James Hurling, Geo. Smith.

Porter F. K. urged objections to the turned out. He wished to produce the evidence of fraud and unfair dealing. The Chair did not hear Mr. Frick, and declared that the nomination of a ticket for Congress to be the next business.

Mr. Stenger, the present incumbent, was nominated unanimously.
