NO. 1.

VOL. XXXIII.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1879.

THE DYING YEAR.

s each moment, chang some beauties fresh unfold.

The red leaves strew the garden walk; the across the path in gloaming gray ling ployers call Their comrades to the sheltering fenstealthy owl skims by, What time the white moon 'gine crescent in the sky. And rise from river-side the mists, and cattle cease to graze. And lay them down beneath the boughs; an in the gathering haze The marsh-lights show their glittering sparks of all-delusive fire. To inre the heedless wayfarer into the treach erous mire. Wet upo the last few flowers with dow-the dahlia's gorgeous crown

The crimson fuschia gently knods her purple-The frosty nights creep on space, and th short daylight tells gems bent down ;

Of coming winter, when the earth shall robed be with snow. And bare shall be the forest trees ;

One bloom of all the blossoms fair that bright ened summer hours, Till spring shall smile on earth bring us back the flowers.

200 000 Pounds.

each of us up in some business or pro- in a strange place. ession was all he could ever do for us. as the scanty pittance be would leave asked the station master. behind him must belong solely to my I were energetic and hopeful. So long In the town. Where is it to, sir?" as each day brought us enough to satisty our wants, we reckoned little of the Castle Hall," I replied.

One blenk, cold, January morning I was greatly surprised, on my arrival at full of the coming meeting. I asked the bank to find my father pacing up the driver how far we had to go. and down before the building. I was not living at home just then, and his about four miles." presence there made me fear lest something was wrong.

"Phillip," he began, "are you in time? Can you spare me three min-I replied, "for a wonder, I see I am ten minutes earlier than I need be. What is the matter?" "Do not look so startled " he said

"Nothing is wrong. You know Mr. "Oh, you mean the half-cracked old man wno is awfully rich, and is my penny, besides this property." godfather, as well as consin, thirty "Yes," was the reply. "Well, last alght I received a letter from him, after years of silence, in which he asks after you." And he read me the letter. "What a queer old boy !" I exclaimed,

"What does he taean?" for 1 did not lighted drawing room. exactly understand it.

crushing it into his pocket. "Meanwhy, to make you his heir, Phillip-

"Whew!" said I, blushing; "that's salver a good idea!"

at once," sald my father, "Strike men, given me by my fellow clerks. to strangers; do not nourish vain hopes The only one I could clearly remember was to rise whenever he came into the house of your old 'fireworks' of a felroom, and then eschew every comfor-table arm chair for fear he should want P.S.—I enclose a £20 note to pay it. I felt bursting with importance, and actually treated myself to a glass of hot whisky and water at the refreshment room.

"Hellow, William!" suddenly cried a voice.

"Why, Jack, what brings you here? I replied, recognizing an old friend. "I'm going down to Gloneester, "said he. "Where are you off to?"

beyond Hereford, to humor an old gen- ess, and that I quarrelled with Jack

"What?" said Jack. "Come along, and I'll tell you all about it," said I. "Second-class. Yes, all right. Here we are."

was in your shoes, that's all !"

don't secure a good smoke before the light of my pipe goes out in obscurity. Do you object to smoke, sir?"

This latter question was addressed to amber sugar cane this year. the old gentleman in the corner, who old man's wishes, I coolly lit my pipe, and though I knew the wind would blow the smoke right into his eyesthough I heard him growling with rage-I puffed on heedlessly. I should be sorry to be so rude, now, but you see I was young and very excited.

The short January afternoon was drawing to a close, and very soon after

Whether it was the old man's examed along, or that our powers of chattering were exhausted, I know not, but anyhow we too began to feel inclined into erable nuisance, with its incessantly flickering light.

"Bother it! Can't we blow it out?" exclaimed.

'Not if we cracked our cheeks. But I've a notion!" cried the ready-witted Jack. "Hand me the old boy's hat." shaped.

"To make an extinguisher of," said Bows heavily its petals bright with glittering the lamp, making the globe act like the wife drinking tea, thus showing their The salt meat Donnelly got at was a lot these animals long? Oh yes, some of keep well in its place. The arrangement answered splendidly, and not a glimmer of light was to be seen. When the train stopped at Swinden we awoke, and rushed out of the carting our fellow passenger and his hat. had a cold, lonely journey to my desti- figure, I am total, for all "articles de "Any cabs or flys to be got here?"

