Nash's Dollar—Somebody "Swallowed" in Maine.
Nash's Last Letter in the Toledo Blade.

The moose from Maine he reached the Corners and he encouraged us, both as Democrats and Democrats. It doesn't make a straw's difference to me whether the Democrats here swalled the Nashels, or whether the Nashels here swalled us. There hez bin swallers, and the Republican party hez lost its grip. We are happy. Ez Nashels we have things eggagly to sot us at the Corners, and throughout this seckshun. We hev succeeded in institoin strikes in all the manufecturing villages in the section to get work and in consequent distress. At Fairbury there ain't any more factory at all, for we burned it in the holy crossade uv labor agin capital. In Plainville we hev got all the mechanics and laborers on a strike, which hez the delictible and cheerin effect uv throwin every workman out of work. Hallelouy! They hev botvin to do now bet to walk about the streets dazed, and listen to our speeches tite. And we are makin it lively for the bloated employers, too bet. When men are distressed they want a remedy, and they'll take most any kind uv medicine. To support 'em we hev instituted a providential bank, which will do till the fiat money is ishoed. It's the same thing as "flat money." I am afraid that our money is all gone, and our money is simply a slip of paper onto which is printed the soul-inspirin words:

"THIS IS A DOLLAR."
"Attest: PETERSEN V. NASH, President."
"ISABAR GAVIT, Cashier."
The only seckshun that we felt wuz necessary wuz to pledge the sacred faith of the Corners that it wuz a dollar.
"Wat is to be redeemed? queried a shoemaker, to whom I offered him a pair of boots, the first I hez had for years."
"In nothin. It don't want to be redeemed. To redeem it would be to destroy its life-giving principle. Anybody kin ishoed money with gold behind it to redeem it—youor troof fianseer is he wich kin make money wich don't want redoin. All you hev to do with this money is to keep it movin. You bump this bill onto your leather merchant, and he'll hanny it along on somebody else, and ez long ez you think it's a dollar, why isn't it?"
