Ohio Republicans

Met in State Convention in Cincinnati, on the 12th inst., and nominated the following ticket: Supreme Judge, William White; Secretary of State, Milton Barnes: Commissioner of Public Works, George Paul. The following resolutions were passed by the Convention:

First-The Ohio Republicans are not opsed to the investigation of frauds in the Presidential contest of 1876, but demand that all investigation shall be impartial and include all the States where fraud is alleged to have been committed. Second-That the title of President Hayes is beyond dispute or Congressional inter-ference, and that the American people are opposed to all payment of rebei claims. Third—That we tender the prostrate Republicans of the South, many of whom are ex-Union soldiers and are ostracised as carpet-baggers and scalawags, our earnest sympathy in their struggle for political liberty. and we will always honor the name of Gen-eral Grant for his patriotic efforts in behalt of Southern Republicans.
