B. F. SCHWEIER,

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 1877.

THE WEB OF YEARS.

From out the loom of time the years Unroll a fabric all must wear; The wool of joy and warp of tears Are spun by moving hopes and fears, And pressed by weighty rolling care.

What measure unto each is given? A span may guage the greatest part, And yet the least from earth to heaven Do reach, as in the quiet even Short prayers sent up from children

The web too quickly for us all Is wove, while pass the shuttles fleet, And when the threads have ceased to fall, Death throws it o'er us as our pall, Or round us as our winding-sheet.

ELIZABETH'S NECKLACE.

BY LIZZIE M. MULHERN.

Elizabeth Caverly stood leaning listlessly against the window, her clear gray eyes resting on the green fields and sunny meadows before her. "Elizabeth!"

"What is it, Warena! You look excited."

"Oh, Elizabeth, think of it. Old Aunt Kate is dead, and you-you, Elizabeth Caverly, are her heiress. Heiress of house and land, and all her grand old jewelry. How I envy you, ma belle. No I don't either, only I am wild with delight."

"Delight over the death of a poor old lady, who was always kind to us." Warena's face sobered.

"No," she said, "only glad you are her heiress."

"Yes. I suppose that is all." "You will go away to-morrow, Eliza beth, to be in time for the funeral, and to take possession of your new home.

"And you, little cousin are to take possession of it along with me." "No Elizabeth, I will still live with grandma.

A few minutes afterward Elizabeth was wandering down through the sunny meadows, past the drooping laburnum trees, till she stood in a pretty, leaf-sheltered glade. A young man, tall, dark, handsome and sunbrowned, stood leaning against a tree.

"Have I kept you waiting long. John I" she said "Not very. Only long enough to make it impossible for us to finish

'Elaine' this evening." "I am afraid we will not finish it at to return. all," she said a faint roseflush staining her cheeks, "for John, Aunt Kate is dead, and I am her heiress."

The man's face grew very pale. y, Eliza-"Then you are very w beth, and of course the humble kome where you have spent your life will be your home no longer!" "No," she answered, half sadly, "I leave it to-morrow. I have to be at the funeral. I will have to bid you

"You are going away to another life

"And you can say farewell so calmly, Oh! Elizabeth, the dream of my life is past.

"Is it?" she said slowly.

"Yes," he answered, "for you are one of the wealthiest heiresses in the country, and I am simply-John Flowers. I bid you and my dream good-bye together. Good-bye Elizabeth."

"Good-bye," she answered, laving her hand in his and looking up into his face, and then she turned slowly away, her face pale, her eyes glowing,

"If he loves me he will tell me so o his own accord, for I will give no sign," she said.

One year later John Flowers lay dreaming in the sheltered glade where he had parted from Elizabeth Caverly. He was dreaming of her, the woman he loved, the fair, prond woman, who was more to him than all else on earth. He had loved her from the time when she had been a tiny child with curly bair and big gray eyes, and could he cease to love her then, when she was throat. the fairest woman his eyes had ever rested on? In a few hours he would see her, for she was down at her old home, and she had sent for him, sent

"Are you not happy, Elizabeth?" Warena asked, though wondering how she could be otherwise.

my life than I do now."

Warena opened her eyes. "Warrie," Elizabeth said, "do you Kate prized so highly?"

"Yes. Well, it is lost again-stolen." "Stolen?" "Yes, along with some other jewelry.

found, and the finder will bring either happiness or misery to its owner." uch nonsense!" "If you believe Aunt Kate, it was Just then John Flowers entered. Elizabeth met him with her cold, sweet tice; consult the best authorities, and smile, and laid her white hand in his.

felt his pulse leap beneath the touch of of important intelligence would come said, scarcely knowing what he did say. writing would become hurried and il-men the same; do they delight in the put into type so few lines of copy at a bling aluminium. pain a man suffers for her sake. I time having not the remotest idea what they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating, and depend and three believed — they are thus translating and depend and three believed — they are thus translating and depend and three believed — they are thus translating and depend and three believed — they are thus translating and depend and three believed — they are thus translating and depend and three believed — they are thus translating and depend and three believed — they are thus translating and depend and three believed — they are thus translating and the branch of a settling with a proving the branch of a settling with a settling wi would not have believed"- position were to his love; far too proud to let him see how willing she was to come down from her high estate and become a farmer's wife.

