Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XXXIV.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21, 1880.

NO. 4.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT

BUCHU

PHARMACEUTICAL.

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR ALL

DISEASES

OF THE

BLADDER & KIDNEYS.

For Debility, Loss of Memory, Indisposi-tion to Exertion or Business, Shortness of Breath, Troubled with Thoughts of Disease, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Chest, and Head, Eush of Bloot to the Head, Pale Countenance, and Dry Skin. If these symptoms are allowed to go on, very frequently Epileptic Fits and Con-sumption follow. When the constitution becomes affected it requires the aid of an invigorating medicine to strengthen and tone up the system—which

"Helmbold's Buchu"

DOES IN EVERY CASE.

IS UNEQUALED

By Any remedy known. It is prescribed by the most eminent physicians all over the world, in Rheumatism. Spermatorrhoua, Neuralgia,

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation,
Aches and Pairs, General Debility, Kidney Diseases, Liver Complaint, Nervous Debility, Epilepsy, Head Troubles, Paralysis, General Ill-Health. Spinal Diseases Catarrb. Nervous Complaints, sale Complaints, &c.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Eruptions, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Pulpitation of the Heart, Pain in the region of the Kinneys, and a thousand other painful symptoms, are the off-prings of Dyspepsie.

Helmbold's Buchu

Invigorates the Stomach,

And stimulates the torpid Liver, Bowels, and Kidneys to healthy action, in cleaning the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

A single trial will be quite sufficient to convince the most hesitating of its valuable

Or Six Bottles for 85.

hvered to any address free from observa "Patients" may consult by letter, receiv-ing the same attention as by calling, by answering the following questions:

2. Your age and sex? Occupation? Married or single? Height, weight, now and in health? How long have you been sick? Your complexion, color of hair and eyes? 7. Your complexion color of hair and eyes?

8. Have you a stooping or erect gait?

8. Relate without reservation all you now aqout your case. Enclose one dollar consultation fee. Your letter will then celve our attention, and we will give you a nature of your disease and our candid inton concerning a cure.

Sompetent Physicians attend to correspondents. All letters should be addressed Dispensatory, 1217 Filbert treet, Philalphia, Pa.

SOLD EVERYWHERE

H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist and Chemist

KILTY OF COLERAINE

As beautiful Kitty one morning was tripping dealy interrupted, that I felt at perfect With a pitcher of milk from the fair of Cel- ease. When she saw me she stumbled; the pitcher

And all the sweet buttermilk waterel the Twas the pride of my dairy. Oh Barney Mc-

You'er sent as a plague to the girls of Cole-I sat down beside her and gently did chide

That such a misfortune should give her such melodies were so harmonious.

ing to catch Mr. Loftus, I dare say."

to speak to win?"

I smiled assuringly, and he proceeded.

With a mighty effort I choked down full, free permission; and adding that

Peace and contentment were my guar

The Perjured Witness.

apparently, could be farther removed from furies than the gentle inquiries of the

A notable instance of this occurred in a

For sometime the case for the rightful heirs seemed hopeless. A shrew, Irishman and his wife, servants of the testator wer

"I saw him," said the man, sign, se

"Ah? He was scarcely strong enough seal the will. You scaled it for him, yo was so strong in body-and moind," with "But surely you forget. There was

"Do you swear before Almighty God,

The witness grew pale. "I swear it,

Mr. Brown opened the will and hande mean!" blandly suggested Mr. Brown.

"No, zur he dhropped the wax and on the stamp wid his own hands.

and deliver the dockyment.'

a meaning chuckle.

suddenly held up the will.

The case was gained.

and therefore I ask your consent."

room, a sadder and wiser woman.

my child-sister, Cornie.

courteous old lawyer.

not read my heart just then!

and ill natured remark-Twas Laymaking season, I can't tell the Yust see that Elizabeth Whittaker.

Mi-fortunes will never come single, his plain; What youthful airs she does put on! Try-

Por very soon after poor Katty's disaster The devil a pitcher was whole in Coleraine.

