Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XXXIII.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1879.

NO. 48.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT

BUCHU.

PHARMACEUTICAL.

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR ALL

DISEASES

OF THE

For Debility, Loss of Memory, Indisposi-tion to Exertion or Business, Shortness of Breath, Troublet with Thoughts of Bisease, Dimiess of Vision, Pain in the Back, Chest, and Brad, Rusin of Blood to the Head, Pale Counterance, and Dry Skin.

If these symptoms are allowed to go on, very frequently Epileptic Fits and Con-sumption follow. When the constitution becomes affected it requires the sid of an invigorating medicine to strengthen and lone up the system—which

"Helmbold's Buchu"

DOES IN EVERY CASE.

IS UNEQUALED

By any remedy known. It is prescribed by the most eminent physicians all over the world, in Rheumatism. Spermatorrhoa, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Dyspepsia,

Indigestion. General Debility, Kidney Diseases, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy, Head Troubles,

Paralysis, General III-Health. Spinal Diseases, Beiatica, Deafness. Decline, Lumbago, Catarrh, Nervous Complaints, Female Complaints, &c. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Congh. Dizziness, Sour Stemach, Eruptions, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the region of the Ridneys, and a thousand other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

Helmbold's Buchu

Invigorates the Stomach,

And stimulates the torpid Liver, Bowels, and Kidneys to healthy action, in cleaning the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

A single trial will be quite saidleight to convince the most hesitating of its valuable remedial qualities.

PRICE $1 PER BOTTLE on the word of an under-gardener seems

Or Six Bottles for $5.

Delivered to any address free from observation.
"Patients" may consult by letter, receiv-ing the same attention as by calling, by answering the following questions:

1. Give your name and post-office address office?
2. Your age and sex?

2. Your age and sex?
2. Georgation?
4. Married or single?
5. Height, weight, now and in health?
6. How long have you been sick?
7. Your complexion,color of hair and eyes?
8. Have you a stooping or erect gait?
9. Relate without reservation all you know agont your case. Enclose one dollar as consultation fee. Your letter will then receive our attention, and we will give you the nature of your d'sease and our candid opinion concerning a cure.
Competent Physicians attend to correspondents. All letters should be addressed to Dispensatory, 1217 Filbert treet, Phila cliphia, Pa.

H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist and Chemist, Philadelphia, Pe.

SOLD EVERYWHEEK

ALONE.

She stands beside the cottage door To watch the dying day, il r raven hair is sprinkled o'er With flakes of silver grey;

ed many a line of sadness sears That pale yet lovely face, To mark where slew and silent tears Have left their lasting trace.

And still her whispered thoughts will tell Of scenes that are no more. And scan the once-love I forms that dwelt On mem'ry's shadowy shore;

Again the little got to deek That now so empty stands. Again to feel around her neck

The touch of riny hands. How long, the weary spirit cries, Within this world of pain, Ere 'neath the never-fading skies I meet them once sgain? And as she views the silver night,

Slow creeping to the west, A murmured prayer in faith takes fight To Itim who giveth rest.

His Second Wife.

What! her dowry ten thousand, and her age under eighteen.! You are a lucky dog, Hewett! Of course, it's a love match?'

rather handsome man drew himself up superciliously; "though, in fact, it is a family hail. arrangement. "How is that?"

"Why, you see, Colonel Harding was my father's General Hewett's, greatest into the road. chunns When dying, he left me and my future to the former's guardianship; a trust v. myself and his daughter Kate - the saw them. They are now in the train go-

"Some people fall into pleasant places, certainly! When is it to be?" "In a month. I fancy, since the Colo- grace upon mel" nel has been such a dotard as to take home

.e inheritor of a rich aunt's wealth."

er's room than her company." "Possibly. Deuced pretty woman, Mrs.

its booked for the Benedict ceremony." above conversation passed on the steps of him on the road to the villa. In it he had thrown a single stream of light across-the wants, or to the answer returned to the remarking on the subject.