"If my love is not worth asking for," worth bestowing.

quite a little distance, but there was newspapers.

an old, unfrequented road, by which he could go in a much shorter time than by keeping to the main road. He in the reign of Gordiano, and not in Just then two men confronted him. "We want your horse," said the foreose cash you have around you.

almost faint with pain, he made his used, but placed perpendicularly. way to the nearest house.

brain fever, for a ball had entered his them in the sixteenth to hear him call her name.

ask you to be mine when riches came and, my love, I waited too long," and the ruins as the invaders of the middle the girl who loved him so well, laid ages. In the interesting "Memorie of beside the crazed man.

"Must my wealth stand between us forever!" she cried. self-willed as of old.

pale and weary, and she had come to "Elizabeth" glittered in his hand.

her face paling, then flushing, as she terraneans of the circus of the Cararemembered the old story connected calla" (Romulus). with it.

would it bring her! "Yes," he said, laying them in entirely. Elizabeth, a life so different going away again-going away to hap-

> Elizabeth, but I have loved"-He stopped short. No. She was wealthy and high, and treasures." she might misjudge him. Anything was better than that. Suddenly she laid her hand on hi "I am not going away to happiness she said, slowly; "I am leaving happihe fulfilled " eyes to his. "Do not trifle with me," he said but tell me, do you mean you love me, and are willing to be my wife. Do you mean this, Elizabeth?"

"I have loved you all my life," she said, as he folded her in his arms, and kissed her sweet, red lips. Three month later, when Elizabeth Caverly knelt in her bridal robes, and necklace glittered round her white

Errors of Newspapers. A Western school master, says the edagogue habitually read himself. There is no fault to be found with this ethod of developing the vouthful mind. Not a few errors were discover-"I scarcely know, Warrie;" then ed, and the teacher jumped to the conafter a pause, "I have felt happier in clusion that editors and printers were ignorant of the very rudiments of their It is said when it is lest it will be would discover that the making of a may give a brief account of the rarer of charge for it. newspaper is about the most difficult these unfamiliar substances. pelled to write on topics as widely dis- itself seems to 1 of little use. similar as possible at a moment's nowith an unerring certainty to know She looked so beautiful then, that he where to find them. Diffuse accounts streaming in upon them for condensa-"Why do you come Elizabeth?" he tion at the last moments. Their hand-"Why did you send for me, when I was legiable, to the despair of the composi-struggling to forget you. Are all wo-tors, who are frequently compelled to they are thus translating, and depend-

That the critical typo would become That the critical typo would become utterly bewildered, and in despair abandon his task before it was half completed, is reasonably certain. And we may also rest assured that one and all ness and the readiness with which it is necessarily and the readiness of the dead which filled my mind, and longed with an insufferable ard or one and all which bound me and all which bound me are necessarily and the readiness of the read of the captious critics that undertook she murmured to herself, "it is not the labor of setting journals to rights worth bestowing."

Would arrive at the sensible conclusion and infusible metal. It never occurs and as soon as they were so far restored

In building appeared for the first time cotta being used in the construction of us rooms and balls for acoustic advantaand dashing the pistol which one man the construction of the cupola of San applied are very limited. neld, to the ground, closed with him. Vitale,, in that city, a work of Chistian The other man lifted the pistol and times, of the sixth century, the period of Justinian. That cupola is made en-A low cry came from John's lips, his tirely of empty terra cotta tubes placed clasp on the ruffian loosened, and he horizontally; one enters another; they fell to the ground, and there he lay, are fitted with such exactitude and senseless, his arm shattered, and an proportion that they obtain light weight amethyst necklace lay glittering at his and great strength for the cupola. D'Agincourt also gives an account, with It was not long till consciousness re- illustrations, of the vaults of the Roturned to him, and of course his eyes man Church of St. Stefano Rotondo, rested on the necklace dropped by one on the Celian, in which are those terriof the robbers, no doubt. He lifted it ble martyr pictures of Pomerancio. In up and put it in his pocket, and then in these vaults earthen tubes are also

This use of terra cotta vases and the A few days later he lay tossing in a finding of them among ruins, led century to there was little understood either about | colored and of extreme hardness. "Elizabeth!" he cried. "Oh! my Goths or Roman history. There was a But I was waiting, yes, I was waiting, excavations they did as much injury to her proud head on the side of the couch Flaminius Vacea," written 1594, he says, "Many years ago went to look up some autiquities, I found myself outside "Porta Bastiana" (Sebastiano), One month later he was himself "at Capo di Bove" (Cecila Metella, so again, pale and grave, but proud and called at time because of the ornaments and figures on the frieze). "To shelter Elizabeth Caverly sat in the old leaf- myself from a shower I went into an shaded dell, a few days before she was Osteriolo" (ian). While waiting to leave for her home. She looked talked with the host. He told me that bid farewell to the old spot. She was to warm himself; he returned in the going back to her stately home never evening with three other men; they fusible; marks paper like lead. ordered a supper, which they ate in sione night be followed them; it was are not very well known.