I paced the wretched little station till the conveyance came, with my mind such daring drives and enjoyed the scene

"How far, sir," said he. "Oh, only I got in, and we bowled along the dark narrow lanes. After half an hours gates, and drove into what seemed to certain points, men in peculiar Russian year." gates, and drove into what seemed to dress were kneeling out on the edge of the next sixty of the whole arrest in the dim light, a very extensive the sidewalk with fruits and small divenities.

with the idea of a grand estate. And I questioned the driver on the subject. "Indeed it is a big place, sir," sald he. 'It's about fifteen miles round the estate. Lh, Mr. Fosberry's very rich. People do say he bas two hundred thousand pounds to leave, if he has one the bell. The peal resounded through going till we wanted to stop, but they in one morning, and ordered a large year and cannot perform it successfully the house like the clang of a triumph. A footman in livery flung open the neck, even at small pay. door, and I was admitted into a hall glowing with light and warmth, and then shown into a large, brilliantly-

Soon we were at the house. A monon-appearance, and requested me to feet seven and a half inches high, with and never returned, while the clerk nuts and ripe, apples!" obey the instructions of a note which he handed me from a massive silver

I tore it open and read: "You must apply for leave and go off "MR. PHILLIP FROSBERRY WILLIAMS: The next time you travel by rail do So I thought, applied for leave, and expectations; do not speak of your great set off for the Paddington Station soon erack-brained relatives; do not make lose any time in leaving forever the your expenses." How I got out of the house-how I got back to the station, and spent the played such a sorry part-how my ab-I only know old Fosberry died worth "Oh, to such luck!" I said. "I'm off the £200,000, leaving his niece sole heir-Evans about it, nor have I ever spoken in that way and keeps the currency. -Minnesota planted $28,000 acres of pectorant exercises its most beneficial effects and has produced the largest proportion of it cures. Besides promptly removing Coughs an

Russian affairs are attracting considerable attention just now, and this description of life in the streets of St. Petersburg is therefore especially interest. ing. The fine streets of St. Petersburg, water poured upon him as he lay an one, among the tanks of fishes, but track was a crushed and mangled form. ders and decorations of the steamer's deck on Friday eremag. I was not satisfied. I wanted to see They lifted him sadily, and, laying him more gorgeous than the celebrated habnotonous noise of the train as it speedof other countries, but are temptingly it merely as a bribe to the sailor. As messesger started off behind the stage ages, every time it was put on. The we were dead and buried 'longside of other countries, but are temptingly it merely as a bribe to the sailor. As messesger started off behind the stage ages, every time it was put on. riage to get refreshments, quite forget- ican party kept buying until the last did not see how a man could thrust a them to you in very much the same ceive. Her head, her foce, the arrange-On returning we found they had both cause, I suppose, we all felt as though compartment, and thought that this Taddei had come to America a few it was impossible to mistake; and vet The train started, and when we we should not probably ever come to was a dream of the starving man before, bringing his animals there she was, almost as undraped as arrived at Gloucester, Jack left me, 1 Russia again. Prices are at a very high he fell into unconsciousness. nation, a little station just below Here- luxe"-not really needful things-while ford. When I arrived it was nine the necessaries of life are very reasonao'clock; a dark, raw night; I was very | ble; and if they were not, these people sleepy and tired For some moments I could not live under the governmental him on the cars; I shall never forget the uncomfor- could not find my portmanteau; then condition of affairs, as the lower classes able position that I found myself in my hat box was missing, and while I have to live on almost nothing, and pay through too free a use of that unruly was searching, the guard was exclaim- for that well in taxes. Everywhere nember, the tongue. I was a young ing about the delay of the train. At there is constant life and activity. The fellow then, clerk in a Loudon bank. last it was all found, the guard whis- little droskeys, only large enough for My father was an officer in the army, tled, the train moved off, and I was left one, but in two often ride, the larger and he often told us boys that setting standing on a little country platform, public carriages, and the elegant private turnouts, are all driven in the main thoroughfares as if in a case of life or with his success death-regular John Gilpin fashion. As "Dear me, no, sir," was the reply. one sits in a public carriage, being in of ground ready for sowing than they mother and sister. But my brother and "But we can get you something down the midst of this curious melee, he in. have had at this season for several voluntarily holds on, and holds his years." "I want to go to Mr. Fosberry's of breath as if at any moment he should be crushed to atoms and nobody would at the really good sense and observing his monkeys usually by what he sees of know anything about it. We took many habits of the young man.

