VOL. XXXI.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1877.

NO. 47.

TO-MORROW.

The setting sun, with dving beams, Had waked the purple hill to fire, And citadel and dome and spire Were gilded by the far-off gleam And in and out the pine trees crept Full many a slender line of gold ; Gold motes athwart the river swept, And kissed it as it onward rolled And sunlight lingered, loth to go. To part from those we love below; And yet the sun as bright shall glow To-morrow!

The tide was ebbing on the strand, And stooping low its silver crest; The crimson seaweed lay at rest Upon the amber-ribbed sand; Dashed o'er the rocks and on the sand Flung parting wreaths of pearly spray, Then fled away; yet turned once mor and sent a sigh across the bay. As though it could not bear to go. Ah! well, it can eth sorrow To part with those we love below. Yet thithe ward the tide shall flow

To-morrow! Two heart - have met to say farewell At even when the sun went down ; Each life-sound from the busy town Smote sadly as a passing bell. One whispered: "Parting is sweet pain At morn and eve returns the tide : 'Nav! parting rends the heart in twain '

And s ill they linger, loth to go. Ah! well, it causeth sorrow To part from those we love below-For shall we over meet or no Te-morrow?

The Two Portraits.

"Beautiful! beautiful!" exclaimed back in his chair, he contemplated, by the words,with eyes half shut, a lovely countelittle more than outline and dead coloring, and a misty haze seemed spread figures that surround her." over the face, so that it seemed visionlike and intangible. The young painter's rare and fascinating as ever floated through a poet's or an artist's dream. Deep, lustrous blue eyes, in whose depth sincerity and feeling lay crystalized; features as regular as those of a a line of pearls; soft brown hair, descending in waves upon a neck and shoulders of satin surface and Parian firmness. Such were some of the external traits of lovliness belonging to "A creature not too bright and good For human nature's daily food," who had completely actualized the ideal of the young Parisian artist, into politan theatres, who had just made her as a street singer, and was looking for- and took his leave. ward to no more brilliant future, when her beauty, genius and purity of charto prepare herself for the stage, by two barter the wealth of your heart for a or three years of assiduous study. The handful of gold?" success of his protege more than repaid Another tap at the door-another expenditure. his father to send the boy to Paris, and portrait of Rose d'Amour. give him the advantages afforded by students of art. In the great city, Ernest allowed none of the attractions, by which he was surrounded, to divert him from the assiduous pursuit of his beloved art. His mornings were passed in the gallery of the Louvre, his afternoons in private study, and his evenprizes obtained, for a drawing and a sitting, on the next day. It was on pieture, secured for him the patronage that occasion, that the fair unknown of the academy, at whose expense he encountered the actress, and they rewas sent to Italy, to pursue his studies tired in company. in the famous galleries of Rome and The two portraits were finished at the Florence. He returned with a mind same time, and reflected the greatest the sound and the broken bottles must medical profession, and alike in abanmbued with the beauty and majesty of credit upon the artist. They were varthe works of those great masters, whose nished, framed, and paid for, but the glory will outlive the canvas and painter had received no order for their marble which achieved it, determined final disposition, when, one morning, to win for himself a niche in the temple Le was waited on by the two ladies, of Fame, or perish in his laborious ef- who informed him that they should forts to obtain it. At this time he was call upon him the following day, when in his twenty-second year. A vigorous the two portraits would be presented, constitution was his heritage; and his rounded cheek glowed with the warm they were designed. The artist was rounded cheek glowed with the warm they were designed. The artist was the cost of carriage was higher. They color of health. His strictly classical enjoined to place them on two separate the cost of carriage was higher. They features were enhanced by the luxuri- easels-that of the actress to stand near- are now transmitted in bags made of ance of his hair, which he wore flowing est the door of the studio, and both to in its native curls, while his full beard be concealed by a curtain until the Each bag holds eight dozen. The broken

Ernest was yet engaged in the con- lady, we will here remark, had, by her templation of the unfished work—or request, been hitherto seen only by the glass for the manufacturing districts. his satire, the exquisite naturalness of sixteenth, considerable alarm was creatrather of dreaming of the bright origi- artist. There was a mystery in this arnal-when a light tap was heard at his rangement, which piqued excessively, of emery power, glass paper, etc. Some door. He opened it eagerly, and his the curiosity of the painter, and he was poor studio was suddenly illuminated, anxious to witness the denoument. Rose d'Amour. She was dressed with thing was in readiness, and the painter from the circumstance that one great a charming simplicity, which well be awaited the solution of the mystery. came a sylph like form, that required no adventitions aid from art.

