One of the panels of the door was broken, through which an entrance was gained to the school house, and a fire was started between the plastering and the outside weather-boarding.

Keamey thanks God that he was not made by the newspapers, and the newspapers are glad that they will not be called on to answer for the creation of such a fictionally-tongued man as Mr. Keamey.

James Simons went out to fish for bass, last Thursday. Counting all expenses, including loss of time, the one nibble that he got cost him two dollars and fifty cents.

Keamey's idea of liberty is like the Irishman's idea of the abundance of money in America. When he landed in New York he found a quarter of a dollar, and threw it away, exclaiming, "No quarters for me, I must have dollars in America."

Festival—The Presbyterian congregation of East Waterford, this county, will hold a Festival for the benefit of their church, opening on Friday evening, the 16th inst., and continuing through the afternoon of Saturday and Saturday evening.

On Friday, the 9th inst., about 6 o'clock in the evening, a tornado passed over Wallingford, Conn. Houses and barns were blown down, and about twenty people were killed, and as many more wounded.

The ladies of Lower Tuncarrow Church will hold an Ice Cream Festival, for the benefit of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of that church, in the school room of Tuncarrow Academy, on Friday evening, August 16th. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Good music by accomplished performers will be added to the attractions of the evening. Everybody is invited.

Just to think, that in the days of what are called the honest days of the Democracy—the days of ex-Governor Bigler—a Treasurer of that honest persuasion should have stolen one hundred thousand dollars, and now that the stolen bonds are coming due, the State will be called on to pay them. How much more did the Democratic officials steal?

According to the expressions of the Irishman Keamey, a man when he is poor must feel like a slave, and when he is poor he must feel like a thief. "Well enough, my bold good Keamey, will you come forward and jest the waiting people just what a man must be in to not feel like a slave or a thief. Come, good boy, do tell."
