B. F. SCHWEIER,

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE E.

VOL. XXXI.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PE?

WEARY.

Somehow the thought to-day Seems sweet to me, That should a still vo ce say "I'm calling thee." As ne'er before I'd go Like one all blest. G ad to be chosen now And know the rest.

Glad, for the burdens grow Henvy to bear : Over the night of wos No dawn breaks fair; For climbing upward ways Still, still I fall: And when my voice would praise Grief hushes all.

Not that the work is done God gave to me. Not that through victories won From sin I'm free. But on life's thorny road Peace is unknown; I've weary grown.

Wenry, I want to rest Close, close by Thee, And with the happy blest Thy face to see; With them to sing aright Thy dear, dear love All sin, and grief, and night, Far. far above,

Mrs Litchfield's Governess.

BY CONSTANCE STEELING.

Georgiana Crandal read the above singular advertisement over several times before she completely took in the Crandall. Suffice it to say that she which seemed to him to be one of the really was positively homely. Even homeliest he had ever seen, her best friends had to admit her ugliness, but always added that Georgiana sion of the meal, left the room with her her face. possessed some strange fascination for three charges, Mrs. Litchfield turned every one, and then no one could help to her brother with a triumphant suile. liking her, for she was both talented upon her own exertions for a liveli- then her neck-"

wealthy relatives, the orphan girl took Days and weeks passed by, and Wala situation as governess in the family ter saw very little of the governess exof a Mrs. Roseman, who was a good and cept at meals. He never heard her opened and Mrs. Litchfield entered. lovely woman. Here Georgiana enjoyed speak, even, for she seldom spoke unevery comfort of her former home, but less asked a question. Mrs. Litchfield scene before her. Mrs. Roseman's health declined, and was charmed. Her handsome and she went to Europe with her two little | wealthy brother was in no danger from daughters, and Georgiana was again in the wiles of her homely governess. search of a situation.

"I think I will answer Mrs. Litchbreakfast," again addressing the tiny raised to a shriek.

In a few moments she had completed her answer to the advertisement, which she read slowly alond:

NEW YORK, March 1. in answer to your advertisement in this morning's Herald. I am desirous of child, and though it did not strike he obtaining a situation as governess. My obtaining a situation as governess.

qualifications for the position can be ascertained by addressing Mr. J. H. Rose"Cora!" cried Walter, in a voice that any day to enter on my duties, and will endeavor to give satisfaction if engaged. I have not the slightest pre-tentions to be called even good looking. gentle tone he said to Miss Crandall, "I you or yours again." Yours, &c., GEORGIANA CRANDALL."

This letter was sealed, and then dispatched to the nearest drop-letter box by the willing chambermaid of the boarding-house.

"Julia, what on earth induced you to insert in the Herald such a ridiculous advertisement?"

Mr. Walter Danforth's face wore : vexed look, as he threw down on the breakfast table the morning Herald. "I had my reasons for putting in just such an advertisement, Walter," replied swelling up in her heart lent a lustrous the sharp-looking little woman in widow's weeds, who sat opposite him at was quick to notice. the well-spread table, "I won't have any more pretty governesses running giana muttered some excuse about victim of her assault. round the garden with you moonlight evenings, and pinning button-hole boquets to your coat. No, that I won't." thirty, made an impatient movement Cora's high temper, and she assured giana? I love you, dearest. Tell me whose "beauty spots" had become ugly anything except a silly child. You are punished Cora for her misbehavior. a grown woman, and ought to have learned by this time a little com- school-room, Georgiana asked permis- put upon you."

age, Walter. I am not likely to be readily granted, and sent her to the you," sobbed Georgiana, burying her as long as you are in the house. I am riage, promising that it should meet her obliged to have a governess for my three on her return in the six o'clock train, poor darlings; but it shall never be which was the one she expected to ply, and Walter bent over her, and liftsaid that my only brother was sacrificed take. pretty governesses. No, I've had enough home from his trip to the station at six -recollect that I am 'only an ugly of them. I suffered from my nervous o'clock, it was with an empty carriage, governess." apprehensions all the time Miss Garfield for Georgiana had not come. was here. I was glad to get her out of the house. Another week and the sly all night," said Mrs. Litchfield impathing would have been Mrs. Walter tiently to her brother. "She would not were used to overrule Georgiana's ob-

