HOME

Home will be just what we make it, Clothed in sorrow or in joy ; Love, if pure-no powers can break i , Nor its peaceful life annoy.

Darkness always gathers strongest Where love's power is little known; Ti ere its shadow dwells the longest. As a tyrant on a throne.

In the garret or the palace, Home is home, where'er it be. Love should rule it free from malice, Spreading peace and barmony,

Pleasant words at home returning. Bring kind answers back again ; Each from each be ever bearing-Love is its bright golden chain

Oh how grand, arrayed in beauty, When love's power guide: all at home As a sentinel on duty,

It remains whate er may come Loving hearts are over ready To add pleasures every day; By their life power, firm and steady

Blessing all within their way. May love's sun be ever shining, In each home o'er all the land By its mystic grace entwining Heart to heart and hand to hand.

Flowing onward as a river : In its silent majesty : God's true presence to deliver Hearts and homes from misers