blue eyes, light hair and a faint mous- who sold her the goods waited in vain WhereChub came from or to whom he prevalent among society beauties for tache. Except for the emaciation re- for the father fro the country, and belonged seemed a mystery. He was alsulting from his long fast, he is perfect- was for months af the butt of varity healthy. His diet is confined to ous jokes on his confiding nature. I till nine at night. Then he would disbrandy and water or brandy and milk, afterwards found that the young wo- appear only to return punctually the while the irou's hot. It's a splendid not smoke nor annoy old gentiemen; do chance, Phillip, splendid! Use it well not make the infirmities of age and seeming powerty your laughing stock. seeming poverty your laughing stock; days. His eyes are sunken and his but she one day tried the game upon after, with my ears ringing with a le- extinguishers of old gentlemen's hats; water, which he sips lovingly. Ac- her go until she paid for the goods. She gion of instructions for pleasing old do not be slangy, vulgar and insulting cording to his own story, told with ma- immediately stepped to a room in the ny pauses to gain strength or moisten rear of the store, and divested herself of inheriting me, and finally, do not his parched tongue, he is a native of of a chemise, which she pawned for the bis parched tongue, he is a native of of a chemise, which sale but it's over a year, now, since Chub elling with two friends," replied the rate aim between the two bans of these drugs except in filling presion apples and peanuts in our depot, other, "in Italy, and at Florence we which glowed on him from the disuncles living at "Only Villa". Marina, scriptions, because I do not care to deal became a stowaway. He had worked are addicted to their use. for a time as a plater or rivetter in the shipyards on the Clyde, and latterly in night in a wretched inn-how 1 re-the boiler shops at Birkenhead, near wild sage brush barrens of Nevada an remark, when they glance in that diturned to town and told to my enraged Liverpool. Finding himself out of acceptable climate, where their health relations my woeful tale, wherein I work and out of money, he got a bottle is excellent and their fleeces unusually not to see Chub around." played such a sorry part—how my ubject letter of apology was returned unread—I cannot tell.

I only know all Fosberry died worth

Albert Docks, Birkenhead. The whisgo was then going in and the sailor told him to go below where the cargo was Don't judge a man by the clothes he sure his identification. The man took to climbing goats, and its sweet grass crutch.

After we got settled in our places, an wears, for God made one and the tailor the whiskey and afterwards threw the sheltered by every bush of artemesia. After we got settled in our places, an wears, for Got man to the half bottle down into the half where Don-bottle down into the half where and had a green shade over one eye, while his other looked weak and droop- very good family. Don't judge him by red, Donnelly says, about 4 o'clock on ing. We granted our strong disapproval at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 22. It was
val at the afternoon of September 23. It was
val at the afternoon of September 24. It was the afternoon of September 25. It was
val at the afternoon of September 26. It was the afternoon of September 27. It was the afternoon of September 28. It was the afternoon of September 29. It was the afternoon wards us, they were doubtless lost on him. As the train moved off I told my story, which you know already.

"Well done Phillip Year of the light of grimaces, but as his blind eye was to- Don't judge a man by the house he tell nothing of days or times after that "Well done, Phillip. Your bread is for that is not unfrequently inspired by through to the bottom of the hold, a glossy fur that defies the frosts and softly, "tause oo was dood to me." buttered for you!" he exclaimed, when hypocritical and selfish motives. Den't Feeling about he discovered some salt be had heard me to the end. "What a judge him by his love of display, for meat, but it was so very much spoiled that he could not eat a mouthful, alrisky and involving small initial out." animals, but when aroused is terrible though he was beginning to be hungry. lay. 'Yes, yes, my boy. All right!" I to behold. Don't take it for granted He then climbed to the orlop deck, exclaimed. "Well, it's a shame if I that because he carries the contribution where he discovered some loose salt, box he is liberal, he often pays the Lord and after a while ate some. Of course, as he knew it would, it made him horrible thirsty. He says he felt no hunger at any time to be spoken of in the might have remained so to this day comparison, but to slake his thirst As with Pompeil, so with thousands of