"If you have finished talking, Julia, from the station. I shall have a tour to Enrope. I would like to say a few word: if posgive me a rosebud for my coat, but it young lady to be walking alone at nine of telling her friends: "My idolized marry. But Hephzibab was so happy. was because I ask her for it. And it o'clock at night. It is over a mile from brother married the ugliest governess She lived and thrived upon the memory was because I ask her for it. And it o'clock at night. It is over a mile from the station to this house, and a very was by accident that I met her at the was by accident that I met her at the the station to this house, and a very was just too handsome."

Hope for the future, and regret for the past, forms a large share of world's philosophy.

Wery few have sense enough to despise the praise of a fool. foot of the garden that evening-" lonely road."

"Oh, don't try to explain, Walter. 1 ness set foot in my house.'

"You will be very unlikely to receive care to kidnap her." any answer to such an advertisement." said her brother, as he left the room, The next day came Georgiana Cran- replied Walter.

it triumphantly to her brother.

wrote to Mr. Roseman, and his reply was waiting for her. was so satisfactory that Georgiana was engaged at once.

fervently trusted was to prove to her a very dear to her. pleasant and permanent home for many

Mrs. Litchfield met her new goveriess at the hall door, so anxious was she to see that there was no trace of beauty in her face. The first glance Danforth. For once Georgiana Cran-cap and dressing-gown could not com:

"Her the first glance of preparation, and preparation put at rest forever all the apprehen- dall forgot to act the cold, distant gover- mit a greater breach of civility." "Spite new governess had been too modest in to play, and the walk home was enjoyed among the most luxuries of life;" and "Yes, I've invested in some land in

Accordingly Georgiana met with a cordial greeting, and a neat maid sersense of it.

"This Mrs. Litchfield must be a very peculiar woman," said Georgiana, addressing her words to the mantle for wart of a human being the find the mantle for wart of a human being the forther. So the mantle for wart of a human being the find the sold wards, cost nothing, the best of the west, began to dig it up.

The root of the mantle for wart of the west, began to dig it up.

The root of the mantle for wart of the west, began to dig it up.

The root of the mantle for wart of the west, began to dig it up.

The root of the mantle for wart of the west, began to dig it up.

The root of the mantle for wart of the west, began to dig it up.

The root of the wast of the west, began to dig it up.

The root of the west, began to dig it up.

The root of the wast of the west,

I am not going to describe Georgiana difficulty keep his eyes from the face

When the governess, at the conclu-"There! What do you say now, Walter? I don't think there will be any

Poor Georgiana! She learned early danger of your taking moonlight ramin life "that riches take unto themselves | bles and rosebud tokens after this." giana alone in the world, dependent hands are as white and soft as can be;

One day in May, as Walter passes the school-room door, he heard sounds field's advertisement before I finish my of contention within, and Cora's voice thought when I procured an ugly gover-

you hate me. There, take that, you ugly old governess."

Quickly opening the door, he was in time to see an ink-bottle hurled at the "MRS. LITCHFIELD, Madame: I write head of the governess by the angry on the head, the contents poured down > struck terror to the child's now frightened heart. "Go instantly to your own room and remain there." Then in a very hour, having no wish to look upon am afraid your dress is rained. Cora has a violent temper, which must be room.

controlled a future." "Oh, pray don't make any disturbance with Mrs. Litchfield, Mr. Danforth. I am sure Cora will apologize for her behavior as soon as she is a little calmed down." assure her that you were not to blame," Georgiana, touched by his kind words, changing her dress and hastily left the

sion to go into the city to do some ne-"Now pray don't remind me of my cessary shopping, which Mrs, Litchfield Danforth, I will never, never marry allowed to forget my seniority as long little railway station in the family car- face deeper in the sofa-cushions.

