Irish Society in High Life.

Attempts at the abduction of heir ses were then of more frequent occurrence than a lover of Ireland could desire. Mr. Froude has made the most of this blot on their civilization, but he has forgotten that such outrages were not in those days peculiar to Ireland.

Mrs. Defany relates a flagrant case which came under her immediate no tice. Miss MacDermot was a Con becoming Protestants. Their intention being so great as to prevent, them from returning home in the evening. They had never had a quarrel with this uncle, and could not well refuse the invitation,

Her fack against a tree she hore. And firmly placed but had before and defended herself for some time, till

NO. 37.

VOL. XXXI.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1877.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER. Life is a race where some succeed. While others are b ginning :

The luck at times, at others speed That gives an early winning; But if you chance to fall behind, Ne'er slacken your endeavor, But keep this wholesome truth in mind-"I - better late than pever.

If you can keep ahead, 'tis we'l, But never trip your neighbor: Tis poble when you can exce', By honest, patient labor; But if you are outstripped at last Press on as bold as ever, Remember, though you are surpassed, Tis better late than never.

Ne'er labor for an idle boast Of victory o'er another; But while you strive your uttermost Deal fairly with a brother. Whate'er your station, do your best, And hold your purpose ever And if you fail to best the rest.

To better late than never.

Choose well the path in which you run-Succeed by noble daring : Then, though at last, when once 'tis won, Your crown is worth the wearing : Then never fret, if left behind, Nor elacken your endeavor; But ever keep this truth in mind, "Tie better late than never.

The Magic Slippers.

If any one had wanted to find Eva spiders. Arnold they would have to look behind a shady and fragrant hedge of wild roses and grape-vines. There sat the witch, as her brother Allen called ber, with a book in her hand, and, wonderful to relate, a grave look upon her face.

"I do wonder if that tradition about our family is true. I will ask grandmother all about when I see her." "I do wonder if that tradition is 'said little Eva, again, just as she think whether she were true-hearted or was about to sink to sleep. "If it is not. true, and the shoes are yet in existence, soon as possible. the coach. And in that coach was home, but in his stead one of the farm Eva's long - looked for schoolmate, laborers. Gertrude Wayland. At the gate of farmer Arnold's substantial mansion house came in sight, "I am so glad we stood Eva, waiting eagerly to catch the are at home; now I shall try my magic first glimpse of her friend. Her brother shoes." Allen, hidden in a secure nook, was also looking out with no little curiosity

"After all," he said to himself as he in different ways. walked toward the brook with his fishnot dislike the looks of her as much as him alone that evening. I thought I would, but that is no reason Gerty the best of schoolmates."

he had a full view of her face by the many years of hard labor bestowed morning light. It was not a beautiful upon it, will almost kill father." face, not even a pleasing face at first was flushed with her morning walk, schemes spoiled by such a movement. but Gertrude was remarkably pale; mother's to-day, Allen said Eva. "I whels. She fancied Gerty was asleep positively must go there to day."

drive you over, and as women can No one in the house was stirring. never keep a secret, in the course of time yours will come out and I shall said Eva, aloud to herself. I do hope have my laugh," miles, yet Allen, who usually took the as Gerty seemed sound asleep, and could ten feet high in one season, generally principal part in a conversation, was not hear, she ventured to speak her maturing its bud, and laying the founremarkably quiet, listening to the chat wishes aloud. of the two girls without attempting to "First and foremost," said Eva, is generally two inches thick; and as in the magic slippers, which I heard once useless.

lieves it now-a-days." "But the story, grandmother, if you | Wearled and depressed, Allen cast his

"Well," said the old lady, as she ad- Eva's embroidered slippers. justed her spectacles, "they say that an "What a fanciful pair of slippers, ancestor of ours was once climbing a Eva," said Allen, suddenly roused from a steep and rugged hill, and found near his weariness. "Did you emfiroider the top a poor man, covered with those, little sister?" wounds and nearly dead with cold and "No," said Eva, a little embarrassed; loss of blood. Our ancestor carried him "they are not mine." fully until he was recovered. When confusion, Allen was about to relapse were endowed with a rare gift by the stranger. Any woman in his benefactory. Any woman in his benefactory from a little surprised when he discovered with which the toe was stuffed, and was tress's family, whose feet the slippers as well as the sins of fathers.—Dickens.

I think it must be somewhere written that the virtues of mothers shall, occasionally, be visited upon their children with plaintive face and dishevelled hair with plaintive face and dishevelled hair art of true living againsts in portaking the placid-looking mummy are formed them.