"Good morning, Monsieur Lavalle!" said the beautiful actress, cheerfully, as she dropped gracefully into the he. "Read that." fauteuil prepared for her reception. "You find me in the best possible humor to-day, thanks to this bright morning sun, and to the success of last row, at eleven. You will there receives present, broken bottles are enhanced in value, row, at eleven. You will there receives a present, broken bottles are enhanced in value, row, at eleven. You will there be any truth in man's yous, which, if there be any truth in man's yous, with the life of any will certainly delight you. Rose." you can't think! Really, the life of an artiste begins to be amusing. Don't you find it so, as a painter?"
"I confess to you mademoiselle, I have my moments of despondeucy."

"With your fine talent! Think better of yourself. I hope, at least, that I Sir Frederick," said the actress, gaily, have not been so unlucky as to surprise "and your punctuality shall be reyou in one of those inopportune mo- warded."

SEE WITH A SECTION

"if it were so, one of your smiles would features of the English lady. dispel the cloud in a moment." "Really!" replied the actress, gaily.

'Are you quite sure there is no flattery in the remark? I am aware that "True," said the lady. "Well, then, England."

faites votre possible-as Napoleon said to his friend David-for I am anxious that mared the baronet. this portrait shall be a chef-d'œuere. I design it for a present."

plied the painter, "I could not labor Lady Stanley. more conscientiously, if the picture were designed for myself." The sitting passed very rapidly, for rose hastily and exclaimed, "That possession-next to yourself." odious rehearsal! I must leave yougiven you two hours of my valuable her, the beautiful girl vanished, taking drew the curtain from her picture.

with her half the sunshine of the room. "I am ungrateful," said Ernest, in a The painter continued his labor of his employment, that he did not notice without the original." the entrance of a visitor, until he felt a Earnest Lavalle, as, throwing himself light tap on his shoulder, accompanied "Bravo, mon cher! You are getting nance that smiled on him from a canvas, on famnously. That is Rose herselfto which he had just added a few hesi- as radiant as she appears on the stage, tating touches. It was but a sketch- when the focus of a lorgnette had excluded all the stupid and ennugantes exclamation was not addressed to his in Paris, where he had plunged into all can tell how scenes of peace and quiethe gaveties of the season. He was a tude sink into the minds of pain-worn ing at that faint image; but through its handsome man, of middle age, whose dwellers in close and noisy places, and medium, was gazing on lineaments as features bore the impress of dissipation. carry their own freshness deep in their asked the painter, somewhat coldly.

Grecian statue; a lip melting, ripe, and Gaite, and pass all my evenings behind most to love each brick and stone that the organs of the voice, making of it the Spain, and has become an object of comdewy, half concealing, half revealing, the scenes. I flatter myself—but no formed the narrow boundaries of their could name the happy individual."

lebut with distinguished success. There | Earnest would not gratify his visitor unknown parents she had commenced the artist reserved and distrait, sudher career, like the celebrated Rachel, denly recollected the races at Chantilly, acter attracted the attention of a dis- fections to repose on that conceited, benevolent generosity she was enabled woman! woman! how readily you garlands for the graves of those we the kind patron for his exertions and visitor! Really, Lavalle must be getting famous? This time it is a lady-a A word of Ernest Lavalle, and it lady of surpassing loveliness one of shall suffice. He was the son of a those well preserved English-women, humble vine dresser in one of the agri- who, at forty, are as attractive as at cultural departments of France. His twenty. This lady wastall and stately, talent for drawing, early manifested, with elegant manners, and perhaps a attracted the notice of his parish priest, thought of sadness in her expression. whose earnest representations induced She gazed long and earnestly upon the

"It is a beautiful face!" she said, a length, "And one that indicates, I should think, goodness of heart." "She is an angel!" said the painter.