The following morning the innkeeper The finding of it would bring happi- informed the court. An examination ness or misery to its owner. Which was immediately made of the place. A great deal of freshly upturned earth was found, also a deep cave, in which were many broken terra cotta vases.

Adornment of Home. rose Elizabeth Flowers, an amethyst or miserable.

The Rarer Metals.

and complicated work in the world. | Cadmium is a white, malleable and They would be brought face to face ductile metal resembling tin. Its sulwith a formidable mass of matter to be phide, known a sculmium yellow, is of lost many times, and not only was it gleaned in as many minutes as they a very bright color and has other qualifound, but the legend verified on all would desire days; they would be coma red heat it burns with a dazzling of motion or speech. I could white light. - and seems to resemble aluminium in its I was perfectly awake; I saw the light Glucinum is a white, malleable and sultry streams; I felt the intense heat hermit, "but science can do naught."

acted upon by oxygen.

Molybdenumis a silvery-white, brittle above five minutes; by degrees I remod infusible metal. It never occurs discussed the use of speech and motion; humiliation and injustice without murlear up a tree, twist the herbage from the discussed for any sign of consciousness. My attentear up a tree, twist the herbage from the discussed for any sign of consciousness. My attentear up a tree, twist the herbage from the discussed for any sign of consciousness. My attentear up a tree, twist the herbage from the discussed for any sign of consciousness. It was late that night when John that the wonder is not that there are so native, and neither it nor its compounds as to enable me to call out and move my limbs, it wore insensibly away.

It was nate that the wonder is not that there are so native, and neither it nor its compounds as to enable me to call out and move my limbs, it wore insensibly away.

It was nate that the wonder is not that there are so native, and neither it nor its compounds as to enable me to call out and move my limbs, it wore insensibly away.

high specific gravity and infusibility. Palladium closely resembles platinum turned his horse in that direction, and any preceeding construction. Winkle- in its properties. An alloy of 20 per rode leisurely along thinking of Eliza- man writes that these vases or urns of cent. of this metal and 80 per cent. of terra cotta were placed with the gold is perfectly white, very hard and "My love for her grows deeper day mouths upward; then they were filled not tarnished by exposure. This makes by day, and hour after hour. But she and surrounded with little stones and it admirably adapted for scales for Rhodium is a white, very hard and ges to make the voice sound stronger. infusible metal. It is said that a small loved, for he united the skill of a phyost, "and we have no objection to any I remember, when I was at Ravenna, quantity of rhodium greatly improves having my attention directed, by read- steel. As it costs considerably more For answer John leaped off his horse, ing in Agincourt, about that time, to than osmlum, the uses to which it is Ruthenium in everything except specific gravity resembles iridium. It troops on to victory, he cried, "Who is is rare and of little practical value. Strontium is a yellowish, ductile and malleable metal: burns in the air with a crimson flame. Thallium is a very soft and malleable metal. It is not very rare, but seems to be of very little use.

remarkable for its property of taking fire below red heat, and burning with great brilliancy. Neither the metal nor its compounds are of any practical quickly." use, but its oxide is of interest for its high specific gravity of 9. 4.

Titanium is a very rare metal, usually shoulder as well as the one that shat believe that they had been pots obtained in the crystalline form. It tered his arm, and Elizabeth Caverly of treasure hidden away by the can be produced also as a heavy ironknelt beside his couch. It was pitiful Goths in the ground. In that period gray powder. The crystals are copper Tungsten is a hard, Iron-gray metal darling, why did you leave me? Wealth great rage for treasure seeking; the very difficult of fusion. An alloy of 10 came between us, my love, for would I common people dug about for pots of per cent, of this metal and 90 per cent. money, and the nobles for statues, coins of steel is of extreme hardness. Both to you, when I had been silent before. and medals; and in their blind, careless the metal and its compounds have proved of value.

Uranium is a very heavy and hard but moderately malicable metal, resembling nickle and iron; but for its rarity it would be of considerable use, as it is unaltered at ordinary temperatures by Vanadium is present in very minute quantities in nearly all clays. It is, as away the painting of "Christ in the now produced, a brilliant powder.

Rubidium and caesium so closely resembles platinum that no ordinary test some months previous a man came in will distinguish which metal is present. Indium is very soft, malleable and and his wife for nothing, pretending Barlum, cerium, columbium, (or nio-lence, then went away. This they did six blum), didymium, lanthanium, tan-sympathy in this world for genius?" She rose to her feet, for John Flow- nights consecutively. The host sus- talum, terbium, yttrium and zirconium ers stood before her, and something pected them of some evil design; so are all rare metals. Their properties "My amethyst necklace!" she said moonlight; he saw them enter the sub- The discovery of a new metal called gallium has been announced recently, my two little sisters. Mother wept but we believe it has not been isolated. -New York Mercantile Journal.

