PHILADELPHIA, July 12, 1876.

The headquarters of the Republican State Committee have been established at No. 1305 Chestnut street (2d floor), Philadelphia.

HENRY M. HOYT, Chairman.

Meeting of County Committee.

The members of the Republican County Committee are hereby notified that there will be a meeting of the Committee in the Hayes and Wheeler Club Room, in the borough of Mifflintown, on at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of Register and Recorder, in place of Mr. S. M. Shelley, who has resigned the candidacy on account of a business appointment; also to transact any other business that may come before the Committee. A full attendance is requested.

W. C. LAIRD, Chairman.

PORT ROYAL, PA., Oct. 2, 1876.

W. C. LAIRD, Esq., Chairman of Republican County Committee Juniata County:

DEAR SIR—Having accepted a situation in business which will necessitate my leaving the county, I respectfully ask that my name be withdrawn from the Republican County Ticket as nominee for the office of Register and Recorder, and that some other one be substituted therefor.

Thanking the Republicans, and especially my friends of the county, for the unsolicited honor conferred, regretting sincerely that I am not in position to help carry the Republican County Banner either to victory or defeat, and trusting that one, more suitable and efficient than myself, may be selected, and hoping for his success and the Republican cause, believe me sir,

Yours, respectfully

S. M. SHELLEY.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

This is Fair week at Port Royal.

The wheat sowing is about finished.

How do the joints in your stove-pipe fit?

Counterfeit three cent nickels are said to be in circulation.

Wanted—500 bushels Potatoes, by J. B. M. Todd, for cash or trade.

The Lewistown Sentinel published a daily during the holding of the Mifflin county Fair.

In cases of married men, the residence of the family determines the residence of the voter.

Two extensive sales of sheep will be held at the international stock exhibition on October 17th.

You can buy Boots at Todd's that he warrants water proof 21 inches in the legs.

"The salary of the Sunbury Postmaster has been cut down from $2,400 a year to $1,800."

Mr. Noah Hertzler, of Port Royal, was quite severely hurt in an accident that overtook a street car in Philadelphia, a few days ago.

Five hundred and seventeen excursionists left this place on Tuesday of last week, to be present on Pennsylvania Day at the Centennial Exhibition.

About 10 o'clock on Thursday night the Band left this place, to attend an Odd Fellows' parade and pic-nic at Concord, Franklin county, distant about 30 miles.

Of the large number of men who attend the Centennial Exhibition, nearly all return with a cane. The carrying of canes will be largely revived by the great Exhibition.

If you want good Boots, go to Todd's. If you want Boots that won't rip, go to Todd's. If you want cheap Boots, buy at Todd's.

On Saturday a woman lay on a wing wall of the Basin bridge, apparently in a stupefied state. To prevent an accident to the woman, she was lodged in jail till Sunday morning, when she was sent away.

Mr. Jas. Foose, of Markelville, this county, whilst walking from the dinner table to the garden on last Friday, fell dead from heart disease. He had been in good health, apparently, a few minutes before.—Perry Co. Freeman.

"Ada McMurtrie, of Tyrone, thought she had the rheumatism in her right arm. A doctor interviewed the member and succeeded in removing therefrom a needle, which had found its way there, Miss M. didn't know how."

Robert Parke Christy, aged about 11 years, a son of Jacob Christy, Esq., of this place, died on Monday morning about 5 o'clock, of diptheria. His remains were buried in the Presbyterian graveyard at 5 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

J. B. M. Todd has just arrived from Philadelphia with the cheapest lot of Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Ladies' Shoes, and a full line of Notions; also Horse Blankets, Lap Robes, which he has bought cheap and will sell cheap for cash or country produce.

The common schools in Fermanagh township opened on Monday. John Stoner teaches at Reno's, C. B. Horning at Cuba, Calvin Moyer at Horningtown, Miss Kate Moyer at Happy Hollow, Miss Mary Balentine at Slim Valley, and John F. Allen at Big Run.

A thief visited the woodpile of the editor of the Huntingdon Journal, a few nights since, and the Journal threatens to blow him up. Durborrow has not said what kind of a blowing up the fellow is to have, but it is inferred that powder is to be the chief medium to give the fellow a "good send off."

On Saturday night a bold attempt was made to rob the stores of John Sheaffer and Jackson Bro's., in the village of New Buffalo, this county. The thieves tore out part of the wall under the cellar door frame at Sheaffer's but being unable to gain an entrance to the store room from the cellar, they cut a pannel out of the store door but were evidently driven away by the dog in the room. They then commenced operations at Jackson's by tearing up the outside cellar doors, but failing to gain entrance to the house in that direction, they commenced to cut a panel out of the store room door but were discovered and fired upon by A. Jackson, when they fled, leaving behind them a new two bushel bag, brace, bit, chisel and two knives. They got nothing for their trouble at Sheaffer's and only about four pounds of "shorts" tobacco at Jackson's.—Perry Co. Advocate, Sept. 27th.

