

B. F. SCHWEIER.

VOL. XXXH.

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Editor and Proprietor.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1878.

Poesy in a Swamp

NO. 34.

NOBODY BUT ME.

I'm very happy where I am Far across the say. I'm very happy far from hom In North Amerikay.

It's only in the night, when Pat Is sleeping by my side, I lie awake and no one knows The big tears that I've cried.

For a little voice still calls me back To my far-far countrie And nobody can hear it suske Oh, nobody but me.

There is a little spot of ground Rehund the chapel wall : It's nothing but a tiny mound Without a stone at all.

It rises to my heart just now, It makes a dawny hill. It's from below the voice comes out, I cannot kape it still.

Oh. litt'e voice, ye call me back To my far, far countrie, But nobody can hear you spake Oh, nobody but me.

The Fatal Card.

Some years ago the Mississippi River was noted for its "floating palaces," as the large steamers plying between New | want an answer-yes or no." Orleans and the ports above were called. Now the railways have driven nearly all the fine boats off the river, and left steamers were in many respects delight- you a liar." ful, but they never ceased to be subjects which was reduced to a system, did not as if to grasp a weapon. result in the loss of the boat, there was lers, in which pistol-bullets would fly rather too thick for the comfort of tion of the boat usually required that bullyingly : all such amusements should be conduced in a saloon providided for that pur- I cannot see." ful to obcy this rule, and the gaming with you."

Many professional gamblers used ot to fall into their clutches. So well, indeed, was this system managed, that the various members of the "craft" seemed to have their different steamers marked to have their different steamers marked to have their different steamers marked out for them by common consent, so that no one would trespass upon the domain a scene of more than usual interest. of the other. Of course, these men were warm friends of the officers of the boat, brim, and none of us had seen his face, the scientific side of the question. The who were either too sincere in their friendship to put a stop to the practice. or too much afraid of the gamblers to care to provoke a quarrel with them, for in those days it was a common affair ally good player. For an hour or more burden. The men, one by one, teacher for such men to resent any fancied the playing went on in silence. The and all, plunged into the water and affront with a pistol-shot.

dull. Who wants to play for $20 ante. There was no reply. All present seemed to know the man, and no one his clutches. "Umph!" he exclaimed with an ex- besides those natives who reside in or were assured that we should see the pression of contempt, "afraid to try your near the district of Nadogo, to the club; but as we neared the place its luck against Dan Sturdivant, ch? Or northeast of the province of Macuata. whereabouts became more and more maybe you want a little coaxing. Some No visit previous to ours, so far as we vague, until our arrival on the spot, of you must play with me. I can't stand are informed, has been paid to the place when there was no trace of it. Another such treatment. Come, let's see who it by any European. A short account, god, called "Lotu," had taken away

A Floating Island.

will be. He glanced around the crowd as if to without some interest. We had slept thinge, also, that we did not see. The select his victim. For the first time I on the island of Kavewa, and in the three eels that served the Waga-qele as noticed the gaze of one of the group morning sailed to the mainland opposite, a rudder in the good old times, we did fixed steadily upon him. He was a and entered the river Malaqio, near to not see. But we were glad to see the stranger to me, and was dressed in a the town of Nubn. The river is of con- island itself, and all the place, before plain suit of homespun, and his face siderable size, and might be navigable the light of the ancient mythology had was partially concealed by a wide- for five or six miles in a ten-ton cutter. entirely faded away, or, rather, had brimmed sombrero which was drawn On our arrival at the lake, whither the become merged into the greater light; over it. He was a small, but powerfully most of the natives had preceded us, for the simple belief of these people was made man, and in the decided expres- the scene that presented itself was at but a tropic night, and not entirely dession of his well-shaped hand I read an once most lively and most dreary. Very titute of some good thing. unusual firmness and intensity of pur- dreary because, as far as the eye could

"Are you Daniel Sturdivant, the gam- stood in the center of a vast moorland, bler ?" he asked in a calm tone, without and the lake had dwindled during a five rising.