Lessons in Politeness

Francaise, a work recently published in I will go to Parms. In the meantime "I being near the place," continues Paris, a gentleman, when he gives his here are some crumbs of bread I have entirely. Elizabeth, a life so different from ours, we can scarcely understand from ours, we can scarcely understand it."

| Claws of one leg was fast in the upper from ours, we can scarcely understand it."

| Claws of one leg was fast in the upper from ours, we can scarcely understand it."

| Claws of one leg was fast in the upper from ours, we can scarcely understand it. If he is about to-morrow evening.' And he took a story of the necklace; and God forbid turned up earth, and the bowls of broad I have heard the saved. Share them, and be patient till turned up earth, and the supper from the coefficient water to be included it. If he is about to-morrow evening.' And he took a when the coefficient water to be paced over his body.

| Claws of one leg was fast in the upper part of the neck of the monkey; so deep tention of the Supreme, that we are to hand but not shake it. If he is about to-morrow evening.' And he took a when the coefficient water to be paced. Share them, and be patient till turned up earth, and the took a saved. Share them, and be patient till turned upon all which bears witness to the inspect to the neck of the monkey; so deep tention of the Supreme, that we are to hand but not shake it. If he is about to-morrow evening.' And he took a when the coefficient water to be paced to be inspected to the neck of the monkey; so deep tention of the Supreme to the neck of the neck that anything but happiness should be earthen vases, like large vettine (water to shake hands with a peasant he must piece of bread from the drawer of his yours. I have tried to forget you, pipes). These were probably Goths, present his hand ungloved or the easel. He had eaten nothing himself who, from some ancient information peasant will consider himself insulted. for two days." they possessed, went there to gather If he is about to shake hands with a lady he must keep his gloves on. When interrupted Thaddeus. he offers to conduct a lady to the plane "My father's heart is larger than his he must, in taking her hand, half close fortune, and he would blush to beg a Money which goes to buy a picture, his own. In dancing with a lady he glass of water from his best friend." statuette, or tasteful bracket for adorn- must "not permit himself" to squeeze ment, is all wisely spent. If young her hand; and he must, if he wishes to hermit, deeply moved. "But fluish people just starting in life, after having show himself a true gentleman-or, at your sad story, Ludovic." ness behind me, but the old legend will secured the few articles of furniture least, "un veritable gentleman"-spend that must be had, and made sure that 18,000f., or $3,500, a year on his gloves. "Elizabeth!"

She smiled softly, and raised her syes to his.

That must be had, and made sure that list gloves, or $3,500, a year on his gloves, or $3,500, a year on his gloves, and they are what they ought to have, and they are what they ought to have say that they are what they ought to have, and they are what they are what they are what they are on his gloves, or $1,000 a year on his gloves.

I would be a supplied to have, and they are what they ought to have a supplied or they are what picture, an engraving, or a cast, they colors, would probably, if only for the the reverend fathers had no other coin gauntlet upon the picture. ought to work to get this cast, they sake of consistency, treat himself every in their coffers, they paid the two hunought to work to supply this want as day to at least one new hat. All, howseriously as the other, which seems ever, that we are told on the subject is more necessary, but which is in reallity that a gentleman's hat should always not a bit more necessary. The general be "bright and brilliant." A gentlecharacter of a home will make a great man never altogether separates himself difference to the children who grow up from his hat, though it is not etiquette in it, and to all whose experience is as- to wear it in a room. In the street, on large goblets of cold water to quench sociated with it, whether it be a beautimeeting an equal of his own sex, he the thirst that devoured him. An hour ful and a cheerful one, or a merely takes it off for a moment. On meeting afterward he was seized with a raging formal and conventional one. The re- a lady, or superior of his own sex, he fever. A terrible crisis has come tolation of these things to education is all remains uncovered until he is told to night, and mother sent me for you. that gives dignity or poetry to the subject, or makes it allowable for a reason- do not smoke a pipe in the street, do "for death comes swiftly." And revable man to give much thought to it. not smoke a cigar in the street if you erently making the sign of the cross, A Western school master, says the for her old playmate to come and see the wits of his pupils, set them to work her.

