suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Indeed lings need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safegnard to chaldren, amid the distressing diseases which least the Threat and Chest of childheed, Chrisany Pecronat, is invaluable; for, by its linely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and sure against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublescene Influenza and painful Eror-chitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.
