

B. F. SCHWEIER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

The Democracy of this county are about to engage in the publication of certificates expressive of individual views on the late Convention, and expressive of their views on a change from the Delegate System to a change from the late Convention, and expressive of their views on a change from the Delegate System to a change from the late Convention...

Last Thursday the Republicans of Maine nominated D. F. Davis for Governor. In its resolutions on the money question it expresses its belief "now, as always, in good honest money for the people, and it opposes an irredeemable paper currency as the worst curse that can be inflicted upon a nation."

During the Democratic State administration of 1853, there was an over-issue of nearly one hundred thousand dollars of State bonds. Whether it was a mistake, or whether it was a clear case of embezzlement, is not clear. If a Republican administration had done such a thing, it would be called a steal.

It is said that the Shermans like the plain ways of the European aristocracy. A correspondent of McClure's Weekly Times says: "I had a visit to the official quarters of Prince Bismarck. From the description of the offices would not do for a messenger in Washington. General Sherman said he found the old Minister in a large room without a carpet. Think of that! without a carpet, you twelve hundred-dollar clerks, whose footsteps tread the floorways of Palestine on carpets that cost six dollars a yard in these cheap times! At a course pine table, covered with books and papers, sat Bismarck in a hard chair. Now him, at a similar table, was his secretary. No mirrors, costly hundreds of dollars, no fine paintings, no lace curtains."

The Democrats in Congress have quite a time expending over what they shall do with Senator Bayard. He is being taken such a stand in favor of honest money. Senator Bayard is an honest man, the son of honest stock, and cannot help favoring honest money, and that's the very reason the whitewashed Democratic leaders in Congress are fighting him. Such men as Senator Bayard among Democratic leaders are scarce.

The gathering of the Journalists by the shore of the sea, at Cape May last week, was the largest assembly of editors that ever convened in one body. Such assemblies must, in the nature of things, be productive of good results.

Southern newspapers insist on it, that the leaders of the South are not in Congress. That's just what the man from Texas said. He said it is nothing but backbone or stubbornness that the Democracy have in Congress.

GREENBACKS ARE RUMOROUS IN MAINE. They are now flowing nearly the entire Democratic party. Their candidate for Governor, J. L. Smith, is said to be a bondholder, and when he touches hard pan, is a hard money man.

WHEN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY came into power the National paper could not find people to take it at 12 per cent; now the people are glad to take it at 4 per cent.

PROTESTANT school houses are now scarce occasionally in Ireland. The Bibles found are thrown into the sea. And yet the Irish people clamor for home rule and independence.

Veto of the Judiciary Bill.

The President considers it an effort to Defeat the Enforcement of a Law.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The following is the text of the President's message vetoing the bill which it refers: To the House of Representatives.—After a careful examination of the bill entitled "An act making appropriations for certain judicial expenses," I return it herewith to the House of Representatives, in which it originated, with the following objections to its approval.

The general purpose of the bill is to provide for certain judicial expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, for which the sum of $2,690,000 is appropriated.

It is not thought by the bill before me to repeal the election laws. Its object is to repeal the enforcement of the law. The last clause of the first section is as follows: "And no part of the money hereby appropriated is appropriated to pay any salaries, compensation, fees or expenses under or in virtue of title 25 of the Revised Statutes, or of any provision of said title."

The effect of the bill is to deprive the Executive Department of the government of the means to execute laws which have not been repealed, which have not been declared invalid, and which is therefore the duty of the Executive and of every other department of the government to obey and to enforce.

I have in my former message on this subject expressed a willingness to concur in suitable amendments for the improvement of the election laws, but I cannot consent to this absolute and entire repeal, and cannot approve legislation which seeks to prevent their enforcement.

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, EXECUTIVE MESSAGES, JUNE 28, 1879. NINETEEN CENTS PER COPY ARE TURNED OUT OF THE SHOPS OF THE HARRISBURG COMPANY.

Near Titusville, Pa., when Mrs. Jas. Devin went to put her five-year-old boy to bed, he was missing, and a twilight search found him drowned in an eight-foot oil tank.

One of the patients at the asylum committed suicide, last Friday morning. He was among a gang of men from that institution who were engaged in fencing in the lot of ground above town which was reclaimed from swamps by under-drainage.

Last Wednesday William Cunningham was killed near Birmingham, Hunt county, Pa. An exchange party was held in the following manner: His body was found in a well, and it was considered a case in favor of his escape.

Jacob Leatherman, a farm hand, was killed by lightning while lying in a barn at Palestine, N. Y., last Thursday.

R. M. Wilson, of Morgan county, Ky., cut a bee-tree last week which was three and one half feet in diameter and contained ten feet of solid honey.

A RARE CHANCE.

To a man who desires to make farming and stock-raising his business, this is the greatest bargain in Juniata county. Three Hundred Acres and more, having thereon a large Brick Dwelling House in good condition, Barn and other outbuildings; a running stream of water near the door, also, good well water in yard; an Orchard of 8 acres, as good as any in the county; a grove of 50 maple trees, which, if attention were directed to, could be turned into a source of income, as such groves are in Somerset county, this State, and as such groves are in New England, good timber on the farm. The farm will produce 40 to 50 tons of hay annually, and grow grain of all kinds. There is an abundance of LIMESTONE on the farm.

We repeat, this is the greatest bargain now offered in this county, to the man who has energy, and desires to farm and raise stock. To such a man, who has moderate sum of money for first payment, there is a rare chance to secure a property, that in the nature of things must increase in value gradually, for the period of a full generation yet to come. Time, 5 to 7 years, to suit purchaser. If you have the inclination, the means, and the luck to develop one of the finest tracts of land in the county, call at this office for particulars.
