

B. F. SCHWEIER,

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

A Fight With a Beau

Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XXXIII.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1879.

NO. 26.

Lorne's Family.

For six generations, from the thirteenth to the fifteenth century, the received the honor of knighthood as a matter of course. In 1445 Sir Duncan was created Lord Campbell, and his distinction of Earl of Argyle and Lord startied me. But, in a moment, noticing take us. Soon we came to a large corn-that his looks were directed towards the field, which was surrounded by a 'staked bir off and completed the completed t > and made him a Marquis. In 1701, the "Well, the end of her was that she be- tenth Earl was made Duke of Argyle, ame the the mother of all the owls-a me- Marquis of Lorne and Kintyre, Earl lancholy race! But now you know their Campbell and Cowal, Viscount Lochow their said voices and dismal ways, their and Glenilla, Baron Inverary, Mull, light and sunshine "And what did that naughty fairy do?"

"Oh, the fairy queen had condemne him to be a bird for a hundred years, or Earl of Green wich and Duke of Greenhe could get some human being to notice her for the first time.

Wishful?" he asked.

nie's dismal little voice was quite drowned.

The fullness of a merchant's store is not in anger.

the mare go before it. How doth the little busy wife improve each shining hour, and gad around the shops to herself as well as to every one about all day-at night done out and sour.

down is appearing on the chin of your boy,

down on your wrath, and you be cleaned out at your own game.

looked; but they never could find her-not a trace of her! And so they had to give her up for lost, and put up a big marble nent to her just under the very tree where the unfortunate Dolorosa used to sit head of this famous Campbell family tweeting in the branches. "The monument recorded what a sweet, good, amiable and obedient child the lost poor Dolorosa, from her melancholy perch grandson was made an earl, under the ould sit and read with ruffled feathers by him off and completed the cremation of the tweet in a more mournful way than ever. made a marquis by King Charles under Women are generally pretty smart ; but would cry so much that her brown eyes against the king and bis allies, and as afar off when it is set up for a free treat to the crowd. A word spoken in due season, how good just about right. "Remove not the old landmarks," plead-the farther end the two dogs, when he to the top of their speed. My little friend peel off and get into the bath pool at the

Agnes solemnly.

"Oh!" exchaimed the latter; "you are only begging the question;" and he passed on. The block of the turning it the scale of the e an agent for it. When a man slips in to get a sly nip and finds a crowd of his acquaintances there,

The motto of the gay old bachelor on the ation rolling down her cheeks. what there is on the table, regardless Providential aid in the contract.

ndicated by the beggarly account of empty

her. "How does it look?" demanded Mrs.

oblink, as she took a last glance over her shoulder at the mirror before leaving for the theater. "It" meant the bonnet, and Mr. Joblink, concealing his real feelings, replied, like a dutiful husband: "Splendid, my dear." The wind blew, and the soul of Mrs. Joblink took fright, and they stopped on the street while Mr. Joblink carefully tied his

In fact, her voice lost all its music, and she peculiar circumstances. He had fought sank deep into her head, with great rings late as 1640 had marched against the really couldn't bear the light of day upon the light of the upon the the light of the upon the the light of the upon the the upon "And was that the end of her?" asked ited Edinburg he sent for his foeman love of mouldering ruins, and their dread o Morven, and Tiry. A man, one would think might find it difficult to carry more title than these; but the second duke, in addition to his hereditary title Argyle, was created Baron Catham, when he met with such a silly girl as Dolo- he came to the ducal honors, by the titles of Viscount and Eurl of Isla and As he ceased speaking, Ronald suddenly Baron Orosaut, and Luri of Isla and Baron Orosaut, Duncon and Avrose-turned towards Wynnie and appeared to The fifth duke was made Baron Sun-bridge in his father's life-time; while "And what do you think about it, Mi the sixth duke, before coming into the "I think it's a very foolish story alto- chief honors of the family, sat in the her," said Wynnie, "and I do wish"- house of lords as Baron Hamilton. The But here all the group of cousins burst in-o such a peal of langhter that poor Wyn-aise had honors and distinctions showered upon them. They have borne the "I declare I'll never wish anything again titles of Earl of Athol, Earl of London, as long as I live," said she, turning away from the laughing circle with tears of vex-Baron Clyde, Baron Kintyre, Baron Campbell, Baroness Statheden, etc. It was about as good a resolution as she | The chiefs have been decorated with the could have made-though made hastily and Garter and the Thistle. They have exercised as much influence in English affairs as in Scotch. They have set up Still she really tried, and though the effort and overthrown kings; if they have was great and painful, and though she carried the crown at coronations, they failed very often, still trying on, she did fulled very often, still trying on, she did fulled by little, conquer the selfishness and held. One Argyle fell at Halidon Hill; another breathed his last at Flodden Field.