A few days ago, in company with E. S. Parker, a director in the board of common schools of this place, we paid a visit to school, No. 3, taught by Miss Clara V. Daugherty. The day's programme had been filled excepting the recitation of three classes, as follows: First, a class in spelling; second, a class in spelling and writing; and, third, singing by the whole school as a class. The class in both spelling and writing was new to both visitors. In our boyhood days such an exercise as that which Miss Daugherty engaged her class in was not practiced in schools. Miss Daugherty's method is to give a word to the class, to be written on a slate, with which each pupil is required to be furnished. After the lesson has all been given to the class, the pupils are required to look over their slates for mistakes in spelling. The usefulness of the practice is apparent to all who witness it. Mr. Parker made a suggestion, which, if accepted and engrafted in the lesson or practice, would multiply the educational quality of it many times. The suggestion is, that after the lesson has been written the scholars shall exchange slates, to correct each other's mistakes. Such an addition to the lesson would increase the desire to learn carefully how to spell, and so acquaint the pupils with different handwriting that after a few years have been spent in the common schools they may be able to read writing of different hands without difficulty.

WANTED—Five hundred bushels of corn, and two hundred bushels of potatoes, in exchange for furniture.

W. F. SNYDER, Furniture Dealer,
Mifflintown, Pa.

"Wm Rough, a farmer residing at Springfield Furnace, Blair co., was arrested by a Huntingdon Constable, charged with forgery on his brother David to the extent of $500."

The Huntingdon Local News of the 25th ult says: We learn from a reliable source that our townsman Theo. H. Cremer, had his pocket picked while attending the Centennial Exhibition on Thursday last. He was relieved of a pocket-book, containing about $10 in cash, $5 worth of admission tickets to the Centennial, a draft for $60 on a Philadelphia bank, and his excursion railroad tickets, in all about $90. He does not know how or when his pocket-book was stolen. Mr. Cremer and family went to the city with the excursion party on Monday evening last, and we regret that he has met with this misfortune. The attendance at the Centennial that day was immense, and, of course, the light-fingered gentry glory in large crowds to carry on their nefarious avocation.

FOUR tramps called at the house of Jacob F. Walter, of Franklin township, Snyder county, on Thursday morning, and were entertained in the most hospitable manner. In the night following two of them returned to his house, and entered it through a window and stole his coat and two pair of boots. They were arrested, one wearing his coat, the other the boots. Justice Grancello committed them to jail. The same night the same party took possession of Jesse Schambach's summer house, with access to the cellar, and prepared themselves a sumptuous, free and easy meal, as those departments evidenced the next morning.—Snyder County Post.

MR. JACOB B. MOYER, of Freeburg, Snyder county, a passenger by the evening train from Millersburg on the Summit Branch railroad, Tuesday, had his watch stolen when about a mile east of Millersburg station, in the following manner: A stranger occupying the seat opposite asked Mr. Moyer what time it was, and upon producing his watch asked to look at it. Moyer handed him his watch, and just at this moment another stranger, sitting by the side of stranger No. 1, grabbed the watch from the latter and made out the car door, and in a moment had jumped from the train. Stranger No. 1 in the meantime moved toward the door at the other end of the car, evidently with the intention of making his escape, but was clutched by Mr. Ab. Mattis, who was a passenger, and conductor Kahler turned him over to Henry Lehman, the Washington township constable, who happened to be on the train. Lehman brought his man to this place and lodged him for the night in the borough lock-up. In the morning he had a hearing before 'Squire Kendall and was discharged. The stranger claimed to hail from Hazleton, and insisted that that he did not know the man who grabbed and made off with the watch. The two were no doubt gamblers or pick-pockets, on their way to the Grait fair. Mr. Moyer says his watch was worth $45.—Lykens Register, Sept. 22.

THE Birmingham (Ala.) Iron Age contains the following advertisement:

CONFEDERATE MONEY WANTED.—Persons having Confederate money or bonds, if of the proper issue and denomination, can find a purchaser at fair prices by inquiring at this office.

Reader, the above advertisement is for the purchase of Confederate money with the intention of presenting it for redemption if Tilden and a Democratic Congress be elected.

DO NOT BE ENGAGED LONG.—Long engagements have always been considered unwise, and now the Indiana Supreme Court declares them illegal. It has filed a decision that if a promise of marriage is by its terms not to be performed within a year it is void, unless in writing and signed by the parties.

IN 1862 Mr. Voorhees, as a mouth piece of the Democratic party, said this of the men then engaged in suppressing armed Treason:

"Every soldier in the Union army ought to be taken to a blacksmith shop and have an iron collar moulded aroound his neck, and have stamped upon it these words: 'My dog.—A. Lincoln.'"

The slave idea that runs through the expression of Mr. Voorhees, was not shared by the mass of the Democratic party; but the people are familiar with expressions similar to that uttered by Mr. Voorhees, by leaders of the Democracy.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—The Great Antagonists of Disease.—Influenza, Catarrh, &c.—Nothing is more talked of in all classes of society than the marvelous cures daily effected by the two great internal and external remedies, Holloway's Pills and Ointment. All who are afflicted with hoarseness, difficult respiration, cold in the head, harsh settled coughs, bronchitis, asthma, wheezing in the chest, &c., will find immediate and permanent relief by rubbing the Ointment well into the throat, neck, and chest, as it loosens the phlegm and mucous collected in those parts, while the effect of the Pills is to expel those humors from the system. No household should be without a supply of these excellent family medicines at this season of the year. 19tf

On Friday a week near Freehold, Pa., Ira Root who runs a threshing-machine had a quarrel with a farmer named Roland Huntley, regarding the mesurement of grain. Huntley drove Root from the barn with a pitchfork, and while following him was hit on the head with a stone thrown by Root, from the effects of which he died. Root was arrested.