I think it must be somewhere written that the virtues of mothers shall, occasionally, be visited upon their children with plaintive face and dishevelled hair art of true living againsts in portaking danger had passed, she informed them.

I think it must be somewhere written with the dead in their midst, or a wife with the dead in their midst, or a wife with the dead in their midst, or a wife with the dead in their midst, or a wife with plaintive face and dishevelled hair art of true living againsts in portaking danger had passed, she informed them.

I think it must be somewhere written with the dead in their midst, or a wife with the dead in th have come wonderful stories of their have an idea that the story is all nonsense. The slippers would never begin joy. fit my feet, and I never had any faith in them, so that no wishes of mine were ever realized in that way." "But have you really got the slippers, grandmother?" said Eva, eagerly. "I did have them when I was young; perhaps they are in the attic somewhere

now. But, bless my heart, child, your'e not going to hunt after them?" "Yes, grandmother; I really think when they heard the good news, they would fit me, and I should like to try them."

Such a looking and such a devastation there never was heard of before. Grandmother would have been struck dumb if she could have seen her attic during the progress of the hunt. Gerty set herself to putting to rights what Eva left in disorder, but it was no easy job. Suddenly Eva uttered a cry of delight. "I've found them!" cried Eva triumphantly, "now I wonder if they'll And away ran the madcap, covered

"I declare," said grandmother, "if they don't fit exactly, one would think they were made for you." And surely enough, they fitted exactiv. Eva took them off very soon, material in all the cellular tissues. Bronte, had she lived, might one day spirits, owing perhaps to the universal membering that grandmother had said that she who wore them must be a true-

It so happened that Eva had no mor I will borrow or steal them, and that as opportunities for trying on the slippers while the visit lasted. So she carried A great cloud of dust, and a great rat- them home with her. Allen did not tle of wheels heralded the approach of make his appearance to drive them

"Oh, Gerty," cried Eva, as the farm-

But Eva's usually quiet home was in to see the red-haired divinity, so much which affected all the household, though

"What has happened?" asked Eva, ing aparatus under his arm. "I did anxiously, of Allen, when she found "Why, the trouble is, that we are in that I should fall in love with her," danger of losing our old homestead.

The next day was an anxious one to there was, too, a soberness and dignity slowly, as the girls watched the return about her, which was entirely a stranger of Allen from his search. Afternoon upon a sofa, where she had persuaded "Well, then, if that is the case, I will her to lie down a few moments before.

"Now I shall try my magic shoes," and pray that I am true-hearted."

"Agreed," said Eva, "only drive us One slipper was a little rebellious and would not go on easily., but Eva man-strong. They are then cut to the ground It was a pleasant drive of five or six | aged at last to get her foot into it. Then labor has endeared to him, as it is pos- rapidity.

sible to be." "Grandmother," said Eva after a There was indeed the sound of wheels long silence, which she enjoyed in con- outside, and Eva ran down to meet about a pair of slippers. No one be- searched her house from cellar to attic, and there is no sign of the paper."

eyes downward, and they rested upon home in his arms and tended him care- Wondering a little at Eva's evident the stranger grew strong and well, into his former anxious mood, when they discovered that he was a very his sister took off one of the slippers, handsome man, with eyes remarkable with the remark that it was much tighter for their brilliancy. When he was than the other, she wondered why it going away he gave to the wife of our didn't fit. Allen took up the slipper ancestor a pair of slippers. These was mechanically, and commenced examinnothing remarkable about the slippers ing it. There seemed to be something themselves, but as the story runs, they in the toe which occupied considerable would fit, provided also that she were ered a neatly folded paper. He opened a true-hearted woman, while she wore the paper much in the same way as he the magic slippers, would have all the had taken it from the slipper, and then a leading journal in this country re- writes, "would send back the body wishes made at that time realized. But suddenly Eva was struck with un- joiced that there were no more Brontes: there were but few in our family whose mingled wonder, to see her lately sad "none left to bear that name which the eyelids and eyebrows remaining of the voluminous histories of the cam-

"Gerty, I'm a firm believer in tradislippers," said Eva, one day.

which seemed very improbable." "You're a traitor," cried Eva.

with dust and a nest of bewildered a firm belief in the magic slippers. Photography in Disease.

the blood. According to its quality, outward life! Surely such influences spirits has been reduced considerably the blood deposits more or less impure are kindly; and subject to them, Emily more than one-half. Tobacco and

