B. F. SCHWEIER,

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT

BUCHU

PHARMACEUTICAL.

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR ALL

DISEASES

BLADDER & KIDNEYS.

For Debility, Loss of Memory, Indispost-tion to Exertion or Business, Shortness of Breath, Troubled with Thoughts of Disease, Dinness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Chest, and Head, Ensh of Blood to the Head, Pale Countenance, and Dry Skin.

If these symptoms are allowed to go on, very frequently Epileptic Fits and Con-sumption follow. When the constitution becomes affected it requires the aid of an invigorating medicine to strengthen and tone up the system—which

"Helmbold's Buchu"

DOES IN EVERY CASE.

IS UNEQUALED

By any remedy known. It is prescribed by the most eminent physicians all over the world, in Rheumatism. Spermatorrhea, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Aches and Pains,

General Debility, Kidney Diseases, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy, Head Troubles, Paralysis, General III-Health

Spinal Diseases, Deafness. Lumbago, Catarrh,

Nervous Complaints, Female Complaints, &c.

Headache. Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Dizsiness, Sour Stomach, Eruptions, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a thousand other painful symptoms, are the off-prings of Dyspepsia.

Helmbold's Buchu

Invigorates the Stomach,

And stimulates the torpid Liver, Bowels, And stimulates the torpid Liver, Bowels, and Kidneys to healthy action, in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

A single trial will be quite sufficient to convince the most hesitating of its valuable remedial qualities.

PRICE $1 PER BOTTLE who pionsly insisted on going to church in

Or Six Bottles for $5.

Delivered to any address free from observation.
"Patients" may consuit by letter, receiving the same attention as by calling, by answering the following questions:

1. Give your name and post-office address, county and State, and your nearest express

Your age and sex?

2. Occupation:
4. Mairied or single:
5. Height, weight, now and in health?
6. How long have you been sick?
7. Your complexion color of hair and eyes?
8. Have you a stooping or erect gait:
9. Relate without reservation all you know agont your case. Enclose one dollar as consultation fee. Your letter will then receive our attention, and we will give you the nature of your disease and our candid oninion concerning a cure.

H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist and Chemist, Philadelphia, Ps.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

THE ENGAGEMENT RING

I give the back the ring thou gav'st And vows which in a trusting heart

I deemed thee poble, kind, and true With honest heart as pure as gold ; But I have found 'twas not thyself-I loved a man of rancy's mould!

Take back thy gift : 'tis now to me A worthless, desecrated thing ! Since I have learned the faithles-ness

Of him who gave the jeweled ring. You take it back! I scorn to wear This emblem of thy vain deceit! I hate, despise, and lothe it! See

That ever bound my heart to the Is severed. Yes, with joy I find Thy chains from off my soul-I'm free

I fling the bankle at thy feet.

Boarding-House Experiences in Washington.

At an early age, owing to the force of I became an inmate of one of those numer ous mansions which form the connecting link between a hotel and a private residence, yet which generally possess neither the comfort of the latter, nor the independence of the former, style of living.

The personal appearance of professional boarding-house keepers is usually one of two approved style, and served up, hotel fashsorts; the commonest being lean and anguintenance; the face, ornamented with a long and dangerously sharp nose, and dress is the usual uniform, and, as they are seldom seen in any other, one becomes im- from the table with the assurance of having they will die and be buried in it. A mournful expression of countenance is often aswell as with sedate elderly gentlemen; their scale of prices likewise rise, as their eyes an ... conversation ascend heavenward.

forty matron; in general, a good provider, the method of earning a living so often reand kind, withal; as good nature and en- sorted to by ladies in difficulties. bonpoint usually go together. To be sure. hertdress is not always of the cleanest, and her breath doubtless smells of oinions; but, ten to one, she is a motherly old soul, and On the whole, therefore, it

When a small lad I was sent to a celebrated school, a long distance from the city in which my parents resided, and domiciled sign, as hard and rusty looking as herself, gave notice to the passing public that providing for the temporal needs of single gentlemen, was her present occupation.