But when the coachman returned

"She must intend remaining in town Danforth. Thank heaven! I knew my be likely to come on the nine o'clock jections I do not know, but there was a

"You needn't preach to me, Walter, understand it all. It is enough that I She is only a governess, anyhow, and never again shall have a pretty gover- she should have kept her word. She ple down, springs not so much from ill- drum in isn't so handsome that any one would nature as from that vanity that would accident.

and therefore unable to keep her word," dall's letter, and Mrs. Litchfield showed brother's sarcasm, but immediately the nine o'clock train that no carriage

But being no coward, she started bravely to walk to Mrs. Litchfield's re-The old homestead of the late Augus-sidence, but had gone but a short distus Litchfield was so beautiful and ex- tance on the lonely road, when to her head of Pharaoh, ye are all swine." bub!" and that was all. tensive that Georgiana could not fail to terror she saw coming rapidly toward We need not wonder that those who The next time he came she quivered stances, for a violent snow storm was relief when she heard a well-known tastes and feelings at defiance. Conprevailing when she reached the large, voice calling to her, the music of which trast such puppyism with the conduct stretch, previous to toddling off to bed,

> "Is that you, Miss Crandall? _ I have a night like this."

met with a more inteligent or interest- surround himself with a host of ene- I shall ever come back."

into the dining-room, and he could with giana. The more he conversed with this homely governess the more he was and power of quicker intuition give to and a snap. charmed with her good sense and inteligence. In listening to her soft, low which knows what to do of much use, voice, he forgot entirely the agliness of if the fact be wanting which should en-

One morning in June, Georgiana strolled in the garden before breakfast and broke from one of the rose bushes room. Only Walter Danforth was there, by an interview which he says once her name, Hephzibab was only a wolost every penny of his fortune, dying ever saw, and her hair, though of an of a broken heart, and leaving Georugly shade, is very abundant, and her last sitting which Lord Palmerston last sitting which Lord Palmerston held, but he said she must pin it on his gave him. Behnes opened the convercoat, for he did not know what ele to sation with: "Any news, my lord from conduct, and Georgiana was just com-

"A second Miss Garfield!" she cried in a shrill voice. "Miss Crandall, I am deeply shocked at being a witness to your endeavor to inveigle my young brother into making love to you. I "You horrid, ugly old thing. I shan't end. But I see my mistake. Ugly as learn this lesson, either. You know well as pretty women try to win wealthy young men by these little arts and wiles, Miss Crandall, I am amazed at your conduct !"

Astonishment and indignation had made it impossible for Georgiana to geny, speak during this tirade, but as Mrs. Litchfield ceased, she smothered her emotion and replied in a voice of concentrated passion: "Madame, you have cruelly, wickedly wronged me. I leave your house this

So saying, she haughtily left the room and threw herself on the sofa, giving way to the storm of emotion trembled on her lips. The gratitude he told his sister in a few stinging nursed by the dew of dawning womanbeauty to her brown eyes, which Walter conduct towards poor, defenceless girl. in her heart, but fate had yielded her Seeing his evident admiration, Geor- of angry tears, he went to look for the to garner her abundance, so the rest which came near upsetting his coffee. the governess of her confidence in the that you will take the situation of my warts, bristling with coarse hairs. "You are too ridiculous, Julia, for way she had managed the children, and governess for the rest of our lives. I Of course there was a man at the botwant to watch over you and protect you tom of it. Several days after the scene in the against the sneers and slights which she

"After what your sister said, Mr.

"Do you not love me, Georgiana "" To this question there came no reing her head pillowed it on his breast. "Oh, Walter-Mr. Danforth, I mean

"Don't pain me, Georgiana, by saying such things." What persuasions and arguments

Importance of Good Manners.