Electric Leis.

The gymmotus, or electrical cel, is rather nore serpentine in form than the comme sel, and frequently attains a great size. It is found in the rivers and marshes of South America, where the natives fish for it in a singular manner. M. Boupland describes a scene witnessed by him in one of the marshy pools of Venezuela, About 50 horses and nules were driven into the water by a num ber of Indians, who armed with long canes He had a flashy coat on, also a neck-is of pronounced that and he paid his tion of the Mirabeau feather, the Africaniatue was attained. The trampling of the horses, and the shorts of the produced a scene of wild excitement Writhing on the surface of the water, and gliding under the bellies of the horses, the If the new bonnet had been a tray of ling with pain and anguish, made frequent If the new bonnet had been a tray of China dishes Mrs. Joblink could not have four to six feet in length and livid in color, had the appearance of creat water scrpents, and one in particular was observed which discharged the whole power of its battery along the belly of a horse. In less than a towering twenty dollars' worth of trash on of the acress and mules had been benumbed and drowned, the greater number scrambled shore and recovered. The eels in their exhausted state were easily captured. The extraordinary power of the gymnotus was placed beyond doubt a few years ago when iving specimens of this fish were exhibited in the Adelaide Gallery and Polytechnic insti tution, London. The illustrious Faraday tool. the opportunity of experimenting upon it, and established to his own satisfaction the identity of its peculiar power with that of voltaic electricity of peculiar intensity The cel he experimented with was only 40 inches long, yet it produced a succession of shocks at short intervals, affected the galvanometer and imparted magnetism to iron. A Large Plug.

Sternly to meet the coming storm ; Yet round that sapless trunk will twine The curling tendrils of the vine. FLUID EXTRACT And life and freshness there impart. Not to the passion-blighted heart. My life is like the desert rock, In the midocean, lone and drear, Worn by the wild waves' ceaseless shock That round its base their surges rear Yet there the sea-moss still will cling, Some flower will find a cleft to spring, And breathe e'en there a sweet perfume

WHAT MY LIFE IS LIKE.

My life is like the shattered wreck.

The broken mast, the rifted deck, Tell of the shipwreck that is o'er ; Yet from the relics of the storm

The mariner his raft will fo m

My life is like the blighted oak.

Again to tempt the faithless sea ;

But hope rebuilds no barque for me-

That lifts its sere and withered form,

Scathed by the lightning's sudden stroke,

Cast by the waves upon the shore

For me life's flowers no more will bloom My life is like the desert waste, By human footsteps seldom pressed ; The eye no freshuess there can trace ; No verdant spot, on which to rest ;

Yet e'en among these sands so drear The stork will tend her young with care-

E'en there the notes of joy impart,

But naught can cheer my lonely heart.

The Dalton Mystery.

able joy to me to encounter him, to make

knew he had been hiding away, battling vainly-to thrust me out of his heart.

him fall in love with me over again, when I was twenty-three when I inherited Wolfs-

PHARMACEUTICAL.

BUCHU

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR ALL

DISEASES

OF THE

BLADDER & KIDNEYS.

panion, a widow of sixty. Mrs. Latimer, less and wild, told of mental wandering, and we settled down in the new house very and her hair heavily streaked with gray, happily. There was no lack of pleasant her wrinkled cheeks and bent figure seemed gentleman residing near us. But the first person to welcome me was Ralph Dalton, in my recognition of Mrs. Dalton. who had been my uncle's close friend for years, and who lived upon the next place to mine. He held for me some private letters, some jewels of my grandmother's, if I am shut up. Day and night he calls

