KEARNEY says this government and all its enactments are a fraud, that the poor people have no choice in it. To a certain degree his ignorance is excusable, he being a foreign Irishman, who has not yet learned that the institutions of this country are so adjusted that all the avenues to business, pleasure and office are open alike to all. He has not yet learned that most of the people that he calls thieves, plunderers, cut throats, were once as poor as there is any need for. Thomas Scott, President Lincoln, Benjamin Butler, Asa Packer, and other well known public men, as well as millions of others in business throughout the country, were once poor men. These names are mentioned only to illustrate that Kearney is wrong in his views, and that the prominent men of this country belong to the poor of the land— they spring from that class of people, and that Kearney condemns them if indirectly condemns his own set. If the agitator isn't careful he will lose cast among his people, for when he calls every poor man, who by his business ability succeeds in acquiring means, a thief and cut-throat, they will disown him. Kearney is right in taking issue with wrong; he should oppose it in all its forms, but his mistake is in assuming that our system of government is not right. If this government gives all men alike, opportunities and the opportunities are abused, it is not the fault of the system; it is the fault of the people who abuse their rights. If a poor boy comes up from the office boy to the Presidency of a railroad, or bank, or government office, or from poverty to a man of means, and is a cut-throat, or a thief, it is not the fault of the system that developed him; the fault is in the man.

THE Democrat and Register has said nothing that has so interested the Republican party, as its charge that the return judges changed the returns in Will's back-room, and its charge, through the Carle Volunteer, that the Crawford County System is productive ofunkenness.

As regards the first charge, it is pronounced a false charge, one that the judges will call the paper that made it, to an account for. It is a slander on the whole convention for it does not specify any single judge or member, but takes them as a whole. It is presumed that the Democrat and Register has honor enough to apologize for a mistake or false charge, or come forward and prove its declarations. The day for malignant journalistic lying in Junonia has passed. The journalist who makes a mistake, or false charge, must rectify the mistake, or prove the charge, or take a place among black guards. If the Democrat and Register has been misinformed, let it make the honorable statement that such is the case; it will do itself justice by doing so. If it knows its charges to be correct, let it prove them, and do itself and all others justice. Meanwhile, the judges will be heard from. Until they are proven guilty, the charge must be looked upon and branded as a lie, as Mr. Wickersham, one of the judges, calls it.

If there is anything that should satisfy the Republicans, and cause them to forever taint of the work of the Delegate System, as illustrated in the late Democratic convention, it is such unsupported charges. As to which people were most moved by the corrupting influence of drink, it is not necessary to say a word, for there is no concealment of the workings of whiskey; it always speaks for itself, and the people hereabouts are its own best proof. Few people, now living in this town, ever saw such a soaked crowd as that which assembled to witness the work of the Democratic convention under the operations of the old delegate system. Of course a certain percentage of them were not caught in the seething whirlpool.

The National Greenback Labor people advertise a meeting, by poster, to be held in the Court House, in this place, next Monday evening. It calls on "all who are in favor of wresting the control of our Government from the hands of the Money Power, and Monopolists, to attend," and after the call announces the speakers, chief among whom is Mr. C. C. North, against whom as a gentleman nothing is to be said, but his name at the head of a movement against the Money Power and against Monopolies cannot help provoking a large number of its people in central Pennsylvania are chiefs among the Money Power, among the banks, they are the North. How many banks they are connected with, they can best tell; and it not only provokes a smile, but it seems like a monstrous funny joke that they should be the chiefs in a movement against Corporations, when they are among the agents of the greatest Corporation known in this Commonwealth. The Republican party is the only safe greenback party. Support its nominees and you make no mistake.

In last week's issue of the SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN, the head-line intended to announce that John Balsbach, Esq., had been chosen Representative Delegate to the next Republican State Convention, read Senatorial Delegate. It was a typographical mistake. He is the Representative Delegate.