Mrs. McVickar was the relict of a cleryman of the place, and consequently stood high in position, according to rural courtesy; she thus obtained like many another in higher walks of life, respect, not on her injured landlady. After some months, during which time I own account, but through the merits of the dead. She was stern, uncompromising, had experienced a few changes, I found replied.

"Dat's so, sir; but you kin set here in de and childless, possessing through life pro- myself partaking of my daily bread at the bably little of the milk of human kindness.

During the three years passed with the a first-class establishment; I was not precon won't allow dat." widow of the unfortunate McVickar, I was pared to seek the best, yet the change was so often reminded of the worthlessness of for the better, from the elegant starvation children, that I wondered what they were at Mrs. Stintem's to the excessive prodigalnade for, or why they were not born already ity at Mrs. B's. There was plenty of food, "grown up," like our first parents. Their coarse, but clean, linen, fat cooking and a gormandizing habits were ever being com- fat landlady. mented on in my hearing, and, though Everything seemed to run to fatness, the talked at for eating so much, I was still favorite method of cooking being "frying." forbidden to leave anything on my plate. piles of beef cut in slices the thickness on ordinary occasions; was consequently kept carefully bottled up during the week, to be opened on Sundays, when it overflowed like a bottle of root-beer when the cork is drawn. Those were days of mar-

'meeting" in the morning, preceded by catechism, I was forced to remain perched time. On the other side was set forth the example of a model chap, who ate what was set before him, and made no remarks if the a snow-storm, took cold, and became an

It was hard for me to discover the advantages of the latter over the former; the first evidently had the best time on earth, and by my landlandy's creed, the future was already decided. I soon learned to amuse myself by making puzzles out of the long words on my book, and became quite proficient in constructing anagrams, while my grim guardian nodded over her bible, thinking me perusing for the twentieth time the affecting tract of the "Dairyman'y Daugh-

During my college days, my Alma Mater proved another Mrs. McVicker as far as bodily food was concerned. Indeed, most of the practical effusions addressed to the old dame by her children should be received paste board were set swimming in a sea of coarder, whose bills were regularly paid, melted lard, where they were cooked to a boring restaurant where I procurred a more may possess in the way of hair and differently from an other, simply because toughness that would have disgusted an oshe measured a foot or so less in height. trich. This formed the basis of every meal, The others were not obliged to eat fat; they and they were so nearly alike that but for could ask for food a second time, and were the time of day I could not have told helped to dessert; these privileges were whether it was supper, dinner or breakfast either denied me, or else so disagreeably I was enting. bestowed as to make them scarcely desirable. Being thus kept on short commons, my notions concerning the difference of neum and teum became somewhat weakened, as my occasional visits to unguarded eupboards and fruit orchards could testify. My visits home being but semi-yearly, by means of her lips, presented it to me; and on assuring her that I could not think my Sundays were likewise spent with this grim guardian, who thus had charge of my spiritual as well as my temporal welfare, she being doubtless possessed of some un- sought refuge by flight. known qualities which made her equally a

My next trial proved successful as far as At director for the souls as for the stomachs ist, a firm believer in predestination, and afflicted by those little pests which naturalists (with their fondness for long names) style Cimex lectularius, that I nightly peated. "And," iron." After being phlebotomized as long using profane language in my presence." as my constitution would bear it, I engaged ongest day at school, as, after attending on a chair by far too high for me, with a phrase, when the "goose was hot and cab-bage plenty." But the goose often hung some sinful youth who, like myself, pos-sessed a fondness for green apples, and hav-ing no fear of God er a Mrs. McVickar before his eyes, procured some of the forhigh and cold in the shop, and as that useful bird went up, the fare came down. It was a change, however, and the cooking the extraordinary precautions taken during the cholera epidenic of 1831. A cord was passable with the exception of the colera epidenic of 1831. A cord was bidden fruit from a neighbors orchard, and broke his neck and the Sabbath at the same Michael was generally "half seas over" by ment was all fat, or the hash had a hair in bed time, when trade was good; and at it; who never asked to be helped twice, but such times became unusually pious and would insist on whispering spiritual conso-

ation intol my ear which was anything but Owing to sickness in his family I left my comical host, with more regret than I had left more pretentious places, and took furnished appartments in a "genteel family" who kept no boarders, procuring meals at restaurants. Having added a few articles of furniture, my room room soon had a very comfortable appearance. To be sure, there were some little troubles, at first, but I soon corrected them. For instance, the soap, after the manner of the lodging-house article