For Debility, Loss of Memory, Indisposi-tion to Exertion or Business, Shortness of Breath, Troubled with Thoughts of Disease, Dinness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Chest, and Head, Rush of Blood to the Head, Pale Conntenance, and Dry Skin. If these symptoms are allowed to go on, very frequently Epileptic Fits and Con-semption follow. When the constitution becomes affected it requires the aid of an invigonaring medicine to strengthen and tone up the system—which so that I cannot go. ing. They told me he was dead," she hundred pounds. years older than myself-forty I judge-without great personal attraction. His sleeplessness. Breathing in a confined or tie of pronounced tint, and he paid his tion of the Mirabeau feather, the Afghanis-"Why does he not come, then?" overheated apartment is also a not unusual features were large and gave an impression of strength; he was tall and broad-shoul-I heard, still far off, a step I knew wel tan hangle and the Zuln bow. Before reachcause of broken slumber. The temperature $10 fine with the air of a man who was "Helmbold's Buchu' most suitable for sleep is about sixty degrees, liquidating the National debt. He ing the theater a place in deep shadow gave "Perhaps he will come soon," I said Bayard the French physiologist, maintained that man is an animal who exercises the thinking faculty best in a backching best on admits of a moderate amount of backching best passed on the best posture dered. I have heard him called an ugiv Shall we wait here for him ?" man, but his large, melanchoty brown eyes The step came nearer, then turned into were beautiful. He was grave to sadness. horizontal position. Thus, there are bedeiothing being used. The best posture rank, they said. He insisted on treatother path. and reserved to a fault; yet once the ici high artistic, social and intellectual use connected with an occasional day in bed, which imperatively claim dissh "Does he know we are here?" of his reticence was broken, he could con-DOES IN EVERY CASE. sked, with wistful, pleading eyes. verse easily and gracefully upon any topic, "Suppose you call," I answered. passing far beyond my poor attainments in in bed, which imperatively claim dis-cussion. Brinley, the great engineer, when he was fairly puzzled by some tough problem, always betook himself to bed until he had solved it. Most peo-action of snoring. Going to sleep while In a moment she obeyed me. the scope of his study and the wide range of his reading. He was as gentle as a wo sh "Ralph, dear Ralph, I am here!" man, and his voice, full, rich and exquisit HELMBOLD'S Quickly the steps followed the voice, an ly modulated was perfect music. I loved him utterly-I who had been cold to all talph Dalton came towards us. ple have a great kindness for Lord lying on the back should be avoided, as cials, ch? Trying to impair the integ- aware of the triumphant fact that every suitors, and self-resolved to maintain ever But the woman clung to me, Melbourne, who, under the affectation besides inducing the sleeper to snore, it is rity of the law's servants, are you? female eye and lorgnette in the house was of frivolity, used to get up Hebrew and the Fathers and impeturbable good humy maiden freedom. What did he love in me? Something that "He will shut me up?" was a reflex of his own nobility, for I was the Fathers and impeturbable good hu-IS UNEQUALED Then Ralph spoke, gently, tenderly the Fathers and impeturbable good hu-mor to bear with his wife, Lady Carol-ine, while the pretty Byron-struck termagant used to smash the drawing-room furniture. His intimate friends would find the Premler calmly taking ommonplace enough elsewhere Mother, you will be ill again! Com im I wakened to new thoughts of philan me with me By any romedy known. It is prescribed by throphy, of self-cuiture, and my whole soul was elevated and found strength in in-Mother! His mother! I could not help it. My heart gave such a glad bound, my lips world, in tercourse with him. I was fair of face, would follow its dictates. they told me who wooed me, and I was "Oh, Ralph, is this your mother?" "Yes," he answered gravely, "my widd strated largers as a fair of inspiration on him he had a fit of inspiration on him he would keep the servants running about for him all through the night." breakfast in bed, with letters and de- mentally repeating a familiar poem or ed a horse radish man for a champagne bent the glad if Ralph,s eyes found pleasure in my rried. Rheumatism, benuty. Spermatorrhoza, But I had not been a week at Wolfsto Neuralgia, before I heard of some mystery in Ralph's her husband, dead ten years ago. Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, It had never received a pretty name but was spoken of simply as "Dalton's." You told me he was not dead," she said, Constipation, The house was large, yet no visitor ever Aches and Pains, stopped there. Ralph was reputed weal-General Debility, thy yet he offered no hospitality, even one Kidney Disease meal, to his friends. said Ralph. Liver Complaint He found rest and pleasure with us Nervous Debility, knowing we could not visit them, and I Epilepsy, Head Troubles, wered. The prisoner paid and leaned back for, owing to the sudden descending darts or of the thriftiest type. The sight of a think our intercourse was a bright, happy He made amends to them by the plen which they kindle for the purpose. Certain on the railing as he put the roll of bills of the bonnet toward Mr. J., the view of one to him, lifting him out of some habitua Paralysis, General III-Health But she clung to me, and I whispered : teousness of his "vails." We take a drugs act as an opiate and produce sleep away. There clearly was something the stage was frequently cut off at the most melancholy, until he wakened to the know-"Lead the way; we will follow you," and so, supporting his mother, now feeble teousness of his "valls." We take a later instance. Bismarck says, accord-ing to Doctor Busch, "I was troubled with varicose veins in 1866. I lay full length on the bed, and had to answer ledge that he loved me, and was terror Spinal Diseases, stricken. with fatigue, I entered Ralph's house for Sciatica, Just in one flash of his soft eyes, one in Deafness. the first time. flection of his harmonious voice, 1 read his secret, and answered it. In a moment he Decline, Past the rooms where he lived, cheerless Lumbago, nd cold, we went up to a floor luxurious length on the bed, and had to answer letters of a very desperate sort with a eningly at him. was ice ! He apologized for having forgot "What, sir?" Catarrh, furnished, where two women were al-At the close of the play Mrs. Joblink exten the respect due to me, and with stiff, white lips, and a choked, hard tone I had "Ain't you a-gois' treat ?" It's only Nervous Complaints, experiences when lying in bed. "I used to lie awake full of all sorts of thoughts and troubles. Then Var-zin would suddenly come up before ady pouring out apologies for their neg-Female Complaints, &c. ect of their charge. never heard pass his lips before, he bade Ralph, with a few stern words, left them me farewell and was gone. Headache. Pain in the Shoulders, Congh. Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Eruptions, Bad Faste in the Mouth, Paipitation of the Heart, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a thomsand other painful symptoms, are the off-prings of Dyspepsia. ad I remained with his mother until she I was stunned, then enraged ! How slept, worn out with wandering for hours, dared he, I thought, win my love to scorn it! Then I wept for him. I knew my as we ascertained later. proachful glance at the Bench. gentleman was much impressed by the play. zin would suddenly come up before Then I went down stairs to the library. me, perhaps distinct in the minutest "Judge," he murmured, "I don't and thought silently over it half the way Interesting Experiment pain was less than his, because his natur want 'o say you're smail; I don't want home. Mrs. Joblink was also occupied Ralph was there ; and upon his face was particulars, like a great picture, with A curious phenomenon of the defracwas deeper, more intense in all things, than light of some new resolve. I short even all its colors fresh-the green tion of light may readily be observed to say you're a mean man. Oh, no' but with thought. Presently Mr. Joblink said I will observe that I never spent so in a tone of warm approval: phrases, full of deep earnestness, he told trees, the sun shine on the stems, the by any one with a lamp and two visit-I would not pine for any man, I thought, "It held the attention of the audience e at last of his love. blue sky above. I saw every individ- ing cards. Cut out of one of the cards and dashed into every gayety available in "My father was fatally hurt, my mother much money in any house before withthroughout; didn't it ?" our circle. But my flirtations were wasted, Helmbold's Buchu as he did not see them, and my heart was jured, as you see, by a railway accident," out the boss treatin'. That's all." "Yes, indeed," simpered the lady, "there ual there. I struggled to shake the a shit about one-tenth of an inch wide, said: "but before he died my father He went off, the picture of despondthing off; and when at last I ceased to with straight, even borders. Then sick for a look from his tender eyes. exacted from me a promise to care for my see it, other things came in-reports, take a position about twenty feet from blushed for myself when I stole out at dntk ency. mother myself. He died several days after and crossed our garden to look in at the window of his study to watch him. He notes, despatches, and so on; but I fell a kerosene lamp, with the edge of the Invigorates the Stomach, receiving the wounds that caused his death, over about morning." Bismarck at flame standing edgewise towards you, and in that time he knew that my mother's The Wishing Bird. was paler, graver than ever, bending over Versailles used to lie in bed a great look at the flame through the slit in the reason was gone for life. To-day she is his books for an hour at a time without deal, "because he cannot keep himself card, while you slide the edge of the And stimulates the torpid Liver, Bowels, juite, to-morrow she may be violent, rav-"In vain she tried to speak. She found get one just like it." And stimulates the torphi Liver, to cleansing and kilneys to healthy action, in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparing new life and vigor to the whole system. A single trial will be quite sufficient to convince the most hesitating of its valuable remedial qualities. turning a leaf, or walking up and down ng, a sight of horror. Could I ask any other card across it till you make the that she could utter no sound but a melanreasonably warm in any other way." with folded arms and bowed head, musing woman I loved to share my life, my care? slit in the card quite narrow. You choly kind of little twitter. 'Why, like mine," replied the lady. The Boy and the Deer. "At the foot of the tree was a mischie "Yes," I answered frankly; "for if she will then see the central bright band of "Like your what !" How a boy captured a deer in Kentucky the flame flanked on each side with the ously-looking fairy, holding both his sides loved you, it would be her happiness to "Like my bonnet, of course, you stupid I had been six month at Wolfston, and give comfort, to lighten this burden of it thus told by an eye witness. "In an colored defraction bands; and if you with laughter, the snow covered the ground when Mrs. "Farewell. May you enjoy your liberty, The strong man pulled out his handker-Latimer imparted to me the first piece of he cried, as he pointed his finger in derision at the unfortunate Dolorsa sitting with ruf-He saw that I was in carnest, that it was hour or so we first heard the distant bay of look successively through red, green chief and blew his nose gossip I ever heard fall from her lips. no girlish enthusiasm, but a woman's dethe hounds. From the cry, as it continued and violet glasses, held between the "You remember that Mr. Dalton who the hounds. From the cry, as it commence the deer seemed to be circling around in the hills, instead of making a straight run for the river as was usual. We remained almost stationary, not knowing which course when viewed through the green glass, wanted to be in my place, mind! And How the Apostles Died. votion I offered him, and clasped me by PRICE $1 PER BOTTLE came here so often when we were first Peter was crucified in Rome, and, at the hand. here?" she asked me, as we lingered over "Can you bear it ?" he asked." a late breakfast. "Loving you, I can," I answered. Or Six Bottles for $5. I nodded assent. the hunt would take, and the music became less and less, until we heard the long bay glass is held before the eye. But, after all, it was not required of me. you'll have no stupid lessons to do any go where you like without asking anybody's he hung two days, exhorting the peo-"My dear, he has a crazy wife shut up Mrs. Dalton took a heavy cold from that permission, and every wish that you exa that gloomy house of his." night of exposure and wandering, and in of one hound only. But to our great joy, Delivered to any address free from observa length of time the game had been afoot, we concluded that the dogs had become tired and left the trail, with the exception of the staunch old hound, whose voice we could occasionally hear as he unflinchingly followed the quarry. Nearer and nearer to staurer, and the line extends one hun-"Nonsense!" I said, sharply, while my less than a month from that January mora-ing, her life-seeking was over and she had length of time the game had been afoot, A Pipe Line. tion. "Patients" may consult by letter, receiv-ing the same attention as by calling, by answering the following questions: rain seemed aflame. "But Mrs. Reynolds told me! She gone to find her "Ralph" in a brighter says that Mrs. Dalton has a whole suit of But my Ralph has been my husband for five long years, and his face has lost its careworn gravity, his voice its monotone of 1. Give your name and post-office address, county and State, and your nearest express office ? 2. Your age and sex ? 3. Occupation ? upper rooms, two women to wait upon her, every care and indulgence, but that she is followed the quarry. Nearer and nearer in diameter, and the line extends one hun-came the sound. We dismounted, tight-dred miles over a rough country, including and left poor Dolorosa to sit, and twitter, 2. Your age and set ?

