PENN'A. R. R. TIME TABLE. On and after Sunday, Nov. 26th, 1876, passenger trains will leave Mifflin Station, P. R. R., as follows:

Table with columns for destination (Philadelphia, Harrisburg, etc.) and time (12:54 a.m., 6:22 a.m., etc.).

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Parasols. Base ball. Croquet. Straw hats. Sewing cloverseed. Cisterns are empty. Rain is greatly needed. Preparing corn ground. What's your politics now? Todd is paying 10 cents for bacon. The mayor is about to indulge in a vacation. April—but this far minus the proverbial shower. The Turks are said to be 180,000,000 strong. Cucumbers at one dollar a piece, in city markets. The coming wheat crop in this county will not be heavy. Locusts are yet bent the sun instead of the shade side. A colony of Pennsylvania have gone to Australia to settle. Think of R. Temperance meetings every night in Huntington. The Normal School opened on Monday in the school house. Prof. Stone's school is highly praised by the academy attending it. Aarnings have been put out in front of some of the business places. Everybody should go to Todd's, if they want good and cheap mack rail. The horse hole at the third pier of the river bridge is a place that big fish frequent. The old Wilds in large numbers in the South, it is said, are joining the Hayes standard. Give Hayes a chance. Wait and see whether the rebels of the South, with whom he has made common cause, break faith. Sucker fishing has been suspended, for the reason, it is said, that the waters are too clear and low. The country singing schools and literary societies have quite generally adjourned till after harvest. Beautiful flowers decorate the windows of a number of houses of citizens in Mifflin and Patterson. Showers & Scholl are building a large stable and carriage house on their lot along Washington street. Easter is past, but the "Easter party" is just peering in an appearance. The two not coming together is owing to the moon. Counterfeit ten-dollar bills of the First and Third National Banks of Philadelphia are in circulation. It is reported by despatch that Russia will attack Turkey from the Asiatic side, 250,000 strong. Philadelphia Markets.—Wheat, $1.95 to 2.10, Corn 55 to 60c, Oats 45 to 50c, Cattle 40 to 45, Sheep unbranded, Hogs firm. The cow market was somewhat lively up last week by Samuel Beery taking a hand in it. He shipped quite a lot, last week. The Drovers will hold their Annual National Meeting at New Enterprise, Bedford county, Pa., this year, beginning May 20th. Jacob Christy, Esq., and James North, Esq., are the executors of Judge Ewald Oles, deceased. The Lewistown Sentinel says that frogs are in that town, and give a broad hint as to what may be expected if they are found out. The average church goes chokes under a 4-cent sermon. A sermon 15 minutes in length suits the majority of church goers better. If you want the cheapest lady's slippers, go to Todd's. Only 75 cents. The heroic Ben Wade, of Ohio, is against President Hayes in his Southern policy. Ditto, Senator Blaine and thousands of other Republicans. "Grandma, why don't you keep a servant any longer?" "Well, you see, my child, I am getting old now and can't take care of one as I used to, you know." "Twelve different American railroads are to be sold at auction during the next six weeks, and you can have your choice of route and scenery." There is to be a meeting of Common School Superintendents at Harrisburg on the 24th inst., under a call from the State Superintendent. The tramp that secured a lodgment in jail by breaking glass in Sheriff's store, obtained a lodgment in the Harrisburg jail by breaking glass in windows in that town. Wheat has a strong upward tendency in price, owing to the poor prospects of a profitable yield, and the impending European war. "Some of the Altoona landlords are assisting in making the Murphy movement effective, and won't sell liquor to any person who has taken the pledge." An exchange says you can always detect a bachelor by the way he handles a baby, but to be safe from loss it is well to use a borrowed baby in making the experiment. Last Friday evening Philadelphia enjoyed a telephone concert in the Academy of Music. The music was played in New York city. Such luxurious eating as frogs may be bought in city markets at 25 cents per dozen. The degree of civilization of such rural towns as Mifflin does not warrant indulgence in frog diet.