The bureau-drawers also had a decided huge sheep-bound tome (at least it had the the culprit, I said nothing, but procured a Treatment and Conduct of Women appearance of one) supplied us with an an-tidote in case our feasts disagreed with our already on the door, and chuckled to myself over the disappointment Bridget would ex-perience should she again attempt to take a As I think of nese sence mys, can see drink at my expense. n my mind's eve the long and cheerless re-A week after I was surprised by a similar ory, filled with hungry youths. From visit; none of the solids had been disturbed what I hear the diet has not improved, and the same roast for Sunday's, with vegetables and rice pudding, is still in order. pick that lock," I thought to myself. must interview the lass. ner in a poor family and a "square meal" I did so, but could detect nothing sus-not given till Friday, which day was de-voted to the finny tribe. Saturday, a din-ner of all sorts, a rehash of the week, en-Every day something of the kind was abling one to appreciate by contrast the plain but substantial face the following day. the position of the bottles and the height of On going into the world, I boarded among other places at the home of a widow who I felt piqued. I did not begrudge furrejoiced in the appropriate name of Stintem.

"Terms invariably in advance. No ladies, nishing my unknown guest with refreshments so much as being outwitted; so, to and failure. children or dogs admitted." That is, only let the thief know I was aware of their protected single gentlemen were taken in Mrs. Stintem, like Lady Macbeth, preserved her dignity and presence of mind on and done for at this model establishment.

and her "make-up" was apparently copied from some long-forgotten fashion in the "Ladies Book." Her dignity, as I have before stated, was profound, and of such a practical nature, that few of her five and than I was, when, on my return and springbeen appropriated by my mysterious visitor. gradually it is to be feared, placing "The deuce," I ejaculated. "There nust be thirsty ghosts in the house." twenty boarders would have dared to utter remonstrance, had their meals failed to appear for a week. A look was generally ough to awe the most rebellious to silence Her table was bountifully supplied with linen, glass and silver ware. We were waited on by sable male attendants, arrayed in spotless white, while the food (what there was of it) was cooked in the most formerly existed, and probably communion on tiny dishes, so that each boarder's wards found that my visitor was no less a which they can only retreat with loss, do so in the hope, at least, that some hope of discovering perpetual motion. chickens around her. Notwithstanding the increased outlay in crockery, it was an Disapproving of such a romantic style of ication with my bed-room, I soon served in the dishes that the boarders arose pressed with the idea, that they never take pressed with the idea, that they never take it off, and that, if they ever leave this world, it off, and that, if they ever leave this world, it off, and that, if they ever leave this world, it off, and that, if they ever leave this world, it off, and that, if they ever leave this world, it off, and that, if they ever leave this world, it off, and that, if they ever leave this world, if he does not ever leave this world, if he does not ever leave the settlement of the Cowlitz of honor," and he immediately paid table with an appetite. We could not well complain of lack of food; the opide of plates pany's sake," as his family consisted but of complain of lack of food; the topide plates plate pla himself and wife. Calling to make inquir-ies, I found the family at dianer, and, deemptied by us would seem to give the lie to spite my protestations I was forced to much more.) There can be no doubt seems to be worth so little to the person Columbia river, the Bell. Though exposed soothed the dying pillow of three husbands, what sort of fare to expect should I become for them. As a body, and an average, Women af America! We have clear- he never courted the friendship of the Inwaiting "their guest." I found it so good that the women of America, all classes be- ly stated our conviction that you are, dians, but, on the contrary, treated them a fHymen's torch to enkindle the flame for before the dessert was brought in I had ing considered, are not only in advance as a race, the loveliest on earth. We with open, haughty contempt. But a short Tuesday evening the 4th, till 5 in the The second variety is exactly the reverse of this, being more like a female edition of the bygone "Boniface." A fair, fat and forty matron; in general, a good provider, and the providers, she was forced to resort to the method of earning a living so often representation. The second variety is exactly the reverse or found in advance as a race, the loveliest on earth. We decided to make one of their festive board; and, the terms being agreed on, I arranged to send my things the next day, my host the globe, but they are actually beyond the range of comparison. Certain assuring me that I would have the "comforts of a Christian family," and that he classes in some of the European counhave tired of paying you the extreme revenge on the Boston man. A few days I had dexterously managed to procure a left not a stone unturned to render his tries, may claim to have very nearly devotion once accorded. Now we after he was warned to flee to the block £11,000. On the Thursday he spoke in seat next to hers at the table, as past ex- boarders pleased and contented. He dwelt the same standard of attractiveness; state the concluding fact, that the fault house for safety. He paid no attention to the above debate, went to dinner 11.30 perience has taught me the advantage of considerably on this point, seeming to con- but to certain classes only can the is your own. You hold yourselves too the warning further than to put his own at night: from thence to White's, this position; a little attention towards the sider it his duty as a deacon, to keep young claim be applied with any hope of sucwill care for you if you are ill without a will care for you if you are ill without a thought as to your ability to pay her while thought as to your ability to pay her while thought as to your ability to pay her while fellow creatures through the medium of they might otherwise be exposed to; and I their stomachs, goes a great ways in these fondly imagined that I had at last found the