are very numerous, and the peculiar pit of the stomach, and then his thirst becomingly as I could, ready to be resfor a nap. But we found the lamp an silver-work of this country, which every traveler invests in. Here one can of water has not taken it away. The approach of Signor Taddei. He came in sweet baby fashion, as she looked him "Le Duc de Villianton," because growing green there. I've stood on buy the shoes worn by the peasants, a chief officer of the City of Chester said before long quite surprised at having around upon the crowd: sort of braided straw, curiously formed, the story of a bribed sailor he did not been sent for,-a kind looking. sober and copied either in silver, gold or por- consider to be true, since the crew of the gentlemen, who could'nt speak a word celain-these for flowers, cards or for ship were an exceptionally fine lot of English. How fortunate that I was cigar ashes; water-carriers, in bronze, men. A sailor, moreover, would not grown up again! Perhaps I could un-"What for?" I asked, as I handed him on stands of any of the peculiar stones have stowed away a man in such a fathe article in question. It was worn from Siberia. The three-horse carriage shion. It was more than likely that French, we got along very well, and I and rusty, but well brushed and well also is a favorite in bronze and silver; the supposed saylor was a stevedore always shall be grateful for the patient and a bronze table, with silver cloth, connected with one of the gangs at the way in which he answered every queson a foundation of malachite or lapts, Birkenhead docks. Those men were ion, often adding some welcome bit of Jack, and so saying, he fitted it on to is often seen, with Russian peasant and the blue smock of Inman line sailers, information. Has Monsieur owned bald head of the owner of the hat. It dishes and their peculiar way of pre- of rancid bacon, which lay in the hold, them for twelve years; he had been fitted to a nicety, and so tightly as to paring the tea, with a great urn in the The deck above the orlop deck was the training animals for fifteen years. Did middle of the table, and the whole lower steerage deck, and there was a he have to whip them? "Oh, no, informing a beautiful inkstand. There dog there, kept by one of the passeng-deed; that would do no good; it would is no end of this sort of temptation here, er's though the hatch was entirely so- frighten them. Kindness was much seeing her own photograph exposed and if one's money holds out he never vered by a heavy tarpaulin, which ex- the best," and so on until we obtained knows where to stop; in factour Amer- tended over the deck on all sides. He many interesting facts. I shall repeat amazing shape it is possible to con-who has picked up a little agricultural argot, to old granger sitting beade "This has been splendid weather for fall plowing.

Old granger, pleased with the genera intelligence of the young town mas: "It hez, stranger, it hez; couldn'tha been better." Young man of Burlington, warming with his subject, and well pleased "The farmers have a greater acreige

Honest old granger, fairly delighed

"Yes, I 'low we hev, I rather 'low extremely, feeling comparatively safe, we hev."

for where people always drive fast there Young man of Burlington, rained by are but few accidents. The people were excess and over-confidence;

ery few blocks there was a chapel, and won't be able to get another crop of the people praying all about, and at corn out of the way of the frost this

My driver jumped down and pulled as well by pointing and keeping them town drug store, a young woman came training for the same trick for a whole drive as though they would break one's quantity of toilet goods put up, saying yet. that she was from the country, and that her father, who was out doing some

R. L., and it was to get to them that he in them, or to supply the people who Cashmere Goats in Nevada. key, he says, he gave to a sailor and and especially that great multitude who little witch with a blue silk bonnet begged the man to hide him away. Carstowing. Donnelly describes this friend gence. Here is a whole State, 120,000 happened to espy Chub limping his of his with sufficient minuteness to insummer food turns this bitterness to her a handful of peanuts which she the tempests of winter. Here is invi-

> Excavations at Pompeii prove the city to have been one of the most fash ionable and beautiful of Roman sum

When the monkeys and dogs had finished their performances, all of the on one side just as the train thundered hundreds of people left the Aquarium elegant residences and handsome shops, Donnelly insists that he had not been the man who had taught these aniwhich contain not only the rich goods drinking the whiskey, but has brought mals such astonishing tricks. So a help. It was too late; for he only opensupplied with the furs of Russia, the soon as he came to his senses his first to find him, while I hurriedly gathered safe!" products of its manufactories, which sensation was a great gnawing at the my traps together, and put them on as moment, and then hadn't enough, be- stick up from the lower to the upper prky way in which they came. Signor ment of her hair, the turn of her neck;

