MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, MAY 23, 1877.

B. F. SCHWEIER,

With a blooming maiden sitting. While she nimbly plice her knitting Pleased-I gazed upon her beauty. While I fill my happy duty, "Paying out" the zephyr double. Richly paid for pleasant trouble Just to watch her nimble fingers, And her ruby lips where lingers Many a beauty in her smiling. All my loving soul beguiling. Just to feel the wond'rous thrilling Of my heart with rapture filling

While beside the maiden sitting. "Paying out" while she is knitting I am thinking-how our knitting Is an illustration fitting Of the real life we're living : Of the mercies God is giving In the active world around him When to woman-man has bound him Then-are love and labor making All the joys our souls are taking. Hisdo labor are supplying.

"Paying out" life's thread, and trying Ever to undo its tangling; His-to give life's thread and hold it; Hers-in love to gently mould it Into forms of use and beauty, Thus they link their love and duty."

Winnie's Fortune.

The handsome dining-room in the Mayberry mansion was all a-glitter with floods of gaslight and the general glow of the fire-for Mr. Joslah Maybery was a very "queer man," according to his wife's opinion, and this fancy of his to have nasty, ashy fires all over the splendid mansion before the weather became cold enough was one of his "eccentric freaks," Mrs. Maybery called it, with a curl of her lip, a toss of her head and a smile, almost of contempt, directed at the hale, hearty, honestwhen he was an immensely rich widower with his handsome half-grown son for a not undesirable encumbrance. your son is twenty-three-old enough o'clock dinner, with the solemn butler enough to invite to your table." and his subordinate, in silent, obsequious attention—these three Mayberrys, he wants to marry a beggar, and she is father, son, and haughty well-dressed a good, virtuous girl-why not?" lady who was wearing a decided frown of displeasure on her face-a frown she had barely power to restrain from Mayberry was capable. degenerating into a verbal expression of anger while the servants were in people as you have named!"

Mr. Mayberry sipped his wine con- swer-

"I told you, didn't I, Marguerite, that it was my intention to give an old- asked-he wants me to-oh, grandpa, fashioned dinner? And by that I meant, can't you tell what it is?" and mean, to whom it will, indeed, be cause for thankfulness. As to making him. table only the people to whom a luxuri- the other one. rous dinner is an every day occurrence -I shall not do it. As to the guests on the list being 'horrid' and 'common' wanting you for his wife. So that is you are mistaken, my dear. None of what comes of that dinner, eh, Winthem have a worse failing than poverty. nie?" There is not a common vulger person among the ten names on that paper."

Mr. Mayberry's good old face lighted do love him, you know." up warmly as he spoke, and Ernest Mayberry's handsome face reflected the satisfaction and pride he felt in his father's views.

Mrs. Mayberry flushed, but said nothrings, almost roughly.

servants, Mr. Mayberry. It will be as with such people as the Hurds and the tion and braveness nothing could daunt. Masons, and that Thyrsa Green and her lame brother, and that little Wilming- face paling. ton and his granddaughter, and"-

Mr. Mayberry interrupted her of mine long before he went to India. Since he came home with his son's or- his shrewd old face as he listened.

glas-es. berry's invitation to dinner, ch, Winnie? of his old friend. You wouldn't be ashamed of your oldfine folks, I hear, for all I can remember, when Joe was a boy together with myself. Fine folks, Winnie, and you which Mr. Mayberry sat among a hope-think we'd better my?' hetter my?' think we'd better go?"

want many, for I think contented honest your son has asked my Winnie to marry labor is the grandest thing in the world, him?"

and the best discipline-but somehow, I can't tell why, but I do want to go. I then the gloom returned. can wear my black cashmere, and you'll or add at overal little accommission I want.

And thus it happened that among the ten guests that sat down at Josiah May- prove." berry's hospitable overflowing board that cold. blue-skied day, Winnie Wil- above, eh, Mayberry?" mington and the little old man were two-and two to whom Ernest Mayberry paid more devoted attention than even his father had asked and expected.

Of course it was a grand success-all very beginning of his career.' excepting the cold hauteur on Mrs. Mayberry's aristocratic face, and that was a failure, because no one took the

"I only hope you are satisfied," Mrs. Josiah said, with what was meant to be withering sarcasm, after the last guest had gone, and she stood a moment before the fire, "I only hope you are satisfled-particularly with the attention Ernest paid to that young woman-very unnecessary attention, Indeed."

