"DON'T STOP MY PAPER."

Don't stop my paper, printer, Don't strike my name off yet; You know the times are stringent, And dollars hard to get; But tug a little harder Is what I mean to do,

And scrape the dimes together,

Enough for me and you,

I can't afford to drop it; I find it doesn't pay To do without a paper, However others may; I hate to ask my neignbors

To give me theirs on loan ; They don't just say, but mean it, Why don't you have your own? You can't tell how we miss it, If it, by any fate, Should happen not to reach us,

Or come a little late; Then all is in a habbub, And things go all awry, And, printer, if your married, You know the resson why.

The children want their stories, And wife is anxious, too, At first to glance it over, And then to read it through, And I, too, read the leaders, And con the book reviews, And scan the correspondence,

And every scrap of news, I can not do without it, It is no use to try, For other people take it, And, printer, so must I; I, too, must keep me posted, And know what's going on,

A fogy simpleton. Then take it kindly, printer, If pay be somewhat slow, Eer cash is not so plenty,

Or feel and be accounted

And wants not few, you know; But I must have my paper, Cost what it may to me, Pd rather dock my sugar, And do without my tea.

So, printer, don't you stop it, For bere's the year's subscription, And credit it right down, And send the paper promptly And regularly on, And let it bring us weekly