Intelligent young man of Burlington, She always stands behind the scenes to cried to the elderly lady, her lips receive them when they run off the blanched with shame and terror. drink raspberry or strawberry juice this dress?"

mixed with water. His monkeys tasted ananas in New York for the first time them. Where did he get his animals? Certainly, Madame should be told, with great pleasure. The dogs mostly were the other lady. obtained in Austria, but his monkeys he picked up at circuses and zoological had drawn up to the window, and nocould find the right sort. He selects other, them at the menageries, or zoological cannot be meant for me." gardens. The best ones always are active and on the alert. Were monkeys as intelligent as dogs? Well yes; no; he could'nt say. Sometimes monkeys a novelty, so were the shops, then ev- "But I'm very much afraid they are brightest, sometimes dogs; it depends entirely upon the individual animal. Monkeys often forget their tricks when they come to a new place,-are generally is needed for training either.

and if a carriage stops they immediately the most peculiar I ever dealt with the most peculiar I ever for a given point and payonly ten cents, their favorite drug. They will under-then pick up one again at any time. I take anything, will promise anything found that if we could not tell the driv-to obtain morphine. I remember some chief babler dog. Madame would not tell the driv-to obtain morphine. I remember some chief babler dog. Madame would not be the condition of the condit found that if we could not tell the driv-to obtain morphine. I remember some chief ladder dog. Madame would n't house, one of whom might easily have arry known as "fire hunt." After leaver where we wanted to go, we could do years since, when I was in a down-believe it, but another dog has been abstracted a photo out of a package of ing the station, they struck the Cana relie back. It may seem a little thing The Story of Chub.

pleased me to see him get a good day's lonesome place over in the corner; here he used to sit and eat his lunch at noontime. It was his favorite seat, and 's never seems filled now.

rection, "It seems kind o' lonesome emption, its mountains exactly adapted putting out a tiny hand, touched his

"Come here, Birdie," called the la-utely sticking close to Chub. obbled into the other room.

limp wild out and snatch the little form from its perilous position, and throw it

"Poor 'ame boy gone fast seep! gone fast seep !"

An Indignant Head and Neck.

A most extraordinary sensation occurred in the American colony of London last week. A young lady from Philadelphia was walking down Regent street with the mother and sister of a stration. Many distinguished men efyoung gentleman of rank, when the attention of all three was attracted by photographs of notables and others exposed in a window, and they drew up to look at them. Fancy the astonishment of the American girl on there among the others, but in the most with him; his daughter, who came at the Venus do Modiet in fact, got up in 50, assists him very much, and his pets tights and fleshings, and labelled "Maare as found of her as they are of him. zeppa." "What can this mean?" she stage. They are fed and petted after "I really cannot tell you," replied each performance. The dogs like Lady Disdain, with steel-bard eyes and imes take meat, but generally they eat whether on any occasion in America bread, milk, and rice. They like to you were in the habit of appearing in

"Oh, what do you mean to insinuate," uttered the poor girl. "Do you stockings, lightly stepping over the in their lives, and were delighted with think I ever stood as Mazeppa? Oh, broad stones, and picking his way in how cruel of you to speak so.'

"It is certainly your portrait," added By this time one or two bystanders gardens-in fact at any place where he ticing the likeness were nudging each "It is some coincidence-of course i home and tell your father about it."

calls to make." In a half-dazed state of mind the young Philadelphian drove home and old her father what had happened. To ograph out of the window, to demand an explanation of the stationer, was Creek negro by the name of Andy Gill. of that kind-and in some way or other

The Dead Guest.