"You speak warmly, sir," said the ings at the academy where he drew from casts and the living model. The only relaxation he permitted himself was an occasional excursion in the picture of th not appear to notice his embarrassment was an occasional excursion in the picturesque environs of the French capital; and he always took his sketch book with and interested in, his fair patronwith him, thus making even his pleased with the picture was immediately comply, and consequently the number above the picture was immediately comply, and consequently the number above the picture was immediately comply and consequently the number above the picture was immediately comply and consequently the number above the picture was immediately comply and consequently the number above the picture was immediately comply the number above the number above the picture was immediately comply the number above the n are subservient to his studies. Two menced, and an hour fixed for a second sorbed for home consumption must be prizes obtained, for a drawing and a sitting, on the next day. It was on and moustache relieved his face from ladies should give the signal for their bottles are subsequently utilized for the exposure. The portrait of the English manufacture of cheap jewelery, chimthe charge of effeminacy.

Ernest was yet engaged in the con-

The next day, at eleven o'clock every-

The first person who presented himself was Sir Frederic Stanley. He was very radiant.

"Congratulate me, mon cher," said Ernest took an open note from his hand, and read as follows: "Be at t' e studio of Ernest Lavalle, to-mor

The astonishment and disappointment of Ernest was at its height, when learned how to turn them to account. his door opened, and the actressentered followed by a female, clesely veiled.

"You are true to your appointment,

"Ah, mademoiselle," said the painter, and lifting the curtain, disclosed the "This is for you!" said she laughing. "My wife! by all that's wonderful!"

exclaimed the baronet. "Accompanied by the original!" said acids. flattery is an essential part of an artist's Lady Stanley, as she unveiled and advanced. "Sir Frederick! Sir Fred-

"With such a subject before me," re- not requite her affection?" continued emptying itself a fountain of the bland-low and tremulous tone. "Much as 1 is impervious to water. love. Indeed, so absorbed was he in prize the picture, I can never be happy

"Is it so?" replied the actress, in the same low tone of emotion; then, placing her hand timidly in his, she added, "The original is yours!"

Who can describe the pleasure and delight, the peace of mind soft tranquility which we feel in the balmy air, The speaker was Sir Frederic Stanley, and among the green hills and rich an English baronet, now some months woods of an inland village! Who can "You know the original, then?" jaded hearts! Men who have lived in crowded pent-up streets, through whole "Know her! My dear fellow. I don't lives of toil and never wished for air is, Nature, wisely economical in all ported to England alone, the quantity to her former limits—a poorer and a know anybody else, as the Yankees change; men to whom custom has been her works and ways, turns it to good now exported having risen to 125,000 wiser State. In traveling along the say. Why, I have the entry of the second nature, and who have come almatter. I have taken a fancy to that daily walks-even they, with the hand to yearn at least for one short glimpse of nature's face; and, carried far from have had such memories wakened up ber window but a few hours before of the whole nature. faded from their dim and feeble sight! Of the sixty-two primary element-"Can it be possible," thought the painter, "that Rose has suffered her afof its thoughts or hopes; their gentle seven are metallic. Iron is found in the influence may teach us to weave fresh blood, phosphorus in the brain, lime-

The question as to what becomes of the oyster and cockle shells has long and used up for several useful purposes. and the difference between the value of "sodas" are no longer sent to the metrocoarse canvas packed in layers of straw. idea of the number of "sodas" broken in the process of filling, corking, cleaning, and distributing may be gathered D. Rawlings) sold last year 100 tons. The value of the "metal," as it is styled, lately that economical science has Tux cattle plague—files.

The Marvels of Man.

breath of wind dashes it upon the open Monthly. "How could you disturb the peace of eye, yet that eye is not blinded, because mind of a young lady, when you could under the eyelid there is incessantly > the lips and postrils it ascends to the point, there to be rectified, renovated and sent back again, replete with puribeautifully exhibited every frosty mor-

But, foul and deadly as the expired In 1868 95,000 tons of alfa grass was ex- powers, and Greece would be reduced account in its outward passage through tons. The Stipa tenacissima grows in Macedonian frontier it is painful and whispers of love, the soft words of af- merce in that country, but the prepara- the bitter feeling which has been left finished orator.

inver-ends and the feet. The distance vague and half-formed conscionsness of substances of oxygen, hydrogen, nitroin some remote and distant time, which in some remote and distant time, which calls up solemn thoughts of distant times to come, and bends down pride and worldliness beneath lt.

and worldliness beneath lt.

and worldliness beneath lt.

and worldliness beneath lt.