Mr. Mayberry rubbed his hands together briskly.

"Satisfied? Yes, thankful to God, I get their poverty, if for only one little second triangle of pie? Bless the call it a bargain?" youngsters' hearts, they won't want anything to eat for a week,"

"I was speaking of the young woman

Mrs. Mayberry was ielly severe, but her husband cut it short. "So you were-pretty little thing as faced old gentleman who had married ever I saw. A ladylike graceful little her for her pretty face, ten years ago, girl, with beautiful eyes enough to excuse the boy for admiring her." "The boy. You seem to forget that They were sitting around the hand- to fall in love with and marry-even a some table, discussing their seven poor, unknown girl you were quixotic "Twenty-three? So he is. And was the only answer of which Mrs.

A little gasp of horror and dsmay

"Grandpa, I want to tell you some-

He felt her cheeks grow hotter against a grand fuss, and seeing around our He reached up his hand and caressed

"Yes, I can tell, my dear. Ernest has shown his uncommon good sense by "And may I tell him you are willing, perfectly willing, grandpa? Because I "And you are sure that it isn't hi money you are after, ch ?" She did not take umbrage at the sharp

"I am at least sure it is not my money

"Mrs. Mayberry twisted her diamond how I love her, and how patiently and hard I will work for her to give of dream, so that the squares of the "Oh, don't ask me to give such an in-Oh, don't ask me to give such an in-sane order to him! I have no wish to the house of Mayberry & Thurston thoress."

appear as a laughing stock before my failed, and both families are beggars." severe a strain on my endurance as I am capable of to be forced to sit at a table his eyes were bright with a determina-

"Never mind Ernest, on my account,

I can wait too." Old Mr. Wilmington's eyes were al-"Old Mr. Wilmington was a friend most shut between the heavy, frowning forehead, and a quizzical look was on

"Gone up, eh? Well, that's too bad.

"Would I like to go? Oh, grandpa, remarkable short time, and presenting I should! Will we go, do you think?" his wrinkled, weather beat n old face

"I am glad to see you, Wilmington. fashioned grandfather, ch, among the Sit down. The sight of a man who has fine folks of the family? Remarkably not come to reproach me is a comfort." But Mr. Wilmington did not sit down. He crossed the room to the table at less array of papers.

"There is no use wasting words, Maydon't have many recreations-I don't berry at a time like this. Did you know

Mr. Mayberry's face lighted a second.

"If my son had a fortune at his command, as I thought he had yesterday at "Proud of you, indeed, my child, no this time, I would say: "God speed you matter what you wear. Yes, we'll go." in your woeing of Winnie Wilmington,"

"So you haven't a pound over and Mr. Wilmington smiled gleefully. use, and I'll start the boy for himself, if you say so. Eh?"

Mr. Mayberry looked at him in speechless bewilderment.

Wilmington went on. hands-a couple of millions. I deterheiress-my heiress. Sounds like a eyes glisten when Ernest gave him the Well, will you shake hands on it, and > Mr. Mayberry took the little dried up band almost reverentially, his voice hoarse and thick with emotion.

"Wilmington, God will reward you for this. May he, a thousandfold!" Wilmington winked a very suspicious moisture on his evelashes.

"You see it all comes of that dinner old fellow. You acted like a charitable Christian gentleman, and between us wc'll make the boy and Winnie as happy gave that dinner, and when she expects to see Mrs. Ernest Mayberry an honored guest at her board, she candidly feels that she owes every atom of her splendor and luxury to the violet-eyed, charming girl who wears her own honors with such sweet grace.

How Miss Martineau Began to Write. "Grandpa, I want to tell you something. I—Mr. May—we—Ernest has thing. I—Mr. May—we—Ernest has asked—he wants me to—oh, grandpa, to some fresh pursuit which would discan't you tell what it is?"

