THE POOR MAN'S SABBATH DAY.

The merry birds are singing. And from the fragrant sod The spirits of a thousand flowers Go sweetly up to God; While in his holy temple We meet to praise and pray With cheerful voice and grateful lay,

This Summer Sabbath Day! We thank thee, Lord, for one day To look heaven in the face ! The poor have only Sunday;

The sweeter is the grace. 'Tis then they make the music That sings their week away.

Oh, there's a sweetness infinite In the poor man's Sablath Day A tender fall of rain,

That set the barest life a-bloom Makes old hearts young again. The dry and dusty roadside With smiling flowers is gay

'Tis open heaven one day in seven. The poor man's Sabbath Day! 'Tis here the weary pitgrim,

Doth reach his house of ease; That blessed house, called "beautiful," And that soft chamber, "peace" The River of Lafe runs through his dream. And the leaves of heaven are at play !

He sees the golden city gleam, This shining Sabbath Day! Take heart, ye faint and fearful, Your cross with courage bear So many a face now tearful

Shall shine in glory there ; Where all the sorrow is banished. The tears are wiped away ; And all eternity shall be

Ah! there are empty places, Since last we mingled here There will be missing faces When we meet another year

An endless Sabbath Day !

But heart to heart, before we part Now altogether pray That we may meet in heaven to spend The eternal Sabbath Day !