> such circumstances.
>
> But I fell into disgrace at last. My malters feeling unusually hard even for a boarding house article, I examined it, and, gaged in some mystery of the toilette. Reby the aid of my penknife, removed several good sized corn cobs, which the uphoisterer darkness and evidently not to be used till had the same advantages of dress and will be the lovellest as well as the looks down on them shrouded in everlasting had not deemed necessary to remove. For this wanton destruction of property, I lost was about leaving the house, I made known the scale, cannot the scale, c my post of honor and its privileges, and, my wants, shortly after found another home. I kept "Deed, sir," she replied, "de gemmen one of the cobs however, converting it into allos sets in dere rooms or on de steps; de travelers on the continent of Europe, a pipe, which I smoked in memory of my missus has de parlors to herself." and the sun shines hot out on the steps," I loveliness is sometimes bewildering, "Confound the deacon!" I exclaimed.

some undrinkable water, thence to a neigh- and so enjoy all the advantages they refreshing beverage and sat reading the shape of head, in addition to what ed "accommodation," in the Illinois we shall have a dead catamount or the big The next day I politely stated the facts American girls could show of the beaupapers till bed-time. The next day I politely stated the facts to my host, supposing that there was some y of eyes, play of feature, and gracemistake, but, to my surprise, was brusquely fulness of figure. informed that if his house did not suit, I Undoubtedly, the American women

My excessive delicacy caused me to leave could leave. "His was a quiet Christian are, as an average the handsomest in the house of this worthy lady. One day at dinner desiring a fork to assist myself to a others. He fed and lodged his guests, and at least middle life and the changes piece of the above mentioned delicacy, my landlady, with the air of a dutchess, after all he engaged to do; but he would refer that was removing the superfluous gravy from hers me a cooler room for fifteen dollars addi-edly the men of America, as regards tional.

"But I cannot afford that, sir, neither of depriving her of so useful an instrument would have forced me to accept it had I not "That is none of my affair; I offer you the country or exceptionally in the to this sort of thing." the advantages of a Christian-

"Christian fiddlesticks!" I abruptly reat director for the souls as for the stomachs of young persons. She was a strict Calvan-had I fared as well by night as by day, all that send young men to the devil, compelwould have been well; as it was, I was so ling them to resort to the streets for company