Sturdivant flushed darkly and gave was no sign of life but what we ourselves the stranger a fierce glance. "Some persons call me so, behind my back," he said insolently; "but no one

my face." "Nevertheless," said the stranger, "I

"Well then." said the gambler angrily, "I am. What of it?" "Simply this," replied the stranger, est glee, and a number both of men and the field to the freight boats, whose "I have heard it said that you claim to of dread to timid people, for if the racing two and thrust his hand into his breast the Waga-quie had sailed across the was written to him and his comrades a flashing radiance that would shame a "Stop," said the stranger, "if you sure to be one or more encounters be- shoot me, you will simply prove your- from that quarter, but it was lying on > table, and I will make my word good." There was something in the calm,

"There," said the stranger, produc- trees on it, and appears to have been asylum by the Captain of the blockade glossy black and blazing scarlet. make these boats their home, traveling back and forth with them, and fleecing back and forth with them, and fleecing all where yerdant or foolish enough  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in the genuine in the matching over a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in the genuine in the matching over a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in the genuine in the matching over a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in the genuine in the matching over a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in the genuine in the matching over a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in the genuine in the matching over a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in the genuine in the matching over a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in the genuine in the genuine in the matching over a large pocket book  $(1 + 1)^{-1}$  the fourth island is smaller, being only in the genuine in below the island, to see what it was made of, and when he drew back his

The existence of a floating island, arm his hand was gone. The island cared to volunteer to place himself in Waga-quele, in Vanua Levu, South god once gave a present of a club to the Pacific, is known to very few, probably, tankei; and at fifty miles distance we therefore, of what we saw may not be that club. There were some other reach, there lay a barren waste. We Orange county, N. Y., has just had ple and lavender flowers now in the a wedding with enough romance about fullness of bloom, standing in spots months' drought to a swamp. There it for a novel. In 1862 the bridegroom that their curved leaves interlock, exengagement to the lady whom he exhad brought. We were lively enough. however, as you may imagine. The peeted to marry enlisted in the Union ing grass or yellow seum. Through "taukei" had clambered up a tree on army. His sweetheart made no effort the middle, nearly, runs a broad band would dare apply that term to me before the island (or a tail bush called najata), to dissuade him from what he thought of water so closely covered with scum and was adjuring the island-gods to his duty, and with breaking heart she that it looks solid sending out winding move; the girls were on the opposite bade him sdieu, and quietly buried her- little branches, sometimes yellow and side of the mere, in the full flow of a self in her home with her widowed glossy as satin, sometimes clear as crysmeke; about half a dozen natives were mother, the only living member of the tal, into the lines of purple blossomed poling about a small island in the high- family beside herself. For awhile all flags on one side or the changeful emwent well, and loving letters from his erald grass on the other. women were on the la ge island with sweetheart cheered the gallant soldier The low lying beams of the sun shine accommodations for passengers are by be the best card player in the Southwest. the tankei, who seemed to be the genius and tender words of hope from him out all inequalities, hide every little of-seething water at the foot of the casno means palatial. The former class of I have come two hundred miles to prove loci, helping him (with stout poles) to made lite endurable to her. After the fensiveness, and light up every dew move the mass. Every one was in the battle of Chancellorsville his letters drop on the grass blades, on the flag taiking, evidently regarding this feat Sturdivant strode forward a step or highest spirits. One chief told us that suddenly ceased. Letter after letter leaves, on the leaves of the bushes, with as an ordinary bathing incident. mere that morning, which we had great but all that could be learned was, that royal vetvet robe covered with diapleasure in believing, as the wind was after the terrible battle he was missing. monds, while the yellow scum is feel sure that we should have been bride. His narrative is that sometime with tall bushes (kuts), besides several ating an English sailor and getting to be found "in any human head." In swimmers were seen with striking effect, as they first appeared on the crag The best time to visit a sw:mp before us, and paused for a moment on "aright," as Scott says of Melrose, we its brink before taking their tremendous must "go visit it by the morning light," leap into the gulf beneath. wiped her eyes before the desk. when the sunbeams are nearly level, As we looked up to the summit of the and the dew bangs heavy on the grass precipice the powerful forms of these replied. blades. Then it is a picture that would or, if art could copy it. On one side and curving round the end is a large bed of grass that at a distance looks as beauty." touch which enhanced the resemblance smooth as a carpet of velvet. Here and to those admirable products of ancient there spots and ridges of higher growth and darker tint vary the surface, which Mercury in the museum at Naples. As laughing. with every breath of breeze sends shadthe first swimmer gathered himself ows dancing from the higher points together for the leap there was a breathacross the lower levels like the play of less silence in the crowd, a momentary me strange shot silk. On the other glance of hesitation in the hero of Hilo. is a ranker growth of coarser grass and succeeded by that set look which a man flags, the latter set in clumps, now alrous deed or perish in the attempt. Was killed, and lots of out and he alled me his angel, sir, and he round, now oblong, now irregular triangles, now long narrow lines, like soldiers in battle order, their large puragile readjustment of the balance, and the athletic figure darted downwards like an arrow through the air, with a then a young man, though under an tend its whole length, thinned to a line tremendous splash, disappeared feet as she paused for breath. downwards below the glassy surface, here, broken across there by enroachand after a prolonged immersion, rose again to the surface scathless, amid the enthusiastic ovations of the crowd. The great feat was followed by a performance which, would have excited > fall having a fail of fifteen feet. Not only did the two champions take the leap, but even the nymphs of Hilo, in numbers, followed them. After disappearing for a few moments in the cade, they reappeared langhing and