In the dest of the spring that she was far from such to some fresh pursuit which would distract and energe her mind, and such that Eastern questions which now ofnext morning, before six o'clock, she fixed in a small double tooled lathe, a was at her desk composing an article on few revolutions of which finish the 'Female Writers on Practical Divinity" trimming of the edges, and cut the

"I went home," she adds, "in a sort

English etiquette demands the obmany delinquents to the contrary notwithstanding. They are that all dinner invitations shall be answered at once—no waiting to see if a pleasanter with the depot leisurely, but spoke to sound, till it led him to a long, latticed sound sound, till it led him to a long, latticed sound so Winnie smiled back on him, her own once—no waiting to see if a pleasanter enjoyment presents itself, and that the guest shall be punctual to the hour

Among the notable charitable instispecified. That the success of the tutions of London there is none more party depends largely upon these is novel in inception, or unique in man-

-The Prince of Wales and the Dake a small table in the centre of the room. The Prince of Wales and the Dake of Cambridge are now the only field marshals in the British army.

a small table in the centry of the room.

This being done, the candidates, one at a time, advance toward the canister, cannot overtake it and bring it back.

aware, consists in producing, by a rapid process of metal casting, counterparts -as it is-for the girl's sake-I disap- of bringing this art to the pitch of perfection to which it has attained in the present day the name of Walter is nonorably associated. The invention "There will be nothing-less than of stereotyping dates back to about the nothing. I don't know that I really year 1785, and is generally attributed care so much for myself, but Ernest, — to William Ged, a goldsmith of Edin- lit is a terrible thing to happen at the burgh. His process, still used for certain classes of work, is known as the "Good. Neither do I care for myself, terial used to take the impression from but for Winnie, my little Winnie. I tell the type and from the matrix. The least notice of it, so much more power- you what, Mayberry, perhaps, you will stuceo is poured on to the face of the ful were the influences of Mayberry's wonder if I am crazy, but I'll agree to page of type in liquid form, and hardand Ernest's courteous, gentlemanly at- settle a quarter of a million on Winnie ensin cooling. As, however, the stucco the day she marries your boy. And I'll matrix cannot be bent into semi-circulend you as much more if it'll be any lar form, it is useless for cylinder printing and for newspaper work has been entirely superseded by the papermache process, which, though not inmache process, which, though not invented, has been chiefly developed and the se nations would consent to such an George set out at a very unfashionable "I made a fortune out in India, and first taken in hand there-being at that it's safe and sound in hard cash in good time a recent and crude inventionduring the period of the Crimeau war, mined to bring my girl up to depend when with all previous known applion herself, and to learn the value of ances, it was found impossible to com money before she had the handling of plete the daily publication of the great had it in my power to make them for- her fortune. She has no idea she's an journal before nine or ten o'clock in the morning. In the able hands of the hour. Did you see little Jimmy Hurd's story out of a book, eh, Mayberry? eves glisten when Ernest gave him the Well will some bake heard on it and some state and made so secure that a Russian occupation. A series of experiments, and made so secure that a Russian occupation of the establishment, a series of experiments, and made so secure that a Russian occupation of the establishment step by step improvements, gradually tion were impossible, a great political front steps told him Miss Granger was led up to the admirably simple, rapid. and effective method used to supply Walter press, and of this a brief description may be given. The "form" of type as set up by the compositor is oiled by means of a financial set and the works of defence erected in the Bosphorus and Dardsnelles have prevented the possibility of a Muscovite capture of Constantinople by a sea attack. It, therefore, only beoiled by means of a flannel covered comes necessary to strengthen the land roller; a wet sheet, consisting of several thicknesses of soft paper carefully pasted together, is then laid on the oiled face and covered with a blanket. The form thus covered is passed under rollers, which by their pressure force rollers, which by their pressure force line of works were erected across this as they deserve, en?

the face of the type in the paper in such
And even Mrs. Mayberry admits that a way as to make it a perfect mold or it was a good thing that her husband matrix of the form. Another sheet of it was a good thing that her husband
matrix of the form. Another sheet of name is then reasted upon the back of name is then reasted upon the back of paper is then pasted upon the back of the mold to strengthen it, and the form with the soft paper still upon it, is placed upon a hot plate covered with several folds of dry blanketing, and a press screwed down on the top. In the space of two or three minutes the drying process is completed, and the mold paper is then pasted upon the back of cure. An admirable position exists ing process is completed, and the mold by road is upwards of nine hundred lifts clearly off. The edges are then miles. There are no roads for artil-

agement, than Raine's Asylum, estabphan daughter and lived in such obscurity—comfortable, although plain, for Winnie carns enough as daily governess to support them both cheaply—I regard him as more worthy than ever. Ernest, him as more worthy than ever. Ernest, my boy, I shall depend upon you to help entertain our guests, and especially at table, for I shall have no servants about to scare them out of their appetites."