A farmer residing in North Middleton township, relates this incident: About 3 o'clock on the morning of the 13th ult., he started for the Carlisle markets in a spring wagon. On his arrival at the market he observed two bantam hens quietly roosting on the front axle of his wagon. The fowls had occupied this part of the wagon during the whole distance—four miles—and singular as it may seem, were not disturbed by the clattering noise and jolts of the wagon during the trip. That farmer says five dollars would not be sufficient to purchase that pair of bantam chickens.—Volunteer.

All the business failures, the destruction of property by fire and flood and storm during the past sixty-five years, since Schuykill county was formed, have not brought as much ruin, distress, grief, sleeplessness, shedding of tears, starvation, want and misery on our people as the failure of the Miners' Trust Company Bank of Pottsville, through the gross mismanagement, criminal misappropriation and corrupt practices of its designing president, Jacob Huntzinger.—Pottsville Evening Chronicle.

In Forest county, Pa., on Thursday a week, the mountain streams became greatly swolen from the recent storm, the waters flooding the partly settled valleys in the lumber regions, and doing much camage. Near Ralston, a newly-opened lumbering hamlet, two cabins, occupied by George Parks and Daniel Cooper, woodchoppers, were washed down the mountain side into the stream below at an early hour in the morning, and before the families were aroused from their slumber. The Park family consisted of seven persons—the father, mother and five children. There were nine members of the Cooper family—Cooper, his wife, their six children, and Mrs Adams, the mother of Mrs. Cooper. The sixteen persons were all drowned, and their bodies were carried and jammed between a "boom" of logs in Forest creek. The houses were completely wrecked. The county is very sparsely settled, but it is feared that other lives were lost during the great storm. In McKean county the storm was of long duration and severe. Two persons were drowned near Southport. In Tioga county three lives have been lost, and it is authentically reported that four persons were drowned while attempting to cross a swollen stream at Wellsport. Forest county, the scene of the above disaster, is in the northwestern part of the State, about midway between the Alleghenies and Lake Erie.

TO ALL.

DR. SWAYNE,

THE Discoverer and Compounder of the far-famed

Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry

and other valuable preparations, entered upon his professional career with the important advantage of a regular Medical Education in one of the oldest and best schools in Philadelphia, and, perhaps, in the world.—He subsequently served a faithful term of practice in the Philadelphia Dispensary, and for many years attended also in the hospital. In these institutions he enjoyed the most ample opportunities of obtaining an insight into diseases in all their varied forms, as well as for ascertaining the best methods of their treatment. In offering, therefore, to the people of the United States the fruits of his extensive professional experience in the medical compounds as the best results of his skill and observation, he feels that he is but proffering a boon to every family throughout the land, resting, as he does, confidently, in the merits and efficacious virtues of the remedies he herewith commends. The vast amount of testimony from all parts of the world has proven "DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY" the most efficacious remedy known, and it is admitted by our most eminent physicians, and all who have witnessed its wonderful healing properties. The WILD CHERRY, in all ages of the world, and in all countries where it is known, has been justly celebrated for its wonderful medicinal qualities, but its great power to cure some of the worst and most distressing diseases among us, was never fully ascertained until the experiments of that skillful physician, Dr. Swayne, had demonstrated its adaptation, in combination with Pine Tar and equally valuable vegetable ingredients, which, chemically combined, renders its action tenfold more certain and beneficial in curing all diseases of the throat, breast and lungs. DR. SWAYNE'S WILD CHERRY COMPOUND strikes at the root of the disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous and shattered constitution. It does so without prostrating or weakening the body in any way. It cures not only the lungs and liver, but every organ dependent upon a wasted or impoverished state of the blood.

A REMARKABLE CURE

was that of Edward H. Hamson, Engineer at George SWeeney's Pottery, 1,334 Ridge Avenue, Philadelphia. He had a violent cough, night sweats, sore throat, great weakness, spit at different times a pint of blood, gave up all hope of recovery.—Through the use of "Dr. Swayne's Wild Cherry Syrup" became a sound, hearty man, and remains so to this day, although over twenty years have elapsed since he was cured.

☞ We are permitted to refer to the following gentlemen who have experienced great benefit, and used "Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry" in their family for many years:

ITCHING PILES

are generally preceded by a moisture like perspiration, distressing itching, as though pin worms were crawling in and about the rectum, particularly at night, when undressing, or in bed, after getting warm. It appears in summer as well as in winter, oftentimes shows itself around the private parts, and is not confined to males only, but it is quite as frequent that females are sorely afflicted, particuly in times of pregnancy, extending into the vagina, proving distressing almost beyond the powers of endurance.