Such deposits occur also in the sebaceous find healing. glands of the skin, which secrete a namis, its finer shades are not seen in this graphic negative with such sharpness that the slightest impurities are here apparent as dark specks. This phenomena is due to what may cal action of color rays falling upon the plate varies with the rapidity of their a great state of excitement. Something transmission to it. It is interesting to bserve the accuracy with which the ondition of the skin is thus shown,

"Fruit and Bread," straight as is desirable in a satisfactory timber tree. To remedy this the trees when a smooth straight shoot goes up templating the movements of a very Allen, without ever thinking of her habit of going to market himself, and were gilt. Certain jewels were laid on somehow ascertained, and what might pretty little foot, which tapped ner- slippers or wishes. She met him at the carrying home his purchases. Fre- the breast under innumerable swath- have proven the staple of a incretive vously upon the floor. "Grandmother, door, and at the first glance his anxious quently he would be seen returning at ings of linen. And then a kind of trade was transformed into the original control of trade wa I wish you would tell us the legend of face told her that his search had been sunrise, with poultry in one hand, pictured shell received the body-a sort and dust from which it sprang. vegetables in the other. On one of of close-fitting case made to open and when I was a very little girl. It's a "No hope left, Eva," were his first these occasions, a fashionable young shut lengthwise after the fashion tradition about our family, isn't it?" words. "Sooner or later we are likely man who had removed to Richmond, of a violin case. But when the "Why, child, it's only a silly story to lose our home. Grandmother has was swearing violently because he mummy was sent home-what then? could find no one to carry home his The family did not immediately part authoress of "Wuthering Heights, > where he lived. "That is my way and while, a guest in his own house. A room herself speak, but in the face of appall-I will take it for you."

When they came to the house, the upright as in life, was enshrined in a knowing no fear. She was passion young man inquired, "what shall I pay kind of painted cabinet-a tabernacle ately fond of dogs, and always took you presume-" home my turkey for me?" inquired the then, at intervals, the family would toms of madness. The brave girl ut- your horses unlessyoung man of a bystander.

Chief Justice of the United States." "Why did he bring home my turkey?" tive, or strew about the ground blos- and applied it to her arm. She held it "To give you a severe reprimand, and soms of asphodel and papyrus. Num- there without flinching till the wound to teach you to attend to your own berless paintings in the tombs of Egypt was thoroughly cauterized, and a broad no use holding out, General. Come the free birds gather-but who knows lows, but must for a time give his whole business," was the reply.

Not long after the death of her father, dorus says: "A clever embalmer," he "I've found the precious paper, Eva," for qualification, certainly demanded in recognized. The Egyptians, therefore, great virtue. But as for me, Eva, I said Allen, at length, overturning a the case of the elder sister. Nothing is who sometimes keep their ancestors in table and all its contents in his great more true than that Mr. Bronte and his magnificent apartments set apart, have they had paid too dear for their trouble, tion than "Wuthering Heights." It is not to be desired that another such book should be written, powerful beyond most novels though it be. Its charactions, and especially that of the magic ters are detestable, but drawn with means of determining the condition of love for the freedom and gladness or watches are duty free, and the tax upon fictions .- The Galaxy for July .

varying as the shade upon the plate modes of embalmment prevalent in does, from the utmost delicacy and Egypt. The first was very costly, an-contract boots. The chief evidence of purity to a peculiar sieve-like character swering to about $2,000, exclusive of -that is, appearing as if punctured such gems, jewels, and gold as love and present century is furnished by certain with innumerable little holes; these in prodigality might lavish upon the dead; articles which have been seized from little wood by the spring; he will be cally, a girl is expected to take no aclonger able to resist between extreme the worst cases being irregularly uni- the second, $300; the third within the time to time, and which are now lodged ted, so as to present a more or less reach of all. As to the extent to which in the Custom House Museum. It is to disguised as the enemy. When he is band, but to marry the man for whom Some one has set up a claim to it, the ragged and unsightly appearance. After gems and jewels were wound up in the falsity of which cannot be proved, be-the rest being given to the ritual of those to chew the weed as "pig-tail, children possessed very positive traits, an opportunity of contemplating the times, it is the fashion to dignify any natural crevice in our cliffs with that title; but now the modern policeman steps upon the scene, and poetical ideas

