The State of Maine was greatly agitated last week, over the discovery of a plot of the Democracy and Greenbackers to throw out enough of the money makers to secure the election of a Democratic Governor. The Republican candidate for Governor has 20,000 majority, but so peculiar are the laws of Maine, that a man must have a majority of the members of the Legislature to elect him.

Frank at the elections, false returns, and counting out, is getting to be so common that people who have not lost sight of honest and fair dealing in their own hearts, have great fears for the perpetuity of the Republic. All people are interested in fair dealing. I don't know, but if it allowed to be run, will produce its own remedy, which always has ended in a strong and able government, a monarchy. Will the people who are so free to preserve their freedom by acting honestly?

GRANT THE LAST PRESIDENT

THE EMPIRE.

THE PROPHECY OF AN UNREPENTANT REBEL.

A correspondent, writing from Atlanta, Georgia, to a Philadelphia paper, last Thursday, relates the following interview with General Tombs, of Georgia.

I met the General the other day and asked him who would be the next President.

"Grant," he replied promptly. "He will be the next President and the last President."

"After Grant—what?"

"The Empire, by G—d! I am ready for it. It is part of the inevitable. When the North by the fourth and fifth amendments injected 500,000 savages into the belly of the Constitution they made popular government impossible. Grant is a man of power. Alec Stephens thinks he is the greatest man, probably, in public life to day. I like him well enough myself. A—d! I might better than I do any of his crowd. He has to a pre-eminence degree will command the irresolution of the times; and that is a damnable compliment."

"Is there no Democrat who has the same quality?"

"None—unless it is Bayard. He comes of the purest and bravest strain of blood that ever flowed through the American veins. If he has the nerve of the old Bayard who turned his back on Burr and his party because he said Burr had led the party where no clean-handed gentleman could follow it, he will do. I suspect the blood is not losing its temper. Tom Bayard's father gave us a hint of the old spirit when he left the Senate in 1860 because he would not swear that he did not sympathize with the South. But if Grant wants the Presidency, and I think he does, it will require a man that can meet the lightning open-eyed to say his steps to the White House. Open in the night, as we will try to get the lightning from its seat in the clouds as to get him out. But let it come, Grant and the Empire. That is the prophecy of an unrepentant rebel!"