3. Occupation ?
4. Married or single ?
5. Height, weight, now and in health?
6. How long have yon been sick ?
7. Your complexion, color of hair and eyes?
8. Have your a stooping or erect gait?
9. Echate without reservation all you know agont your case. Enclose one dollar as consultation fee. Your letter will then precive our attention, and we wild give you the nature of your disease and our candid the induced on concerning a cure. violent maniac." careworn gravity, his voice its monotone of "But he would not pass himself of for a happiness, where there is no sorrow, no ened girths and waited Our horses were high hills and rugged mountains. Though and mourn her foolishness and her cruel single man-" I began. "Who ever heard him say whether he ened girths and waited Our horses were as highly excited as ourselves, and we could with difficulty curb their impatience. We were stationed on the high road leading to-ward the village, and the deer was evi-dently running in that direction. At length ryville, and the other at Condersport, Pot-ryville, and the other at Condersport, Pot-ryville, and the other at Condersport, Potinful mystery. was man ed or single?" was the reply "He never talked about himself." About a Crow. Which was strictly true. So this was the solution of the mystery! he came, a noble buck, gallantly bounding ter county, 221 miles from Corryville. The chubby hand on her brother's knee. A tame crow awoke up the summ This was the reason why, when we met in boarders at a house at Boothbay Point, Me., through the woods in a line parallel with the road, and not more than a hundred yards away from us. We put spurs to our horses Competent Physicians attend to corres the woods or lanes, he was restained and by getting upon the roof and letting stones "There is no more," said pondents. All leiters should be addressed to Dispensatory, 1217 Filbert treet, Phila delphia, Pa. cold, until, little by little, I woke the lovedrop from his beak. These stones roll "That's the end of the story." light in his his eyes, the tender tones of his down the roof and make a lively clatter, away from ds. We put spirs to our notes: to winnansport indic is a finite state of a "Poor Dolorosa!" said Agnes. voice, and was happy, until some warning roused him to his own happiness, and he which arouses the lodgers in time to enable H. T. HELMBOLD, them to dress for breakfast. The crow, "Never," said her brother, solemnly would leave abruptly, as if caught in some for pay for his trouble, steals all the tobac the woods, and was almost crazed with ex-the buildings for one have been some time "And what did her mamma and papa citement. As he rode by my side he looked in progress. Others will follow if the pipe do? Didn't they come and look for her f" Druggist and Chemist, co pipes he finds on the windowsills. net hard to break. Philadelphia, Pa. A mad wife! Truely I have played a any sick woman re-cover $\rightarrow A$ new (as big as an elephant.' On we drove, oc-dress. (as big as an elephant.' On we drove, oc-dress.) (as big as an elephant.' On we drove, oc-casionally catching a glimpse of the buck already projected. ("Oh! yes, "Oh! yes, of course, they came and ed by order of Nero. noble part to win the love that belonged to the poor creature wasting her life a prisoner in her own house! I was humbled to the dress. SOLD EVERYWHERE

