

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 1879. B. F. SCHWEIER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

The present session of Congress would not have been necessary, if the Congress of last session had done its duty. If the last session had provided for keeping up this government, the present session would not have been called, and now the present session is doing just what the last session did, it is telling the President that if he does not agree to sign bills that will destroy the power that was granted to the President in Washington's time to put down riot and rebellion in the States, and if he does not agree to sign bills that will take away the power of the President to quell riots in the States, that they will not provide the means to run the government. Very well, if the Democracy can afford to go before the country with such a record, the President can stand it, for the people of the Republic will not allow the government to suffer or fall to pieces because a rebel Congress will not provide the means to run the government.

On the 19th of last August the Convention of the Republican Party met in the Court House in this place, to count and announce the candidates that had been nominated by a district vote of the Republican party at the primary election held on the 17th of August, 1878, and to transact such other business as the Judges might, or may consider when sitting as a Convention. R. H. Patterson, of Penn, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, to be voted for, as an amendment to the system employed to conduct the Primary Election of the Republican party in Junia county, at the next Primary Election: Resolved, That the Return Judges and Clerks shall be sworn, according to the general election laws, before receiving any vote at the Primary Election, that they will honestly and faithfully discharge the duties devolving upon said officers.

A cyclone, or rather three cyclones appeared last Friday evening about 6 o'clock—one at Franklin, Kansas, where it tore down houses and barns, and killed many people; one at Lee's Summit, Missouri, where it was as destructive as the one in Kansas; and one in Nebraska, where, as in Kansas and Missouri, the destruction of property and loss of life was beyond precedent in those States. It is conjectured that the three different storms that appeared at different places at one and the same hour, were parts of a great storm that was broken asunder out on the plains.

The following in regard to arrears of pensions was distributed last Wednesday from Washington: "Commissary Henry having disbursed the first allotment of funds for the payment of arrears of pensions, has asked for $6,000, 000 to pay cases just disposed of. Out of this aggregate amount the agencies at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh will each receive $140,000, which is the highest amount allowed to any agency except Chicago, which will receive $50,000.

The King that runs the Democratic party is King Caucus. They get a few of the faithful in a room together, set up a job, and whip the party into support of their measures. That is the case in this county among the Democracy, and that is the case in National affairs, the brigadiers being the National caucus.

A St. Louis bank cashier named J. P. Kreger, is in jail for having used $249,000 of the bank funds without ever returning any of it. The concern has closed, and the depositors threaten that if they can get their hands on the cashier they will hang him.

Last week the Legislature culled the appropriation bills to the amount of $300,000. The appropriation for the Iowa Asylum at Norristown had $170,000 taken off.

All the evidence against M. S. Quay Secretary of the Commonwealth is regarded to the riot damage bill, is hereby, and worth nothing.

Samuel Greenwood, of Chester Valley, has been awarded a contract for making ten thousand shawls for the United States Government, the shawls being intended for clothing of the Indian forms of India woman in the West. The government has the right to increase the number if desired.

Edward Elliston, a workman, was struck by lightning while at work in William Painter's dam, Chester county on Wednesday afternoon a week, and at last account was lying in a critical condition.

A six month old child of Mr. W. F. Hoover, living at Summit Hill, McKean county, fell from a carriage, on Monday a week and was crushed to death.

During a storm in Lanesport, on Wednesday evening a week four houses were struck by lightning. The roofs and upper rooms of three were burned off. The loss amounted to several thousand dollars partially insured.

Ohio Republican Platform.

The Ohio Republican State Convention, last Wednesday, nominated Chas. Foster for Governor, and a complete set of State officers, and adopted the following platform:

CARDINAL DOCTRINE. Resolved, 1. That the Republican party of Ohio, reaffirming the cardinal doctrines of its adopted faith as heretofore proclaimed, especially pledges itself anew to the maintenance of free suffrage, equal rights, the unity of the nation, and the supremacy of the National Government in all matters placed by the Constitution under its control.

EARNEST APPEAL. 2. That we earnestly appeal to the people in the exercise of their power through the ballot-box, to arrest the mad career of the party now controlling both branches of Congress, under the domination of a majority of men lately in arms against the Government, and now plotting to regain through the power of legislation the cause which they lost in the field; the establishment of State sovereignty by the overthrow of national supremacy.