"That is none of my business," he restyle Cimex lectularius, that I nightly peated. "And," continued this exemplary dreamed of "Saint Lawrence and his grid-host, "I will thank you to refrain from "Seeing that you have so much respect tyrdom for me, longer by far than the board at the house of an Irish tailor for a for his Satanic majesty, may be send you nowhere else are they considered enfew weeks or until such time as a room I your next boarder," I replied, and though titled to so inevitable a "front seat" in this line twice every sixty days." had engaged could be made ready for me. late in the day, I immediately packed my Michael Dennison lived pretty well when trunk and took refuge in a hotel where I on a cnair by far too mgn for me, with a bible or some good book wherein the fate of trade was good, or, to use his own technical intend to remain until I give up boarding was passable with the exception of the cof-fee and tea; but as my host was a great lover of nealt liquors, I made up in good ale what I lost in more temperate beverages. agent, who three or four times a day went to see what the inmates wanted. He then placed what he brought them on a table sick person was taken to the hospital a police agent preceded the vehicle with a bell, and two soldiers kept every one away from the sick person. The doctors were was five or ten years ago; the effort is dogs and cats being deemed particularly from having to bear any of the bur-favorable to the dissemination of the distance of travel or society. Some have ease, persons were recommended to kill them, except where they were positively necessary. For months the inhabitants had a tendency to slip through my hands as lived in trepidation, and an old lady actuif resenting such familiarity; at last it slipped out of the window, where I left it, and procured some of another kind.

It is lived in trepidation, and an old lady actually hanged herself for fear of the cholera mitting it, set themselves to discover became matters for ridicule.

The Golden Rule: "Do ye unto others as ye would that others should do unto you," often shortened to the homely phrase: "Do as you would be an, petted beyond any of her sisters in "It must be a cunning wench who can the fact in human nature, that what- in something too much of belief in the "I ever we require we are under certain goddess ship ascribed to her by her obligations to supply. Continual ask- male admirers. It has became somepicious by the most careful cross-question- ing, with a total absence of giving, forms that "one sided" system drolly said to be "like the handle of a jug." taken; I made sure of the fact by marking and it does not nee the wisdom of a Sol- tesles with enough of her own, so Scottish chief." tem, however well it may work for a one who will take the trouble to be time, must eventually fall into disfavor chivalrous towards her. She takes,

These suggestions which may seem still others who do recognize it blindly, than I was, when, on my return and spring-still others who do recognize it offindly, one of comfort, makes any sacrifice in the graces and accomplishments of mind best part of a bottle of Concord wine had volved. The women of America are so doing. tended entirely for their benefit.

partake, that I might know of the justice of the claim here made accepting it.

be named in the same connection. Old say that in one place-the Jardina Co-"But my room is too small and warm, va, at Milan, in Italy, the array of any one else: even to an American eye, and that hundred upon hundred of girls and young women may there be seen, each capable of giving a heart-ache to the "Get me a glass of water, and here's a dime impressible. But the wisest of these observers take notice, and make a com-"Deed I can't, sah; de ice all done ment of the fact, that the Milanese girls melted; dere's a hydrant in de back yard though. I'se in a hurry, I is, to get home. Good-evening, sah," and, so saying, this home-loving maid of all work, departed.

After nearly breaking my neck in the unfamiliar regions of the back yard I found. Spanish mantilla, flirt the Spanish fan, at least middle life and the changes consequent upon maternity. Undoubtthe treatment of women, are the most thivalrous of any other race now livthe country, or exceptionally in the to this sort of thing. South and the Far West, where the romantie is supposed to have a more East and its chief cities. New York, Philadelphia, Boston and the others approaching them in size and importance. Nowhere else on the earth, are him. women expected to do so little in the way of earning the bread to be eaten; every place of public amusement or mode of conveyance. More than anywhere else in the world, in the America of the closing nineteenth century, is the lifted hat or he apolegetic word

And yet, the truth must be told, the last ten years, and even more than the outside, near the door. The money was last ten, the last five, have witnessed a on which the commissions were written down he took up with pincers. When a into contact with them. The occupied cloaks and masks of oil-cloth. The skin of not so general a one, to save the lady

It is not, certainly, that we are as a one at that.

The students were mostly affected with a main for large and loose coats strangely run to pockets, in which were smuggled run to pockets, in which were smuggled articles of diet at illegal hours. Anything that required no cooking was eagerly sought for sardings canned fruits overlands as refreshments therein. I was therefor, as refreshments therein. I was therefor.

age, more chivalrous than he was at the former period. And yet he pays red in his character, Belcher, in Sevenless respect to unknown womanhood.