"Whatever is that for?" Kate remarked. when the officer had gone. "To sign your marriage settlement, miled Mrs. Harding. "Nonsense! By the way, mamina, do you not think papa has looked eltered

"For many days, Kate. I fear some thing is wrong." "Then I fancy he might teonfide it to you nstead of the captain. "True!" Mrs. Harding's lips preceptibly contracted; then she added, "Kate, I forgot to tell my maid about the trimmings for my dress next Friday. Would you mind doing so?" Rising, the young girl went on her mission, when the other's entire manner changed. Her expression became grave, Harding. perplexed. She cast aside her work, und Constipation,

Aches and Pairs, leaned her head on her hand. "Can my husband possibly suspect?" she murmured. "There is a change in him! Kate sees it, too! Then there must be a cause! Can be have found us out? If so, everything is ruined - ruined!" She caused: then added, "I must be certain-dow of which was open. chair, the Colonel, a handsome, elderly, militury looking man, sat by the table, his brows contracted, his features expressive of pain and anger blended. He had evidently been speaking vehemently, and exclaimed, as the listener came with range,

"I wouldn't have believed it of her! Of all women, I would have stacked my life a fly with him." on the fidelity of Constance! When you hinted that you had seen a fellow lounging about the villa, I thought nothing of it; but Jackson, the under-gardener, declares that it is true."

The listener became lived with rage. Her suspicious were well founded. "What do you intend doing?" asked Hewett. "That is my perplexity. To accuse her preposterous," and the Colonel uneasily drummed the table with his fingers. "Something must be done," he said, "or

I shall go mad. I can't support this terri- wife, Kate made me her confidante. I ble suspicion, for-1 don't mind confessing it to you, George, who so soon will be my soon-I love Constance devotely. What was that? Why, the window is open. Shut it; we want no eavesdroppers." Captain Hewett complied, but, before closing it, leant forth and looked around. Capitain Hewett, I compliment you! Now, diving. "If my fine lady would only commit herself." he thought, "Kate would inherit the Colonel's wealth. It is nothing," he said aloud, resuming his scat.

Trembling at her rarrow escape, Mrs. Harding hastened from the shubbery. Just as she emerged, she ran violestly against a

"Robert! Tell me, what are you doing

"Ten thousand pardons! I tought-"Never mind what you thought. Why are you here? Quick, go to the door. If was the answer, given beetween a sudden in five minutes I call you, come, -if not, go away."

He raised her hand to his lips.

our flight on Friday. "Hush!" she answered, as she flew from

It was the morning of the eventful Fri-

Hewett's apartments at Richmond. "George," he exclaimed, "no man ever was in greater perplexity than I. For the wife. last month I have been engaged to the Dunderbuils to dinner to day. This morning Constance declares-looking well and hearty-herself too ill to attend, but urges me to go." for you. Perhaps this time something may be discovered."

"I was thinking," began the Colonel, to ask Constance right down the truth?"

"That is true. Well, George, let it be as

The Colonel went to the dinner, and the gentlemen had long been left to their wines the canon, let us stop a moment to view "I flatter myself, yes, on the lady's part, at least," and the speaker, a tall, rather handsome man drew himself up sup-

> "Come home," said the latter; "I must peak to you at once." The Colonel, growing pale, followed him

"What is it?" he saw no better nor more friendly way of the other, "Your wife is unworthy your ing into the distant past, show plainly carrying out than by an engagement bet. affections; she has fled with her lover. I > ing to the city.' grouned, "why have you brought this dis- of feet, upon either side, while, scattered nor how injurious may be the influence And he grasped the hedge, to save him a second wife, he would rather his daught. from falling. Rocovering himself, his creek. In the background, up the canon, mood changed. "George," he exclaimed fircely. "Come, head from ridge to ridge the threatening Harding-sh? Very sparkling, self-willed, we will follow them. The villoin shall anand fast, I'm sure! Ta, ta! Remember, I swer for the wrong he has done me; but tain gloom. This exception is a cloud at tell me all about it." The two gentlemen between whom the The Captain stated that a cab had passed by the setting sun, and from which is ner of washing and attending to its natural ing; after exchanging greetings with whom, he was summoned to see the Colonel in the library. The ladies were surprised at the laste displayed, and could not refrain from the last edisplayed, and could not refrain from the last edisplayed, and could not refrain from the last edisplayed, and could not refrain from the last edisplayed. The last edisplayed and could not refrain from the last edus of the gambier, and against far more fearful odds, he will try it against far more fearful odds, he will try it against far more fearful odds, he will try it against far more fearful odds, he will try it against far more fearful odds, he will perhaps cross of doing this should carry a grave monitory. The ladies were surprised at the last edisplayed, and could not refrain from the last edisplayed and the last far more fearful odds, he will try it against far more fearful odds, he will try it against far more fearful odds, he will try it against far more fearful odds, he will try it against far more fearful odds, he will perhaps cross of doing this should carry a grave monitory. The ladies were surprised at the last of the chances are ninety-nine to one that he haste displayed, and could not refrain from ing field, enter the cab, and drive off, after will not strike; he will either get out of folly this problem is considered, the more care-reach his heart or mine. One shall not cave the field " "Why, goodness, gracious, my love, is wrong:" exclaimed a pleasant voice.