Saying rude things, or running peorather lose a friend than a joke. On They h "She may have been detained, Julia, this point Mr. Johnson once remarked: walking his "Sir, a man has no more right to say he stupid as an uncivil thing than to act one-no glory from a "Do let me alone about that gover- more right to say a rude thing to an- know herself co. others say and think of them. It is lips had met, somehow. said that the ancient kings of Egypt used to commence speeches to their ing: ness, a part which she had little cared and ill nature," it has been said "are town?"

men? Because their greater sympathy ready money about him. Mr. Smiles woman, I want another." three lovely buds, which she held in her illustrates the difference between a man Involuntarily his arms went out to make a broad beard to the foot." It is with his kindly face.

Unable to endure the pity of some friends and the coldness of others, and too proud to live on the alms of her field levels of the say any more, watter. You Both forgot entirely that this was the very thing that had been considered to live on the alms of her field levels of the say any more, watter. You Both forgot entirely that this was the very thing that had been considered to live on the alms of her field levels of the say any more, watter. You Both forgot entirely that this was the very thing that had been considered to live on the alms of her liable levels of the say any more, watter. You be with her beauty, if you choose, "and Mrs. Litchdon't know; I have not seen the newspapers!" Behnes, with much talent, was one of the many men who entirely missed their way in life through want of tact.

Hephzibab,-The Story of an Old-fash-She was an old maid and her name upon their off-pring, ought to be spiked

If, in the earlier period of a blasted life, our Hephzibab had ever been the delight of any male creature's heart. there were no traces left upon her face, to record the happy effect of having been the object of such an emotion.

But appearances are deceptive, you her, and unable to control her burst of having such cruel ornaments about experienced non-commissioned officer, themselves the form of things seen and grief, she ran into the empty school- them, in her presence. Her sprightly step and flashing eyes gave evidence Alliance apparatus. The committee which encompass our changing path pelled, and the regulation of physical to be reached only by mules, through a "I will explain the whole affair to Mrs. Litchfield, Miss Crandall. I shall The whole scene had occupied such a cheek, and lent the rapture of love to georgievsk, Brest-Litovski, and Kron- ern coast, but the bright, emerald the conclusions however, are diminished the conclusions however, are diminished the conclusions however, are diminished to the conclusions however, are discounted to the conclusions however, are discounted to the conclusions have the brief space of time that Walter Danforth her heart; the tendrils of her being had found no opportunity to speak; were budding with vigor and beauty, but when Georgiana had left the room, warmed by the glow of youth and words his opinion of her unladylike hood. A measureless depth of love was Then leaving Julia drowned in a storm only the stinglest half-measure in which part of it ran to waste, and the rest-"Georgiana," said a low, tender well, the rest part of it disappeared voice, which sent a thrill of joy through somehow, and left us a cross old mald, Mrs, Litchfield, although a fond and the heart of the weeping girl, "will you whose name was Hephzibab, whose Walter Danfarth, a handsome man of indulgent mother, was well aware of not look up and speak to me, Geor-dimples had turned to wrinkles, and

He was not a bad man, either; he was one of those phlegmatic souls who couldn't help it. He was attracted to prince of men. In her shy way she

She had no smile of encouragement

only dig

ness," was all that Mrs. Litchfield an- other than to knock him down." The riving at her doo. ... one act of leaving death of him who ic... it triumphantly to her brother.

"She writes a pretty hand and has a pretty hand and has a pretty name," he said. "Can't you advertise for a lady who writes atrociously, and rejoices in some hideous cognomic and rejoices i indulging in repulsive habits. Some recover it; their heads and hands met, think themselves so wellborn so elever and the next moment they were shilldless Rachel Indiagnous to the Rosario Straits, past the Island of San boxelog for two boxelogs for the first for two boxelogs for two boxelogs for two boxelogs for two boxelogs for the first for two boxelogs for the first for two boxelogs for two Mrs. Litchfield took no notice of her may that she found on alighting from think themselves so wellborn so elever and the next moment they were childless Rachel. Indigenous to the or so rich, as to be above caring what starded by the realization that their children are say and think of them. It is lips had met somehow the last, where probably its uses as an anlips had met, somehow.