Why? Simply because the American wom done by," displays in great prominence the other parts of the world, has taken thing of a habit with her, to receive the courtesies extended, as a matter of He is no less a personage than the linear easily extended, and so valued by any "Col. Colt's character I think very fairly course, the seat given her in car, stage school-girl; but no one can make his acdepredations, I arranged a trap so that in to many very trite, have their origin in or public assembly; and she takes it quaintance without being impressed that he opening the door a board would fall and break a glass. the less important , probably, because any appreciation of the fact, that the cestors powerful in body and mind, brave at beholding the foot-prints in the sand, very many do not recognize it, and gentleman making room for her, or in and generous any other way smoothing her path to "Yes, highly educated and possessing all themselves in a false position. If they to make, except to the representative in Mr. Wallace's family and learned some While gazing in astomshment at my emptied bottles; I noticed a crack in the wall between the shelves, the figure of the paper with which it was covered having hid it before. I examined it more closely, wish them to work blindly when the hack of the closet to be a light terminal to make the steps, they of the beautiful sex from whence came his mother, his sister, his wife. He may be sixty and gray haired; or he may be sixty and gray haired; or he may be sixty and gray haired; or he may be thoroughly wearied after a day of intense toil; and when he leaves day of do not take heed to their steps, they of the beautiful sex from whence came of his history from the family and neighperson than my landlord, who had an un- we feel like saying a few words, in- kind word, some pleasant smile, or at We have said that they are "the very him for it; and if, year after year, he Walla, but continued his journey to Oregon left the house and was recommended to loveliest body of women on earth"- finds that his kindness is merely receiv- just in season to escape the Wheatland mas that of one Deacon Happy, who, I was the women of America. (We do not ed as a matter of course, he will prove sacre. He soon took the advantages offered

Superior Abilities, Now there abideth these things,

Poke a fire. Put on his own hat. Edit a newspaper. Tell a story after another man has

Did you never notice that if you roaming up and down a column head- he turned to his boy and said: ago, a quiet looking man on the Wa- we had better turn in." bash railroad called the train boy and asked him for a railroad guide for a make anything out of it?"

"Not up to '63. His wife told me he moment. Then he began to examine the columns, and a very busy-looking and said: "What train are you looking for? Where do want to go? I can find it he was looking up some of the connec-feats at arms and deeds of justice. The tions of the Wabash Railroad, and he way," he said; "now, tell me where immortal. This ancient document and the you want to go. I know nearly all the well preserved. It was received from the connections of this road. I travel over aged father with emotions of awe; and had book, the stranger reluctantly yielded, of its existence or of Mr. Wallace's famous and the busy man looked down the col- ancestors." umn of "ticket fares" and ascertained that the stranger's train reached Dan-The plague fright at Berlin has recalled so common; nowhere else is the softest ville at $4.76, and then he looked down the column of distances and discovered James and Stephen-were desperate was very pad. Ven he feel better it put into a glass full of vinegar, and the notable falling off in the chivalrous set a bewildered wayfarer right. The had confined himself to them. But his some peer-barrels more ash dwendy agent took it out with a spoon. The paper treatment accorded to women unknown stranger thanked him quietly and with misfortune arose from playing pure dimes. Und den he say:

tude "Oh." said the man loftily, "that's to railroading."

breakman as he passed out, called to he had completely dissipated everythe employe and asked: "Who is that man?"

ticket agent of this road."

