Republicans, Stand by Your Colors.

A large number of the Democrati and Greenback people. They have been the very opposite, having been the champions of slavery, and plaintiffs in court prosecutions to establish the unconstitutionality of the ted Representative delegate to the State greenback currency.

Legalplied to payment of 5-20 bonds, which is a good thing for the Senator when the steady progress they have to throw semi Republican financial party, with the hope that such acts will This half recognition, on the part of the Democratic leaders, of the soundness of the Republican financial policy should animate every Republican with a renewed purpose to stand by his colors, till a complete recognition nent of the labor and greenback questions, that they are not to be disturbed by any revolutionary move ments of a backward tendency.

What a happy set of people the Republicans will be when they real-Democracy have put themselves on the record by their votes at an election or two as in favor of the Greenback organization, it will be time enough for the Republicans to fly their hon orable course, and join with them in a revised issue. The Senator may be in earnest, and he may not so be. His bill may be only a decoy to hold those of his party who are about to leave it, for the Labor and Greenback movement. Be the object what it may, the weakening that it indicates should cause every Republican to adhere to his past faith. When such leaders manifest a disposition for Republican finance, the Republican party shoul! unitedly vote their ticket. It is a high compliment to Republican finance, when the Democracy favor its adoption in part. They will adopt all of the good that is in it by and by. Till then, let Republicans stand by their colors.