Lord F. was on his travels on the

He wasn't at all communicative, and engaged in similar way, with whom he ding woods were shut in somber gloom. days. His eyes are sunken and his cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where, after she got the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where and him the course of conversation. Yet everybody likely the cheek bones prominent, his tongue dry one drug store where and him the course of conversation, to know ways on the alert for two shining orbs, and hard. His constant demand is for morphine, the proprietor refused to let were sure to appeal to their; his pale face and withered limbs that the end of his life had been predict- which glow in the darkness like balls were sure to appeal to their sympathies. ed to him, and that he had some ground of fire. They know when they see them I used to like him myself, and it always for believing that this prediction was that they are "shining" the eyes of a not without its weight and credibility. deer. Waite placed his torch against "As how?" asked Lord F. "I was tray- a tree, raised his rifle and took delibe-But it's over a year, now, since Chub eling with two friends," replied the rate aim between the two balls of fire and I miss him yet. There is a real agreed to have our nativities east by a tance, a sharp report rang through the woman there, who had a great reputa- woods and a terrible cry of agony broke be few in the land if they do not retion for astrological skill. She foretold the night air. Waite stood transfixed form, entered a Gratiot avenue saloon that none of us would live long, and to the ground, staggered with the awful live days ago, and one of them exnamed the days on which we should suspicion that he had shot and killed plaines to the proprietor: each die. My two friends are dead, and each at the time she named; it remains through the woods, running with all I bet him $10 that Grant will be the to see whether her prediction will be verified to me." "Pshaw!" cried Lord the two shining balls of fire. Lying at the money. We want you to keep it F., "a mere coincidence, impossible the foot of a tree, face down, was the until the bet is decided in 1880." that it can happen a third time. But lifeless remains of the Creek negro, "I will do zo," was the caim reply, what is the day she named?" Mr. G. Andy Gillpin, a stream of blood and as the money was raked in. named one about six months distant. brains oozing from between the eyes. The strangers departed, each vigor-"And where shall you be then?" pur- Gillpin held in his right hand a torch. ously asserting that he wasn't afraid to sued Lord F. "At Paris." "Why, I which had been extinguished, and trust the saloonist, and they were not shall be there too. Let it be an engage- elutched in his left hand was a rifle. seen together until two days afterment- Come you and dine with me on Waite remained with the body of the wards. They then appeared to remark: that very day at seven o'clock, and keep negro until daylight, frequently firing "We have been talking the thing up your spirits till then. I shall be off his rifle to attract the attention of over, and have concluded to withdraw found at No.—Rue de—. Do you his companions. In the morning he the bet. It has been some trouble to agree to the bargain?" "Willingly," started for the Canudian bridge, where you, and if you'll hand over $9 we'll months passed and a little before the the negro. Waite says that the eyes of saloonist, as he opened the till; "1 appointed day, Lord F. found himself in Paris. He sent a note to Mr. G., to "I loves oo, poor 'ame boy," she said, remind him of his engagement, and received for answer that he would come. However a day or two after, another peering on the Italians, glancing into dy.

note was brought to him, in which Mr. open windows at junk buyers, and now mour personal for the was not very well, and and then entering an alley to inspect But they won't. The two bills were and then entering an alley to inspect But they won't. note was brought to him, in which Mr. poor, 'ame boy," she said, reso- must postpone the pleasure of dining rickety old vehicles standing in front base counterfeits, and they didn't get with Lord F. till another time; that the of barns. But the lady took her away. Chub indisposition was very trifling, and ere "What am I looking for?" he anlong he hoped to have the pleasure of swered the policeman; "well, it may The lady was busy with her book, and waiting upon him. Lord F. thought no strike you as foolish, but I have been did not notice her child slip out; but more of the matter, ordered dinner on looking around for a whole month, and I did, and every now and then caught the day that had been named, at seven, I may have to keep it up for another; stray glimpses of the little figure as she for himself, and about six o'clock sent I'm looking for a rag-buyer; I'd know Make but few explanations; the charappeared a curious mass of seedy old appeared a curious mass of seedy old coats, railway rugs, and newspapers.
"I do object very much," was the old gentleman's gruff reply.
"Very sorry, sir," said I. "I'll keep my head out of the window, then."

Shame seizes me when I recall this incident. In lieu of attending to the incident. In lieu of attending to the

Make but few explanations; the charadd own the platform. By and would have given all the world. It was perfectly dark, and he could tell might from day only by the sound of bells which reached him from above.
On what he concluded was the second and as produced the largest proportion of its between the hatch and the deck comincident. In lieu of attending to the Make but few explanations; the character that cannot otherwise defend itwould have given all the world. It was perfectly dark, and he could tell

might from day only by the sound of
bells which reached him from above.
On what he concluded was the second and all excitting causes are promptly treated as they arise. It is in these cases br. J yes Experform and year.

As with Pompeii, so with thousands of people who have beauty of form and the would have given all the world. It was perfectly dark, and he could tell
might from day only by the sound of
bells which reached him from above.
On what he concluded was the second of the baby and so did her mother.

Where I'll find him."