"Do you know to whom Holland refer-oaks? "Colonel Sam Colt. Holland and I were school-fellows and friends, always, or I should never have known. "How strange!" I exclaimed. I knew

"Where did you meet him?" with the Columbia, Washington territory.

chivalrous towards her. She takes, "Excepting in his excessive modesty, not somewhat too much as a matter of at all. I think to-day he is as bashful as a

He does make a sacrifice, very often fied, and was a wealthy widow at the time -a sacrifice that he would be very slow referred to. In 1863 I spent some months and found the back of the closet to be a wooden partition and that a small window, such as are often found in china closets, had well as a reason of the found in china closets, had well as a reason of the found in china closets, had well as a reason of the kindly offices due from the same of t of women on earth to place themselves manhood to womanhood he is very about his early hunt and said that when any cated with the adjoining room. I after too declaredly in a false position from likely to be making a sacrifice, and to man could hold himself by lifting at his least a nod of approbation, may reward lass and crossed the continent to Fort Walla a lat landlady.

These varieties do not refer, of course, to fashionable houses, but to the middle, and by far the largest class, patronized by single men of ordinary means.

The plus ultra of boarding houses.

I moved there the mext day, and, having surroundings of life that can be confined only by his own family, armed overheated from a long walk; being about sidered as advantages, certainly presented to men of ordinary means.

The plus ultra of boarding houses.

I moved there the most out for New Marties of the most enviable, and all the surroundings of life that can be confined only by his own family, armed overheated from a long walk; being about sidered as advantages, certainly presented to many moder. massacre referred to, while Mr. Wallace which every man can do better than was prostrated with rheumatism, he heard "Asking his boy, Leander, to carry his rifle he took two canes and hobbled out to where the supposed hear was treed. The particulars of the break, and then he open a railroad guide and begin to look the dog, a catamount of the largest size.

moss, which on the Columbia bottoms cov-ers trees from limb to limb, prevented his seeing his game till he arrived immediately beneath, when he saw, looking sharply at for some particular train, that some of. Stepping along a few feet, he took the rifle for some particular train, that some of-ficious man in the crowd will spring The catamount soon changed its position, up and lay his great thumb right over the column your train is in, and try to and fired. The catamount sank out of find you the night express on the sight in the moss, but did not fall. Drop Chleago, Burlington and Quincy, by ping his rifle and drawing his hunting knife, Central side of the page? And you gest fight you ever saw in less than a min-ute. He had a dead catamount. I might "But the revolver! Did Wallace ever was too diffident to approach Col. Colt on the subject."

"You say this Wallace is the lineal descendant of Sir William Wallace, the Scot tish chief!" "Yes. While I was there a

The stranger thanked him and said consisted simply of a piece of parchment "You'll never find it looking that before Sir William made the family name secret of its possession are almost equal I not been an inmate of the house at the After a vain effort to get his guide time I should probably never have known that the connecting train for Vin-cennes left at 6584. Then he handed ably at whist and piquet—with such he gom to the greek und catch some the guide back to the stranger, and skill, that at Brooke's, along about fish. He don't goome pack before it leaned back in his seat with the air of 1772, it was generally admitted he was nighd, und all the fish vat he got a christian, unselfish man, who had might have made £4,000 a year, as vas a meeserable leedle pull-head what at some trouble to himself, of course, they calculated, at those games, if he you couldn't gound; put he smell like After eating and drinking freely, he sat down at the fare table, and invaria- fire-wood und I dalk mit you. Then all right; these railroad guides are all bly rose a loser. Once, and only once, he catch py his arm and scream : Greek to people who aint accustomed he won about £8,000 in the course of a single evening. Part of the money he By and by the stranger went into the paid away to his creditors, and the say.

A Gambiling Family.