I knew there was a mystery in Raiph Dalton's house, a shadow over his life, as the cy white scarf about my head, I went to walk. Perhaps this feverish unrest leaped at him so fiercely at to divert the hoofs, legs, arms, boy, deer and dog were monster's attention from myself and make rather promiscuously mixed in a cloud of would be quieted in the crisp winter air. I struck into a grove of trees that stood him miss his bite. He reared, and as he dust that enveloped them when I came my own grounds, and was pacing slow- again came down on his fore-feet, and was sight. I sprang from my horse and drew with my influence over him, striving-and by forward, when I heard a stealthy step in the act of going over the bank, I plunged my hunting knife across the throat of the my knife to the hilt into his body, in the animal, at the same time seizing the boy by beside me, and turning quickly, saw a woregion of his heart. He turned and made a the collar and drawing him away. After It was no boy and g rl infatuation, for I man keeping near me, watching me. terrible snap at my legs, but at the moment resting a few minutes he told me that, see-My very heart seemed to cease its pulsa ton from my uncle; a stately old house, tions, for she was richly dressed in a loose, I fell backward over a bush, and so we all ing the deer rush past him, he could not rewent into the bayou together, floundering sist the temptation, but threw himself off with extensive grounds, named from some flowing garment of silk, quilted and warm, in the water and mud. old-world estate in our family. I found a but hare-headed, and with only thin slip-I scrambled to the edge of the slough, mal, clasping his arnss round his neck. housekeeper, and brought with me a com- pers on her slender feet. Her eyes, restand watched with intense anxiety the result | The shock threw the deer to the ground.