Hurrying straight to his dressing-room, the Colonel secured his pistols.

both gentiemen swung round on their thick running through solid rock; it cost there in the doorway, looking charming in tunnel to take out the ore. This ore, after the condition of success in family the covering down. her evening dress, was standing Mrs. "You here. Constance!"

"Here! Why, where should I be, my dear?" The Colonel looked at the Captain, and worse.

eice versa. "What" is the matter?" asked the to suspect me of such a sin?" The Colonel dropped instantly

"You have!" she went on. "Pray, on what grounds 911

"That of a man having been seen to Mrs. Harding burst into a peal of laugh-speaking out," said the lady, with a malicretly bestowed elsewhere - said 'Nay;' this small beginning has grown up an imyou said 'Aye.' When I became your mense commerce. planned-yes, it was wicked-I planned her elopement with Robert Kenway, the man she loves. I see how all this happened; this gentleman watched here while rently the most injured party. A brief space after, the Colonel came in "Constance," he said, "you have done very wrong." "Sir, how have you acted, in suspecting gentlemen, I will leave you to yourselves."

haughtily, and retired to her own, appar-

She quitted the room as she spoke, very a wife who was foolish enough to love you? she answered, proudly. "Do you love me, Constance?" "Better than-than-all-the world!"

burst of sobs. A woman's tears were the only enemies which had ever beaten the Colonel. He "How good you are!" he said. "I only caught his pretty wife in his arms, and came to say I have prepared everything for cried, "Constance, forgive me, and let us say no more about it."

"And Kate?" she sobbed. "I'll pardon her, for your sake." "You dear, dear Edmund! There! That day that Colonel Harding entered Captain kiss is for a reward!" And that is how Captain Hewett was checkmated by Colonel's Harding second without a conviction that their strictures

Mining in Colerado.

It is estimated that there are at least 100,000 men prospecting in Colorado this These men do not waste their "I'll teil you what, Colonel. If you re-time, but work hard from early morn until fuse, you may only raise her suspicion. late at night, climbing and tramping over You had better, therefore, go and I'll watch the roughest of country, and digging in the wildest of enthusiasm from one place to another, now in one country where a rich strike is reported—then over the mountain author's cautions and counsels could be doubtfully, "whether it would not be best tains to the next place, where a fortune is sure for any one that comes-but it turns out about the same in each case; it is "Absurd: If a woman will stoop to de-disappointment everywhere. Come with ceive a husband, she would not hesitate at us along the Chicago creck near Idaho, a falsehood." good, and as a black and stormy evening approaches we will go back to a good shelter and a comfortable night. But as hard ground which has cost him days of exhausting work to hollow out, his head slightly turned to one side, is resting upon the hand, which in turn is supported by the handle of his pick. The long, white beard, flowing over the rough miner's coat, pelongs to a face with a discouraged and tired-out look, while the eyes, with their "Bear it like a man, Colonel," returned far-away expression, as if they were gaz ough that he has not struck "pay dirt." This lone man as he sits there in the approaching darkness appears to be in every way in saypathy with surrounding nature. "Oh Constance - Constance!" he The black and ragged rocks rise thousands over them, the scrub pines, langing from every crevice give out their mournful wail in chorus with the rushing waters of the is an impenetrable blackness, while over-> clouds are arched. With one exception the seene is one which Ruskin aptly calls mounone side of the gorge brilliantly illuminated aundred thousand prospectors in the mountains, one-quarter of them in and around to take a personal interest in her servanes, Leadville and Ten Mile; thousands upon to exert a healthful influence upon them. thousands of prospect holes, and less than and to consider the children of her poorer low-being before," he exclaimed, very stern and determined, "but a bullet shall locality could shall around Silver Cliff, and half a dozen the sake of her own offspring. Dr. Blackpaying mines—these are facts the prospec-tors does not appreciate until it is too late. well pronounces it not only a wrong, but a gross blunder, to retain a young servant in In the first place the vein is to be found, a household without entering in some co-That may be comparatively easy; but will gree into her joys and sorrows, forming how early you are back! I hope nothing it pay to work it? is the important cuestion. If it will pay, has the miner the capital to friends, providing her with wholesome Suppose a vein & few inches amusement, and helping her to grow in Coffee.

"What' is the matter?" asked the lady; "and—gracious, Edmund, love!— what are you going to do with those pistols?"

"I—I was going," blurted out the Colo"I—I was going, blurted ow of which was open.

