A cold has passed Congress and become a law granting a pension of $4 per month to every survivor of the war of 1812, who served four days, or was in any engagement, or to the widows of such officers, soldiers or enlisted men, without regard to the date of marriage. Proof of loyalty is not required. The bill also restores to the roll the names of all pensioners dropped for disloyalty.

A cold is the beginning of everything that is bad. If any one has a cold, let him apply a mustard plaster to the bottom of the spine and lower part of the back at once, and by so doing he may avert a dangerous illness before it is too late and medical advice can be procured. It should never be forgotten that "Heat is life—cold is death."—Scientific American.

The Shippensburg News of Saturday last says: "The lame bear which passed through this place a few weeks since is reported as having performed a voluntary act for the Commonwealth in Hagerstown. At a hotel he was placed for the night in a comfortable pig pen the pig having been temporarily removed to make room for the new occupant. During the night some individual in the neighborhood, conceived the idea of stealing the pig from the hotel pen, and accordingly proceeded to carry out his design. He stealthily entered the pen and laid his hands on what he supposed to be the pig with the intention of pushing him out of the door. What was his surprise and horror to find himself seized and held in the arms of a tremendous brute and was being squeezed so powerfully that his first impulse was to yell lustily for help, for he began to think Satan in anticipation of his visit had taken up his quarters in that pen and was about to take him off body and sleeves. His cries attracted the attention of some one who was not able to release him, and it was not until the arrival of the owner of the brute that he was willing to give up the man who had so unceremoniously disturbed his rest. As an end to this singular adventure the would be abductor of swine was committed to jail to await trial."