of the battle. In another moment and We put the dead animal on one of the when the bear had nearly reached the horses, and rode through the village, and ety, and I had attention from many to tell an eloquent story of premature age heard a rushing sound and the whirring flight of more of the pack as they sprang "Hush! she said, coming close to me.

of their glare in the sunlight.

over me. In the same instant, a flash shot 'If you make a noise they will find me out from the brown barrel of Harvey's rifle, and the bear rolled over, though he still tary state, it may be greatly promoted by and shut me up. And I cannot go to Ralph feebly fought the pack, and kept on fight - maintaining a good state of health, by daily me to come to him, and the doors are barred ing to the last moment of his existence. To my mortification, an examination of the with the face exposed to the air; by having I put my hand upon her arm, saying huge carcass showed that my shot had not the stomach free from a heavy meal or any made any visible mark on the animal, and indigestible substance, and by the mind "But if you go home Ralph is there." that my knife had not quite reached his being undisturbed with cares. Over-fatigue "No, he went away long ago-so very heart. Harvey's shot had killed him. The __indulgence in food or drink beyond what weight of the savage animal was over five nature requires, want of proper exercise whispered. "Did you hear he was dead?" "No, he is not dead," I answered. and mental disquietude, are all causes of

as he dashed through the woods. He was Misapplied Quotations. Just at daybreak, we came to a crossing hard and he had probably run twenty miles The ear of charity is as deaf as an adder at work on a long column of figures.

devotion, his involuntary faithlessness; and of the bayou where we felt sure the bear before he arrived at the point where we or her-oh, I pitied her-his wife and ! But I had my task now-to conquer the sont the dogs and himself. A fallen in sight, and as he saw us he burst into such in sight, and as he saw us he burst into such in sight and there are the same burst into such in sight and the same burst into such in sight and as he saw us he burst into such in sight and the same burst into such in sight and as he saw us he burst into such in sight and the same burst into such in sight and as he saw us he burst into such in sight and the same burst into such in sight and as he saw us he burst into such in sight and as he saw us he burst into such in sight and the same burst into such in sight and as he saw us he burst into such in sight and same burst into such inscrable love in my own heart, to tear tree was in my front, and through its inter- a melody that we joined him at the utmost Old age comes on apace in harness, and laced roots I could see in every direction. stretch of our lungs. On we pressed, rapat a good round gait. Hardly had we completed our ambush idly approaching the village, directly when a quick movement of one of the dogs through which the chase seemed fated to The boy stood on the burning deck that he had hauled from the fire, where his father

Ralph the assurance of his love. I would startled me. But, in a moment, noticing take us. Soon we came to a large corncross. I too looked thither, and heard the and ridered' fence six feet high. We could vile cards. sound of a heavy animal sauntering slowly not jump it, and looked to see where the sound of a heavy animal same range sound of a heavy animal same range deer had gone in. We found the place, and they cannot held a candle to a can of keromy lair. In an instant a pair of yellow tearing off the top rail leaped our horses in-eyes glared at me, and with as wide a look to the corn. Rushing through we arrived vitation of the sene with safety.

of surprise as there was in mine. Re-covering myself I fired at the monster, which appeared like a huge, animated black fence. The dog was close at his heels and Virtue is its own regard : but a little besides, that will buy something, is generally The old bummer smelleth the bottle from cloud as he rose up before me. The brute sprang upon him, and catching him by the disappeared with the smoke of my gun, but flank prevented his leap. The poor animal it is when it strikes the man with the bill exploded. Looking in the direction that the bear had taken, I saw he had run along We turned likewise and taking different the other side of the fallen tree and met at furrows among the corn, pressed our horses ed the venerable tramp when they bid him sked little May. turned about and came toward me at his rode between me and our companion. He "I beg of you, have you a few cents for most rapid speed and in savage humor. rode leaning over his horse's neck, gazing starving man ?" asked a tramp of a pedes-Mrs. Latimer had toid me-"It was all Then there was a fearful crash and rush. straight ahead and yelling like a madman. trian on Vine street recently. puite perfect, my dear; but you look pale The black mass came on, with eyes gleam- I thought of a raving lunatic. The corn ing, and bewildering me with the reflection was high and the dust so thick from the f their glare in the sunlight. I was conscious that my gun was useless, I could see nothing, but all at once I heard The blood of the turnip is the seed of the aurch in some stingy instances. When at home do as the home 'un

Beware of the man with one book, if he

his first thought is, "Defend me from my friends.

shady side of life is, The Guard dyes, but never surrenders. At many of the cheap clothing auction there is a great cry and little wool. God helps them who help themselves The lunch fiend takes heart and goes for boxes which he permits to block the side-

All the world's a stage, and money makes

Father, at that critical period when the

when his changing voice is constantly get ting out of gear, when he is experiencing

his first dreams of love, and he is peculiar sensitive, be careful in your bearing to wards him, and govern your temper, practice forbearance, for fear the son may go

---The Judge's Turn.