After Oliver Goldsmith, I do not know ago been solved. They are pulverized any figure in the history of literature that should take the gentle reader's lik-The crushed cockle shell is invaluable ing more than the Italian comic dramaas a bed on which to rest flower pots in tist, Carlo Goldoni. These two charmthe conservatory or forcing-house, and ing writers are not unlike in certain Ernest blushed, for he feared that he had betrayed his secret. The lady did for garden walks and "rubble" for both children of that easy-going eighbuilders' purposes. What becomes of something fabulous. But what becomes instinct, and were asthetic wanderers, over, they had both the vagabondizing broken every year in London alone, years' self-exile in France. They were alike in their half-education for the amount to something very considerable. doning that respectable science for the Broken "wines" and broken sodas" are groves of Academe, not to say Bohemia; converted to many useful purposes, Goldoni, indeed, left the law and sevthe latter especially. The best soda-water bottles come from Yorkshire, and ments for these shades which are not the "gingers" from Derbyshire. The haunts of flowery ease, after all. But these authors are even more alike in toriously seen in the great prevalence poils packed in crates, as formerly. In the crate they were pilfered to a great the theory than in the conduct of life, poor Goldoni had his moral ideas too, and tried to teach in his comedies purity, good faith and other virtues which were foolishness to most of the world by whose favor he must live. He re- mysterious lights. In the fifteenth censembled Goldsmith in the amiability of tury, and again on a larger scale in the his literary motives; but he was no Writing in January, 1694, the rector of poet, though a genius, and he falls fur- Dolgelly stated that sixteen ricks of ther below Goldsmith in this rather hay and two barns had been burnt by than in respect of the morality he "a kindled exhalation which was often from the circumstance that one great manufacturer (Mr. H. taught. Perhaps Dr. Goldsmith would seen to come from the sea." Passing have been but little pleased to be com- over other alleged appearances in March pared with the Venetian dramatist, if 1875, a letter by the late Mr. Picton, man is a bundle of habits. It may be dustry in motion along with others, and broken bottles are enhanced in value. broken bottles are enhanced in value. broken better a few and broken bottles are enhanced in value. broken better a few and broken bottles are enhanced in value. broken broken bottles are enhanced in value. broken broken bottles are enhanced in value. broken br broken bottles are enhanced in value. critical papers,) that drew blood; Bar- They are generally in a northern di- ble that I shall never forget. The anty to them, that, unaided, they will style Latin or Gregorian calendar. retti despised Goldoni for a farceur of rection, but sometimes they hug the statue is called "Vice Convinced," and not fail in their very next experiment.

Goldoni." Nevertheless, if the Vene-While the gastrie juice has a mild, tian could have brought himself to leave upon the living hand, but at the movalley and on the mountain-top there is as well as at London in Goldoni's day;

The breath which leaves the lungs progress of Algerian colonization. It turbances under which Turkey has manner. In order to do this you must 5,) served through that war with honhas been so perfectly divested of its life- may, indeed, be regarded as an exhaust- been laboring, Greece has shown one study constantly yourselves, and, if or, having been wounded, and again giving properties that to re-breathe it, ible source of wealth, seeing that mill-encouraging symptom of power, and possible, be under the influence and twice wounded in St. Clair's defeat in unmixed with other air, the moment it escapes from the mouth, would cause requires no cultivation, and as soon as immediate death by suffocation, while one crop is cut another begins to grow. passions of the people, and is also alive Shun, as you would a deadly poison, the General Wilkinson did not then press if it hovered about us a more or less de- A few years since, this desert grass was to the real interests of the country. A impure literature that is more or less the matter, but issued the following orstructive influence over health and life regarded as an obstacle to progress, but rising of Greek-Ottoman subjects, supwould be occasioned. But it is made of the happy notion occurred to some ina nature so much lighter than the common air that the instant that it escapes of it, and so well did the experiment in the side of Turkey at the present you the conscious dignity of manhood, permission to wear his hair. On the answer, and so rapidly did the inven- moment, (January, 1877.) but, cui bono, not in a vain but a modest, yet positive subject of this order the general will ufactured, the proprietors Lloyd's Week- would be obstructed, massacres would ly News, I believe, taking the initiative. excite the interference of foreign the right of farming some hundred way. I was there last year, and was

· Evening Damps.

ive diurnal changes of temperature. The range of the thermometer from noonday to morning is not only greater in the country, but the heavy dews consequent upon this render the changes more perceptible and less easily re than in the city, where shelter during exercise is obtainable for most of the day, and when evening comes on with its cool breezes, incautious persons exnose themselves with little or no additional clothing. They came into the country to be comfortable they say thoroughly cooled if not slightly chilled. At the same hour on the next day they are again chilled, and so on unti intermittent fever or some one of its kindred diseases so cordially invited, steps in and takes full possession. We by no means repudiate the malarial origin of these diseases, but we do say that such a course of conduct strongly predisposes the system to the influence of that dread unknown destroyer. Such checks of perpiration are also frequent causes of intestinal diseases more frequent than any other; as is no -Dr. Searle.

