

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 1890.

TERMS. Subscription, $1.50 per annum, if paid within 12 months; $2.00 if not paid within 12 months.

STATE ITEMS. Diphtheria is unabated at Johnstown.

Hog cholera is doing great damage to such stock in Beaver county.

The Methodist Episcopal convention now in session at Pittsburg agreed to urge the necessity of a marriage license in this State.

John Casey, of Erie, who died recently, left nearly three-quarters of a million.

A hundred guests congratulated Colonel John Cresswell of Petersburg, Huntington county on the occasion of his eighty-sixth birthday.

John Smith, of crooked Hill Montgomery, has given local fame to his name of world-wide lustre by reading the Bible through fifty-nine times. He is fifty-eight years old, and one ahead.

School Teacher Shelly left his school house, near Lelystown, Bucks, a few days ago, taking with him his dinner kettle, a book or so and his newly drawn December salary.

Mathias Baer, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Bastro township, fell to his barn floor the other day and was fatally injured.

Their county must be a good hunting country. On Christmas day Solon Bisme shot a panther measuring eleven feet ten inches and a half from the nose to tip of the tail, and on Friday Wm. Wright shot a fine black bear weighing a trifling over 200 pounds.

One million pounds of tobacco changed hands at Lancaster on Saturday.

Samuel Arnold received injuries on last Thursday by the caving in of the earth in a quarry near Springfield township, Montgomery county, which result in his death soon afterward.

Roads are so muddy in Crawford county as to completely stop teaming.

A ministerial troupe is being organized in Shamokin to make a tour through Africa. The price to its concert will be paid in elephant tusks.

Violators of the liquor law are vigorously prosecuted in Mercer and Venango counties.

A disease resembling diphtheria has made its appearance among horses in some parts of the State.

Clarion, Venango, Armstrong and Butler counties have formed a combined agricultural society for the purpose of holding alternate annual fairs.

William Zenth, a toy storekeeper in Pittsburg, drew $850 out of a bank, fearing something might happen there, and deposited in his bureau drawer. That night thieves robbed him of it.

Reading now claims to have sent a twelve year old boy to war in 1861.

No less than six infants have been left on the door step of a Warren man within a month.

Samuel Wilson was stealing a ride near Uniontown on Friday a week he fell, and his foot catching on the brakes he was dragged to death.

Captain C. L. Price, a young lawyer of Erie, formerly a clerk of Court, was choked to death at dinner several days ago, while trying to swallow a large mouthful of meat.

What is the use of ponding the Legislature all the time for the increase of expenditures of the State. It was the Constitutional Convention that gave us the New Constitution; and the New Constitution has increased the expenditures of the State that there is no keeping up with it so far. Put the blame where it belongs.

Col. William Bell has engaged in the sale of Farm Machinery, and proposes to supply the farmers of Juniata county with Machinery. The Wind Engines, Force Pumps, Corn and Coal Mills, and Fodder Cutters and Grinders, which he is now offering, are at present seasonable, and great sources of convenience, comfort and decided economy for farmers generally.

The rooms on the first floor of the jail have been thoroughly renovated, something that should have been done years ago.

A few repairs, if done upstairs, will make the jail last as a prison place for years.

Miss Kate Prutzman, eldest daughter of Archbishop Pratzman, of Reading, took poison and killed herself on Friday a week while suffering from melancholia. No reason is known for her want of reason. She was a charming lady and a great favorite in the circle in which she moved.

Frank M. Kane has sued Sheriff Tyson, of Montgomery, for $25,000 damages for being locked up all day Christmas after having refused to pay costs assessed upon him by the Court in connection with suits for selling liquor on election day.

A dispatch from Easton, under date of the 10th inst., says: To-day Clara Krouse, living at Glendon, was arrested for attempting to poison her husband, Fred Krouse. It seems that Krouse has a pension from the government which his spouse desired him to turn over to her. This he refused and they quarreled. Yesterday when he sat down to dinner he and his wife were in no suable mood. Krouse ate some pie and was taken sick just some time afterwards. Finding that Paris green had been put into it he became furious, rushed upon his wife and threw her down the stairs, nearly breaking her back. He then fell to the floor, overcome with poison. Medical aid was summoned, and to-day the man still lives, though his recovery is not expected. He made the complaint against his wife, and she will have to stand trial. Krouse killed his first wife about six years ago by kicking her to death, and served five years in jail.

SHORT LOCALS.

Don't dun a debtor on a postal card. Jealousy makes many people miserable. Sellingsrove is to have a Post of the G. A. R.

Tramps, so far, have been scarce this winter. A protracted meeting is in progress in the Lutheran church.

They talk as if the iron business had just begun to boom. There was more mud last week than in a number of years past.

Spring election day comes on the third Tuesday in February. Four dollars per day is what census takers are to receive for their work.

Take care of your digestion, and you need not fear diphtheria. A number of farmers indulged in plowing corn ground last Saturday.

Sucker fishing, as reported by fishermen, was good last Friday and Saturday. Squire Parker has a flock of young chickens. Early birds.

A bright cherry day was last Saturday like a bright day in April. Sellingsrove is talking of celebrating Washington's birthday, February 22.

Prejudice rules more people than reason or common sense. How is it with you? The down stairs of the old jail has been renovated, repainted and put in repair.

Large Stock of Furniture in the county for sale, at Cost, at W. F. Snyder's. Call at once. S. S. Africa has been appointed census taker for the district of which Juniata county is a part.

Zachariah Rice, the Perry county "stage route man," died suddenly a few days ago, of heart disease. Last Thursday was a spring-like day, and as a consequence it brought quite a number of people to town.

Frank Perry, editor of the Newport News, was married a few days ago to a Harrisburg lady. Peppy days. Jacob Strayer, formerly of this county but now a citizen of South Bend, Indiana, was in town last week.

City Councilman Geesey, of Altoona, walked 52 miles in a walking match, a few days ago. Time, 10 hours. Look up your valentines. For such as are in love, a love-letter is preferable to a picture. So they say.

An extra session of the Legislature is again talked of. The people of the Commonwealth do not like to hear it talked of. A ministerial troupe is being organized in Shamokin to make a tour through Africa.

The heirs and legatees of John Adams, deceased, offer a valuable farm for sale. It has been in the possession of the Adams family a long time. See advertisement. James H. Simons has been regularly authorized to receive the money that was subscribed on the occasion of the dedication of the Lutheran church.

Mrs. Stoner, wife of Abraham Stoner of Farmington township, died on Sunday morning, aged 76 years. Mr. Stoner, her husband, survives her; his age is about 80 years. On Saturday the Millintown congregation of the Congregation of Cedar Spring met in their church in this place and united with the Lost Creek congregation in a call to Rev. Joseph H. Mathers to become their Pastor.

James Byers, formerly of the firm of Byers & Kennedy, grain and lumber merchants, spent a few days in town last week. He is now doing business as grain merchant at Honey Brook, Chester county, this State. To all persons in arrears for subscription for more than one year, we expect to send a bill between this date and the 1st of March. However, we would much prefer that all such good people as are in arrears and who do not want to have a bill presented, that they send subscription money by some friend or by mail.

It is an uncommon thing to find a drove of cattle traveling in the winter, and yet such was the case last week. A cattle-drove from the western part of the State came to town with a lot of cattle last week, and sold them all to people living in the vicinity of this place. Sheriff Kely bought a number.