A Military Romance.

"The First Private."

A rare specimen of soldierly humanity Whether he had been killed or taken turned to a silky lustre that Lyons nev- once appeared at a Southern hotel. In cause I backed him into the woodbox tween the lawless portion of the trave- self afraid of me. Take your seat at the the lee side now, and swayed about prisoner no one could tell, and his fate er approached. A rotten log half way the large barroom of the house, during and jamed his head agin a rail he flew without progressing much. A light remained a mystery. His striken up the grass bed is covered with green- the evening, a discussion arose touching to Canada." spring of three or four feet landed us on hope, and lived on "tender and true." is veriow moss so closely that at a the battle of Shiloh. The dispute waxed steady-going people. The canse of such stern manner of the stranger that seems the island, which without doubt is affoat Hoping against hope for his return. had been laboriously covered with veldisturbances was generally a quarrel disturbances was generally a quarrel over the giamblieg-table. The regula-bestated for a moment, and then said, were on it. Had the wind changed, I plates that cover it from end to end, side, and some on the other, and being "I never play with a man whose face ferried over the water in the "Waga- during the fight he was taken prisoner, Here and there above the scum is a military men and officers at that, they quie." It is fifty paces in length and and soon after he was sent to a South- frog's head, which, when it catches the were very emphatic. At length a mod- aching heart, sir, but I'll soon be under pose in the "Texas, or officers cabin," situated on the hurricane deck; but the sporting gentry were by no meanscare-ful to obey this rule, and the gaming "Gentlemen," said he, "I hapt was most commonly carried on in the dining-tubles in the main saloon of the enough for such sport?" persisted Sturdining-tables in the main saloon of the sceamer, to the great annoyance of two-thirds of those on board. "You look seedy enough, my fine fellow." There are four islands in all. Three are four islands in all is blank. He learned afterwards that he had been taken ill, and soon after was insane. On his arrival in the woods, with their how it was." "That is nothing to m which we stood. One has three balawa

All were respectfully silent while he

The Honey-Moon Eclipsed. tions Blake was struck by the recoil "When you are looking on me you of the hinder portion of the broken are looking down on a heart-broken roge and hurled to the corner of the woman," said Eliza Powers as she anchorage, covering the stones and iron work with his blood,. His right arm was dislocated at' the shoulder, "They come here most every day,' he and torn out at the elbow, the bone blades. Then it is a picture that would olive colored men-notable specimens of the native races of the Pacific-stood sighed softly as she scratched her nose. the flesh. A blow on the head, just above the forehead, had made a hole out in magnificent relief against the "I was living as cozy as a duck, up on above the forehead, had made dark blue sky. Each wore a green Chene street, when Powers first found through which the brains could be wreath fastened on his brow, a triffing me. He said he was struck with my seen. He died immediately. Supple, who was standing forward was hurled

"Was he crazy ?" softly inquired his back against the woodwork, and ropes art, the bronze figures of the flying Honor, after the boys got through on the side of the anchorage, and, rolling through, fell down into the yard,