And Mr. Mayberry dismissed the subject by arri-ing from the table.

Dened, because I believe you can earn best suit each other. There are several lower school previously best suit each other. There are several methods of arranging the order in which the guests are to go down; one is for the host, before doments and to the lady, whom he is to take to dinter in mone, to consider which couples taken from a lower school previously best suit each other. There are several methods of arranging the order in which the guests are to go down; one is for the host, before doments at the asylum, and shout to scare them out of their appetites."

And Mr. Mayberry dismissed the subject by arri-ing from the table.

The female bat has rather a hard time of it, as she is the nest and the food of the young ouns with they are themselves the age of twenty two, any girl who has been educated at the asylum, and who can produce satisfactory testimonials of her conduct while in service, small either. How else could they get along? The old ones make no nest; it they wanted to ever so much they the from the fall they wanted to ever so much they are themselves the age of twenty two, any girl who has been educated at the asylum, and who can produce satisfactory testimonials of her conduct white in service, small either. How else could they get along? The old ones make no nest; it they wanted to ever so much they the form the fall to five young ones were not so the produce at the age of twenty two, any girl who has been educated at the asylum, and who can produce satisfactory testimonials of her conduct white in service, small either. How else could they get along? The old ones make no nest; it they wanted to ever so much they are themselves to the subject by him. On arriving at the stable to fly. Often have a conduct white in service is form.

W And off he strode, leaving the lovers alone, getting over the distance in a self when the host has given his arm allowed to draw twice in each year— from their wandering habits, they remarkable short time, and presenting his wrinkled, weather beat nold face in Mayberry & Thurston's private in Mayberry & Thurston's private where they are to sit. An experienced The little, wizened old man looked fondly at her over his steel-rimmed glases.

The will we go, do you think?

The little, wizened old man looked office, where Mr. Mayberry at alone, with rigid face and keen, troubledeyes, seat husbands and wives opposite each glases.

Should! Will we go, do you think?

In Mayberry & Thurston's private where they are to sit. An experienced hostess always takes special care not to seat husbands and wives opposite each with rigid face and keen, troubledeyes, where Mr. When the with rigid face and keen, troubledeyes, seat husbands and wives opposite each locality might be forgotten. When the that, nevertheless, fighted at the sight of his old friend.

when the sight other.

One thing should never be forgotten.

when the sight other.

One thing should never be forgotten.

Next, he takes as many selves the mother's life is easier, and Every gentleman must place the lady he escortson his right hand. He should always, when desired to take her to dinner, offer his right arm. Ladies and gentlemen enter the room singly, not arm-in-arm, and the ladies retain their cloves until content their cloves until their cloves until their insect food, she lives luxuriously. Then, when all nature is prepared to put on the livery of winter, bats, instead of leaving the scenes where they had passed the summer, repair to their sheets is wrapped tightly round a little leaving the scenes where they had roller of wood, tied with a narrow green passed the summer, repair to their ribban the knot of which is firmly haunts in the caves and walls, and sealed. The rolls are then formally de-posited in a large canister placed upon dreary season in one unbroken sleep.

each drawing therefrom one of the rolls. When all have drawn, they proceed to the chairwoman, who cuts the ribbon which secures each roll, and bids the candidate unfold the various papers. of the type forms set up by hand by There is no need to ask them which of lips. The portion drawn in May is me a Benedict?" given after a wedding on the fifth of November, the November portion being evening soon after he had become the given in like mannor on May day.

Defences of Constantinople

The great importance of the Eastern question rests entirely upon the fear that Constantinople may fall into the hands of Russia. No other great power covets its possession; with Russia the desire to obtain this great key to the East is traditionary. Both to England and to Austria the occupation of the Bosphorus and Dardanelles by Russia would be of paramount interest. Nor long and unsuccessful war. It is for of his friends.