She had come down to the old homestead pale and a little sorrowful lookstead pale and a little sorrowful look
A Western school master, says the able man to give much thought of it. not smoke a cigar in the street if you are walking with a lady—"not even if the wits of his pupils, set them to work plays an important part in education, and deserves to be thought about a good deal more than it is. Seeming supposed to spend $3,500 a year on his supposed to spend $3,500 a year on h trifles like this make life either happy gloves not to smoke a pipe in the street, lying upon a miserable pallet covered but we have reproduced this caution as with green serge. His wife and eldest we find it. When you bow, bow son stood at the head of the bed and properly, but not so deeply that your made with their entwined hands a pillow loved Correggio." It is stated that four hundred years vertebral column will make a right for the painter, for breathing was alago but seven metals had been dis- angle with your legs. If an officer in ready painful. Julia, the eldest daughcallings; and he was not by any means covered, while we are now acquainted uniform salutes you, do not make your- ter who was celebrated at Parma for the first individual who pronounced a with the existence of fifty-one, thirty self ridiculous by returning his salute her great beauty, leaned against the "Warrie," Elizabeth said, "do you the first individual who pronounced a remember the amethyst necklace Aunt similar verdict on the same slender evidence. It is a thousand pities that made known to us since the beginning only think you silly, but will be greatly breast; her eyes were fixed upon a cru-"Yes; the old-fashioned thing with some of the people who pass such sharp of the present century. The properties irritated if, visiting him on a matter of cifix which hung from the wall, and

During the intensely hot summer 1825 (says a philosopher), I experienced tself seems to 1, of little use. upon a sofa, and before I was aware, Calcium is a yellow, ductile and was seized with difficult respiration. malleable metal, softer than gold. At exfreme dread, and utter incapability move nor cry, while the breath came from my chest in broken and suffoca-Erbium is a very rare metal at present ting paroxysms. During all this time the street, and even the ticking of my in its fetters. The fit did not continue man. "Toil and poverty have been my Brother Thaddeus was once a brave officer, and served long and nonorably in the Venetian Army; but growing weary of a soldier's life, he found a happy home on the quiet heaths of Parms. He lived about half a league from the ruins of an old Roman camp. Our hermit was widely known and sleian with the charity of an apostie. Late one night, in the summer of 1534, Brother Thaddeus heard a loud voice that once cheered his Sclavonia there? But when a trembling, childish voice replied, "The son of Antonio Allegri," the hermit hastily rose and opened the door. The child was out of breath, his eyes were full of tears, and those he knocking at his door. In the ringing wind. "My father is very sick," sobbed the boy, "and mother begs you to come

The bermit seized his staff. "Come, my child! We will throw weariness and sleep to the briars of the road." As they hurried along the hermit asked Ludovic the cause of his father'

"Ah! brother, said the child in strange voice for a boy of thirteen years, "my father's disease springs from an ancient trouble - from poverty. Thaddeus looked at the child in sur-

"Yes," persisted Ludovic, "povert has killed him. You know my father's toil cannot satisfy his hard - hearted creditors. Eight days ago our landlord, that wealthy Jew of Parma, for four crowns that father owed him, took Garden of Olives." Father had worked diligently on it for six months. The same day the collector of the village made him paint portraits for himself that we had not paid our taxes."

"Alas!" said the hermit "is there no "Some days after this," continued Ludovic, "the baker refused to trust my mother, and Bonoletta, the milkmaid, would not leave the pint of milk for were hungry. Then father said, 'If you weep, you will dishearten me, and and one of his most orimant glory in the eyes of posterity. According to the author of La Politesse vent owes me money, and to-morrow 1

"Why did not Antonio come to me?

"O Antonio, Antonio!" cried the "Father started for Parma turned to Correggio on foot, under a burning son, with this enormous burden. When he reached home he had hardly strength to say, 'we are saved!'

or weekly journal, just for one issue; be almost superfluous; but as we are press a hope that the children are all peacefully in each other's arms on a later would have no desire to try their almost superfluous; but as we are well, and so on. This sort of talk should they would have no desire to try their always interested in what is strange, bands at a second number, for they and frequently of no practical use, we not valuable or who have no right to the violence of the disease distorted from his sunken eyes. "Thaddeus," said the painter in faint voice, "am I in danger of death?"

met with silence. "Then there is no longer any hope," he sadly cried; "and my poor children!"

"God may work a miracle," said the "He will not save me," said Antonio. "Does he help the feeble? The day Iridium is a very hard, white, brittle, own watch, which I had placed on the I came from Parma I saw an innocent and infusible metal; when pure it is cushion beside me. I had, at the same dove balancing itself on the branch of a Osmium is chiefly remarkable for its CORREGGIO'S "LAST ANGEL." cated my children in the fear of God. Why, then, do you wish me to review my past life, and why should I fear the

my sufferings."