"No sir; he was a nice man, or so I nearly seventy seet below. He died though then. He could quote off the about two o'clock, Mr. Farsington was nicest poetry you ever heard .- He could struck by the rope and thrown upon his tell you how long George Washington on the other strands, the entire tackling was President, which is the biggest flying over his prostrate body, but wears who is determined to do a chiv- city in the world, when old John Brown without doing him any further injury. The huge block of pulleys, weighing was killed, and lots of other things. about 800 pounds, attached to the shoe was always talking about my raving which, with its bars weighed about locks and chestaut eyes." three tons, all under the heavy strain of "Hurry up-come to the family fight the strand, being suddenly released as soon as you can," warned the Court, darted toward the rver with a loud whizzing sound. The huge missle "Can't I tell what I wore when we nassed over two houses, demolishing went to be married ?" the chimney of a third partly cracking "No, ma'am. The law doesn't know its roof, and knecked off a few bricks

"Well, I did, sir. D'ye s'pose I'd be married without clothes, and good wonder. It was a leap down a water-

"I'm left here with me sorrow This dark day; That I may die to-morrow

I shall pray." "Pooh !" "Oh, you may make light of this attached to the strand passed over fully 700 feet before it rested on the bed of "You'll soon get the red color out of "You'll soon get the red color out of your face, your hands washed your hair membrd and a lab for size to have the piers over the river, rapidly decombed, and a job for sixty days," he scending under its own weight; and "If you send me up I'll choke meself crossing to Brooklyn, narrowly escaped being -truck by it. "That is nothing to me, Mrs. Johnson. If I lend a man my snow-shovel

The phenomenom of death is little The mystery which understood. tion of the battle was so precise, so cir- sit down. There's a pan of snow ap- shrouds death is not greater than that rested on a heap of gravel, where a few minutes before a gang of men, with several carts, had been at work. The behind the rear platform. The distance between the anchorage and the pier on the river side is 930 feet, and the shoe

one of the Union ferry boats which wa

Painless Death

lition; yet religion and various other things have all conspired to misinter pret its attendant phenomena. One of the most common errors is the idea that me a cuff on the mouth." "Any more?"

part of the high wooden fence of the "Yes, sir; but it was his fault,-He yard of the main pier, and finally called me names, and he objected when I took a little sip to drown me sorrow, and he was mad when I wouldn't draw me seven dollars out of the bank and let gate watchman and one of the foremen him invest it for me. The other day he left me. We had a row, sir, and be-as you wore anything." from the roofs of the two next houses South street, which was crowded with vehicles and people it broke down, a clothes, too? Well, as I was saying, stout new telegraph pole, which it bore we'd been married three days when I along with it. Passing over the entire hit kim a slap on the ear and he gave street, it struck the pavement on the eastern side and rebounding, fore away were sitting eating their dinners, about five feet from where the shoe finally struck. An Italian candy vender, was standing in the street, and a portion of the rope struck his stand, demolishing it and scattering his wares in all directions, but the man escaped. A car was passing, and the rope rushed past close

One of the most remarkable men of cion of nobility, who had settled in New Orleans before the transfer of Louisiana to the United States. Sturdivant had been raised as a "gentleman" by his aristocratic father, but upon coming of into his eyes. At last, with an excla- sheer. Where we bathed there was no age, and finding his fortunes very bad, had taken to cards as a means of betterthe hean of notes. ing them. His success in this field was so great that he was induced to continue in it, and he was one of the most notorious gamblers between St. Louis and New Orleans. He was forty-five years old, but had kept himself so well that he seemed much younger. He was a man of fine personal appearance and great physical strength. He was also noted for his personal courage. As a gambler he was most expert and successful.

There were dark stories of deeds which he had committed while under the influence of play and liquor, and it was said by some that he had killed half a dozen men in his lifetime. Yet no strange scene. one cared to state these stories openly, for no one cared to bring upon himself the anger of such a man. There were card. few who knew him who really cared to play against him, but feared a refusal quietly. to do so might involve them in a quarrel with him, and rarely declined his

About fifteen years ago, the time which I write, he had attached himself fairly blazed with fury. Sturdivant that since they had become "lotu" they ed to encroach upon his scene of opera- it into his breast. tions. Of course this left him in undisputed possession of the field, and he the one brief year that he conducted his operations there. turned !"

