Manhood: How Lost How Restored Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhou or Seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impudience to Research pediments to Marriage, etc ; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the above ng consequences of self-abuse may be rufiically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure af eace simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may care himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