One moment he held her hand, say odyne and soporific were early known to the initiated, it may be that in order

States money—already cut, subjects with the formula: "By the "How very sweet you are, Hephzitensive that Georgiana could not lail to terror she saw coming rapidly toward admire it, although she saw it for the admire it, although she saw it for the her the tall figure of a man. But her take this swine theory of their neighbors, and trembled and felt very nervous. There was no occasion for it. When the could report the plant profirst time under unfavorable circum- frightened heart bounded with joy and hors should be careless of setting their There was no occasion for it. When the control of the plant procomfortable looking house, which she fervently trusted was to prove to her all fervently trusted was to prove to her all for hundreds of miles is turned by the formula for the first such puppyism with the conduct stretch, previous to tonding off to bed, propa mandragora, by which our oldest had unconsciously to herself grown of David Aucilton, a famous Huguenot he took his hat and toddled off home, botanists distinguish it; a name bornest up to him and cling about him unside down for diamonds and gold. preacher, one of whose motives for merely soppting long enough, after they rowed from the most terrible of the studying his sermons with the greatest were gone, to hold her hand and say, Fates, Atropos, and since transferred come for you. Rather a dismal walk on care "that it was showing too little esteem for the public to take no pains in he came as usual, and this was repeated Then her hand was taken in a firm preparation, and that a man who should for another season, until one night he

> "Hephzibab, good-by." "Why! Are you going to leave

Wanted—A governess for three small child by drea. Eaglish branches only None but home women need spoily. Address, Mrs. August such field, Broads office.

"Yes. I've invested in some land in the play, and the walk home was enjoyed by both, Walter thinking he had never this is true for none of us can afford to the territories. It is not probable that the territories. It is not probable that the territories. It is not probable that the territories of life;" and the description of her personal appearance. There are six fabricas de lapidation. There are six fabricas de lapidation. There are six fabricas de lapidation.

vant conducted her to a large and com-

"Yes, it's me, Hephzibab." "What do you want?"

able us to see how to do it. He who once gave me has haunted me through beards, as the mandrake, whereof his little hills, and in the evening he composition, except the part to be polhas talent without tact is like the millionaire who never has a penny of like a sweet strain of music. But oh, image, giving it the form of of a face at over which he keeps watch like a comes very hard. The diamond is now hands as she entered the breakfast of quick tact and of no tact whatever her as he spoke. And notwithstanding to the credit of the old herbalists, Ger-

The Electric Lights in Fortresses.

peror of Russia to carry out certain ex- of it. to ascertain which of the machines sub-

Use of Volcanoes. disturbances of our neighbors will bestoicism with the marvelous charm of pent-up gases and materials that otherpassionate soul-in chains-the chains may be saved from another earth-shakof manliness and honor controlling ing by the activity of the yet unnamed volcano in her southeastern corner. ter then Fort Yuma."