BREAK UP THE GOVERNMENT. 3. That the Democratic party, having committed itself to an attempt to break up the Government by refusing to appropriate to their legitimate objects the public moneys already collected from the people, unless the executive shall give his official signature to measures which he conscientiously disapproves—measures plainly intended to allow free course to fraud, violence and corruption in the national elections, and to impair the constitutional supremacy of the nation, deserves the signal condemnation of every honest and law-abiding citizen.

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS. 4. That the present extra session of Congress, thus compelled by Democratic conspirators, has been prolonged beyond all possible excuse, not only to a depletion of the Treasury, but also to the grave detriment of every industrial and commercial interest of the country, by uncalculated agitation of several questions; by persistent efforts in hostility to the resumption of specie payments, already happily accomplished; by constantly tampering with the currency system, unsurpassed in the world; by re-opening and stimulating sectional controversies, avowed determination to repeal all war legislation, and by seeking to inaugurate a reactionary revolution, designed to restore full power to a "solid South" in the affairs of the Government.

FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION. 5. That the financial administration of the Republican party in accomplishing the great work of the resumption of specie payments, in restoring our currency to a par value, in greatly reducing the burden of the national debt, in refunding a large proportion of the same at a rate of interest one-third less than the former rates, thereby alone saving to the treasury $13,000,000 per year, and in enhancing the national credit to a standing never before attained, is a source of just pride to the Republicans of Ohio, and deserves the warm approbation of the American people.

THE DISTURBANCE. 6. That this perpetual disturbance of the country in response to the conciliatory measures of the Administration, should, by the judgment of the people, be thoroughly condemned.

FROM BAD TO WORSE. 7. That the Democratic Legislature of Ohio, going on from bad to worse, from O'Connor "reforms" of our public institutions, resulting in scandals unnumbered and mischief unmeasured, to outrageous attempts to revise and alter the will of the people as declared by their suffrage, forcing upon them legislative enactments, defeated candidates for local office in place of those duly elected by lawful and unquestioned ballots cast in the interest of honest and decent home governments, merits the most indignant rebuke of every intelligent voter of the State.

OUR DEAD HEROES. 8. That the memories of our dead heroes, who gave their lives to save the nation from destruction, protest against the expulsion of their living comrades from public offices to gratify the partisan purposes of the dominant party in Congress.

SEND GREETING. 9. That we send greeting to the President of the United States and our Republican members of Congress and we cordially thank and honor them for the firm and patriotic stand they have taken in opposition to the designs of the majority of the present Congress, and we hereby pledge them our earnest and undivided support.

STATE ITEMS. The city of Altoona is said to have a cheerful outlook. The shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad at that point are running on full time, and $100,000 a month is paid out by the company to its employes in that city.

der Robinson, is recorded, completed to May 28, 1879.

SEVENTH BRANCH. Thomas Robinson, seventh child of Alexander Robinson, was born in Millford township, in what is now Juniata county, Pa. in the year 1774, and died at the house of his son, John Robinson, on his farm, near McAlisterville, Juniata county, Pa., December 3, 1848, aged 74 years, and was buried at the Presbyterian graveyard at Lost Creek Church, one mile from McAlisterville.

He was "quite well off" at one time in his life, but by "bailing" others he lost such means as he possessed, before he reached the age of an old man. He was twice married. The name of his first wife was Miss Rebecca Elliott. She was one of his daughters. The first wife died, and he was united a second time in the bonds of wedlock. The maiden name of his second wife was Elizabeth Steel.

The issue of this marriage was eight children. Five of the eight children died unmarried in their native county.

Three of the eight children married and left issue, and of the three that lived, married, and left issue we now make mention.

The three were John Robinson, Elizabeth Robinson and Martha Robinson. John Robinson was born on the farm of his father, Thomas Robinson, in what is now Millford township, Juniata county, Pa., May 12, 1808, and died in the year 1879, on the farm near McAlisterville, and was buried at Lost Creek Presbyterian Church, in the congregation of which he served many years as a ruling Elder.

John was married to Miss Margaret Davidson, daughter of a Revolutionary Captain, who lived and died in Lost Creek Valley, and was buried in the U. P. grave yard, in Walker township, between the farms of Jacob Adams and Michael Schickler.