"I must leave you. O, do not weep! I partly made of two huge claws of this could have wished to make you happi- bird. er, but the perseverance of misfortune talous! how deep they could go into original entrance to those dormitories overcame the perseverance of my brush. the flesh!

At his anoment little Agnes awore game for them. Monkeys are what lows hibernating there must have they like best; they can watch them as amounted to many hundreds." her brothers and sisters, she kneeled in the forest; but sometimes the monkeys had shed in his rapid walk had been her crib, folded her hands, and mur- get the better of them. Thorium is an extremely rare metal, dried on his cheeks by the midnight mured a prayer. The grace of the People had better not try to get hold child, the perfect oval of her figure, framed by the luxuriant ringlets of her golden hair, the sweetness of her her golden hair, the sweetness of her pounce upon the man that touches its face, which seemed to seek in the heav- young.

"Give me my brushes, my pallet!" he

"Give them to him," said Thaddens. "The artist as well as the warrior, longs to die on the battle-field."

fix, extended his arm to his children, some beasts they were! what a niceing and purifying it from its dross and looking mult their skins would make, I dust. Sometimes gentle, sometimes caartist, before leaving its earthly abode, was revealed in the admirable sketch passionate tears of shame and despair, he had just traced. The "Last Angel them I would are at, I saw some its appeal to what is mortal in us is as thing, like a shadow, suddenly come its appeal to what is mortal in us is as and the children wept because they of Correggio" was his farewell to earth, down upon the tree Then I heard the distinct as its ministry of chastisement and one of his most brilliant titles to flapping of heavy wings, and also the or of blessing to what is mortal is

The villagers of Correggio and Parma what like a leopard, raise itself slowly but as it has to do with our animal sen owded to the funeral of the great into the air. artist that Italy had lost. Thus the its the picture in the name of Francis I., enemy, and then, both falling, meet what is extraordinary; and yet it is the widow and children of Correggio their death.

This masterpiece was about to be struck | could be devoured.

"You save us, Captain!" they cried. did not move until after the bird of "Not 1; the king of France is your prey had taken one of their number. reserver. My only merit is having and then decamped. When I looked but the blunt, low faculties of our napointed out to that magnanimous for them they had fled to parts unknown prince a great talent deat, and a great to me in the forest. I was looking so through lampblack and lightning. It misfortune existing."

"And where are you going?" asked

Julia. Roman camp, to lay aside my uniform nessed could be seen by a man. It was and resume my hermit's robe, not grand; and I wondered not that the again to leave it until I rejoin my well-specially dangerous to the comfort of the ceived a new contribution in a letter listener—servants, children, and per-sonal allments. If circumstances com-brother-in-law, the Duke of Argyll bine to launch you upon either of these and printed in a late number of No. "Yes; the old-fashioned thing with the legend attached to it. The neck-lace lost and found so many times!"

some of the people who pass such sharp of the commoner metals are so generally business, you ask him how he is, inshe seemed to pray fervently. The littopics, dear reader, beware! remember the health of his wife, exhall expendent to take charge of a daily legend attached to it. The neck-lace lost and found so many times!"

This letter, after some prelimines as follows:

the girls, Agnes and Veronica, slept that your children's perfection and do
"About twenty-five miles"

"About twenty-five miles" topics, dear reader, beware! remember | This letter, after some preliminary re mestic's faults may possess less inter- Teheran, the capital of Persia, there is est for your friends than for yourself, a village called Kenara gird, near while a catalogue of your aches and which is a stream of brackish water the features of the artist, and his fine pains should be kept for your physi- running in a deep bed with nearly per face bore the marks of both physical clan's ear. Who has not fidgeted under this last affliction, when some matter of with salt this stream is rarely if ever this last affliction, when some matter of with salt this stream is rarely if ever fully thin, and flames seemed to dart fact individual has conscientiously gone frozen, and in frosty weather is rethrough a fever for our benefit, and re-sorted to by flights of wild ducks tailed all the changing symptoms with During a frost of unusual severity 1 aggravating carefulness! Even the went from Teheran to Kenara-gird, ac Thaddens made no reply. The painter kindest sympathy is not proof against the purpose of duck-shooting, the serepeated the question, but was again such exhaustive treatment, and the verity of the frost promising good met with silence. habitual complainer finds himself, or sport. Having slept at the village we herself, sedulously shunned.

Doubtless, the more unselfish we bank, and had proceeded about a mile. strive to be, and are, the more accepta- I should think, when we came to An Elephant's Trunk.

