

SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN
MIFFLINTOWN:
Wednesday, Sept. 13, 1876.

THE COURT HOUSE.—It is a gratification to learn that citizens and most of the farmers are supporting this new enterprise. It will be a most interesting and pleasant and instructive form, the wealth and advancement of Juniata county, and will be published, a work of reference that every man should have in his library for the county, and now that there is an opportunity to get it on an equal footing with the people, or else the work cannot be published. It being an enterprise that relates purely to Juniata county, business men and farmers doubtless will heartily aid and encourage it.

Centennial Christmas Boxes.—This arrangement to provide for Centennial visitors good accommodations at low rates in private families, is proving quite a success. By letter or in person, from five hundred to one thousand persons are daily seeking assignment to a home. As accommodations are thus offered for twenty thousand people, churches, Sunday-schools, and other religious societies are being formed in order to accommodate each other. Near one thousand of these boxes are along the steam car routes by which the Exposition is reached from ten to twenty minutes for each of several cents.

As prices range from $5 to $14 a week and from $1 to $2.50 a day, all classes are able to afford comforts and conveniences at a home enjoyed, two good meals, coffee, superintends this movement. Apply by letter or in person at his Office, S. E. corner of Third and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. The boxes are ready to be packed, and can be easily reached by street cars from any depot.

PUBLIC SALE.—Joseph Long, administrator of Sylvester C. Fry, will sell public sale at the residence of Fannie Fry, in Delaware township, at 10 o'clock A. M., on Monday, September 19, 1876, two horses, one mare, one colt, one cow, and a lot of farming implements.

Mary A. Anderson will offer at public sale at her residence in McAlisterville, at 7 o'clock P. M., on Saturday, October 7th, 1876, 1 dress, 1 trunk, 1 chest, 1 table, 1 stool, 1 chair, 1 washstand, 1 bedstead, 1 stove, and other articles of household furniture.

John Niets will offer at public sale, at his residence in Spruce Hill township, at ten o'clock A. M., on Friday, September 23rd, 1876, one bay mare, one grey mare, one steer, one spring calf, a number of fine hogs, together with his entire lot of household goods.

CAMPION SONG BOOK.—We have received from the publishers a copy of the "Hays and Wheeler Campaign Songster," containing a good collection of songs, both republican and democrat, in the most necessary and energetic. Many of the songs are printed with the music complete, for the use of churches and Quartet Clubs. A large majority of the songs are new, and are very familiar to every one. The Songster also contains short biographical sketches of our best Chief Executives, with portraits on the title-page. We expect that a host of young folks will find it worth their while to purchase a copy of this volume, before the day of victory arrives in November. The publishers offer extra discounts on quantities of the "Hays and Wheeler Songster" to campaign committees. Send 10 cents for sample copy.

Address: JOHN CHURCH & CO., Cincinnati, Ohio.

CHAS. OF FIRM.—W. H. Landis, a young man of fine business qualifications, having purchased the interest of Ephraim Barnes in the firm of Barnes & Winier, merchants, Port Royal, Pa., the business will hereafter be conducted under the firm name of Winier & Landis, at 415 Chestnut St. where they will keep constantly on hand Groceries, Boots and Shoes, Greenware, Glassware, Crockery, notions, &c., and will be pleased to accommodate all who may favor them with their patronage. The books of the firm of Barnes & Winier have been left in the hands of the new firm for collection.

An important decision, of interest to all who reside in cities, towns or villages, was recently made in Lebanon county courts by Judge Henderson. A man was indicted for assault and battery on a neighbor because he claimed the fruit on the tree over-reading prosecutor's lot. Judge Henderson said that the owner of the land is the owner of it from his line upward as far as he desires to make claim of it. This being the law the prosecutor had the right to the fruit on the branches extending over his lot. He might even have saved them off. This decision is important at this particular time and is generally misunderstood by the people.—E. E.