"Yes—there, sir! But can you look in the coffee consumed in Europe was brought from Arabia. The trade was very profitable to parental control. What parents as a body require, the teachers will enter your room, admitted by you, and—in—your supposed flight this night in nor of Javato procure some coffee berries formation of an upright and pure character formation of an upright and pure c from Arabia Felix. These were sown at Batavia, and in 1690 one of the plants thus raised was sent to Holiand, where it was planted in the botanic garden at Leyden. It flourished here from from the plants thus rests mean to securing those ends will be carefully sought for. This application, however, of the law of supply and demand ter.

"Why, Edmund, that was Kate's lover!" she cried.

"Kate's!" both gentlemen repeated.

"No less, Do not blame the poor girl, for you yourself have driven her to this for you yourself have driven her to the present of the prese the General's son. She- her heart seed to Europe for it. Yet so it was, and from call for anxious examination. It is a mis- at midwifery or surgery. classical education cannot be secured with- humors your appetite. I was always under the impression that effect of placing Ovid or Catullus or Petro- Put him down as a fool. pened; this gentleman watched here while but at Sangua, Central India, when I was you went to dine. Charming! He waited and spied to see his own property stolen! but at Sangua, Central India, when I was of 15. The permanent and far-reaching man in the true sense of the word. He should be a moral man, hones any kind is signally attested by what we diving. One day, on taking him to the now know about the structure and work-pond at the bottom of my compound, he ing of the human mind. Physiological injumped off my shoulder and dived (like a quiries have shown us that nutritive caught in some grass or root at the bottom sensations remain stored up in the brain, keep well. with the chain in his hand. He swam just like a man, as far as I could see from the motion of his arms. Several of my brother undid the cham, and continued to swim cates that divers physical transformations calls for a rare union of experience, insight, and delicacy, is discussed by Dr. Eliza-he principle of sex exists in the compar A subject of supreme concern to par ents, yet one whose adequate treatmen BETH BLACKWELL in a little treatise entitled The Moral Education of Children in Relation to Sex (Brentano.) No one can read this essay without cordial respect for duce traving, curiosity, and morbid stimular wood is bought in the pulp from firms who the air, breast high to the dogs, because the author's motives and ablities, or his, late a family circle where brothers and acute suggestions will be turned a large, immediate, and beneficent account by thoughtful men and women. Here is a book which examines in a sufficiently plainapoken, yet elean and wholesome and pro-nitely extended. foundly earnest way, questions which perplex and occupy the mind of every mother -questions of vital import to the well-beng of youth, and of decisive bearing on by be disputed that the present moral ton late at night, climbing and tramping over the roughest of country, and digging in the hardest of ground. Led on and on by the substantial worth with such purity of form pondered in every household. which, it cannot be disputed, now too ge course and amusements.

of the evils to which the young being may se exposed, and tact to interpret and avert very early harmful habits may be formed, bellish and commend them. of the nurse. Unnecessary handling, says the author, should be studiously prevented and she states, in a appendix, that she ha herself traced the ill-health of children in wealthy families to the habits practised by confidential nurses, who apparently were quiet, respectable women. No details, she sists, are insignificant to the watchful mother, whether these details relate to the shape of the child's nightdress, to the man-shipment, milling and other expenses, will education that the parent should become ordinarily just about clear the cost. There the first and closest friend of the child. It are scores of mines that are considered good is only when this trustful, sympathetic restrikes that turn out just this way or much lation exists that the parent can enter it to the life of infancy or youth and exercise a gentle, fruitful, and unresisted influence. Moreover, if the parent be the friend and comrade of his child, he can also be the This now universal beverage was first infriend of the latter's young companions an invaluable provision for the education of onship of brothers and sisters. That the amiliar intercourse of boys and girls, in the kindly presence of their elders, insures a kind affords a ready market for all the straw tranquil and salutary attitude toward ceram appetites is an observation based on and sisters were associates in studies, in pulp. Regarding the processes which these nusic, in outdoor pursuits and recreations, other young men and women would naturally enter, and thus a bracing and enno ing educationalintluence would be indefi-

The Moral Education of Children.