"Nein; oh! dose roomaticks! dose other coach, and the busy man, notict other he lost almost immediately. Being the respectful demeanor of the fore he had attained his thirtieth year thing he commanded or could procure Und I say: 'Ven you told me you got by the most ruinous expedients. Top- a bain in your pack, I say noting. Und "Mr. H. C. Townsend," said the ham Beauelere, who lived much in our you got dooble up on accound you brakeman, "the general passenger and Fox's society, affirmed that no man got some of dose roomaticks, I say it could form an idea of the extremities vas all righd. Put py golly, ouf you articles of diet at megal nours. Anything that required no cooking was eagerly sought for; sardines, canned fruits, oysters, etc. Such diet was also supposed to contain a large proportion of brain nourishment and consequently the thing. Crack-ment and consequently the thing the contains a large proportion of brain nourish-ment and consequently the thing. Crack-ment and consequently the thing. Crack-ment and consequently the thing the contains a large proportion of brain nourish-ment and consequently the thing. Crack-ment and consequently the thing the contains a large proportion of brain nourish-ment and consequently the thing. Crack-ment and consequently the thing the contains a large proportion of brain nourish-ment and consequently the thing. Crack-ment and consequently the thing the contains a large proportion of brain nourish-ment and consequently the thing the contains a large proportion of brain nourish-ment and consequently the thing the contains a large proportion of brain nourish-ment and consequently the thing the contains a large proportion of consumed; yet then he occupied a house or lodging in St. James street, close to Brooke's and passed at th club almost every hour that was not devoted to the House of Commons. Brooke's was then the rallying politi or rendezvous of the opposition, where, some of the other characters; Benedict, for while faro, whist and supper prolonged the night, the principal members of the minority in both houses met to compare their information, or to concert or mature their measures. Great sums were borrowed of Jews at exorbitant premiums. Fox called his ante-room, where the Jews waited till he rose, "the Jerusalem Chamber." The ruling passion of Charles was owing to the lax training of his father, who by his lavish allowances fostere his propensity for play. According to Chesterfield, the first Lord Hollan! 'had no fixed principles in religion or morality." He gave full swing to Charles in his youth. "Let nothing be done," said his lordship, "to break his spirit, the world will do that for him." When his lordship died, in 1774, he left Charles, £154,000 to pay his debts. It was all signed away and Charles was as deeply pledged as before. Fox once played cards with Fitzpatrick at Brookes', from ten o'clock at night to six o'clock the next afternoon, a waiter standing by to tell them "whose deal It was," they being too sleepy to know. Another time, Fox having won and a certain bond creditor presenting himself for payment, was coolly received. "Impossible sir," said Fox, "I mus first discharge my debts of honor." The bond creditor remonstrated. "Well, sir, give me your bond." It was delivered to him, and tearing it to pleces he threw it in the fire. "Now. debate on the thirty new articles, February 6, 1774, Fox did not shine. 'Ner could it be wondered at; he had sat up playing at hazzard, at Almack's, from was at 5 o'clock, he had ended by losing

One of the plumbing establishments of Danbury took a new jour the other snows. From these mountain lairs, bears, day. He was from a hamlet over in mountain lions, catamounts and other wild New York State, a little hamlet where bensis constantly prowl about the fields and he had worked with his father. The pastures of the settlers. Soon after the day after his arrival there was a burst in the water pipe of a house on Pine a neighbor's hunting dog barking in the street. He was told to go over there and attend to it.

made ready his tools and started. Just as he was passing out of the door the propietor saw him.

"Where are you going?" he almost screamed.

The new man told him. "Do you mean to tell me that you are going up there to fix that pipe without examining it?" he gasped.

"Why I am going to look at it when get there," said the new man.
"Merciful heavens!" ejaculated his employer catching hold of his desk to support himself. "Can it be possible hat you would do a job at one visit? Don't you know your trade any better than that? Have you no pride in your business? Why you'd ruin the entire community in less than a year." And the speaker burst into tears. As soon as he grew calmer he ex-plained to the new man that he should first visit the house, make a thorough examination of the building, get the lay of the street, find the location of the nearest hydrant, go up to the roof brother came from Massachusetts bringing of the house, and then return thought-the escutcheon or patent of nobility. It fully to the shop for his tools, keeping an accurate record of the time

"Now, Mrs. Roosmyer," said his Honor, "what do you want a warrant

"For a husband so much I know." "What's he been doing?" "I licked him." "You licked him!"

"I licked him. Und I got right py

"How do you make that out?" "Ven I told you then you find out. I fix his dinner so he go py his work. Then he catch his hand pehint, und say he got a pain in his pack. So he lie down on the lounge und groan like he

"What for supper aind ready?" "I tell him, 'you sphlit some of dose " 'Oh! I gat the roomaties!""

"'So you can'd sphlit some wood?"I roomaticks!' he kept on grying "Then I was madder as you dink.