It was so ear provement of Turkey rather than for they would not her destruction, whilst Russian inter-ests induce that country to hasten in every way the decadence of the Ottoas well as military problem would have in, and as the door stood open, George been solved. The superiority of the stepped unceremoniously in, too, and Turkish fleet and the works of defence walked into the front parlor. nnamy crossed on them, leaving the little party alone over their wine and nuts, burst feel impetuously:

Wilmington only just heard it, and party alone over their wine and nuts, burst feel impetuously:

Wilmington only just heard it, and when he heard it and looked up he saw that is so delightful to most authors of an army so advancing would be exposed. It happened that her brother James, who was going to leave home for college perceiving that she was far from lege perceiving that she was far from ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of Constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of constantinople ingeniously constructed circular saw, in the line of works proposed by making the position of constantinople in the line of works proposed by making the position of constantinople in the line of works proposed by making t

"Miss Grundy." "Female Writers on Practical Divinity" trimming of the edges, and cut the —a ponderous theme for a girl of nine-teen—which, when finished, she sent to a small Unitarian periodical called the a small Unitarian periodical called the Monthly Repository. Keeping her design a secret from the family, she carried the passes to a revolving planing machine as the family and the secret from the family, she carried the passes to a revolving planing machine as the family and the secret from the family, she carried the passes to a revolving planing machine as the family and the secret from the family, she carried the passes to a revolving planing machine as the family and the secret from the fami a secret from the family, she carried the article to the postoffice, and awaited with palpitating heart the arrival of the next number of the Repository. It came just before service on Sunday morning, and when she turned the sheet her heart "thumped prodigiously" on seeing her article on the page. In the evening her elder brother, by channed heart the article aloud in his family circle and the article article article and the article and the article and the article and the article article and the article and the article and the article article article and the article and the article and the article article article article and the article article and the article article article article article article article ar and unimpeded by half-evolved tack or understanding. She lives very quietly with her mother in modest rooms surrounded by books of decided worth and comfort, all the more enjoyed beard comfort, all the more enjoyed beard earned. Her motehr is a live the voice of Nettie Hayes, for the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such the other day in broad daylight at a prevail of the blind. The hour marks on such are generally raised study, or pins, which can readily be recognized by passing the finger over the dial; their position with respect to the pendant. It may be thought a singular purpose of charity to provide for the "marriage of poor maids," and one that would accomplish but little in a field where the objects would be so numerous; never-objects would be so English etiquette demands the observance of two rules in connection with dinners which it is the worst possible taste to violate in any country, sible taste to violate in any country, well as in other various directions men-night; when simlight comes they fly away to their holes, there to sleep until Seeking a Wife.

Well, the formalities were duly dispensed with, and I find myself invested There is no need to ask them which of them has gained the prize—the spark-choose, I can set up an establishment, seats. And now I will wish you good ling eyes of the fortunate "hundred and keep it up in good style. But I never fancied a bachelor's hall, and quickly than it could be spoken by the So ran George Herbert's solitoquy as he walked home from his office one

> "I declare," he continued, as he settled into a solitary corner in a half empty car, "I would marry at once if I could find a genuine girl. But how girl, not afraid or ashamed to be seen a fellow trust those be founced at work, as I have just found out. can a fellow trust those be-flounced and be flummeried doll-babies whom he never sees any other way. If I they are at home-wonder if I couldn't? gravia, it won't be for the want of the think a night on it, and who knows what may happen?"

perfected in the Times office. It was occupation except as the result of a hour next morning to call upon some It was so early an hour that he knew

> His first call was upon Miss Lulu did wonder at George Herbert's man Empire. Constantinople and its approaches being the great prize which is much coveted, it naturally follows admiring Miss Lulu's faultless toilet them for the asking. A servant who was sweeping the

> > but the back parlor was wide open and George saw a vision.

Miss Lulu, her hair twisted upon the top of her head about the size and shape of a peeled onion, her fair forehead adorned with several little paper horns, her pretty person arrayed in a more sublime than all these.

At Miss Dorsey's the door was sjar

brewer, a fund was established for just and she comes of a fine Kentucky such a durpose.

Among the notable charitable insti
Next Workers.