We can draw attention to but one mor of the many pertinent and useful hints contained in this small volume. It will scarce sexual morality; the theory that the subject should not be too closely scrutinized; What practical steps can be taken to ele- the custom of allowing wealth, talents, or what practical steps can be taken to etc.

the custom of aboving wearth, takens, or vate the lax standard of sexual morality agreeable manners to partially or wholly which, it cannot be disputed, now too generally take a wall or five-assorted, and everything not composed of barred gate better than a running stream, nerally prevails? Our author submits that dency to arrange marriage on a commercial the following points bearing on the moral basis, and to postpone wedlock in the case education of childhood and youth must be of men until the period of maximum vitaliconsidered by all parents who recognize ty is passed-all these things must contrishelter and a comfortable night. But as the fundamental import of sexual morality. We struggle along over the rough ways of These are: Observation of the child during phere countly unfavorable to the moral cess as the straw until they, too, are reduced of a gentleman in 1792, who successively infancy; acquirement of the child's confi- health of men and women. Seeing how the to a beautiful, white, fibrous pulp. Equal took a wall 6; feet on the inside and 8 on dence; selection of young companions; care highest aims of parental education are con-in the choice of a school, and of studies stantly shipwrecked by social influences, together with a lesser quantity of wood pulp-together with a lesser quantity of wood pulp-iously is one of the most important a which will not infect the mind; the forma- our author insists that women, quite as To this is added a small portion of kaolin, plishments of the tox hunter. tion of tastes; outdoor exercise; companionship of brothers and sisters; the choice of a physican; and, finally, social interval of a physican; and, finally, social interval of a physican; and finally of the physican; and final The capital duty of the parent is to could, in any event, be solved only by watch over the infant child; but obviously combined action. On the one hand, no two things are needed in order to fulfil this inquisitorial investigation of private life is desirable or normissible. Our author subedged licentious conduct should be admitthe faintest indications of danger, without ted lato society, much less have access to allowing the child to become alive to them. the intimacy of home, no matter what ma-few parents, we are told, are aware how terial or intellectuall advantages may em-

Like all eastern cities the interior is disappointing. The streets are dusty and fibrous liquid is then poured from the tub He is generous to a fault, and assists every narrow, and the effect of the shabby houses through a strainer into the machine, where one who applies to him. He is a ladies' and delapidated walls is rather that of a it is caught on an endless slieve of very fine man. He is never nervous at a perform-collection of villages huddled together than wire, which filters out the water and retains alice, but always cool headed. He is of a large and important city. Our first the fibre. This slieve continually vibrates wrapt up in his profession. When any call was made at an excellent hotel kept by as it moves along thus thoroughly uniting brother artist is in distress, he is the forea Greek. Its courtyards, with fountains the fibre, and when it reaches the section most to his hand in his pocket. He conplaying, and with large crange trees shad box, all the water is drawn from the pulp. duets his rehearsals carefully, and is never owing the whole place, looked so enticing. This sheet is carried over numerous drying severe on the actors. He lets the "big cylinders, heated by steam; then over the bops" take care of themselves, but with the above conversation passed on the steps of a West End club, now parted—the one addressed as Hewett, known among his less

The disconversation passed on the steps of a West End club, now parted—the one addressed as Hewett, known among his less

The disconversation passed on the steps of a West End club, now parted—the one addressed as Hewett, known among his less

The disconversation passed on the steps of him on the read to the villa. In it he had thrown a single stream of light across the valley, butching the hair and the forehead covery thoughtless breach of delicacy should be checked with a gentle gravity, which will not repel or abash, but will impress the part of the miner, and bringing out his features be checked with a gentle gravity, which will not repel or abash, but will impress the part of the miner, and bringing out his features be checked with a gentle gravity, which will not repel or abash, but will impress the part of the miner, and bringing out his features be checked with a gentle gravity, which will not repel or abash, but will impress the part of the miner, and bringing out his features be checked with a gentle gravity, which will not repel or abash, but will impress the part of the miner, and bringing out his features be cool, and its bedrooms so clean and complete the part of the miner, and bringing out his features be cool, and its bedrooms so clean and complete the part of the miner, and bringing out his features be cool, and its bedrooms so clean and complete the part of the miner, and bringing out his features be cool, and its bedrooms so clean and complete the part of the miner and the forehead of the mi pamiliars as Captain Hewett, proceeding to go by train to Colonel Harding's villa, at the train.

In strong rener. Let us nope the inner specific the railway in time to see them leap into gloom has an invisible stream of light across its dark track in the shape of some pleasant.

Will not repel or aliash, but will impress in strong rener. Let us nope the inner specific the railway in time to see them leap into gloom has an invisible stream of light across its dark track in the shape of some pleasant. pamiliars as Captain Riewett, proceeding to go by train to Colonel Harding's villa, at Richmond.

Arriving there, in due course, he was speedily introduced to Kate and Mrs. Harding speedily introduced expurgated editions when we consider the two hours to convince you of the fact.

How to Choose a Doctor.