vanish with the sound of his creaking smuggling as it has existed within the

of her husband. Listen to what Dio-

Suddenly the affair became clear to and in combination peculiar to them- faces of those who died long before Eva. Some mischievous person at grand- selves, producing a very striking family them, and the height and figure of mother's must have stuffed the paper idiosyncrasy. It is plain enough that their bodies being distinguishable, as into the slipper, without ever dreaming Anne was unhealthy, that Branwell well as the character of the countenthat he was doing mischief. One by made a wreck of his life, and that Emily ance; they may enjoy a wonderful one the family came trooping down was a different kind of women from any gratification, as if they lived in the stairs, aroused by the great noise of the we shall be likely to meet with. No society of those they see before them." overturned table. But none felt that other proof is needed of this last asser- -Sunday at Home. The London Custom House Curiosities of curiosities-memorials of attempts such boldness, that we are appalled at at smuggling. Various causes have con-"Because both your wishes were real- the nerve of the writer who could con- tributed to the decline of contrabandism ized," said Gerty; "especially the first, ceive of such a group of beings, or, hav- as a means of livelihood, chief among ing conceived, carry them on through which are the necessary reductions and their individual parts to the end without alterations in the customs tariff since "Not at all," was Gerty's reply. "I faltering. Those five or six men and the adoption in England of free-trade couldn't help hearing your wishes that women stand out distinct from any principles. When such valuable and night, for I was not asleep, as you sup- company in all fiction. And the girl portable articles as watches and lace who projected them against the back- were heavily taxed, the temptation to In the process of Time Allen and Gerty ground of that inhuman story was diswere married, and little Eva, trusting cased in feeling and in judgement unand true hearted, went on her way with sound. Yet, all through that book of duty on spirits was about five times warped but giant growth, what a keen much as its intrinsic worth, and there relish of nature's delights is shown, fore this class of goods afforded a rich what tenderness for wild birds, what harvest to the successful smuggler. We have in photography an excellent joy in the purple moss, what passionate Things are changed now, for lace and

But Charlotte did such service for other things, met with the smuggier's tural fat and deposit it in the mucus justice and humanity, did so exalt particular regard; and such cases, as hearted woman. She wanted time to layer between the true skin and epider-duty and self-sacrifice, that the world now come before the Police magistrates must come more and more to recognize are generally confined to these two layer is visible through the epider- both the service and the spirit. Author articles. A matter-of-fact heavy fine and woman cannot be separated; in and confiscation of the surreptitious manner, yet they appear in the photo- Jane, Caroline, and especially Lucy, goods is the usual result of conviction are laid bare the struggles of a heart and the smuggler-whom our childwhich could find its only rest in the hood's fancy painted as a brave hero, many-mounded churchyard at Haw- fighting the myrimdons of an oppressive orth. Incomparably better than Mrs. Government in some wild cave on the be called the photography of the invisi- Gaskell, do these tell her history—the ble—that is, to that remarkable property roots which that biographer said prison until he can pay the forfeit. 'struck down deeper than she could "The Smugglers' Cave," still remains; penetrate" are shown in the so-called for with that clinging fondness for past Ancient Mode of Embalming the Dead. Herodotus and Diodorus tell of three anity, laughed aloud.

This view of a person has taken fat, beer, tolacco, cerecloth to deck the dead, there is the direct our readers' attention, and the lattice of the ones lately found at lattice of the ones "Now, Allen, I've eaught you at last," cried Eva, triumphantly, as she discovered her brother reading under discovered her discovered her brother reading under through, but our search has been use the favorite hedge. "Now stand up and let me introduce you to my friend paper may be at grandmother's; it whose manner of life is wholly corrupt, might have been carried there among the manner of life is wholly corrupt, out to us in a ship's "fender," which the enemy — terrible fellows. The mere fleeting fancy. What are termed out to us in a ship's "fender," which the enemy — terrible fellows. arty the best of schoolmates."

In these defects are often magnified into and melt down, is several thousand out to us in a ship's "fender," which the enemy — terrible fellows. The mere fleeting fancy. What are termed we may remind our readers is a block of General saw them and turned to fly. love-marriages are seldom happy mar-Allen rose and greeted the divinity other papers. 10-morrow 1 will drive in the graceful and self-possessed manin the gracef in the graceful and self-possessed manner natural to him. For the first time over, as I am very anxious about the air itself in skin diseases.—Schlickeysen's two historians' accounts of the Egypthe bows to prevent the abrasion which menced to jump up and down, and the hundred, love in a cottage means misery tian embalmer to observe in divers mating the caused by contact with another result was that the General was caping of milk which stood on a table near ters the foreshadowing of the modern term that in love, the foreshadowing of the modern term that in love, the fire of "His Rev. and dashed it in the face of "His Rev. undertaker in his ways. The different found to be hollow, and to contain General's neck. They were going to basse aimer. In the love of women, face, not even a pleasing face at first sight, and Allen was a keen admirer of beauty; but it was a peculiar face, such an one as makes an impression on one's an one as makes intile lady had no idea of having her schemes spoiled by such a movement.