"Did he steal something from you?" both one in the cannot otherwise defend itwas perfectly dark, and he could tell might from day only by the sound of
bells which reached him from above.
On what he concluded was the second
of the baby and so did her mother.

Where I'll find him."

"Doil he steal something from you?"

"Wom no,"
Wen Just then I glanced out, the door opened, and in walked she and all excitting causes are promptly treated as they are the least idea where he is or where I'll find him."

"On the feature. They might always be ad.

"Wom no," Wen Just as he was beginning in whe

They brought her to him, but he did cloth in uniform, which gave him share of Elmwood. That little grave not heed. She stroked the still white rather a slovenly appearance, and a up there is all that keeps us here-we face with her tiny hands, and coold flippant French duchess once called cling to life that we may keep flowers something less than grande tenue. He going to death at a jump, but that grave was also familiarly called in the army, "the Bean," from his usual plain attire, and apparent negligence of outward splendor. That vanity is an inherent compound or attendant of greatness, is a wide position, which admits of much argument and endless demon> feet or adopt eccentricities, of which vanity may be the inciting cause. Lord Nelson was fond of exhibiting his stars, and delighted in having his horses taken out, and his carriage drawn by the mob. The celebrated Lord Peterborough though light and vain and proud, has no weakness of this kind. Once, the populace taking him for the Duke o Marlborough, insisted on dragging him through the streets in triumph.

"Gentlemen," said he, "I can assur you by two reasons that I am not the Duke of Marlborough. In the first place, I have only five guineas in my pocket, and in the second place they are heartily at your service."

So, throwing his purse among them he got out of their hands with loud meat or sausage; The monkeys some- ley voice. "You perhaps can tell us huzzas and exchanations. The Earl of Peterborough, who had much sense, much wit, and much whim, leaped out of his chariot one day on seeing a daneing master, with pearl colored silk extremely dirty weather, and ran after him with his sword drawn, in order to drive him into the mud, into which he of course, followed himself.

All singularities may be traced hom to a certain degree of vanity, of which prevailing weakness the old leather breeches of Frederick the Great, the coarse coat and brass buttons of Charles "You had better take a cab and go XII, the small cocked hat and gray capote of Napoleon, the blanket and tub said the lady, still with her frigidman- of Diogenes, and even the pious beaver ner. "My daughter and I have some and modest drab of the Quaker, may be included as samples. A Fatal Fire Hunt.

easy enough to demand an explanation, the day, so the hunters determined to and papers, and was sold and carried them which has been kept hitherto in dian River east of the railroad track, relic back. It may seem a little thing an unlocked drawer of the young la- proceeding along its bank for some disdy's writing desk. Of course it is a tance, until they arrived at a point the first time she were it-how proud "cooked" picture; only the head and where it was known that deer were she was-how we took her out walking neck of the American lady's photo- plentiful, Here they separated, two -how much she looked like a rich The man James Donnelly recently taken from the hold of the Inman steatmer City of Chester well nigh starved to death by eleven days fastening, is fast recovering. He is a young Scotch lad, twenty years old, about five feet saven and a street of the goods, the first feet saven and a street of the goods, the first feet saven and a street of the goods about the depot knew the fast recovering. He is a young Scotch lad, twenty years old, about five feet saven and a street of the American lady's photostrick "Mean!" cried my father excitedly, some ware at the house, A most matching the letter from me, and speared. He apologized for his master's crushing it into his pocket. "Mean— while the mania so crushing it into his pocket. "Mean— while the mania so cried my father excitedly, some that the numbers of the goods, but me to death by eleven days fastening, is fast recovering. He is a young took a large dose from one of the bot-caused so much indignation and so should meet in the morning at day-should meet in the mor ble it may check the mania so and return with their spoils to the stawhile walking in a dence cluster of undergrowth, saw on a slight elevation of ground near the river, what he supposed were the eyes of a deer. The continent, when he met a young man moon had gone down, and the surrounone of his companions. He sprang This fellow and me have got a ber. possible speed to the spot where he saw next President, and he takes me. Here's the negro shone in the darkness like those of a deer.