The straw is piled up in great stacks near wide experience, while it is equally certain the mill ready for use. The rags come from that isolation, mystery, and obstacles promaterials undergo while being converted into paper: In the first place the straw is cut up fine and passed through a fanning mill, otary boilers, running under eighty pounds deansed in a strong solution of caustic alkali, after which it is emptied into vats with water; there the alkali is extracted, young. The studious ignoring of certain whitening it. After remaining here until by a deep ditch, are formidable obstacles; lapses on the part of men, at all events, in the pulp is thoroughly washed, it is emptied though a hunting authority of that country into large vats, where it is left to bleach assures us that an experienced rider may twenty-four hours. The pulp in this stage have no more trace of his passage "than if is as white as snow, and is one mass of fine a bird had hopped through. cotton or linen is discarded. They are then cut up and dusted by machinery, after neighborhood of water. In Ireland stone which they are boiled and cleansed with a walls are common, and test all the courage problem is one of extreme delicacy, and beating engine, where it remains until the may be imagined from an anecdote told of bould, in any event, he solved only by different ingredients are thoroughly united. his emotion on reading his morning paper mits, however, that no person of acknow-shade for the paper. From the beating in a barn. engine the pulp is pumped up into another engine, where it passes through the last to be put into form. There are two kinds of machines for this work, the Fourdriner fellows. He is a large-hearted, wholeand the cylinder. The Fourdriner, the souled man, and hasn't an enemy in the latest invention, and the most perfect mu- profession. He spends his money rapidly, chine now in use, is used at this mill. The and is probably not worth much financially jostle each other. Now a Bedouin of the the narcotic to relieve pain, using it in the lesert tribe rides by on a beautiful Arab carliest application of it for a true medical then that he is a star, because it would in mare, with his long-pointed lance at rest, and legitimate object, probably under then that he is a star, occasion a would have followed by other Bedouins on foot and in medical direction. Finding that it gave wealthy, and a high-toned gentleman. Bougiving the direction.

Had he put his hand out, he could have stayed them. But that was not his pian. Let us go behind recall and forgiveness, that was what he thought.

Well not write: he will either get out of the more to the 550 silent intimate the relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be, the more vital their relations of the rich and poor will seem to be the search of the morn that it gave relief and repose, they have continued the was discussed by looking at a crowd assembled to a wait the search of the sea last we sammered on to our tents, but a ond class of persons who take to chical to his companions. He is consulered the great disappointment awaited us in the apthe garden in which they had at that stage of alcoholism when sleep is most exacting. His stage direction is simbeen pitched. Its roses were over, the always disturbed, and often nearly imposgrass looked parched and dusty, and the sible. These persons at first wake many Abana flowed low and sluggishly in its bed, times in the night with coldness of the Abana flowed low and singgishly in its bed. times in the night with coldness of the But it was too late to alter now, so there lower limbs, cold sweating, starting and his strictness and his overbearing manner was nothing for it except to dress and go restless dreamings. In a liable time they at releasant one out of the their, he and dine at the hotel. We made a droll become nervous about submitting themcavalcade on horseback, the gentlemen selves to watchfulness and resilessness with loaded pistois, and the attendants car- until a confirmed maomnia is the rewith loaded pistols, and the attendants carried lanterns, bristling with weapons.

The table d'hote was rather bare of guests failing to find any relief that is satisfactory.

Sometimed maximum is the result. Worn out with sleeplessness, and failing to find any relief that is satisfactory.

In the same of guests failing to find any relief that is satisfactory. to-night, for the diffigence which plies be- or safe in their false friend alcohol, they tween here and Bayrout, and brings the tra- turn to chloral, and in it find for a season relers in time for dinner, did not arrive at the oblivion which they desire, and which a great weakness for fishing, and Sothern all, having been required for the use of the they call rest. It is a kind of rest, and is, prince of Prussia, as it is the only carriage no doubt, better than no rest at all; but it in all Syria. We returned to the tents in leads to the unhealthy states that we are the same meledramatic procession, and now conversant with, and it rather prohad, besides four soldiers to guard the tents motes than destroys me craving to a during the night. Friday is the Mohom- In short, the man who takes to chloral able circumstances. All his money was after alcohol enlists two cravings for a sinmade in the "Mighty Dollar." Joseph day as well, so that the Bedouins of the gle enving, and is double-shotted in the desert, who come from long distances, may combine their temporal and spiritual duties come habituated to the use of chloral are drinks "Burboa" as a medicine to strengthcomfortably, and do the marketing and go men of extremity nervous and excitable comfortably, and do the marketing and go men of extremity nervous and excitable on him. He lives well, and is probably to the mosque on the same day. The the labors in which they are occupied, benight, with wonderful and varied costumes, and so closely packed that it was difficult to make one's way through them. In one the labors in which they are occupied, become bad sleepers. A little thing in the course of their daily routine oppresses them, to make one's way through them. In one