The long afternoon wore away slowly, as the girls watched the return of Allen from his search. Afternoon wore into evening, and evening wore line wore into evening, and evening wore into evenin about her, which was entirely a stranger to Eva. Allen, as he entered with to Eva. Allen, as he entered with the Egyptian was first set. When a bereaved made of solid tobacco. Here is an ornamuch politeness though with little zeal into a conversation in which Eva took the principal share, secretly wondered how two such dissimilar characters how two such dissimilar characters.

Into night. The family concluded that Eight years is of course no very great period for a post to last, but from all appearance there is no reason why it should not endure at least three times the corner of a Captain's cabin, and hope of seeing him till morning. But should not endure at least three times and the day it was hirst set. Eight years is of course no very great period for a post to last, but from all appearance there is no reason why it should not endure at least three times are different. When a bereaved made of solid tobacco. Here is an ornative mourner, they tell us, went into one of these Egyptian shops, the functionaries the corner of a Captain's cabin, and don't han should not endure at least three times. how two such dissimilar characters could have formed such a close friendship. But he concluded that there was no accounting for womens' whims.

"You must drive us over to grandship and like the sound of his whells. She fancied Gerty was asleen where the such a close friendship and artistically finished, been found gorged with contrabant continued and a poor the finished, been found gorged with contrabant continued and a habit of partnership. If I were a girl, would not endure at least three times wheat it has stood: and a quarter of a continue which and artistically finished, been found gorged with contrabant contrabant or otherwise, to represent the mummy post. The trouble with the catalpa is for he was content with and offine the contrabant or otherwise, to represent the mummy post. The trouble with the catalpa is formed when the contrabant or otherwise, to represent the mummy and colld marry either, I should marry the rich man, and colld marry the rich man, and the wood highly and artistically finished, to represent the mummy post or otherwise, to represent the mummy and colld marry either, I should marry the rich man, and colld marry the rich man, and the wood highly and artistically finished.

The rope tightened.

"A shout was heard—ringing shots, fierce words, the trampling of hoofs, that the terminal bud does not ripen that the terminal bud does not ripen that the terminal bud does not ripen the contrabant or otherwise, to represent the mummy and colld marry the rich man, and colld marry the rich man, and the what it has stood: and a quarter of a contrabant turn that very night, so she sat up was a habit of partnership. If I were a girl, wood highly and artistically finished, turn that very night, so she sat up was a habit of partnership. If I were a girl, wood highly and artistically finished, turn that very night, so she sat up was a habit of partnership. If I were a girl, wood highly and artistically finished.

The rope tighted.