But it was a resolution which our spoiled child found it not a little hard to keep. The Johink Bonnet.

farther side of the pool, desparately fight- our young gentleman was the hero of the ing with the dogs every inch of the way, I Springs the rest of the season. About Sleep.

and so instinctively grasped my pistol, but a crash, a struggle, a shout :

For a second, despair came upon me, but a quick !'

sudden revulson aroused every sense and found it hopelessly entangled in my belt. " Twe got him! I've got him! Come prompted me to a defence for life. Quickly young lunatic on the ground was struggling drawing my knife, it was presented at a with the deer. Fortunately the animal was

"I rode toward the voice, and lo! the

so exhausted by his long run that the boy

his horse upon the back of the hunted ani-him some womanly care in his desolated home. I would wake sobbing from dreams of his pain. I stole often to the hedge in the garden and watched how he grew paler the garden and wateried now he give part and sadder, and my prayers for him were more earness than they had ever been for myself. The same of the the same of the

It was after the New Years festivities,

and I had shaken hands with Ralph at my reception, and smiled into his haggard face

with what I felt was a very wintry imitation of joyous greeting. I had crept away to weep after all my guests were gone, and

and tired. You had better sleep late to-

And I had tossed sleeplessly till dawn.

A bright winter dawn, with the sun beating

on the hard, frozen ground, and not a breath of wind stirring. I was up early

"I stole down stairs, before even the ser-

ants were out of their rooms, and wrap-

and out. The room seemed to stifle me.

DOTTON

very dust, though conscious of my own innocence of any intention of wronging her.

My heart ached for both, for his generous away, one by one, the sweet dreams I had cherished of the time I would break down the barrier that separated up, and win from

not cross the grave to my own happiness,

I would not love him, but oh, how my neart ached for his misery! If only he could be my brother, that I might assure him of my sympathy, comfort him, give

and what but death could free him?

for her-oh, I pitied her-his wife and !

Deacon B. was a Connecticut shop keep customer quickened his faculties into vigor ous exercise. This was his way of opening "An! how d'ye do sir i you're Mi

"Bennet is my name." "To be sure ; why of course ; I'm glad see you ; you're Mr. Bennet of-"Westboro

"Ohlyes, I know; how are they all getting along in Westboro' f Is your church prospering? And how does your Sunday chool progress ?

"Pretty well, I thank you. Dencon B., have you any tobacco?

"Why, yes, the finest you ever tasted me and look at it."

"There," says the Dencon, leading the way to a sample keg, and taking from it a huge plug, cutting off a large piece and putting it inside his check with the air of a man who was about to partake of an exquiwasn't one of them could keep their eyes site relish-the Deacon abhorred the weed "there," he exclaimed, is the choicest tooff it for five minutes." "It was magnificent," cried Mr. Joblink. --"there," he exclaimed, is the choicest to bacco that ever was grown. That tobacco.

"Gracious, I didn't know you admired it sir, is so good that it oughtn't to be chewed except on Thanksgiving days and Sundays! As soon as the Deacon hall made a sale, o much, Joblink. You see, though, if that hateful Mrs. Blinkenberry doesn't go and he contrived to get where he could eject the "Like what?" asked the foolish Joblink. unsavory quid without being observed, and, returning to his customer, loquired, "Now, Mr. Bennet, what else shall I have the pleasure of showing you ?

The Great Hungarian Wine Cask.

The great cask of Heidelberg contained 140,000 liters of wine; at the Paris Exhibition of 1878 was one exhibited, which is nearly as large, having a capacity of 100. his own request, with his head down- 000 liters. The great cask has been sold to ward. Andrew was crucified by being a Frenchman, for whom it was made by bound to a cross with cords, on which Nozy Kanizss. It measures 3-65 meters in against a pillar. St .Bartholomew was in boilers. The cask is supported by five flayed to death by command of a bar- logs, each of which is derived from an oak hayed to death by command of a bar-barous king. St Matthew was killed with a halberd. St Thomas, while at prayer, was shot with a shower of lit is varnished, and the end in which the lances, and afterward run through the large bronze faucet is inserted is carved like body with a lance. St. Simon was cru- a piece of fine parlor furniture. The lower cified. Thaddeus, or Judas, was part is laid out to resemble stone masonry. cruelly put to death. St. Matthias; the On the left hand side there is a motto prais manner of his death is somewhat doubt ful; one says stoned, then behended. ful; one says stoned, then beheaded; 1878. The middle portion of the head is another says he was crucified. Judas beantiful carved, containing in its centre a another says he was the transferred burger of the same of the same