What to other men is a passing amovance, the richest actor in the profession. "Rip Van Winkle" has brought him an immens fortune. In Louisiana he owns a magnifi cent planfation, where he spends the winter months, only accepting a few engagements Hurriedly throwing a shawl of Kate's, that laid on a sofa near, about her, she passed through the open glass door into the flower garden.

Going to the side of the villa, cautionsly she crept through a shubbery of lilacs and syringas until she came within sight and dow of which was open.

Illurriedly throwing a shawl of Kate's, that laid on a sofa near, about her, she passed through the open glass door into the flower garden.

Illurriedly throwing a shawl of Kate's, that laid on a sofa near, about her, she passed through the open glass door into the gassed through the open glass door into the soften flower garden.

Going to the side of the villa, cautionsly she crept through a shubbery of lilacs and syringas until she came within sight and down of which was open.

Illurriedly throwing a shawl of Kate's, that laid on a sofa near, about her, she cevery gallon of coffee sold, and every verdence of take out a license on the article was obliged to take out a license. In 1675 all the coffee-houses in London were closed by prochamation, as being the nearly circle; his first cluster with new thoughts, customs, and standards, the true characters.

The youth's entrance upon school life is his first plunge into the outside world by some the family routine oppresses them. The youth's entrance upon school life is his first plunge into the outside world by found to family routine oppresses them. The youth's entrance upon school life is his first plunge into the outside world by found to family routine oppresses them. The youth's entrance upon school life is his first plunge into the outside world by found to make one's way through them. In one corner stord a Bedound Anezeh, of the first plunge into the outside world by found to make a spear, his goal said so classely packed that it was difficult to make one's way through them. In one world is first plunge into the outside world in the found of the feather of the first plunge into the outside world in the found of the family routine oppresses them.

The youth's entrance outsi o make one's way through them. In one thrown off with the next step, is to these corner stood a Bedouin Angzeb, of the thrown off with the next step, is to these every season. At Hohocus, N. J., he has men a worry and anxiety of hours. They men a worry and anxiety of hours. They best to sell a horse, while others again rode by with an abstracted air, the graceful parts on the stage of this world, and as novelist. He is very attentiative at renear-by with an abstracted air, the graceful parts on the stage of this world, and as sals, to which he demands strict attention they lie down to rest they take all their from his company. Contrary to the generfrom Arabia. The trade was very profitable to the Arabia, who prohibited the exportation of plants from Yemen under severe penalties; and it is said that they destroyed the germinating principle of the berries, so as to prevent foreigners raising a crop from seed. But about 1680, Wisten, burges master of Amsterdam, perseaded the governor of Java to procure some coffee berries. employing it, they depend on the narcotle for their faisified repose. Fox Bunting.

step,—asking Captain Hewett's pardon for and this tree, it is said, furnished plants for accessories of the "pink," the livered hunts- body to join us in a game of cards; would It is plain that the nature of the studies Avoid the untidy, course and blundering men and whipper-in, the ladies present at behappy to have you with us." speaking out, said the may, with a many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the may speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the may speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the many speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the may speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the may speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the may speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the may speaking out, said the may, course and onindering the may speaking out, said the may speaking out, sai is the technical name given to the red coat, take to suppose that the advantages of Avoid the doctor who flatters you and brass buttons and cordurous, in which fox hunting gentlemen of experience always out employing works whose tendency is to Avoid the capty blow-horn who boasts of appear in the field. In England, packs of and corrupt the young mind. We his numerous cases and tells you of seeing fox hounds amounting to twenty or twencan afford to disregard Byron's sneer at forty or afty patients a day, while he spends ty-five couple are generally kept up by subscription, and the kennels are placed on the property and under the personal superthey did not like wetting their fur or hair, nius Arbiter in the hands of a school boy but at Sangua, Central India, when I was of 15. The permanent and far-reaching man in the true sense of the word.

To be a good doctor one must first be a vision of some gentleman who may be chosen ame He should be a moral man, honest in his the pack frequently bears. The dogs are never trusted to the sole care of subordi-He must have good sense or he cannot be nates, however faithful. It is in England pipe for smoking with, he puts a head on a good doctor.