"A shout a she was a content when the contrabant of turn that very night when young, and so gets killed in our to choose from. The various costs, ac- pounds of cheroots, which were found His deliverer bowed before him. winter. The bud below, pushing, makes cording to pattern, were then stated. inside a sham loaf on his breakfast a crooked stem, and in this way the The enstomer chose his model, and table. Here we have a number of cigars have preferred the hanging. The is more ridiculous than the theories of trunk of the mature tree is not as the bargain was struck. He then went knotted singly on a string, like the tail home and sent back the dead body, and of a kite; these were dropped between the body remained with the embalmer the inner and outer timbers of a ship's are suffered to grow as they will for a until the whole process was completed. side; while holes drilled in the ends of couple of years, until the roots get The number of days requisite for em- an egg-box furnished lodging for sevbalming was, as we gather from both erai more. A broom stick does not historians, seventy or seventy-two, and seem at first sight to offer much room this tallies with the Scripture account for concealment, but here is one which dation of a pretty trunk. Such a stem process only occapied part of the time, that rope-like commodity known to since it has been the greatest hope of any fair ground it will increase at the mourning. The processes for embalm- Cakes of tobacco formed to fit into the Her hair was not red after all, it was my heart for a long time, I do wish rate of an inch a year, we have in three ing are related very categorically. In sole of a boot show another ingenious gle-handed, had defeated them. really a pale, golden color, and floated that my brother Allen would fall in or four years after a trunk five or six some things they hardly commend mede of disposal. But the prize for inaround the white face, as he had seen it love with and marry Gertrude Wayland. inches thick enough for themselves to our present sentiment of ventive talent must certainly be in some pictures. After all, she was Secondly, I wish that the paper which many useful pieces of work upon a what is respectful to the dead. The awarded to the clever rascal who comunlike any one else he had ever known, proves our right to this house of my farm. But these six-inch stems, cut to chief secret seemed to consist in certain pressed snuff into slabs, and stamped and she had the sweetest voice he had childhood may be speedily found, and the grounp, then throw up shoots of chemicals injected into the veins and them to exactly imitate the oil-cakes him up." ever heard. But the idea of falling in that my father may be as happy in the amazing strength, making a new and body; in certain washings and sleep- on which cattle are fattened. Whether love with her was really too absurd to possession of that which his cheerful beautiful timber tree with surprising the cavity of the body with myrrh and owing to moral objections on the part of true story. other balsamic substances and spices. some experienced cow to chew anything The brains were drawn out through the stronger than cud does not transpire Chief Justice Marshall was in the nostrils. Sometimes the face and hands but the real nature of the food was Charlotte Bronte's sister Emily, the with it. On the contrary, they often possessed extraordinary courage, Timid Marshall stepped up and asked him kept their dead relative for a long as a fawn in society, and afraid to hear was set apart. The mummy, standing ing danger she was self-possessed, starred over with innumerable hiero- them for company in her walks. One come to hold communion with the tered no cry of pain, nor called for "That" replied he, "is Mr. Marshall, dead. They would bring fresh lotus help. Walking calmly to the kitchen, flowers to enwreath their silent rela- she found an iron heating on the fire, picture this affecting scene-a mother scar remained, which was visible to the down like a man! and her children kneeling in a circle day of her death. Neither of her sisters

During the Franco-Prussian war an perfectly preserved, even the hair of incident happened not recorded in any feet the shoes would fit; from those brother jumping around the room in a meant misery and spiritual unhealth" undisturbed; the whole appearance so paign which are now getting dusty on who had worn them, however, there way that savored much of insanity. -a statement which has waited long unaltered that every feature might be the library shelves, but which, though laughable in its results, was far more interesting to the parties concerned than the records of the most sanguinary battles. It had to do with a fine young German officer named Fritz Von Weber, a professor in a provincial university, but who had been drafted off with his regiment. He was in love with a girl hero, and promoted. named Zaire, an Alsatian, whose brother of Fritz, as follows:

"When they parted he said to her: " 'I shall always be-" 'En Garde!' cried Zaire. "Then Fritz rode off; then Zaire wept in her chamber, for the great General Von Homberg, the father of Zaire, shook his head. " 'A teacher!' he cried, 'my daughter marry a teacher-never.' " 'I will,' sobbed Zaire

" 'I say you won't,' snorted the Gen " 'But I will-I will-I will,' snapped went off to the war; Zaire was sent to to adorn her person. All things else she concealed her feelings, and they sat the country. When Fritz reached his being equal, a well-dressed girl is pre- down to cards. While engaged in this Max Von Bulow, a great joker, who cused in a vague, general sort of way, the room. The two sisters made their quarters he found a friend, one Dr. had taken a great liking to Fritz. "'What's the matter with you,

Fritz? " 'Nothing,' sighed Fritz. "Bah! laughed Dr. Max, 'who is demand for them, have always above Fritz, 'the dearest, sweetest little angel

"'Yes, yes,' cried Dr. Max, 'I know, in love with her?"

was interested. fond of fun. Let me alone. I'll get of it; let her ride, and dance, and flirt Flinn's friends and followers were as-you shall marry Zaire.' seashore-is quietly walked off to nobody can.

> self nothing is impossible." conversation Dr. Max came to Fritz.

" *Fritz!"

44 4Well 2" "'To-morrow old Humbug takes his cease to be a girl by becoming a wife, one of the gang ran a word up her arm usual ride along the north road. He Here, too, the poor girl is admonished from her wist to hereally and additional to the gang ran a word up her arm goes unattended; you must be in the and abused by her censors. Theoreti- her to drop her weapon. Being no attacked by a number of our fellows count of the position of her future hus-

you.—Zaire shall be yours."

and plays. It is, however, an absurd ceremony of marriage with Mr. Flinn.