Mysterious Lights. From time to time the west coast

Wales seems to have been the scene of years ago; but since the anarchy produced by the late rebellions he has been called to the seat of war, and brigand age has again appeared. Here again is another instance of the difficulty under -Raker's Turken.

with which they have completely en-The fault of the Greek character is veloped him. The net is represented 'and your punctuality shall be rebland, sweetish taste, it possesses the bland, sweetish taste, it possesses the bland fluence whatever on the soft and delithat can be swantowed. It has no influence whatever on the living stomach, nor upon the living hand, but at the moupon the living hand, but at the moment of death it begins to eat them away with the power of the strongest acids.

There is dust on sea, on land, in the There is dust on the latter in the case from Ottoman rule—far greater, in fact than would have been the case had the rescape from Ottoman rule—far work is complete. There is dust on the thin the there is dust on the thin the there is dust on the thin the the thin the there is dust on the thin the there is dust on the thin the there is dust on the there is dust o unity of religion, and unity of social habits among the subjects make them from the face of a beautiful angel, with short hair illy accord; they will not, "Not a true artist's, replied Ernest."

"Sir Frederick! Sir Frederick! Sir Frederick! Sir Frederick! Sir Frederick! Sir Frederick! when you were amusing yourself, by paying unmeaning attentions and he who forgets it is untrue to his high mission."

"And a true artist's, replied Ernest."

"Sir Frederick! Sir Frederick! S got to tell her that you had a wife in est, darkest caves of the earth; no pal- have found an intelligent admirer in a in Greece there is no inquisition of every part of the entire form seems conace-door can shut it out, no drawer so man who haplessly knew as much of foreign intrigue to foster insurrection vulsed in the fearful struggle. But he and cleaner will he be." Of these or-"I thought it unnecessary," stam- secret as to escape its presence; every the world as himself.—The Atlantic and thwart every attempt at reform, has been successful, and a radiant ders, the first, as to the cropping of the such an exists, in Turkey: and last, not smile of joy and relief light up his face. least, there are more able and educated Never before had I so fully realized the to wearing whiskers in any other manmen to meet the wants of the Govern- power and tyranny of a habit, how ut- ner than thus prescribed, was not re-In Algeria, the tall, reedy grass, ment. The Greeks complain that the terly impossible it is to break loose from scinded until 1853; and then it was preest fluid in Nature, which spreads it- lending the otherwise airy plains the area of their country is too small to a bad one. Every day I neet, on these scribed and still is the regulation that "It was only a flirtation, to pass the self over the surface of the eye at every glow of mellow corn-fields, is the Stipa develop the great administrative talents streets men, who, though rich, would "the beard may be worn at the pleastime," said Sir Frederic; "but I ac- winking and washes every atom of tenacissima familiar to botanists and the which they possess; but I much doubt give all their treasures in a moment ure of the individual, but must be kept The sitting passed very rapidly, for the sitting passed very rapidly, for the artist; and he was surprised when the artist; and he was surprised when the lady, after consulting her watch. I shell are consulting her watch. I shell are consulting her watch. I shell are consulting her watch. the lady, after consulting her watch, I shall ever cherish it as my dearest has some acridity, which, under certain newspaper firm in London, looks like would not create divisions which would zen fled away from our city to a distant tion, which is strictly enforced, that circumstances, becomes so decided as nothing else I know of in the vegetable break it up into small and independent part of the country, hoping, as he said, "the hair is to be short, or what is gen-"For you, sir," said the beautiful to be scalding to the skin and would rot world. The blades, between two and States. One thing they have learned of to get rid of the temptations that were erally termed cropped; whiskers and but you ought to be satisfied, for I have actress, turning to Ernest, "I cannot away the cylids were it not that along three feet high, are brown and wiry, late years which will tell to their adthink of depriving you of your best ef- the edges of them there are little oil- and exceedingly tenacious in texture. vantage, and that is, that Russia has The formation of correct habits in there was an old and distinguished oftime. Adieu, then, until to-morrow." fort. Take the portrait. I wish the manufactories, which spread over their A more unpromising-looking natural hitherto made use of Greece simply for With a smile that seemed natural to subject were worthier." And she with- surface a coating as impervious to the specimen it would be difficult to name; her own purposes, and that Pan-Sea- word: if you would become model ler commanding the Second Regular Inliquids necessary for keeping the eye- yet this ill-favored plant has already vonic and Pan-Hellenic schemes are characters you must discard all bad fantry, who had entered the Second ball washed clean, as the best varnish made the fortune of speculators, and is forces acting upon the same line, but in habits, all odd habits, all that is ungra- Pennsylvania Infantry as a 1st lieutentending in no small degree to aid the opposite directions. Amid the late dis-