It was my lot at that time to be compelled to make frequent trips between New Orleans and Vicksburg, being we had not seen, and, before we could manding appearance, and as she stood on but also the swiftest, and time was of hiding the fatal card from sight. importance to me. It was known that I carried large sums of money with me, and if he attempted to draw me into a him ten years. quarrel to shoot him without mercy, as such proposition to me, and I gave him woods. no chance to do so. One night we had started out from around the stove. He had been drink-about fifteen feet in length, and With an oath, Sturdivant placed him-self at the table and bade his challenger At one time we counted ten men on it, the rapidly won the esteem of the prin-ciples, to whom he told his story. A posite on the peak of a fence-stake a manner, that Daniel Sturdivant had at have been about 1,500 pounds, and the last met his match. It did not take love bin brother and uncle, had died and he had no ties to keep him here, save the love bin brother and uncle had died and he had don't fill the air. A slight cloud passlast met his match. It did not take long island sank several inches, and canted of country, which will eventually bring es over the sun, and its shadow in an to show that the stranger was an unusu- ominously until relieved of part of its him and his faithful wife back to our instant changes all the hues of the vel-stakes were high, and the contest mark- swam about, regardless of the grim ed with rare skill. Sturdivant exerted warning of the old man up the tree that their class was named Daniel Sturdivant himself as he had never done before, they would be seized by unseen hands a Frenchman, the son of a broken-down but in spite of his efforts, he lost steadr below. We were not slow to follow ly. By the expiration of the time indi- the example of the natives, and jumped cated above, he had lost two thousand in also. The banks are covered with Hon. Mrs. Stanhope, personifying and the glow and glitter, the radiance dollars. I noticed the flash upon his bushes, and are level with the water face deepen, and a strange light came They do not shelve at all, but go down > mation of triumph, he drew toward him bottom for at least two to three fathoms at the very margin of the moss. In "That was well done," said the strang- many places the water had sapped the cal painter of the eighteenth century er. You are an expert at cheating. But loose soil under the turf to a considerago on, I can beat you whether you play ble distance. At the time of our visit openly or dishonestly."

cards again. The hand was played, and it is three times that size. We had no Sturdivant was about to sieze the stakes means of judging the depth other than sharp cry and sat motionless, with his in the middle, but how much more we around the two, wondering at the raised his eyes to the speaker. The much of the interest of our visit was stranger had raised his hat and sat look- connected with the legends told to us. highest ever reached for such a small ing at the trembling man with eyes that The natives were very eage to tell us to one of the magnificent steamers plying uttered a groan, and sank back in his had ceased to believe in the god; but between New Orleans and Vicksburg, chair, with his face white and rigid. the very eagerness with which they eard for you, Daniel Sturdivant," he strength of their old habits of thought. mine. tcaped a golden harvest from it during said coldly. "You played it once when Besides the man up the tree, to whose you thought it to your advantage. "kaci, kaci" we have called attention Now, God help you, for the play is re- there was another "taukei" presenta woman tall and handsome, though no As he spoke, he raised a pistol, which longer young. She had a most com-heavily engaged in cotton speculations. stop him aimed it deliberrtely at the the island and gave her orders, faded I preferred the steamer of which Sturdi- trembling man and fired. The gambler memories of what we had read of the vant, had taken possession, inasmuch as fell heavily upon the table, a corpse, sybils of old were revived, and we could it was not only the most comfortable, and the bright blood streamed over it, believe in her as the last representative of an expiring faith. She told us stories "Gentlemen," said the stranger, of the island god, in what she has since rising to his feet, as we stood paralyzed been taught to call "devil times" (na and I was always apprehensive lest Stur- with horror at the dreadful scene, gauna vaka tevora), but always added, divant should ask me to play. I had "that man ruined my wife and tried to "since I put on my suin I do not believe fully made up my mind to refuse him, mnrder me. I have been hunting for in him any longer." His name was Dro Walayala (Dro meaning Mr.), We

He walked slowly by us down the begged of her not to call him a tevoro, I knew that the only chance for my life stairway to the lower deck. Just then but a kolon as of old. He had power in lay in getting the advantage of hum. the steamer touched at a landing and he the district, and was much feared, Strange to say, he did not make any sprang ashore and vanished in the dark though not an unkindly god when respectfully treated. Offerings were I never learned the history of the brought regularly, and neglect was mysterious affair, for the dead gambler punished. We were told of some girls was beyond human questioning, and I who attempted to swim across the mere down the river, when Sturdivant came never saw the stranger again; but I without asking Dro Walavala's permisup to the group which had gathered shall not soon forget the impression it sion, and they swam, and swam, and made upon me at the time. swam, but could not get across at all."