to enhance the wonder of its effects and States. prevent the extirpation of the root by top of the root, leave those strings to shepherd, yellows, too, in sympathy ready for polishing and reducing to a without fear of consequences, to dig up mitted to them best fulfilled certain "Kate Heath" writes from Puget how far it would be desirable to intro- Baker upon one hand, Mount Ranier duce the electric lights into Russian upon the other, while a host of lesser fortresses, has recently published its elevations swing swiftly past the visducted in the fortresses of Novogeor- closiced in blue mist stalk somberly following results. Using the magneto- are ridged with pines, that bristic upon upon the ragged edge of remorse, plainly visible, and also men working sharp commands of the pilot. * * * from ten to twelve hours to set up the shape of things unseen. The shores delusions of long standing are here disthat nature was not singing a lullaby consequently recommend that, while are green, such vivid, lovely green, not and mental training so much the better country where roads are unknown, the latter machine is retained at Novo- the duil and dusty leafage of the south- guided. The value and importance of rivers are to be forded, and hill after stadt, where it is already erected, and shade of the north, which no speck of by the very fact that they are unique, succeeded by still larger ones. Diawhere the men are expert in its use, a dust, no profaning spot of dirt can and other communities have as yet no menting is from twenty days to a month sufficient number of the Alteneck apparare reach, washed perpetually as they are similar statistics. When such basis of from Juiz de Fora, the nearest present tiplied Lake George of loftier mounratus be ordered to supply one to every by the restless arms of the Pacific comparason has been supplied, the in-Russian fortress, and that an officer What thousand nooks hide in the hearts and an intelligent non-commissioned of these islands; what heavy silence condition on growing children may be which comes from there, making things officer be sent from each place to St. broods under the boughs of the trees Petersburg to receive instruction in the which are in their centers; what inspimanipulation and use of the machine. ration awaits the tender wooer here. plished, the effect, if any, of the season may be sure that very little is caten To me it is like a wonderful and mul Since we now have an active volcano tains and more rugged beauty, unin the United States, the subterranean spoiled by bands of music, undescrated by the light laughs, the ruffles and gin to be of some interest to us. Many fashionable eliquette which hover over on the death of a Urua chief it is the meal. Eaten with beans—which to this of the Mexican volcanoes have been the places of resort in the East. Seward custom "to divert the course of a country are what potatoes are to Ireland silent ever since the discovery of Amerhas called this grand sound "the Medistream, and in its bed to dig an enor-it makes a very passable food, which i ica, and others are on record as having terranean of the West." * * We mous pit, the bottom of which is then have grown to like very much. Diaflamed out for the last time shortly came into Seattle the other night about covered with living women. At one mentina is delightfully situated, surwas one of those phlegmatic souls who plod along, content with little, having after the Spanish invasion. Among sundown; as pretty a little place, built end a woman is placed on her hands rounded by mountains on three sides. those that had the longest quiet was the ing little to give, and if more fell to him mountain Ceboruco; but in 1870 it than he asked for, why surely he broke forth after a sleep of centuries. broke forth after a sleep of centuries. hereatout. A forest of place to stand in the way of ures, is seated, being supported on From the fourth side, to which my the bright, Hephzibab - perhaps her It has been noticed that earthquakes, the main street, but a nearer view either side by one of his wives, while window faces. I can see for eighty the bright, Hephzibab - perhaps her name had something to do with it-and not taken place since its last equation the bright, Hephzibab - perhaps her formerly frequent in its vicinity, have showed that it was but a partition be-his second wife sits at his feet. The miles, where the peak of Itajuba stands name had something to do with it—and not taken place since its last eruption, she, poor dear, thought he was the and there is a notion that the vent given tween the two towns. As we approached earth is then shoveled in on them, and head and shoulders above the rest. This and there is a notion that the vent given we could see men and boys running all the women are buried alive, with city has about ten thousand inhabitants, gazed up at him, and colored his dull by the volcano has served as a relief to toward the water's edge, and by the exception of the second wife. To and houses for half as many more, the stoicism with the marvelous charm of imagination. She imagined that beimagination. She imagined that be-neath this calm there raged a grand, If this theory holds good, California wharf a perfect sea of faces was up-turned, and we, not to be outdone, in privilege of being killed before the volcano in her southeastern corner.