"The morrow came. Down the road view, and those who act upon it are she should be treated with kindness

"The enemy gave a strong pull at the temporary character. Married people men being left to guard her. This sin-

"I-I am still in the prime of lifedon't hang me; please don't,' cried the nity of interest, and they have acquired remained twenty-one days in great pain

"It was Fritz. The general would kind sister to the poor man. Nothing young man bowed low.

"'Your pass!' thundered the Gen- benefit of girls. .

" 'I-I have none,' said Fritz. "You heard the orders-return to

"That evening Fritz-poor Fritz- neglectful of their dead! They will sat in his tent; a guard walked before swarm to the cemetery and spend the the door. But all the army rang with whole day in eating, drinking and day met a squad of the enemy, and, sin-"Dr. Max was furious. He imitated and pipes in the most festive manner.

the General's horse—he jumped up and Indeed, you have only to knock at a down and snorted. " 'I'll fix him!' he cried; 'I'll show rank weeds that flourish in that fatten-

"Then he took his pen and sat down and wrote the whole story out-the ment that staggers and is a shame to

" 'To morrow,' he said, 'I'll send this that stands knee-deep in the loam and to my paper, unless he compromises. tickles his ear on the wooden fez of the "He stood before the General, "Ah, Doctor Von Bulow, what do von wish? "Can I see you alone, General?" "The General's ald retired.

" 'General, we have had enough, " 'Enough what?' " 'Humbug.'

have their account of the affair. It is ties not easily to be recognized as hunot complimentary to you; it is very man. I saw three blind men sitting in complimentary to Fritz; General, Fritz a row, shoulder to shoulder; their legs aust marry your daughter.' were crossed in the dust of the road-"'Sir!' thundered the general, "do side; their hands were raised in supmust marry your daughter.'

"Those men were your own men. I Beggars line the way, Turkish atroci-

'Oh, yes,' smiled Dr. Max; 'yes, I their shoulders as the three rocked "Oh, nothing," said the Chief Justice, glyphics, and protected with great day when she was giving water to a do presume. I own a newspaper, you their bodies to and fro and sang a piti-'you are welcome, it was in my way painted scarabee and multi-colored dog at the parsonage door-her father know. The whole account must go for-ful terzo. A dish in front of them re-

" 'Unless what?"

" 'Unless Fritz marries Zaire,' if their withered faces did not belie 2. Attention.-If he is to succeed, a "The General hesitated. He had been them. I could think only of those boy must withdraw his thoughts from praised, honored-he dreaded ridicule. blinded quait who pipe night and day tops, balls, kites, and such like; he " 'Come down!' cried Dr. Max. 'It's in their cages, and at whose calling must not chatter with his school fel-

"The General hesitated, turned, down. Shall Zaire marry Fritz?"

"Yes,' growled the General, " And you will introduce him a your son-in-law at once, and release " 'No-that is, I mean ves."

" 'And you will give him an appointnent-make him your secretary?'

" 'i won't.' " 'Ah!'

" 'Well, I will,' "Fritz was released, received his ap- naught lady who with her sister had pointment, the affair was kept quiet, inherited a large estate. They were the General was still regarded as a originally Catholics, but decided on

"But, Zaire,' said Fritz, as he looked was suspected, and their maternal unfather was a general in the German into her happy face after a long parting, cle, whose name was Flinn, asked them army, and the story is related by the 'I should never have won you if it had to his house to dine, the distance not not been that Dr. Max was " 'En Garde!' laughed Zaire."

