

BEYOND.

BY ROSE TERRY COOPER. The stranger wandering in the Swiss Alps... Who yet, with patient toil, had gained his end...

On the bare summit where all life is stayed; See far, far down, beneath his blood-dimmed eyes...

Another country, golden to the shore, Where a new passion and new hopes arise...

And I, lone sitting by the twilight blaze, Think of another traveler in the snows...

Yet courage, soul! nor hold thy strength in vain, In hope o'ercome the steps God sets for thee...

Each time Italy. Fashionable Dinners. "London dinners! Empty artificial nothings...

YARD FOR PIGS.—The Live Stock Journal says: I believe that one great reason why pigs do not prove profitable...

TO DRESS RAW TOMATOES.—Few persons take the little trouble it requires to make this common dish palatable...

CHERRY PUDDING.—One quart of flour, three cups of dried cherries, rubbed in the flour, four eggs...

AGRICULTURAL.

WHY SERRAS FAIL.—In the first place however, we will examine the cause of failure. If small seeds are placed too deep...

INTERESTING GEOLOGICAL THEORY.—The theory is now propounded—and it certainly does not lack in plausibility—that, when the earth cooled down from its molten state...

A NEW WAY TO PREPARE CURRANT JELLY.—A recipe for making superior jelly, without heat, is given in a Parisian journal of chemistry...

WATER-MELON RIND PRESERVE.—Pare off the outside green rind, and lay it in cold water for four hours; then change the water, and put it on to boil...

KILLED BEFORE ONE KNOWS IT.—There is an American story of respectable antiquity which tells how a fast train outran its own whistle. The train was on the coast of New Jersey...

FOOT'S COLUMN.

"I Don't Care."—"I shall go this way," said a young black colt who was out on the moor. And he looked down at the road...

THE SAGACIOUS CAT.—One very strange thing I remember happening at the house where I was once visiting. I had been told of it, but never fully realized its peculiarity until I witnessed it myself...

ABOUT HEART-BREAKING.—A little Chicago boy fell down and hit his chest against the curbstone the other day, and, rushing to his father, cried out: "Break my heart!"

THE INDIAN POLICE.—"Are you in favor of the Indian police policy?" inquired a philanthropic Chicago man of a long-haired party from the frontier...

HOW TO CURE A BAD MEMORY.—Your memory is bad, perhaps, and you can tell you two secrets that will cure the worst memory. One is to read a subject when strongly interested...

THE SONG OF THE SHIRT.—I heard the Little Schoolman, one day, telling some girls that Tom Hood's "Song of the Shirt" was rejected three times by the London editors before it found anyone willing to accept it...

MYSTERY FIRES.—We are now arrived at a season of the year when fires are abundant, and mysterious fires especially so. The mystery of fire is one of three kinds—the mystery of fraud, the mystery of carelessness, and the mystery of ignorance...