The eruption is said to have taken place of cargo of females upon the steamer and their blood poured over the grave, is an educated man. No such thing. be likely to come on the nine o'clock jections I do not know, but there was a train, and if she does, she can just walk very quiet wedding a few weeks later, that man is educated who knows himplace always had a queer reputation. Danforth. Thank heaven: I knew my train, and if she does, she can just walk very quiet wedding a few weeks later, for others; he was all she wanted, and train, and if she does, she can just walk very quiet wedding a few weeks later, he liked her. Oh, yes, he liked her. Oh, yes, he liked her. Oh, yes, he liked her which the rive one of the prettiest houses to be seen from the station. I shan't send my carry well; he sought no other girl's I would like to say a few word if possible. You do Miss Garfield a great injustice. She was engaged to a young man in her native town. She did once reply, "it's awful; but it isn't any hot- Just in the late dusk we strolled away Park. into the town, and in my memory it is Hope for the future, and regret for ica had so much dispute, but which purchased a diamond to-day for fifty its too common use, miraculous powers low. His head is half the time curlow. His head is half the time curtained in the clouds, and his sides are much capital, machinery and slaves to ropa mandragora, by which our oldest unto himself a hundred little hills that monds have been taken out, and the or "deadly nightshade.") So potent Very beautiful is he to see as the evethe root at a time when few anodynes were known, that the ancient Romans made it the subject of a weird of dreams around him and all the world ritual, without which they would have were hushed in shadow. But Ranier far cheaper than salt. It is true they deemed it impious to have taken it from stands like a grand old man, a bald take out now and then a diamond, and back to the wind, drew three circles wilderness. Yet stay; Cordelia's love labor. There are six fabricas de lapidaround the root with a point of a sword, poured a libation on the ground, and, the left of Ranier steals timidly a little diamonds, are cut and prepared for on hearing the front door open, and already the specified probles as the grant of the mattle for want of a human belief with the for want of a human belief with the form the confide her think I could suit her on the mattle for want of agliness."

The young lady glanced in the years passed a tap root, frequently forked, as we see the way father, mother and friends, but less now-which she quickly opened to adher the show-white the show which the governess enter with a potential, and covered with fibrous rootlets, was easily convertible into a groteque likeness of the human from the full measure of a great post. First, two father the full measure of a great post of the show white the show whith the grandeur dwarfs the mountains. Like a potent's knot and carry trunks?' The surly nature to the dining-room.

"So much more reason why Missand early white the dept alone," replied the child, whose thin lips and fiery black eyes be and when the work of the sun from the dept alone," said Walter found many beauty, although at times her eyes were yever syeft and luminous, and then brown white the shows white rest of this king of the show white the show the mainly, "and the the show white the show white the show the "You!" she exclaimed with a gasp brisk trade. Sir Francis Bacon had ing sun shining through it to cast over them in his mind's eye when he wrote, Mount Ranier, grandest of mountains, of an egg-shell, in which there is a com-"Some plants there are, but rare, that a pale and lovely robe of orange. We have a mossy or downy root, and like- turn and look, and, lo! Mount Baker position of solder and lead in a state of "You, Hephzibab. The kiss you wise that have a number of thread-like flushes into morning brightness, and all fusion. The diamond is buried in this

The Growth of Children

Tempscript. What they do in Africa. Cameron's "Across Africa" says that dried and ground into a coarse sort of time the Panama scraped against the her, custom is more merciful than to owners of which have departed to seek our turn leaned over the rail and stared. huge grave is filled in. This being It was to Seattle you will remember, completed, a number of male slaves-

