Port Royal, Oct. 25, 1879.

Editor Sentinel and Republican : Sir, , too, was up to the county seat when the Democratic County Convention met, on the 16th of June, 1879, and like every observing man in the convention, whether as a delegate or as spectator, I was deeply impressed with the effort that was made to lift the Democracy of this county out of the deep slough into which it has floundered, on to the true American idea or plan of gov ernment, that of POPULAR SOVER-EIGNTY, or majority rule by a popular vote. It was a grand effort that was made in its favor; but art, machine politics, prevailed, and the ques-