Among the notable charitable instipretty round arms, her soft hands fly-

> George close beside her, with his hat Nettie started, and nearly dropped and smiling in pretty confusion. "No. I came the legitimate way, by ed astonishment at such marvellous half a day without anyone hearing it. Our not be ashamed of such a near bit of late nothing in life, are better, so I'm helping with the ironing to-day, you see. Come in the house provements in the already wonderful been their own enemies.

tie. "I was wishing this morning to go, but did not think I could, because papa is out of town, and I could not go played, and trumpets blown; and when

"Then I am doubly glad I thought morning Miss Nettie, and not interrup you any longer."

Declining her second invitation into the house, George touched his hat and hurried away with a very light heart. "Pure gold found once," he mused, as he walked in the direction of his of-"Sweet, neat, and industrious,

Pretty as a pink, I always thought. A lady every inch, and a good little What more can a man ask? He no more, I'm sure, so, Miss Nettie its full perfection at the approaching Hayes, if you don't become the mistress of the handsome mansion in Belventor has not bad time to construct a asking, I'll warrant,'

Whether the 'asking' was done as they went to or came from the concert that night, I can't say, as I did not go, but if not then it was soon after, for in three months there was a wedding and pretty Nettie became Mrs. George Her-ghastly,—Olive Logan.

they would not be expecting him or ready to receive him, and that was just Baldwin were all invited, and were what he wanted.

Miss Lulu, Miss Dorsey and Miss were all invited, and were there, lovely as angels, though they

And George never explained,

Maternal Affection

Woman's charms are certainly many The heavy curtains were drawn, mak- and powerful. The expanding rose thumb-nail has a characteristic shape, ing the elegant room somewhat dark, just bursting into beauty has an irresistible bewitchness; the blooming to enable the person to pick up small bride led triumphantly to the hymeneal objects. Whithout this slight alteration altar awakens admiration and interest, the hands would be nearly useless. and the blush of her check fills with de- Nails of still greater enormity may be light; but the charm of maternity is seen. They are said to have attained collar, and her pretty feet in slippers face something beyond this world, the first finger is not entirely cut off. decidedly shocking, was tossing over something which claims kindred with the skies,-the angelic smile, the tender look, the waking watchful eye, which keeps its fond vigil over her slumber-

These are objects which neither the pen nor the chisel can touch, which clock." poetry fails to exalt, which the most eloquent tongue in vain would eulogize, and on which all description becomes ineffective. In the heart of man lies this in 1550. The earliest springs were not lovely picture: it lives in his sympa-coiled, but only straight pieces of burst forth impetuously:

"I declare, Mr. Mayberry, it is too bad!" I have gone over the list of invitations you have made, and to think among them, and such a lot of people as you have made as a "pocket clock." The destrict of the list of invitation to litera ture in print. The account of her entrance upon the vocation of an authors, of the Black Sea. Finally the approach to Constantinople is also by a narrow need to command of the ward that is so delightful to most authors, of the lack Sea. Finally the approach to Constantinople is also by a narrow need to throb ere we forget! "Tis our first ture in print. The account of her entrance upon the vocation of an authoress there is not one—of our set among them, and such a lot of horrid among them, and such a lot of horrid her between the proposed in the section of the page of the black Sea. Finally the approach to command of the ward the sound of a stack by any power in command of the section of the black Sea. Finally the approach to command of the section of the black Sea. Finally the approach to constantinople is also by a narrow need to words, in Belle's own tone—

She went up behind him and leaned is fully approach to command of the ture in print. The account of her entrance upon the vocation of an authoress to the black Sea. Finally the approach to the black Sea. Finally the approach to command of the wave least they are the condition to litera ture in print. The account of the page of the page of the page of the page of the sound of a smart slap, followed by a child's sobbing, and the ture in print. The account of the page of the page happy, advised her to turn her attention to some fresh pursuit which would distract and engage her mind, and sugtract and engage her min ry Miss Baldwin next."

Just as he reached Miss Baldwin's and a grateful eye, is no man, but a door, her little seven year old brother monster. He who can approach the cradoor, her little seven year old brother monster. He who can approach the craand unimpeded by half-evolved lack of cess.

"Nobody at home," was his verdict locked up in a strong building in that understanding. She lives very quietly "Nobody at home," was his verdict locality flow transport before which no.