Mount Baker still now gleams in the which would bring, perhaps, one hundistance like a hale and hearty old fel dred and fifty dollars in the United snow. But he reaches out and gathers do the work. All the superficial diashakes from his shoulders, and so he is What is necessary now is machinery to like a great pearl set around as in a go into the bowels of the earth to turn brooch with a dozen of smaller size. the current of vast rivers in order to Lear never was without, and here upon cao, or diamond-cutting establishments called a larelette, which allows the exposed surface to rest on the aboveand examine for themselves the dreaded the subject of very ingenious and origion which is rubbed with a feather from mandrake, and lost no time in publish- nal researches through some 25,000 time to time, a composition of the dia-The committee appointed by the Em- ing the fallacy of the weird stories told measurements of the children in the pub- mond-dust 1 spoke of, and sweet oil. lic schools of this city, by Prof. Bow- This causes the lastre of the diamond, ditch, of the Harvard Medical School, and perfects the shape. After leaving periments with electric lights in order The Marvels and Beauties of Puget Sound. and published by the State Board of this wheel it passes to an emery, where Health. His summary of the most im- it receives the finishing-touches. A given conditions, and also to determine Sound to the Sacramento Usion: Mount portant results he has obtained is as diamond is heated to white heat a great many times in the process of cutting, The growth of children takes place in which does not affect it in the least. A such a way that until the age of 11 or 12 lapidary can cut or polish three or four report. The experiments were con- ion, and chains of lofty mountains years boys are both taller and heavier stones at the same time. The work in than girls of the same age, but at this itself is nothing, and an ordinarygievsk and Brest-Litovski, with the across the horizon. The nearer hills period of life girls begin to grow very minded youth with any taste can learn rapidly, and for the next two or three the business in six or ten months electric light supplied by the Alliance their backbones like spikes, and at the years surpass boys of the same age in Diamond-cutting certainly does not add Company, it was found that in clear base are dense with underbrush. All both height and weight. Boysthen ac-Hephzibab! The parents who can be ferocious enough to inflict such a name discerned at a distance of 1,500 metres. With underordsh. All ground to each other, and watch the union their off-pring count to be allowed. At 1 000 metres are desse with underordsh. All ground to the deck with scarce a discerned at a distance of 1,500 metres. At 1,000 metres a sunken battery was course of the vessel and listen to the plainly visible, and also men working sharp commands of the pilot. = * * American born parents are in Massaground to powder in the mill of self. in its ditch. At 750 metres the tools of The heavens are blue, forever meiting chusetts taller and heavier than children condemnation, and blown to the four the workmen could be made out. In into deeper blue, and snow-white clouds of foreign born parents, a superiority was before it was cut. I saw it again towinds of heaven by an outraged pro- wet or cloudy weather, however objects resting upon the mountain tops reach which seems to depend partly on the could not be seen at a greater distance up and up, as if grasping at the zenith. greater average comfort in which deltars will buy it because of the color. than 500 or 600 metres. At the same The water is so still and smooth, and such children live and grow up, and Many diamonds show defects after curtime two other machines were tried, seaweed drifts and drifts, and whale partly upon differences of race or stock. ting which before cannot be seen. the one a Gramme dynamo-electric birds, perched upon a fallen stem, float Pupils of American parentage at the Diamentina is one of the oldest towns light, the other an apparatus designed away with the tide. It doesn't seem as public Latin schools and other higher in Brazil, and was originally called by Count Alteneck and constructed by if these waves could ever swallow one; schools are (apparently for the same Tipica. It is a very pretty city, or Siemens. But the latter gave better they look so beautiful, so strong in their reasons) superior in height and weight rather was in its painty days. On all results than the Alliance machine, expanse, almost it encourages one to the generality of boys of American sides are to be seen painful vestiges of know; for there was a time in Hephzi- Moreover, they are less costly, and pos- walk upon the waters. In the ship's parentage in the public schools and to a once great wealth. Houses which bab's life, when the lilies bowed sess the great advantage of being of wake they curl and twist like gnarled English boys of the non-laboring class sweetly at her approach, and the roses smaller dimensions and easily moved lots of trees, like the faces that somehurriedly hid their thorns beneath their from place to place; whereas it took times start out of clouds or air or disonce out or signt of Mrs. Litenheid's angry face, her emotions overpowered trembling foliage, for very shame at twenty-two men, superintended by an eased imagination, and they take upon a rule more marked than that in height. buy property in a town which offers no It will be seen that several popular advantages whatever, which is bunfluence of geographical and climatic dollars for every mule-load of stuff discovered, the number of generations very dear. A loaf of wheat-bread weighin which climatic changes are accom- ing four ounces costs twelve cents. You of the year, the comparative effect of The food of this country is corn-meal, city and of country life, &c .- Boston black beans, faring of mandrake, a root shaped like a parsnip, which, poison in its natural state, makes a very good substitute for bread after it is washed, salable state. It is placed in what is self, and takes accurate common-sense only the means, not the end; its value consists in giving the means of acquir-