The First Champagne.

of a true Renedictine Dom Peri ed 8,814,230 francs.—Fraser's Magazine. was one young man, so grand, so more, destined to be far more important in reluctantly put the fatal question, and its results. He found out the way of and again the same answer. Still loth dainty to the taste, and twice as exhil- ish both display an enormous outlay of to take so fine a life, they offered him a arating in its effects. It was at the money, imposing architecture, costly third and last chance for repentance, close of the seventeenth century that materials and exquisite interior decora

ery .- London Society.

when in command of the district, three

Self-Reliance Necessary to Success.

which Turkey labors, of not being titude in the execution of our under- by a large body of choristers without allowed time to set her house in order. takings, is indispensable to success, accompainment. The candles in the the comparason had been made in his Jones appeared in "Bygones," p. 198, said, with equal truth, that bad habits to be assured, but this assurance can be marble floor—the whole constituting a is somewhere about 10s. per ton, but it is somewhere about 10s. per ton, but it lifetime, for if he ever heard of Goldoni giving an account of curious lights are our worst enemies. How they varies according to demand. When the at all, it must have been in scornful which he had witnessed at Pwilheli, steal on us almost unconsciously and market for fancy goods is active, broken terms from that Joseph Barretti who and now we have a statement from Tobottles command a better price. A rebottles command a better price. A redwelt in London and consorted with Dr. wyn that within the last few weeks tremendous efforts it takes to rid ourvival of trade sets this particular inJohnson, and had wielded upon his "lights of various colors have frequentselves of them when once we have low degree, not being able to see the truth and power of his comedies, and miles toward Aberdyff, and suddenly need to speak of him as "one Charles" disappear."—Oswestry Advertiser.

The order, in 1801, to cut off their hair, is still in force. The second, as ture, it may not be yours.

higher regions above the breathing- tion spread, that enormous quantities it could only end in promoting the way. Never sacrifice principle for briefly observe that it has been sanctionare now exported to England and other views of Russia at the expense of Greece. place. Embark in no business scheme ed in America by the first military countries. Many of our leading news- Greek lives and Greek money would that has not a fair promise of moderate characters of the British and American papers are printed on paper thus man- have to support the rebellion, commerce returns. Never spend that which you armies; that it has been recommended have not got. Don't discount the fu- by the ablest generals who have lived, and has been adopted by the best troops in the world, and that the cut of the hair is as essential a part of military uniform It happened that about the year 1668 as the cut of the coat or color of the fathe office of cellarer was conferred upon cings," Afterward Wilkinson witha worthy monk named Perignon. Po- drew the indulgence, and as Colonel ets and roasters, we know, are born. Butler persisted in a queue, he sent him fection, the tender tones of human symtion of it in Algeria seems to be better among the Greek-Ottoman subjects by Moets and Cliquots, the Heidslecks and of his own appointment, on this, for and not made; and this precursor of in 1863 before a general court martial picture; what do you say to a hundred of death upon them, have been known pathy, the sweetest strains of ravishing understood, and it is chiefly from the the horrors produced by retaliation the Mumms of our days, seems to have disobedience of orders and other matmusic, the persuasive eloquence of the French colony that we draw our supinished orator.