The chain had been cut, the watch It was made by M. Rebellier, and is "Why, Mr. Herbert, did you drop smilingly showed his learned counsel "Why, Mr. Herbert, did you drop smining, such the had abstracted as Troy Times. desired; and when the lawyer express-"With great pleasure," replied Net- than rope; and still, in spite of this, the hem.

the doors are frantically opened there sits Cooke, quite calm and secured as Still the great feature of this entertainment is the wonderful automatic cardplayer, Psycho, Professor Pepper, of "ghost" renown, has invented so thing of this kind which I hear is almost as marvellous as Maskelyne's. But both are surpassed by a new Paris invention, if it has not been overlauded. We hear that a smart Parisian has invented an automaton which gives a sensible reply to any question asked it, and in every case makes the response appropriate. We shall see this thing in figure in human shape for his automaton talker and at present the replies come from a box, a small trunk full of Chinese Finger Nails.

The custom of wearing long finger nails obtains among the aristocracy of parts of China and Siam. The distigurement is supposed to add to the importance of the individual, as it is evident that the wearer can not do any work, and must, therefore, be a person of elegant leisure, backed by a fortune corresponding to the length of his nails. The hand of an Annamite dandy has and that of the first finger is cut short the extraordinary length of thirteen soiled frayed wrapper, without belt or Heaven has imprinted in the mother's inches, and in this instance the nail of

About Watches. In 1571 Queen Etizabeth received from Leicester, as a New Year's gift, "one armlet of shackell of gold all fairly garnished with rabies and dis-ds having in the closing thereof a The first watches may readily be supposed to have been of rude execution. The first great improvement the substitution of springs for weights was

At first the watch was about the size of a dessert plate; it had weights, and was used as a "pocket clock." The are first uplifted to it; we cling to it in by Victor Dorist of Bristol. The case George did not ring, but beat a re-pretty round arms, her soft hands flying busily, and her sweet voice singing merrily, over a huge ironing table, with a well-filled clothes basket beside sion when he had a thief for a client, he other wheels are metal. All the screens of the hands are rock crystal, and the other wheels are metal. "Good morning, Miss Nettie," said asked him to show him, to satisfy his cuare fixed in the crystal and all the riosity, how he had done this very same axies turn on rubies. The escapement thing, which was then creating great is of sapphire, the balance wheel of discussion in the community. But be- rock crystal. The watch is an expellent fore he had finished speaking, the thier time-keeper, which is attributed by the maker to the feeble expansion of the rock crystal in the balance wheel, etc.

the front door, but neither ring nor knock could rouse you, so I took the liberty of coming round.

"I could not hear the bell," said Net"I could not hear the bell," said Net"I could not hear the bell," said Net"I could not hear the bell, "said Net"I could not hear the bell," said Net"I could not hear the bell, "said Net"I could not hear the bell," said Net"I could not hear the bell, "said Net"I could not hear the bell," said Net"I could not hear the bell, "said Net"I could not hear the bell," said Net"I could not hear the bell, "said Net"I could not hear the bell," said Net"I could not hear the bell, "said N tie, and you might have knocked a redoubtable Maskelyne himself would Those who learn nothing, or accumugirl is sick, and ma and I have the steight of hand as this. Speaking of failures, because they have neglected work to do for a day or so till she gets that celebrated conjurer, let me mention against them; but, in fact, they Mr. Herbert, and I'll make myself as entertaining as I can.

"You could not be more so than you port brothers. Maskelyne now causes linek;" but like many other notions, it is gradually giving way. The convic-"You could not be more so than you port brothers. Maskelyne now causes is gradually giving way. The conviction is extending that diligence is the don't tempt me to come in, for I would in the cabinet, thus exploding the thebe sure to interrupt your work too long. I came so very early, just to ask if you would like to attend Patti's last concert to night? There is a very attractive programme, and I should like to enjoy it with you. Will you whipcord used for lashing the wrists and like to enjoy it with you. Will you whipcord used for lashing the wrists and like to enjoy it with you. Will you whipcord used for lashing the wrists and like to enjoy it with you. Will you whipcord used for lashing the wrists and like to enjoy it with you. Will you whipcord used for lashing the wrists and like to enjoy it with you. Will you ankles, as being more difficult to untie not make the proper effort to secure