Cavier tells us the trunk of the elephant is composed of forty thousand or fallen down the bank. Between this more small muscles, interlaced in all detached portion and the perpendicular Elizabeth turned coldly away, a half Elizabeth turned coldly away, a half angry light in her eyes. She knew he loved her, but she was far too proud to let him know how little wealth and let him know how little was the turne. Lightning struck the tree loved her, but she was far too proud to let him know how little wealth and let him know how little was the large for too proud let him know how little wealth and let coldly away, a half face about ten feet high, from wh pertinacity upon my face. During the whole fit, judgment was never for a moment suspended. I felt assured that less, I am sure, than twenty or to shorten or lengthen its trunk, and moment suspended. I felt assured that labored under a species of incubus.

That the critical typo would become

Lithium is a metal resembling silver

That the critical typo would become directions, the contraction and relaxa-face about ten feet high, from which it tion of which enable the animal to had broken off, we saw, to our great render it so flexible. It is perforated through its entire length by a double lying, as I at first supposed, dead, but tube, through which the animal on taking up one of them I found that breathes and drinks. At the end of the trunk is a little finger-like appendage and its breathing was quite percepti which serves to pick up small objects, ble. I examined a considerable num which serves to pick up small objects, and also acts as a feeder. With this ber, and found that they were all alive wonderful instrument, as with a hand, and breathing, but none of them gave

"Yes," said Querlaoun, "in my judgment of Him who has meted out and myself were on our plantation with state. I was able with my finger and The recluse kissed the hand of the heard the cries of a baby and saw a eral of these holes, and in each case painter. "Simple man! Sublime genthese guanioniens. The baby had been horizontally a considerable way into by day, and hour after hour. But she and surrounded with little stones and it admirably adapted for scales for lime. Winkleman also writes that welcoming light in her eyes. Oh! my welcoming light in her eyes. Oh! my assignment of hermitage grotesquely constructed which had not been noticed soaring see one lying on another—they were charity, will be your best advocate beius!" he cried. "Yes you are right. laid on the ground, and the guanionien the bank, contained more swall

Then Querlaoun showed me a fetich penetrated into the bank, or what num-partly made of two huge claws of this ber of swallows each contained, I die

Ottavia and Ludovic, never abandon the very great strength of the bird as I have stated, was, in the your mother and little sisters, who The people were afraid of them, and from ten to twelve feet thick. The sleep there, under God's protection and were compelled to be very careful of holes in the undisturbed portion may yours." At this moment little Agnes awoke not feed on fowls; they are too small of length, and if so the number of swalful scene before her eyes, the tears of they float over the top of the trees of ens an unknown star, awoke the inyet had a glimpse of one. Now, look-ing up again, I saw several of them. How high they were! At times they would appear to be quite still in the air; at other times they would soar. They were so high that I do not see how they could possibly see the tree; every They raised the sick man and made a thing must have been in a haze to kind of easel on his bed. The great them; monkeys of course, could not be master took his brushes, mixed his col- seen. They were, no doubt, amusing so all left blue again till next time with ors, and with a hand already cold with themselves; and I wonder if they tried harmony of coloring which distin- In the afternoon I thought I would guished his artistic genius, the features ramble round. I took a double-barrel glory after glory, and working still of the delicate child, whom he made an smoth-bore gun, and loaded one side angel before leaving an orphan. The with a bullet, in case 1 should see ciples of the most perfect beauty work ended, the painter said, "I signed with shot No. 2. Then I carefully and intended for our perpetual pleasmy first pletures, 'Antonio Alegri,' plunged into the woods till I reached which was my father's name. Later the banks of a little stream, and there however far from other sources ones I have signed 'Lieti,' my mother's I heard the cry of the mondi (Colobus terest or beauty, has this doing for him name. How shall I name this one?

"With your immortal name," said the recluse; "the name of Correggio."

Antonio then slowly wrote these words at the bottom of the canvas: the mondis were not too far off, I would to feel them if he be always with them :

thought.

death cry of a poor mondi. Then I saw sential. And yet we never after a huge bird, with a breast spotted somewhen the coffin closed over his body. completely buried and a few drops of than the light and dew which w off at the moderate sum of thirty-three The natives say that the first thing that girded the horizon at noon yestervanced, and proudly placed his buff there must be a fearful struggle, for upon their summits until they melted these mondis are powerful beasts, and do not die at the eagle's will. There "In the name of Francis I.," said he must be a great trial of strength, for if clouds when the sunlight left them last dred crowns in copper. My father rein a loud voice, "I offer twenty thousthe monkey is not seized at an exact the monk and crowns for this picture." No one place on the neck he can turn his head dare outbid the king of France. When and then inflicts a fearful bite on the passed unregretted as unseen; or if the the Venetian captain took possession of the please in the please of France. When the please in the please of France. When the venetian captain took possession of leg, which disables his most terrible instant, it is only by what is gross or > recognized the recluse of the Roman camp.

