Last March Zeno Fees, of Lewistown, was robbed of a horse, buggy and harness. Last week the Sheriff of Mifflin county discovered the horse in a livery stable in Millin county, which resulted in Mr. Fees again getting his horse. The buggy has not yet went found.

A large swindling party, who issued fraud-ulent deeds for land in Texas has just been unearthed in Kansas and other Western States. Sixty persons have been arrested. The gang have attempted to burn thirteen different boiltr houses to cover up their fraudtilent work.

The stable, wood-house, smoke-house ice-house, and other out-houses belonging to the residence of Samuel Buck, Esq., of to the resultance of Samuel Back, Esc., of Port Boyal, were destroyed by fire, last Fri-fay hight. Mr. Back hal been to Philadel-phia, and arrived home on the cars about midnight. No fire was then visible. About an hour after the train had steamed away a railroad watchman saw the fire among the out-houses.

Wall, Mann & Hall have about completed the fiblivery of their Atlas of Juniata County. General satisfaction is expressed with the work. It is a book highly to be prized, slid if the county authority have not ob-tained one for the archives in the Court House, it would be well to do so at this tate day. It is the most complete record of the county that has ever been published. In flays to come it will be more highly val nell than now. To be sure not every fam-ily in the county, who can afford to do so, have secured an Atlas, and in that they have made a mistake. It should be in every well-regulated family. A number of citizens have done better than mercly to subscribe for the work ; they have had " home-steads and farm-views" sketched and inserted, and thereby doubly stamped themselves, by printed record and by pictures, on the history of their county. Messrs. Wall, Mann & Hall deserve credit for the manner in which they executed the work.

----THE golden car peeps through the husk, The faded tassels dryly rustle. So, ho? boy, ho? From morn till dusk, We'll at it then with shout and bustle? So, ho, boys, ho! Now for the tussle! The lively work, we'll weather it? The ripened corn, we'll gather it? Ho, boys, ho? We'll gather it?

FROM MRS. S. ROHRER, FROM TEXAS, TO HER FRIENDS.

> WEATHERFORD, Texas, October 15, 1877.

Editor Sentinel : For the satisfaction of our many friends, we drop you a card to inform you of our whereabouts in the prom-ised land. We are as yet pilgrims here, not having arrived at the point of destination, but are still hopeful. We are now thirty miles beyond the terminits of the railroad. We traveled all day yesterday on a good wagon road, very muddy. Had heavy rains Saturday night, but now 'tis fair and beau-Saturday night, but now its iar and beau-tiful. Our party now en routs for the fron-tier number 12. We may not leave this place till the 16th, as the people are so glad over us that they cannot do us all the kindness they wish to do, and we find in our leader, Mr. C. H. Cole, all of a gentleman. All our party are honorable people. MRS. S. ROHRER.