The English Parliament proposes to stop the importation of American cattle. The average number of cattle received in England from America, every week, during the past year, was 2,000 head.

POLITICAL NOTES.

General Grant seems to be winning more laurels than Charles Francis Adams as the much nominated man.

Every Greenback county convention held in this State was presided over by a Democrat.

The Colorado Greenbackers boldly advocate repudiation. And they don't care who knows it.

Out west when any one advocates the re-nomination of Tilden they call it "a clear case of body-snatching."

Kearney, with Butler's assistance, has apparently successfully stranded Butler beyond reach of the Democratic nomination for Governor of Massachusetts.

The Republicans of Mississippi think of organizing the party to that State.

FROM EXCHANGES.

Let it be the first victim of the Potter Committee, but we warn the committee to desist before the whole American people are in the same condition. Let it be in an asylum for a insane people.

Candidate Dill's father is a Methodist clergyman, and this fact is being carried into political capital. Mr. Dill is not a member of the church, but now finds it profitable to attend church-meetings and gather with the brethren at church. We are rather glad something has induced him to go to church, but he somehow remains poor men. These names are mentioned only to illustrate that Kearney is wrong in his views, and that the prominent men of this country belong to the poor of the land— they spring from that class of people, and that Kearney condemns them if indirectly condemns his own set.

From the Orleans (Miss.) States. "The black has no right under the sun to vote. He has never had the right. The ballot came into his possession by illegal means, and it must be taken from him. This is southern sentiment to-day."

If Kearney goes on this way much longer, he is likely to do more for the revival of the Know-Nothing party than Judge Key has ever done to resurrect the old Whigs.

From the Orleans (Miss.) States. "The black has no right under the sun to vote. He has never had the right. The ballot came into his possession by illegal means, and it must be taken from him. This is southern sentiment to-day."

According to Citizen Knight, of San Francisco, the burden of the workingman's song is "We are runned by Donnie Kearney."

The Chairman of the Democratic Committee of Springfield, Mass., says he will sign a petition to hang Butler but not one to make him Governor.

Ex-Governor Brown, of Tennessee, thinks Democratic success is assured in that State.

The candidates of the Greenback party in many parts of the State are squealing about the extortion of the assessments to which they are subjected to run the campaign. They forget that the wire pullers of the party started it to make it pay.

After a brief report, the Chinese question has again arisen, like an uneasy spirit, to vex the souls of America's statesmen and people. The tendency in California is toward the abrogation of existing treaties and the prevention of further emigration from the Flowery Kingdom.

General Grose, the Republican candidate for Congress in the Sixth Indiana district, in a recent speech gave an illustration of how the so-called rebel increase in value. He commanded an expedition near Nashville on one occasion, and destroyed property to the amount of $10,000; yet the claim presented was for $200,000.

The Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias was in session at Lancaster last week. Edward Hippie, aged eight, was drowned in the canal at Middletown last week.

Survivors of the 178th regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers are arranging for a reunion at Kittanning. Mrs. Martha Russell died in Butler county at the advanced age of 103.

The pastors of Reading make regular exchange of pulpits with their brethren in Berks county. Evening picnics are the height of fashion in Chester county, and are usually held in an orchard back of the kitchen.

One good result will follow the yellow fever scare, a cleaner condition of all towns on railroad lines. In boring for oil in Potter county, at a depth of 1115 feet, a rock was penetrated containing regular sea shells.

The militia companies throughout the State are recruiting up to the standard required by the new militia law— fifty men. John Floyd, of Wilkesbarre, challenges any man in the State, for $50, to drill three feet through rock, down stroke.

There is complaint in many parts of the State of "body snatching," the violation of graves almost as soon as they are filled.

The fall exhibition of the Chester County Agricultural Society will be held at West Chester, beginning September 10.

A Westmoreland county farmer has discovered a process for making sugar from corn stalks at a cost of three cents a pound.