DR. SWAYNE & SON, of Philadelphia, are the compounders and proprietors of several valuable medicinal preparations. Their advertisement is to be seen regularly in our columns, to which we respectfully invite the attention of our readers. These medicines have been before the people many years, fairly tested, and have always given universal satisfaction. Read what they have to say, and if need, apply to Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

SIXTY LAST Saturday evening rumors have been abroad as to an accident on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad somewhere between Harrisburg and Philadelphia. The Lancaster Express tells all about it as follows:—

The Harrisburg Express, which left the latter city about 6:15 on Saturday morning, met with an accident between this place and Harrisburg. There were over three hundred passengers on board, and the train had just reached the crossing east of North Bend, (a short distance east of Christianstown) when the wheels of the tank boggy, precipitating the engine, tender and baggage car over a small embankment, and drawing six of the passenger cars from their track. The accident occurred between Harrisburg and Christianstown, where it occurred, and was of course more or less damaged. It was discovered (strange as it may seem) that not a passenger or train hand was the least injured. The passengers were transported to the Lancaster Express and sent east on their way rejoicing.

No blame attaches to any one, the accident occurring from circumstances beyond the control of the most careful. It is the first alarming accident that we have had any knowledge of for years between this city and Philadelphia.

OVERBOARD.—Bashful Spooner (on his honeymoon, at Niagara): "Larry, my wife and I have both noticed that the townspeople stare at us as very funny. I hope you aren't miffled anybody that we are newly married?" Larry: "Me? Well, I'm not?" "Is it likely I'd go down any expression?" "No, I think, I'm not?" "I've noticed you wasn't married at all."

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—The great doctrine announced some fifty years back by Dr. Holloway, that the stomach, the liver and blood are the fountains of disease, is now universally admitted, his greatest opponents having become his staunchest supporters. The reason is obvious; millions who were afflicted with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Debility, Biliousness, Sick Stomach, have been radically cured by a thorough course of his famous Pills, while others have been healed of scurvy, glandular swellings, tumors, asthma, bronchitis, &c., by his Ointment and Pills, when all other means had failed. Such are the results of truth and the triumph of science.

Court Proceedings.

Margaret House vs. George Klinger, W. H. Knouse, Daniel Knouse, George Gooding and Frederick Meiser. This was a case that demonstrates that truth is by many odds stronger than fiction. Within the space of time that it has been up to a consummation, namely, from the year 1820 to September, 1876, the peculiarities of the so-called fiction writer gives to his characters as strongly impressed throughout its entire length. Indeed, it is a case such as few American writers would have the hardihood to embellish and give to the reading public. A French writer, however, would be in his glory in serving it up in attractive language, for a people of French tastes. It contains early love, courtship, marriage, births, discontents, estrangement, desertion, tragedy, love, four marriages, 5 unlawful marriages—because no divorce separated the first marriage—the acquisition of property, death of the deserting man, the first marriage, the search of his son for his mother, the finding of the mother—the woman of the first marriage—and her action in law to recover dower on lands by her first husband from whom she had never been divorced.

In the year 1820, after an ordinary preliminary court, a man named Ephraim House married and settled in the State of New Jersey. The married couple lived together as man and wife eight years, in which time three children were born to them. One day the husband left the country, and was not again heard of for seven or eight years. Then a letter came to his father, saying that Ephraim House had passed into the future world. The supposed widow, some time after the announcement of her husband's death, married a second time. After the lapse of two years from the date of the announcement of the death of the first husband, House returned with a woman as his wife, to see his father. The second Mrs. House as represented was a most attractive woman, and had been widowed by a party who murdered her husband near Higsbyre, Lancaster county, while he was on his way from New York State to engage in a contract on some public works on the Lower Susquehanna river. The return home, however, did not change the relationship of the parties, and in about one year House again left, and finally settled in Susquehanna township, Juniata county, where he acquired the property that his first wife claims down on.

In the year 1869 Ephraim House died; but before his demise he gave the property that he had acquired to his son by his first and lawful wife, Ephraim House, Jr., having disposed of the lands that he obtained from his father, began in the year 1872 to search for his mother, whom, in due course of time, he found in Newark, New Jersey. The second man to whom she had been married had passed into the spirit land, and she had a third husband. The son, who she had with her, was the fact of House's death, and of the estate that he had left. She was still the lawful wife of Ephraim House, and as such brought suit to recover dower in the lands sold by her son to the above named parties. Verdict for defendant, or lawful wife.

J. W. McNeal vs. Solomon Books and Wm. Wagner. This was a case that came up from a Justice of the Peace. Plaintiff bought a watch of defendant, payable at the rate of five dollars per week. The watch, being insured, was taken back for regulation several times. The last time it was handed in for repairs, and defendant refused to pay, and Books and Wagner would not give up the timekeeper until it was paid, with the cost of repairs added. McNeal sued to recover the watch or the money paid on it. Verdict for Books and Wagner.