The issue of the marriage of John Robinson, and Margaret Davidson, was five children, namely: David Steel Robinson, born May 28, 1833, and who at this date, May 28, 1879, is living unmarried near East Salem, Juniata county, Pa.

The second child, Sarah Ann Robinson, was born August 25, 1835. On the 16th day of November, 1855, she was married to John A. Thompson, of Luthersburg, Clearfield county, Pa., and at this date, May 28, 1879, they are living and have three children, two boys, Milton and Howard, and one daughter.

The third child, Martha Jane Robinson, was born August 25, 1837. On the 4th of July, 1867, she was married to George Henschel. At this date, May 28, 1879, they live at Millersport, Perry county, in the tent. Mr. Jacob Henschel, landlord of the Broadway House, with whom the unfortunate was during his stay in town, took the dead man to his former house.

A skipping-rope was placed among the flowers of Kittle Boylan's coffin, in Clarke, Ohio. She had died from jumping 120 times without stopping.

Probably not less than sixty thousand idolaters in southern India cast away their idols and embraced Christianity in the year 1875.

In the Mississippi penitentiary there are over two hundred convicts who are imprisoned for life.

Major Little and his wife quarrelled while out riding at Easton, Me., and the excitement, Mrs. Little let her baby roll off her lap to be killed under the wheels of the wagon.

Eight years ago a man residing near Catawissa, named Henry Mathard was married and for some time appeared to live happily. Suddenly he disappeared and remained away for some weeks. When he returned his wife was gone and he failed to obtain any intelligence of her. He subsequently returned to his home, but week after week to the time of seven years, he re-appeared and had her husband arrested and bound over to appear at court for desertion.

Eliza Hampton was so particular in buying a revolver in a Buffalo store that the clerk inquired for what purpose she wanted it. "I am going to shoot my father-in-law and brother-in-law." The clerk thought he was joking, but he was not, for before eight he had lodged a bullet in each of those relatives.

A funeral procession in a Massachusetts town was halted on its way to the cemetery while the body was taken into a photographer's gallery and photographed.

A recent despatch from the town of Newark Vermont, relative to a terrible case of poisoning in that town says: "The latest reports state that nine of the children are dead. The supposed cause of the poisoning is the throwing of dead animals, a horse and a number of sheep, with potato tops poisoned by Paris green, into a brook which runs by the school house where the children attended school and drank of the water. They died within a few hours after drinking the water, and decomposition set in at once, making immediate burial necessary. Two severe cases of poisoning are reported, and it is not believed that any of the afflicted children can recover. There is talk of arresting the man on whose premises the carnage was thrown into the stream, who lives near the school house.

A despatch from San Francisco, California, May 28th, says: "About a quarter after 12 o'clock this morning some one called at the door of the Court House, at Bakersfield, Cal., and was answered by Juliet Reed, who was requested to open the door. Mr. Reed refused, and the man was forcibly broken in and about seventy five men entered. The jailer was ordered to throw up his hands, which he did. The keys were demanded but refused. Search was then made and the keys found. The mob then entered the cells containing Thomas and William Yokum, and lynched them by hanging them in their cells. William was chained to the floor of his cell. As the chains could not be loosened, he was hung with the chain on his feet. He was shot several times after having been hanged. The Yokums were in jail for the killing of Johnston and Tucker, at Long Tom, more than a year ago, but William Yokum had his trial and was convicted of murder in the first degree, but the Supreme Court ruled last week that he should have a change of venue, and his case was moved to Fresno county. The mob were all masked.

GENERAL ITEMS.

There is a young lady—a miss—of Ritchie county who recently gave birth to five children. The young man who is the author of her misfortune has since married her, and "all is well."

Among fifty-four persons baptized by the Rev. Henry Williams, Jr., at the basin in Petersburg, Va., on Sunday a week, was Burwell Lancaster, a colored man, who has been a deaf mute since infancy. When Lancaster was raised from the water after immersion, those around him were thunderstruck to hear him cry out: "Thank God! Thank God! These were the first words ever spoken by him, and probably will be the last, for he was subsequently unable to say anything. This is attested by the Petersburg Independent a truthful and self respecting journal.

The Emperor of Austria has been presented with a remarkable suit of clothes. The wool from which the garments were made was upon the sheep's back eleven hours before the suit was completed.