If a well-made man be extended on the plies. Within the last two or three town of Niansta—in a lovely situation strong head and a discriminating palate. Charges, but sentenced to be repriman-"You have succeeded so well, you wish to keep it for yourself—eh? Double the price and let me have it!" the scenes of their pains and pleasures, have seemed to pass at once into a new state of being, and, crawling forth from the body, a circle, making the navel its plateaux and the sea beyond—state of being, and, crawling forth from the body, a circle, making the navel its of a true ground, his arms at right angles with the body, a circle, making the navel its plateaux and the sea beyond—sole indemnity from the Government sole indemnity from the Government of a true ground, his arms at right angles with the body, a circle, making the navel its plateaux and the sea beyond—sole indemnity from the Government of a true ground, his arms at right angles with the body, a circle, making the navel its plateaux and the sea beyond—sole indemnity from the Government of a true ground, his arms at right angles with the body, a circle, making the navel its plateaux and the sea beyond—sole indemnity from the Government of a true ground. whose studio we have introduced our readers. The fair original, whose portrait is before us, was Rose'd Amour, a beautiful actress of one of the metropolitan theatres, who had just made her politan theatres, who had just made her politan theatres, who had just made her readers. The fair original, whose portrait is before us, was Rose'd Amour, a beautiful actress of one of the metropolitan theatres, who had just made her readers. The fair original, whose portrait is before us, was Rose'd Amour, a beautiful green within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill, and plain, and glistening within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill, and plain, and glistening within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill, and plain, and glistening when the arms are extended. The length of the body is just within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill, and plain, and glistening within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill, and plain, and glistening when the arms are extended. The length of the body is just within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill, and plain, and glistening when the arms are extended. The length of the body is just within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill, and plain, and glistening within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill are represent."

Say no more," said the baronet. The fact or in the latter of thousand hectars of the great alfa region. These new lines of railways are in a grove of walnut trees just that between the tips of the form the latter of the design within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill and plain, and glistening within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill are represent."

Say no more," said the baronet. The latter of the design within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill are represent."

Say no more, was covered with them by the mere sight of sky, and hill are represent. The length of the bed within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill are represent. The length of the same as the design with the success of the firm and the latter of the same as the design within th they have sunk into their tombs as of the foot, while the distance from the the commerce. In his speech before cades for about 1,000 feet until it generosity, and discovered that a white sumed command, committed anew the debut with distinguished success. There was quite a romance in her history. Of unknown parents she had commenced the artist reserved and distroit, such the success. There beach of orders. At this time an artist reserved and distroit, such they watched from the interval time could be made from the blackest breach of orders. At this time an artist reserved and distroit, such they watched from their lonely chambels artist reserved and distroit, such they watched from their lonely chambels artist reserved and distroit, such they watched from their lonely chambels artist reserved and distroit, such they watched from their lonely chambels artist reserved and distroit are successed by a question, and the latter, finding grapes, which would keep good, instead they watched from their lonely chambels are successed by a question, and the latter, finding grapes, which would keep good, instead they watched from their lonely chambels are successed by a question, and the latter, finding grapes, which would keep good, instead they watched from their lonely chambels are successed by a question, and the latter, finding grapes, which would keep good, instead they watched from their lonely chambels are successed by a question, and the latter, finding grapes, which would keep good, instead they watched from their lonely chambels are successed by the artist reserved and distroit. eral of Algeria, alluded to the exportation of alfa as one of the most promising when I was aroused by details of the sources of wealth in the country, and hideous conductof man. "It was here," Moreover, the happy thought occurred Nov. 10, 1804, Lieutenant Colonel Congreat prominence was given to it in the the old man said, "that when a boy I to him that a piece of cork was a much stant Freeman.) For this, Wilkinson Exposition. Not only paper of first saw all the male population of Niausta more suitable stopper for a bottle than sent him before another general court rate quality is manufactured from the brought to execution. The Turkish the flax dipped in oil, which had here- martial, "for wilful, obstinate and con-Stips tenecissims, but hair-brushes and officials stood here, the executioner tofore served that purpose. The white, tinued disobedience of orders, and for gariands for the graves of those we loved, may purify our thoughts, and dust and ashes in all! Not only these other brushes, mats, artificial flowers there. One by one the Christian Greeks or as it was sometimes styled, the gray mutinous conduct." The court senbear down before it old enmity and eighteen human elements, but the whole and basket-work. It has also a medical were led out. The question was put to wine of Champagne grew famous, and tenced him to suspension for one year hatred. But beneath all this there lingers in the least reflective mind a sixty-two of which the universe is made, have their essential basis in the four plant mixed with oil makes an excellent remedy for burns, and it also sup- The answer was 'No. Effendim; and the the predominance. The cellarer, ever and was buried with his queue. - Mag. having held such feelings long before in some remote and distant time, which Among the greatest glories of St he firmly answered 'No.' Go back, making an effervescent wine-a wine Petersburg are the two magnificent One more fruitful cause of disease re- le Brmly answered 'No.' Go back, making an enerves on white a wine cathedrals—St. Isaac's and Our Lady of mains to be noted, and that is, excess- an hour.' Again he was brought forth, flowed the glass, that was twice as Kazan. In their construction and fin-