situation in a mercantile house, where

Enormous Prices for Paintings

Some enormous prices were realized at a sale in London of the collection of pictures formed by the late Mr. Munro. Sir Joshua Reynolds' "Kitty Fisher" brought $3,570, and his portrait of the for $15,300. Wilkie's "Gentle Shep-over them. There is something worth herd" brought only $816, and the picseeing even in a swamp. tures of Richard Wilson, believed by many in Fugland to be the finest classisold for a mere song. Then came the Sturdivant said nothing but dealt the by 150, but probably after much rain brought a little over $$1,600. The old We returned to the Sunbeam on Christ-Italy," "Modern Rome," "Rome from when the stranger laid down a card and by swimming, and we can only say that the Oventuine," "Juliet after the swimming performed by the natives of to their physicians, to be treated for the steel wire is passed around the checked him. The gambler uttered a we found it to be more than two fathoms Masquerade," "Van Tromp's Gallery," the Island. A copious stream enters the ear diseases, every year, whose trouble shoe, it is sent back on the recel to go ace of hearts with a dark-red stain drifted it was two fathoms. The water the "Kilgarren Castle," went at prices little town of Hilo. At a short distance ears while bathing, or from catching side of the bridge. When he wire has across the face. Sturdivant's face is stagnant, but not impure; it is not ranging between $10,200 and $29.780 from its mouth it forces its way through cold at such times by exposure or ne- been laid 270 times each way it forms and the spectators gathered more closely a suspicion of a boggy flavor. The sun each. The nine works in oil produced winds round a precipitous crag of lava, searches that salt water is peculiarly round with other wire and rope. When an aggregate of $211,956, and the grand at the foot of which it forms a still pool less walk we arrived in a simmering total for all the Turners sold that day six fathoms in depth. We had been the inner car. Very cold water of the they are in their turn bound together condition, and the water felt cool and was $293,632. Two undeniable genuine invited to witness two noted swimmers ed Sturdivant, his eyes still fixed on the refreshing. We swam the entire length Hogarths, being two of the scenes from heap from the summit of the crag into and back again without finding any the "Harlot's Progress," went cheap, the pool below. The whole population ses resulting from the Russian bath, the highest possible attitude to test the "Look at me," said the stranger snags, or any leaves or sticks of any kind one for $2,650, and the other for $1,530. turned out on the occasion, and seated two of the patients being themselves utmost tension and when completed are As if powerless to resist, Sturdivant ed by ghosts of old superstitions, and Fish Market," and "The Grand Canal, the river, awaiting the arrival of the number of pictures.

The Right Man.

A day or two since, Mr. Shaw, a time

Mr. Shaw wrote a note to that effect, posting it up by the side of the window their shifts. gold, with a fine chain of the same metal. Some set a number of beautiful pieces of gold quartz into the links of the chain.

At last a little Frenchman came to the window and said : "You find one watch, Mistair Shaw ?"

"Yes, sir," said Shaw. "Have you lost a watch ?" "Yes, sare, I have lose one watch."

"Can you describe it ?" "Oh, yes, sare, very perfectly." "Well, what was it like ?" "My watch was a silver one." "What kind of a face?"

"Well, he have he's face wide open "What kind of a chain." "One leedle brass chain."

"What kind of a key was chain?" "He have no key at all; I w

Then they remembered the god, and by zee tail."

"Well, gentlemen," he said, in an unsteady tone, "you seem to be terrible ample. as it unsteady tone, "you seem to be terrible ample. as it is add to have put his hand set me an example, as it is add to have put his hand set me an example, as it is add to have put his hand set me an example, as it is add to have put his hand set me an example. The ends of the made no sign, but slept peacefully to the one and set you an ex-

Voorhees style-two squats and a squall constantial, so eloquent, and so start- ples, a dime novel, and a good fire in which shrouds birth, or thought or volingly vivid, that those who had been there.

On the following morning, the soldier absence his only surviving relatives, a brother and uncle, had died and he had

> " You were in the army?" "Yes, sir." vet carpet and the satin scum, the sil-"May I ask what office you held?" ver-backed turtles and the shaft of em-

"I held no commission, sir, I was but pened on the bridge. The New York erald and chrysophrase they are lying on. The diamond gleam of the sun and a private soldier."

swamp. In an instant all comes back claim the privilege of celebrating this cast and west are the four main cables, long as they are able to give any testirare event by making you a present of none of which is completed, that will again, as the cloud floats on and away, a receipted bill without further cost to support the bridge. The cables are made and the richness of color come back as "Contemplation," was knocked down if a curtain were suddenly jerked from have stopped at my house since the is run along by a reel over the pler to wate."

