SHORT LOCALS.

Hay making. Long clover. Thunder, rain, and hail last Wednesday.

Dr. Samuel Crawford, living at McCoyville, has been quite sick for some time.

It is reported that the wheat crop in the West was never more thoroughly sold out at this time in the year than now.

Candidates are coming forward. The family, State, and church are the chief institutions in this world.

Prepare a piece of smoked glass, through which to look at the partial eclipse of the sun on the 29th.

Joshua Gingrich, farmer in Walker township, sent us specimens of tall wheat.

Eight thousand druggists and general stores in the United States sell Foutz horse and cattle powders.

The 'snob' at one end and a tramp at the other' candidate is not as popular among the people as his backers thought he would be.

This from the Washington, D. C., National Republican: Mr. William H. Patterson, eldest son of Hon. John J. Patterson, was on last Saturday, admitted to practice in the courts of law and equity in the District of Columbia.

It is said by statisticians that the average amount that the land-owning farmer makes per day, with expenses paid, is 72 cents per day.

Those young men who dress well, and drive fast horses when going abroad, should not, when in want of cornfields and steel, get into the 'square-crown'...

Which of the Pattersons? The Philadelphia Press says: 'James E. Anderson turns out to be a Lancaster county boy and an ex-Sunday school scholar of Hon. D. W. Patterson, the ex-governor and judge of the county.'

Pennsylvania State Sunday School Convention.

The fourteenth annual convention of the State Sunday School Association opened in the Pine Street M. E. church, Williamsport, Pa., on Tuesday afternoon, June 11, 1878.

After the singing of another hymn, Mr. Whitney delivered an appropriate address, using the blackboard in illustrating his remarks.

After the singing of another hymn, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. M. McPherson, of Lancaster.

The formal opening of the convention took place in the evening, at 8 o'clock. The exercises opened with singing, reading of the Scriptures, and prayer.

Rev. A. Henry, of Newberry, was then introduced, and delivered an address of welcome, which left no doubt in the minds of the delegates of the willingness of the citizens to entertain the convention.

The convention assembled again at nine o'clock on Wednesday morning. The prayer meeting and Bible reading were conducted by Rev. J. M. Reimsnyder, of Lewistown.

The State Secretary, Mr. E. S. Wagener, then read his report, stating that nearly all the counties in the State are organized, and that the work is in a healthy condition.

The convention then proceeded to the discussion of the subject, 'The work to be done, and how to do it.' Rev. Yates Hickey, of Philadelphia, opened the discussion, making the following points:

1. Give to every one the best possible knowledge of the Bible. 2. Enlist every earnest and intelligent Christian soul in the work of teaching, or learning, or both.

Mr. H. H. Kimball said that the secret of Sunday school work is in resolution, such as Daniel had—some one to step forward and say: 'I will do it.' Let the teacher resolve, and God will give the strength.

After the opening of the evening session the President introduced the Rev. J. B. Young, of Carlisle, who discussed 'Christ, the model teacher.' The speaker developed the following ideas:

1. Jesus is a model to us teachers. (a.) For the text-books He used: The Old Testament, nature, the human heart. (b.) For the doctrine He taught. (c.) For the methods He employed. (d.) For the spirit He exemplified.

Neighboring News.

Mifflin County, as per Lewistown papers. Fish plates set in trout streams. The Y. M. C. A. had open air services on Sabbath at the Poor House.

Huntingdon County, as per Huntingdon papers. The farmers of Trough Creek, whose cattle have been allowed to run in the barrens extending along the valley, report that the cattle are dying from eating frost-bitten leaves.

A correspondent who has gone to the trouble and labor of comparing the mercantile appraiser's list of 1878 with that of 1874, finds that there are fifty-two less dealers in 1878 than there were in 1874, and that the license revenue is $455,500 less in 1878 than in 1874.

On Friday afternoon a stranger called at the residence of Mr. Adam Mays, in West Huntingdon, and informed Mrs. Mays that her husband had torn his pantaloons and had sent him to procure another pair for him, to enable him to get home.

The Harrisburg Telegraph says: 'A number of farmers have agreed to pay harvest hands as follows: Making hay, $1 per day; hauling in, the same; binding after a reaper, $1.25, and $1.62 for cradling.'

My Visit to the Animus Cave.

This cave is located two and a half miles north of Spring Mills station, in Miles township, Centre county, Pa., getting to it we had to descend an almost perpendicular declivity into a rectangular pit, said to be nearly 100 feet deep, and 30 feet long and 15 feet wide at the bottom.