Jonathan Weaver vs. D. P. Munch. This was a case that came up on appeal from the docket of a Justice for the recovery of wages for labor. Verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $22 50.

Salingrove and North Branch Railroad vs. Geo. F. McFarland. Settled. Maggie Stewart vs. Geo. F. McFarland. Settled.

Edward P. Thompson, Wm. S. Thompson and Theodore Thompson vs. John L. Auler, administrator of Jeremiah Kirk, deceased, and Samuel Kirk—Ejectment. Verdict for defendant, in the sum of $6. Title to remain in plaintiff.

Commonwealth vs. John O'Donnell, Indictment—Burglary's entrance and larceny. True bill. This was a case that grew out of the stealing of a pair of boots. Verdict, guilty. Sentenced to county prison for the term of 30 days.

Com. vs. Peter H. Hawn. Indictment—Assault and battery. True bill. Continued until next term of court.

Com. vs. J. Frank Hoops. Indictment—Fornication and bastardy. True bill. Dobby prosecuted. Plea of not guilty withdrawn. Not sentenced.

Com. vs. John Zimmerman. Indictment—Burglary and larceny. True bill. This was an action against Zimmerman for breaking into a store in Richfield, and taking therefrom a parcel of goods. Verdict, guilty. Sentenced to 30 days in county prison.

Com. vs. Henry Lauver. Indictment—Nuisance. True bill. Verdict not guilty. Defendant required to keep the peace on his own land.

Com. vs. Stephen F. McAlister. Indictment—Fornication and bastardy. Not a true bill. Prosecutrix to pay the costs.

Com. vs. Wm. Littlefield. Indictment—Arson. Not a true bill.

Com. vs. E. R. De Bray. Prosecution—Singer Sewing Machine Company. Indictment—Embezzlement, larceny &c. True bill. The defendant was appointed by the above-named Company an agent in this county, and to him were sent, confessed coupons, and promissory notes for collection. The funds due on said papers were collected and appropriated to the use of the defendant. The papers were given to the defendant in trust, and the appropriation of the funds thereof to his own use, under direction of the Court to the jury, did not fill the bill of Embezzlement and Larceny. Verdict for defendant.

Com. vs. Noah E. Littlefield. Indictment—Accessory before the fact to arson. Prosecution—James W. Dean. True bill. Verdict, not guilty. This was a case that grew out of the fire that devastated a large portion of this town on the morning of August 23, 1873. The jury was called in the case on 1st Thursday evening and left the box near midnight on Monday night last, and returned after 12 o'clock, midnight, having been out but a short time. The jurors were: Anson Willey, Elder B. Gilfillan, Philip Strawn, Michael Cole, W. H. Fisher, Wilson Calhoun, Thomas Murphy, David B. Duen, Nich olas Leaks, Aaron Leidy, James R. Bachel, J. F. G. Long. Twenty-two witnesses were called by the Commonwealth, and thirty-five witnesses were called for the defense. The attorneys for the Commonwealth were: A. J. Patterson, Louis E. Atkinson, George J. Johns, Jr. The attorneys for the defense were: Ezra D. Parker, Jeremiah Lyons, Wm. Allison, B. E. Borchfield, William Cox, Samuel Stroup and Adam Witt were appointed viewers to lay out a road from East Salem and Liverpool road by a point on Cross Roads and McAlisterville road. Henry Salouff, Wm. Ulsch and John Ballentine were appointed to lay out a road in Braie township. The Grand Jury reported favorably of the manner of the keeping of the public grounds by the Commissioners, and complimented Mr. and Mrs. Knouse on the cleanliness and management of the jail and adjutant.

The Grand Jury have authorized the Commissioners to furnish the court with a suitable book-stand.

On the petition of citizens of Monroe township, the place of holding elections was changed by the Court from the school house in Richfield to the new school house.

Dr. Cutler's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medication) of Syphilis or Venereal disease, its various complications, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-poisoning or sexual extravagance, &c. Price, in a sealed envelope, only six cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, on any address, post-paid, on the receipt of six cents or two post stamps. Address the Publishers.
