An Old Offender.

BY CAPT. CHARLES HOWARD.

When Carl Binkley, the private de tective of the Macacheeek air line company led Courtney Tenney to the altar. he shaved his face until no hirsute appendage, save a fine blonde moustache remained thereon. This whim prevented his recognition by several acquaintances on the day of his wedding, and he and his bride enjoyed more than one outburst of merriment at their expense.

The wedding tour planned by "Bink," as the employes and officers of the road familiarly called him, promised to prove quite extensive, and the directors placed a palace car at his disposal.