>
> I looked on without firing. The monkeys seemed paralzed with fear when the eagle came down upon them, and of the sublime are developed. God is intently at the eagle and its prey that for a while I had forgotten the mondis. for monkeys I obtrusive majesty, the deep and the I do not wonder at ft. could see often, but it is only once in a "I return," said Thaddeus, "to the great while that such a scene as I wit- it is understood, things which the angels

The Hibernation of Swallows

Three subjects of conversation are leged hibernation of swallows has re

"About twenty-five miles south or next morning followed the downward sation. ble and interesting we shall prove to place where there had quite recently our friends. the bank to the extent of perhaps twenty feet in length and ten or twelve broad in the middle, tapering off to each end, had slipped, each about the size of a rat hole. On looking into such of these as I was tall enough to see into, I found in all of younger days, I remember, my wife them swallows in the same dormant ome of our slaves, and one day we thumb to pull out swallows from sev-Antonio now felt that life ebbed fast, "My wife, my dear children," he said,

"I must leave you. On the many the said, "Then Querlagues showed." What tremendous things the not ascertain, but it is plain that the must have been in the external face of Then came the wonderful stories of of the portion that had slipped, which,

The Lesson in the Sky. It is a strange thing how little in pose of talking to him than in any other of her works, and it is just the part in purpose than the mere pleasing of man organization; but every essential purknow, be answered, if once in days or thereabout a great, ugly, black rain clouds were bro bine, and everything well-watered and death, reproduced upon the canvas, with that correctness of design, that lives when nature is not producing scene after scene, picture after picture ure. And every man wherever placed Correggio in limine mortis Pinxit, 17 be able to get a fair shot and kill one. but the sky is for all; bright as it is, it thought.

Just as I was considering which of in its passions, almost spiritual in its or mondi. Then I saw sential. And yet we never attend to monkey in sations; we look upon all The noblemen of all the countries of Italy sent Jewish courtiers to Correggio to purchase the works of the illustrius painter. Advised by these secret agents and influenced by her poverty, his widow consented to make a public park and a few drops of the fight and a few drops of the with the weed and the worm, only as a with the weed and the worm, only as a other leg had its claws quite deep into nous accidents too common and too vain to be worthy of a moment of watchfulness or a glance of admiration. If in our moments of unter idleness and in-pack and also the back of the victim sipidity, we turn to the sky as a last rehis widow consented to make a public neck and also the back of the victim, sipidity, we turn to the sky as a last resale of those rich waifs of genius.

When the other paintings had been disposed of, the last work of the artist was put up at auction, his 'Last Angel.'

This masternices was about to be struck.

This masternices was about to be struck of the whole chattering crowd, can tell white manualing and more in the whole chattering crowd, can tell white manualing and more in the whole chattering crowd, can tell white manualing and more in the whole chattering crowd, can tell white manualing and more in the whole chattering crowd, can tell white manualing and more in the victim, source, which of its phenomena do we speak of? One says it has been wet, and another it has been windy, and another it has been warm. Who, among the whole chattering crowd, can tell white more in the whole chattering crowd, can tell white more in the whole chattering crowd in the victim is source, which of its phenomena do we speak of? One says it has been wet, and another it has been windy, and another it has been warm. Who, among the whole chattering crowd, can tell white more in the whole chattering crowd, can tell whole chattering crowd in the victim. me of the chain of tall white mountains day? Who saw the narrow sunbeam that came out of the south and smote

Maxims for Young Men

work out for us daily, and yet vary eternally, which are never wanting, but once; it is through these that the lesson of devotion is chiefly taught, and the blessing of beauty given.

not in the broad and fierce manifestations of the elemental energies, nor in not in the earthquake, nor in the fire, but in the still, small voice. They are Always speak the truth. Make few promises. Keep good company or no Live up to your engagements. Never gamble.

Buskin.

Drink no intoxicating liquors. Never speak lightly of religion. Be just before you are generous Never be idle. If your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of the him in the face. Goodcompany and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue. Good character is above all things

When you speak to any person look

Never listen to idle or loose conver Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts.

If any one speaks evil of you let your life be so virtuous that no one will be lieve him. Ever live (misfortune excepted) with in your income.

When you retire to bed think over what you have done during the day. Make no haste to be rich if you would prosper. Never run in debt unless you see way to get out again. Never borrow if it is possible to avoid it. Keep yourself innocent if you would be happy.

Save when you are young and spend when your are old. Never think that which you do for religion is time or money misspent.

-There are two hundred and fifty perforated by a vast number of holes Protestant churches in the Holy Land.