He was walking up Macomb street, enting a cottage up by the reservoir, The Duke of Weinington was not re- and though I've only the old woman markably sedulous of dress, although with me, it's often that we barely have ons, among the tanks of fishes, but track was a crushed and mangled form. ders and decorations mering on a cost when we're in health the world goes duke had a custom of wearing a neck- our little Bertie, up in the poor folk's he appeared at a full dress party in the streets many a time, and felt like rose up to warn me back. On my way home at night, I've feared, time after time, to find the house deserted or a corpse on the floor; but that little grave has restrained my wife as well as me.

"How old was she?" asked the officer, his own heart aching a little. "Th-three years old," replied the man; "and she was the only child ever coming to bless us. We had luck nough before she died. I had work day in and day out. My wife was singing the whole day long, and when I started for home at night the knowfor me through the bars of the gate picked my feet up faster than anything has ever since, "Well?" queried the officer, as the man paused don't want to tell your m or I'll be breaking right down here in the street, and the people will wonder if I've been drinking. It was three years ago she died, and her voice rings in my ears to this hour, the same as if I had left her at home. It's the same with the wife, sir-a dozen times a day she runs to the door, thinking that she hears Bertie's voice; and I never go in that she doesn't look at me with reproach for not having our dead darling

"I've lost two children," sighed the officer, as he turned away his head, "Then you know how the wife treas tres up the little dresses and stockings and hats and such things. We put all those things away after the funeral, and though it almost broke our hearts to set the bundle down and look it over, we somehow had to do it every Sunday, and there wasn'nt a thing that hadn't been tear-wet before the first year was gone. These relies were our riches. We wouldn't exchange them for the wealth of any man you can name. One day, about a month ago, x rag buyer came along. You may think it funny, but even the poorest of the Recently, a party of four hunters left poor sometimes have rags to sell. My get back to that shop, to have that pho- South Canadlan Station, for the pur- wife made up a little bundle that dayose of hunting deer and turkey. A now. It has probably been shipped to the paper mill ere this and we have

"I'm sorry," said the policeman. "And when I go home to-night," whispered the man, "my wife will be standing at the gate, warehing and hoping; and as far as she can see she'll know by my face that the search has not availed. I had rather lose a finger than meet her white and reproachful look. I wish we were both dead,"

And with a weary sten and honeless heart he dragged along, having such a mission as neither hope nor despair nor love brings to one in ten thousand,

A couple of chaps, whose years will

"I am no mon as dot," replied the makes no charge-here is der cash." He threw them out the two tens they had left, a sly twinkle in his eye, and as they slid out he called after them;

"Schentlemens, ven von makes any mixed up with his honest cash.

A lecturer on natural history was called upon the other day to pay for a live rabbit which he had in a basket in a railway car, and which the conductor said would be charged the same as a dog. The lecturer vainly explained that he was going to use the rabbit in "Did he steal something from you?" iffustration of a lecture he was going to "No-no," was the hesitating reply. give in another town, and, indignantly "Want him arrested for anything?" taking a small live tortoise from his pocket, said, "You'll be telling me next The officer was wondering what the that this is a dog, and that I must pay performant exercises its most beneficial effects, and his produced the largest proportion of its and his produced the largest proportion of its and his produced the largest proportion of its and the deck combine the limit of the mediate cause of the end of the barking of a dog followed. The mediate cause of the mediate causes of the mediate cause could be, when the man said:

If set the stave and managed to work it up between the hatch and the deck combine tright upon the larmed, and range the bell, and there stood the little one in the blue silk bonnet right upon the larmed, and range the bell, and there stood the little one in the blue silk bonnet right upon the larmed, and range the bell, and there stood the little one in the blue silk bonnet right upon the larmed, and range the bell, and the back in the blue silk bonnet right upon the larmed, and range the blue silk bonnet right upon the larmed, and range the bell, and the man said:

If feel a bit ashamed to tell you, but send the message of inquiry. "How perhaps you won't laugh at me. But this is a dog, and that I must pay the between the hatch and the deck combine tright upon the larmed, and range the bell, and there stood the little one in the blue silk bonnet right upon the larmed, and range the bell, and the perhaps you won't laugh at me. But this is a dog, and that I must pay the blue silk bonnet right upon the larmed, and range the bell, and the perhaps you won't laugh at me. But this is a dog, and that I must pay the blue silk bonnet right upon the larmed, and range the bell, and the perhaps you won't laugh at me. But this is a dog, and that I must pay the blue silk bonnet right upon the larmed, and range the bell, and the perhaps you won't laugh at me. But this is a dog, an