The Bozards, known as the Welsh Mountain thieves, who have been the terror Lebanon county for a long time, have been successfully caged.

A dead and dumb boy walking on the railroad track near Yellow Springs, twenty-five miles northeast of Harrisburg, was struck by a locomotive and instantly killed on Tuesday week.

The remains of a man were found recently brutally mutilated on the railroad track at Harrisburg. They were probably those of a tramp who tried to board a passing train.

Morris S. Pacey, of the firm of Anderson & Pacey, hardware merchants, of Waynesburg, Chester county, committed suicide on Sunday last by shooting himself with a pistol in his store.

It is estimated that at least a million of dollars have been expended on excursions and camp-meetings in this State this summer.

Hon. B. S. Bentley, of Williamsport, Lycoming county, has been appointed to the Judgeship created by the formation of Lackawanna county. A number of carrier-pigeons flew from Scranton to New York city yesterday, the best time being three hours and three minutes.

MELINDA FOX.

Miss Melinda Fox, of Pottsville, who attempted suicide on Monday a week, and who was rescued from a watery grave, declares that her father makes her life intolerable, and that she will not be frustrated next time.

Prof. Nicholl, of Pittsburg, who sued for divorce on the ground of having been deserted about the age of his bride by false hair, cosmetics, &c., has gained his suit, and a bill will be granted. He has now brought an action for libel, setting damages at $20,000, against the Pittsburg Dispatch, for publishing an article about the divorce suit. The Dispatch is charged with "intending it to be suspected that Nicholl was a person of silly and contemptible character."

A female tramp, who gave the name of Lizzie Jones, and said she was from Wilmington, and was going to work in the cotton mills at Lancaster, indeed Mrs. Harriet Oster to take her in. Mrs. O. and her daughter went to church on Sunday, and their protege disappeared with a handsome black silk dress, hat and feathers, gloves, parasol, slippers, and what money she could find. Lizzie left no trace behind, and has thus far neglected to write to her friends.

A curious story comes from Duncansville, Blair county, about Abel Davis obliging his brother Charles to marry his (Abel's) wife. It is said that Charles had been visiting his brother in Kentucky when the wife learned to love him wisely but not well, and not entirely as a brother-in-law. She followed him home, and her husband obliged the couple to marry, giving them money to pay for a comfortable bridal tour.

GENERAL ITEMS.

Many Vassar girls are serving as waiters in the white Mountains. Samuel Armstrong, a wealthy young farmer living near London, Ohio, was shot while asleep in his bed on Wednesday night. No clue to the murderer.

The powder mills near Neganocco, Mich., exploded on Wednesday, killing four employees Huber, Brown, Cooper and one whose name is unknown. Forty turkeys were poisoned in Chester county by eating potato vines which had been sprinkled with Paris green to destroy the bugs.

The Bell-Bennett wedding will take place at Newport about the middle of next month. Cardinal McCloskey will officiate. Minnesota is engaging in frog culture, which consists chiefly in protecting the eggs and young from their enemies by wire screens. The product so far has been about 3,000 dozen legs quoted in St. Louis at 20 cents a dozen.

The Scientific American states that half the vinegar now sold is rank poison. A Massachusetts chemist analyzed the pickles put up by twelve different wholesale dealers, and found copper in ten of them.

Wooden pavements are not profitable. Williamsport, under Herdic's regime, made Crawford county, Pa., the Nicholson patent agreement, which had to be related in about four years, and is now entirely worthless.

Mrs. Clara Linda Newell, of Southington, Conn., has a new coat which she has kept in a fruit jar (which she leaves open) for over a year. A small wooden ladder, placed in the jar enables the creature to ascend to the top whenever she chooses; and of this privilege he avails himself whenever damp or rainy weather is coming, climbing to the top round and singing his loudest. Although she has offered him various kinds of food, she has never seen him eat anything. As a barometer, this tree lead is a great success.