A Cause of Deafnes

Persons who contemplate spending The shoe is held in position by two A late visitor to the Sandwich Islands the summer at the seashore will be in- thick iron bars, nearly fourteen feet in last illness, was a victim of a most painproductions of Joseph M. W. Turner. gives the following account of the leap- terested in a paper contributed to the length, with pulleys at the other end. the size of the mere was about 250 yards Thirty-two drawings, large and small, gives the following account of the leap-ing, swimming and diving of the natives. Medical Record by Dr. Samuel Sexton, The shoe and bars are laid between long able character. Supported by an in pictures, which included "Ancient mas, and on the following day we Dispensary, in which he estimates that bars, connected together by iron pius witnessed some extraordinary feats of a thousand people of that city are sent that run through all the bars. When "Avalanche in the Vald'Aosta," and sea about a quarter of a mile west of the has arisen from getting water in their through the same process on the other apiece. Two others sold for $26,000 a chasm in the volcanic rocks, and then glect. It appears from the Doctor's re- a strand. The wires are firmly wound irritating to the delicate structures of nineteen such strands are completed treshest kind may, however, be equally and form a main cable. When a strand harmful, and there is a short list of cu- is being made the wires are stretched at where the trouble came from using the The strain upon the strand, when comfrom the back of the mouth. But these about forty tons. The strand is lowered edly from a height of twenty feet into bathing. In all of sixty-five of the last through sheaves or blocks of six wheels prevent it." named cases inflammatian occurred; in so that the maximum strain upon the fifty-seven it was acute. A variety of rope between the sheaves in not more themselves into the most picturesque ness is not among the least of these, and of the anchorage. At the time the acgroups of bronze, colored yet shapely life itself may be endangered. Surf cident occurred a gang of men was emhumanity. There were few garments bathers are especially exposed to such ployed in lowering this strand, which to which the men came to give in their to mar the symmetry of their forms, but injuries, since a breaker may strike was at the northern end of the anchornames when going on or coming off there was not the slightest taint of im- them on the side of the head and drive age, under the direction of Mr. Farringmodesty in the scene. A sculptor, the water into the ear; the same result ton, the master machinist. Thomas W. Several men called and described looking on with the cultivated eye of a may ensue if the bather gets a sudden Blake was standing on the block at the what was, according to their ideas, a trained artist, would have reveled in mouthful from an unexpected wave, northwestern end of the anchorage: raising the forefinger, and affirmative "valuable watch," nearly all making it the graceful movements of the forms the water then being forced through Henry Suple standing on the northern displayed before him; while a painter from the mouth to the inner ear. Man, eye-bars, was bending over, with a the one next it also. One gager was would have appreciated not less the the doctor thinks, is not naturally am- crow-bar in his hands, prying off the harmonious colors of the picture, in phibious. Animals fitted for aquatic strand to keep it between the bars and this matter, he took rather more than which the olive flesh-tints formed such life are provided with various arrange- Mr. Farrington was standing upon the an admirable contrast to the dark lava- ments for keeping the water out; seals, other strands that had already been rocks on which the swimmers reclined. for instance, have a movable membrane placed in position nearly opposite to Many a laborious student of the academy n the ear, which closes and shuts out Supple. The other men were holding has racked his brain in the vain effort fluid; the muscles of the water shrew the wire rope with pieces of loose rope, to produce a composition on canvas or are competent to shut the ear passages. coiled round it. The huge iron block in marble, with not one half the beanty People who are blessed with very small of six iron pulleys was slowly moving or the truth to nature of these fortuitous openings to their ears run the least forward; the wire rope was slowly runrisk in bathing. A man should never ning through the sheaves, and the assemblages of graceful figures. dive, says the doctor, if he wishes to strand was already lowered so much An hour had passed away not unpleasantly when the heroes of the day arrived. preserve his hearing. When in the that the strain upon it had been reduced They were to leap into the pool beneath surf he should take the wave on his from seventy-five to less than fifty tons from the summit of a precipice ninety chest or back, "closing his mouth and It was within a few seconds of 12 oclock. feet in height. Thirty feet below the nostrils," though how a man can close Mr. Farrington had just told the men edge a crag juts out fifteen feet from the his nostrils the doctor does not state. to remove the ropes by which they were face of the rock. It was necessary for But the pledget of cotton for the ears is holding on to the wire rope, when sudthe swimmers to clear this projection. essential, and every bather should be denly a loud report was heard. The We were seated on the ledge of rock provided with it.