No hearts are really broken by it; it though they would rather not have is merely a game carried on by two per- gone, the eldest sister having rejected sons of the opposite sex, and by no an offer of marriage from Flinn's only means a bad way of passing the time. son. After dinner they prepared to The girl of the period is always being leave, but the uncle insisted on their attacked. I prefer her to the typical remaining for the night. They refused character good girl of former periods, firmly but politely, and were then told She is accused of occasionally using a that the chaise and servants had gone word or two of slang. But the slang home, but would return for them the of one century is the language of the next day. Miss MacDermot was much "They parted in anger; the General next century. She is accused of liking frightened, but, as they had no redress, ferable to an ill-dressed girl. She is ac- way four men with masks rushed into of being fast. Practically, this means escape into the next apartment, but that a girl has good animal spirits. And were followed by the masked men. why should she not? The rule is abso- One of these seized upon Miss Maria iute, but quiet girls are generally far MacDermot, who had hid behind a bed, more likely to come to grief than what but when he saw which he had he flung are termed fast girls. If I had daugh- her from him with an oath, saying that "'Zaire Von Homberg,' answered ters, I should keep my eye on the quiet she was not the right sister. The pordaughter, with pre-Raphaelite proclivi- tion of the elder being double that of ties, so good, that she would regard the other explains this ungatlant proher papa as a sinner, with doubts as to ceeding. Miss MacDermot was then I know; but phew! what made you fall the propriety of balls and theatres, and seized and dragged back into the room, always discussing doctrinal questions where her uncle was still standing by "Fritz told him all about it. Dr. Max with the curate, rather than on her the fire. He took no notice of her tears "fast" sisters. Life is short, but youth and entreaties, but allowed her to be " I hate old Humbug,' he said, 'I'm is far shorter; let a girl make the most forced into the hall, where a crowd of you out of this. I'll have a laugh and to her heart's content. If her parents sembled. They set her on a pillion becan afford it, let her dress well, and hind the principle mask. She was a " You can't help me, groaned Fritz; dress often. Let her not pretend that tall, strong woman, and struggled so she cannot say "bo" to a goose; on the violently that she succeeded in getting "'My boy,' said Dr. Max solemnly, contrary, let her say many "bo's" to off the horse. While they were enwith an ordinary man things are im- many geese. Let her join in amuse- deavoring to put her back again, she possible; with an old soldier like my- ments whenever she gets a chance. If managed to get the sword of one of the a man tries to turn her head, let her ac- men, for they were all armed with "One evening a few days after this cept the challenge, and, having turned swords and bludgeons. Then, like a his head, laugh at him. He will not be true Amazon, the worse for the lesson.

After all, the business of a girl is to who get on well together, generally do gular treatment stopped the bleeding so because they are united by a commua habit of partnership. If I were a girl, be, if the occasion presented itself, a marriage that are propounded for the

A Moslem Cemetery.

from grave to grave, and present coffee

ing soil; they will not set up the monu-

-San Francisco Chronicle.

Elephants in Quicksand.

but, though she was soon rescued, she

Some months after they came to Dublin

On the river Ganges, says a military journalist, there are many quicksands; and during our expedition a somewhat distressing scene happened. An elephant incautiously came within the It seems strange-so fond of the shavortex of one; first one foot sank, then camp and report yourself under arrest? dow of Death, if I may so call the another; and in endeavoring to extrigloomy groves of Scutari, and yet so cate himself, matters became worse; no portion of either of his legs was at last visible, and the bystanders had given up the poor animal as lost; being fortuthe praises of the General, who had that smoking, reveling in the midst of the nately, unusually powerful, he three several times, with what appeared to all supernatural strength, drew a foot from the closely clinging earth, placed it where, by sounding with his trunk, he headstone and you are sure of a warm found the most solidity; not until the welcome. But they will not pluck the third time did the ground bear his pressure, when he gradually released himself. During the whole period of his troubles his cries were exceedingly dolthem; they will not turn out the jack orous, and might have been heard a couple of miles; his grunt, when they were at the end, was equally indicative late head of the family. All through of satisfaction. The internal applicathe dark valley there are small cafes. tion of a bottle of strong spirits soon thronged with weary pilgrims, who dissipated his trembling and restored thus cheer their solitary journey to the his equanimity. Many unfortunate eletomb. There are strolling minstrels phants are lost in these treacherous also, who entertain the mourners with sands, when large quantities of grass or the poems of Hafiz, and dancers, with a branches of trees are not at hand to dance of death that gives delight to the form an available support for them. After at certain time the poor beasts becomes powerless; and the owner can only look with sorrow at the gradual disappearance of his noble animal, and lament the pecuniary loss he thereby # plication, and their heads tolled upon hours before entirely sinking.

suffers, for all human aid is futile,

They have been known to be twelve cherubim, with their overshadowing was a clergyman-he bit her hand ward. In three days the whole world ceived from time to time a small tribute work out, or a lesson to learn by heart, "Who's that old man who brought wings spread athwart the chest. Hither, severely, and showed evident symp- will be in a broad grin over you and of copper, but the old men sang on ob- he will not be apt to succeed unless he livious of the idlers who lingered near goes at it with a will, or unless he "inthem; oblivious of all things earthly- tends" to do it.

what the quall in his cage is singing of. mind, or "attends" to the lessons be-