That is, the bowl represents a head of He should be strictly temperate. No one ving not only a large subscription to the some distinguished man. The principal jumped off my shoulder and dived (like a quiries have shown us that nutritive man) into the water, which was three or changes take place in the cerebral tissues should trust his life in the hands of an inpack, but one or more hunters, and a quiet pipemaker in Paris has just published four feet deep; he had his chain on at the under the impact of sensations, so that cirties about the sale of his pipes. four feet deep; he had his chain on at the time, and when he dived in the chain tain states or tendencies resulting from such time, and when he dived in the chain tain states or tendencies resulting from such times and when he dived in the chain tain states or tendencies resulting from such that ought to show who are the most population. bers of the club. It is estimated that the lar people in the gay city, The head and kept the monkey down; he was just able to come to the top of the water. Feeling in a most unexpected way. Indeed, all ing is chain had caught, he dived down, most unexpected way. Indeed, all the special processes indicated the control of the special processes indicated the chain and the monkey down; he was just capable of recall or presenting themselves in a most unexpected way. Indeed, all own family respect him.

It is a good sign if the members of his of dogs in England is not less than £5000 as the chair of the gards first on the list with the chair of the members of his of dogs in England is not less than £5000 as the chair of the gards first on the list with the chair of the members of his of dogs in England is not less than £5000 as the chair of the gards first on the list with the chair of the members of his of dogs in England is not less than £5000 as the chair of the gards first on the list with the chair of the members of his of dogs in England is not less than £5000 as the chair of the gards first on the list with the chair of the chair of the chair of the gards first on the list with the chair of the c It is a good sign if he is neat and handy are now suggesting that if farmers re- head of Grevy third with 28,800. Ca-

Printing Paper.

The principal ingredients of this pape are straw, rags and wood. A mill of this f the present month to the beginning of April, though the amusement cannot be carried on while the earth is hard frozen or wered with snow. Moist air without actual rain, and a gentle gale from the south or west are favorable conditions of the atmosphere for fox hunting, because then the scent clings to the soil and to vegetation; but best of all is then it is suspended in their heads down to the ground. hunting was not a national sport with our ncestors in England until Queen Anne's time; that is, about the close of the sevenwhich separates it from all the grain and teenth century. Before that stag hunting particles of dust. It is then put into huge and coursing were considered finersport for gentlemen, after the disappearance of the of steam pressure, where it is boiled and wolf and bear. The best hunting ground should be pastoral rather than arable, with overs at considerable intervals, preventing and thrown up into washing engines filled the fox from getting readily to earth, and securing a good "ruo." and chlorine is added for the purpose of England the hedges, which are accompanied mistrusting by instinct his foothold in the solution of lime in other rotary boilers, and experience of fox hunters. The great-

Noted Actors. John McCullough is the prince of good the boards, but he rarely indulges now and ous-almost profical to his habits. He is is a pleasant cordial companion. Although a "high fiver" he is very careful in his diet during the summer months, on a piscatorial expedition. With the profession he is very popular. He tells fonny yarns imitably, and is an unequalled recenteur. He is full Jefferson, or Joe Jefferson, as everybody fortune. In Louisiana he owns a magnificent plantation, where he spends the winter thing that money can buy. He has two sons, Charles and Tom, and one daughter who is married to Farjeon, the English novelist. He is very attentative at rehear man and possessed a great refinement and taste in art matters.

A Youth Who Said "No."

this sport among the States of North Amer- a table on a steamboal, waiting to get an There are at present several good other party to a game of cards. Presently packs of fox hounds near Baltimore, and it | they cspy a nice looking young fellow. One "Pardon me, young man, we want son

> "Thanks; I never play cards." "Take a drink with us?" "Thanks: I never drink."

"Well, have a cigar?" "Thanks; I never smoke."
"Eh! Now I rather like that in a young man. Come into the cabin and I'll intro duce you to my wife and daughter?' "Thanks;" said the demure young mar.

"I shall never marry. Putting a Head on It.

When a French manufacturer makes a officers cause to see him swimming, of which he was very fond, wimming very vuietly, and canningly trying to catch the frogs that lay floating on the top of the water.

In oral sense itself may be so warped by the dark the profession for alleviation that the individual standard of what is right or wrong will be deflected.

Our author is probably justified in affirming that parents too rarely appreciate what to prevent as well as how to cure diseases.

It is another "good sign" if he is posted in all the latest improvements known to the profession for alleviation that the individual standard of what is right or wrong will be deflected.

Our author is probably justified in affirming that parents too rarely appreciate what to prevent as well as how to cure diseases.