What now, young Glaour, wilt thou this discovery was made-when the tion. It will suffice to give some idea accept the terms and live?' 'By God's glory of the Roy Soleil was on the of the former, which is the most stuhelp, never,' he replied, and boldly met wane, and with it the splendor of the pendous of the two. In the first place, sisted by the human system. During his tate." Truly, these were Christian court of Versailles. The king, for the cost of sinking the piles on which the day the heat is felt more severely martyrs, and their race should be whose especial benefit liqueurs had the foundations rest was $1,000,000. capable of great deeds. The demoraliz- been invented, found a gleam of his The building, which is in the form of a ing effects of such horrors are not con- youthful energy as he sipped the Greek cross, is of Finland granite, and fined to the moment, but leave their creamy foaming vintage that enlivened supported by over one hundred poltrack behind. This I witnessed on his dreary tete-a-tete with the widow of ished pillars, sixty feet high and seven visiting the house of a Greek shortly Scarron. It found its chief patrons, feet in diameter. The cupola is surafter this old man's recital. A pretty however among the bands of gay young rounded by thirty more of these pillars child came into the room, a boy of about roysterers, the future rows of the Re- of large size, which support the gilded and they ride or sit in the open air till 5 years of age, and upon my taking him gency, whom the Duc D' Orleans and dome, sixty-six feet in diameter, with on my knee, and making my usual re- the Duc De Vendeme had gathered a miniature cupola above. Then the mark that he was a fine boy for his age, round them at the Palais Royal and at whole is surmounted by a gilt cross, the father said, "Georgie, tell this Anet. It was at one of the famous the top of which is 336 feet from the gentleman how many Turks you will soupers d'Anet that the Marquis De Sil- ground. The exterior decorations are kill when you are a man." There was lery-who had turned his sword into a huge bronze figures and doors, as well much behind that question. In the pruning-knife, and applied himself to as Corinthian capitals and biblical small Greek towns on the Black Sea the cultivation of his paternal vineyards groups in the facade. Inside the effect coast very little complaint is heard of on the principles inculcated by the is most impressive. Here again are Turkish misgovernment, but on the cellarer of St. Peter's-first introduced great pillars of polished granite, as well Macedonian frontier it is the chief topic the wine bearing his name. The flow- as ten of iron covered with malachite of conversation. The Greeks take more er-wreathed bottles, which, at a given and two with lapis lazuli. The walls kindly to brigandage than any other of signal, a dozen of blooming young dam- and floors are of glistening granite and the Ottoman subjects, Circassians ex- sels scantily draped in the guise of Bac- marble of different colors. Pictures of cepted, and most of the bands which chanals placed upon the table, were sacred subjects adorn the walls; images used to intest the mountains which hailed with rapture, and henceforth loaded with jewels and gifts are met at divide Thessaly from Macedonia were sparkling wine was an indispensable every turn; the altar is respiendent composed of scoundrels from that na- adjunct at all the petits soupers of the with bronze, gold, silver, jewels, light tion. Mehemet Ali Pasha, (by birth a period. In the highest circles the pop-German,) by his energy and persever-ping of champagne-corks seemed to liers for hundreds of candles are hung ance, dispersed the whole of these bands ring the knell of sadness, and the vic- from the lofty ceiling, and everywhere tories of Marlborough were in a measure shrine lights and burning tapers meet compensated for by this grand discovgrandeur. During service the effect is heightened. The Greek Church employs vocal, but not instrumental music. Self-reliance, conjoined with promp- The responses are chanted at St. Isaac's And yet multitudes live a life of vacil- chandellers are all lighted; several lation and consequent failure because priests and altar boys appear in gold they remain undetermined what to do, and silver vestments, and the peopleor having decided that, have no confi- all standing-are constantly crossing dence in themselves. Such person need themselves or bowing their heads to the

-A Maryland peach-grower is said