A VINTAGE SONG.

Once more the year its fulness pours To cheer the heart of toil ; Once more we take with gratitude The blessing of the soil. I hear the children laugh and sing. They pull the grapes together ; And gladness breathes from everything In this October weather.

The winter days were long and dark. The spring was slow to come : And summer storms brought fear and de To many a humble home. But rain and sunshine had heir will And wrought their work together. And see! we heap our baske's still, In this October weather.

My heart has had its winter, too. And lain full bare and gray; I did not think a spring would come Much less a summer day. How little did I dream that life Would bring us two together, And I should be a happy wife In this October weather

Doubtless the frosts will come again, And some sweet hopes must die; But we shall bear the passing pain, And smile as well as sigh : Nor let us cloud with fears of ill This golden hour together : For God is in His garden still In this October weather.