Fire from the Perry county side of Tuscarora mountain appeared in the Juniata side of the mountain, opposite Mifflin, about noon on Sabbath. The generation of men now in business in this county will be old and out of business before the times will reach as prosperous a degree as when they first entered the business circle. Last Friday farmers of Centre county established a "comb market." If their place of meeting is sufficiently patronized by the people of Bellefonte, it will not be long till a market house will grace the town. Rev. T. J. Sherrard next Sabbath will assist Rev. Mr. Chichester in the administration of the Lord's supper in the First Presbyterian Church of Altoona. Rev. Mr. Chichester, of the First Presbyterian Church of Altoona will assist Rev. T. J. Sherrard in the communion services on the first Sabbath in May in the Presbyterian Church of this place. Fire on Shale mountain opposite Evansdale made a light strong enough to be seen in this place on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. Officer Wilson's horse stepped out of the stable, in full harness excepting the bridle, on Saturday, and moved about East Point quite lively for a while, with noticeable effects on the harness. Freaks of nature, such as a double-ended cow, or rather a cow with two heads, a six-legged pig, and so forth, was put on exhibition, by a couple of traveling showmen on a vacant lot along Main street, last Wednesday evening. A writer has observed with much truth, that every man is in a sense three different men. In the first place he is the man he thinks himself to be; in the second place he is the man other people think him to be; and finally he is the man that he really is. "A country girl wrote to her lover: 'Now, George, don't you fail to be at the singing-school to-night.' George wrote back that 'in the bright lexicon of youth 'Womankind's there's no such word as 'fail'." An incident in the life of a cross-eyed school teacher is thus related. It was on the occasion when she wanted to make a terrible example, she said: "The boy at whom I am looking will stand up." Thirty-seven boys laid out in a class of forty rose to their feet. A Maryland judge is looking up the law to prosecute Bennett for fighting a duel. Queer, how differently judges act. Sometimes it takes all the formality that the books require to get a judge to look at a case; but here the judge does not stand on ceremony; he looks the case up himself. Col. A. K. McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, was attacked in that city on Monday by Mr. Nat McKay and several others, whip and fists being the weapons employed. Two of the assailants were arrested and put under ball bond. Some three or four participated in the attack. "Every day that the merchant leaves his advertisement out of the paper he suffers a loss. The continual silent appeals of an advertisement, well displayed and reaching thousands of people, has an effect in bringing trade to the merchant that cannot be overestimated. Don't neglect your advertising if you want to do business. It is a matter of sufficient importance to demand your earnest attention." The Democrats heretofore do not quite swear by McClure's Times, but his paper is only one peg away from that degree of excellence in their minds, and still the Colonel persists in saying that his paper is independent, and the Democrats are just as persistent in saying that they are not independent. Submitted to the gallant Colonel and the Democracy. If war takes place between Turkey and Russia it will be the greatest war since the days of Napoleon the first, and will make this country of ours a busy place, to supply the combatants with such goods and produce as may be needed by them. So people say. Some say that the rebellion will not be destroyed, and the coming European war is to be our redeemer, that is in a financial sense. There is considerable dissatisfaction against the Southern policy of President Hayes, among Republicans. The general disposition, however, is to wait and see how the plan of the President succeeds. If the Southern people act in good faith, the country will settle to a state of quietude and peace that it has not enjoyed in the eighteen years past. If the Southern people do not meet their pledges, stand firm on their plighted word. Last Thursday evening two small children of John Price, who lives below Harrisburg, were fatally burned in the absence of their parents. While their mother was gathering wood along the river one of the children poured coal oil on the fire in the stove. The flames communicated with their clothing, and one of them ran to the outside of the house a mass of fire. The other escaped during the night. The younger child was found in a corner of the house with its dress ablaze, and its death is inevitable. Last Tuesday a fire broke out in the boiler shop of Willis & Schoch, in Lewistown, and before it was put out it destroyed the boiler works, two dwelling houses, and a number of stables. The loss is estimated at $40,000. At the time of the fire a wind prevailed that was strong enough to carry fire across and beyond the town. The current of wind that blew from the fire was laden with sparks which threatened to fire the whole place. It is said that fire were started by the sparks in twenty different places, but almost every house has a man out with a bucket of water, and thus the fire was kept within almost its original limits. Despatches from Louisiana state that in every cabin a little bottle of coal oil is kept for incendiary purposes, to burn out the white people. It would be a dreadful thing if true, but the probability is that there is no truth in the despatches. The people who have been burned out down there heretofore have been the negroes. They have been burned out with as little feelings of remorse as country boys burn and gouge ground squirrels out of stumps or other hiding places. It's a canard. The Supreme Court of the United States decided that the fund that the Centennial management got from the United States Government shall be refunded; that it was only loaned to the management to help them along; that it was not a gift. The news of the decision of the Court sent the stock down from 85 cents to 25 cents. Grand and overshadowing as was the show, there seems to be little or no sympathy for the stockholders, now that the Government took back what it loaned. Large stock of Ready-made Clothing for sale by HARLEY & CO.

On last Friday the body of a man was found in a field of John D. Stewart, in Tyrone township, Perry county, near a place on Sherman's creek known as "Rigglesham's Hole." The place is about one-fourth of a mile from a public road. Jonathan Shick, Jr., who discovered the body, notified Esquire Wingert, of Landisburg, of the fact. Esquire Wingert repaired to the place and then appointed the following jurors to hold an inquest: S. P. Campbell, W. H. Lightner, John Umboldt, Jonathan Shick, Sr., Scott W. Lightner and George B. Cree, who after examining the body, and finding no marks of violence on it, rendered their verdict of death from some unknown cause. The body proved to be that of David Falton, formerly of Horse Valley, Perry county, but lately an inmate of the Poor House, which he left about last Christmas. It was evident from the state and appearance of the body that the man had died where the body was found, two or three months ago.—Bloomfield Advertiser. Shermer, aged 53 years, 8 months and 29 days. Dear mother, we miss thee at home, Where we so often met, And talked of that beautiful land, Where the sun is never known to set. Dear mother, can we let thee go, To be buried from our sight, In the grave, where Jesus slept, When the world was dark as night. Yes, dear mother, we have heard you say: "Do not grieve when I am gone, For I shall be with you, and I want you to meet me in his throne." Dear mother, shall we never meet again, To bloom and hear you sing "Of Jesus and his love?" No, mother, your mission on earth is filled, And you are resting beneath the shady bower; Where loved ones before have gone, To bloom in the Garden of God as a flower. Love and affection for near ones, Blessings and children four, Meet me in the haven of rest, Where all our sorrows are o'er. Sox. CLOSING PRICES OF DE HAVEN & TOWNSEND, BANKERS.