A Rope's Fatal Weakness,

People who were near the New York anchorage of the East River Bridge about noon on the 15th inst.,

pain and dying are inseparable companions. The truth is they rarely go of Shiloh went to the office to settle his were uddenly startled by a loud re- together. Occasionally, the act of disgiven way, killing two of the men who tends the final act. Convulsive twitchhad been working upon it. This is the ings, livid features, gurgling in the first accident of the kind that has hapthroat, and similar ghastly symptoms which mark the last moment, are only anchorage is seventy feet in height, and exhibitions of unconscious automatic "Is it possible? Well, sir, I shall at the top it is 120 feet square. Running action. The testimony of the dying, so mony, is that their sufferings do not increase as the termination of life apyou. Of the thousands of soldiers that in the following manner: A steel wire proaches, but on the contrary growless. The following incident illustrates close of the war, you are the first pri- the anchorage, and there is passed round the truth of this remark, and so far as the "shoe." This is a large piece of a single instance is of value, confirms iron something in the shape of a horsewhat has been said as to the painlessshoe, and weighing about a ton. ness of dissolution. A medical friend, whom I attended professionally in his ful disease. He was aware of its incutelligent faith in God and immortality he prepared himself with admirable courage and unfaltering trust for the final change. In consequence of continnal and severe pain, he was obliged during the last few months of his life to take opium daily. He sent for me ne night soon after midnight. A brief examination was sufficient to show that the end was near.

> "Do these symptoms mean perfortion ?" asked Dr. ----.

"They do," was the reply.

"Then I have reached the end of the hapter," he quietly remarked, and added, "how long shall I probably last?" "That you know," I said, "as well as anyone; perhaps twenty-four hours or thirty-six hours."

Scarcely heeding the reply he tinued :

"I am ready, but promise me this that I shall not suffer pain if you can

The promise was given, of course and I agreed to see him every hour or subsequent damages may accrue, when than twelve and a half tons. The rope two as long as he lived. This being mains, how shall I communicate with you when, at the very close, the time comes that you cannot indicate wheth er vou suffer or not ?"'

> "After a little talk the following signals were agreed upon. He was to indicate a negative answer, or no, by or yes, by raising the forefinger, and no; two fingers yes. Having arranged his habitual dose of onium, and was soon comparatively quiet. The pain did not return. For twelve or fifteen hours he appeared much as usual; conversed with his family and friends, and was cheerful and serene. Then as nature's anesthetic began to act, he became dull and heavy. In answer to repeated inquiries as to pain, he constantly replied in the negative. At length he answered less readily. For an hour or so before death he answered only by the signal of his fingers which had been agreed upon, and by that signal he replied quickly and intelligently. Fifteen minutes before dissolution I asked him, "Do you suffer pain?" He wire rope while running between the instantly made the negative signal by of both sexes, entertained us with a and had publicly announced his deter- The stranger with one sweep gathered spoke, and an entreaty that they had keeper of the Consolidated Virginia the river. In the intervals between mination to shoot any man who attempt- up the money from the table and thrust made to us on the day previous that we mine, found a watch lying on the snow their performances these amphibious should not approach the island without where it had evidently been dropped by people climbed up the rocks that over-"That ace of hearts is an unjucky the "taukei" were significant of the some one working in or about the hung the river, where they gathered the trouble spreads; permanent deaf-

As may be supposed, the place is haunt-Two painting, R, P. Bennington, "The themselves on the grassy slopes above physicians. A few instances are cited iowered to the level of the main cable. Venice," sold for $15,300 apiece. The two athletes. Meanwhile a number of so-called "nasal douche," water having pleted is seventy-five tons, and when total amount realized was $356,575, the the more youthful inhabitants of Hilo, penetrated to the ear by the passage lowered to the level of the cable at display of the art of swimming and are unimportant compared with those by a wire rope, an inch and a quarter diving. One active girl leaped repeat- where trouble has come from salt water thick, fastened to the shoe and passing

Wonderful Leaping