Sister Elizabeth.

ady of thirty-five, than the consciousness course. that others begin to consider her too old for What right had I to monopolize his time? morning in June. The note was directed heart. to Miss Lottie and Miss Cornie Whittaker, not addressed, as previous envelopes had quised, 'take warning ere too late!" been, to the Misses Whittaker, which would

"Sister Elizabeth, does your head ache this morning?" How my heart yearned over that favorite ister of mine, the very image of her lost father! We were now laving aside the sable robes worn for three years in token as I left the room, and there was a more of our loss; but it seems to me that I should always wear the calm sobertints of "second cool, dim room where he was seated. mourning," and in my inmost soul the nemory of that idolized parent would ever my hand, 'do you know what a priceless

My own mother I cannot remember, she drooped and faded while I was an infant; and my stepmother, kind and indulgent as thought. "Can he not see that he has but fortable. she ever was to me, was not one to cal forth the ordent affection which but few had power to awaken in my heart. Gentle, dignified and reserved, she had bequeathed these same characteristics to her eldest child, the golden haired Lottie.

But Cornie was like our father, the same buovant spirit, strong will, and impulsive affection, the same dark, curling hair, and eyes of laughing blue.

I thought of all this as I watched her fondly on that June morning, and recalled how I had been a second time orphaned when her mother was taken from us fifteen years ago. Since that time, when Cornic was four years old, she had been to me as meh a danchter as a sister.

Lottle, who was five years her senior, had always been so self-reliant and womanly that I could never regard her as needing that loving watchfulness that our younger sister seemed to require; and the relation between us could never be so tender and af fectionate. As I reflected thus long after we had left he breakfast room, and were seated in our little morning parlor, I reasoned with myself that it was but natural that I should be omitted in the plans for enjoyment formed by the young people of Caldwell. The nothers were not invited with the daughters. | beth!" Why should I expect to go with Cornie, my sister child? These reflections made me more calm and content, and I could bid my sisters a smiling adicu when they left me early in lawyers for skill in manipulating a witthe evening.

Cornie came back to give me a second kiss, and whispered, "I wish you were going, too you old darling!" "Old!" I repeated to myself, "Yes, that is the word."

And that night I looked more attentively than was my want into my mirror, and tried to realize that I deserved the epithet.

of the rightful heirs, The will he hoped But I saw no threads of silver in my dark, to prove was a forgery, was excuted the heavy braids, and but few lines of care on day before the testator's death, and by it my fair, broad forehead. Anyliow, my the whole estate was left to a tricky lawneart felt young, and with a sign I tried to yer. realize that I must accept the position in which of necessity I was placed.

The next morning my sisters were eager in their recitals of the charming walk and ventured at last upon a little voluntary the delightful sail by moonlight. There evidence.

had been a pleasant company. "Oh, Elizabeth!" said Cornie, "do now we saw an old friend of yours? And he is coming to call on you to-day."

"An old friend of mine?" I queried. "Yes." Lottie replied, "Mr. Loftus; be is visiting at the Arments', and has just re-PRICE $1 PER BOTTLE turned from a long foreign tour." "Will Loftus!" I exclaimed. "Is possible?"

"He said to me, 'Patrick, get a tape out of the cliset. An' I got it an' lighted it. I felt the warm blood tingling in my 'Give me the wax an' my seal,' says he cheeks as if I had been only fifteen, instead And I give thim. An' he dhropped it on. There,' says he, 'its done!'
Mr. Brown paused a moment. Then he of five and thirty. Memory was busy recalling the long-vanished summer, and how often I used to see my boy lover, since lost sight of for many years. Ours had been he said solemnly, "that you saw the tests one of those youthful attachments which but seldom ripen into first and only love. seal it with wax and his own seal?" They are often but "the prelude to the strain, before the song is sung." We were he said stoutly. on the verge of an engagement when Will it to the jury. "Gentlemen," he said, "the was suddenly recalled to his distant home, man is a perjurer! It is fastened with a and I had seen him to more. Yet, for lish wafer. as it may have been, I had always kept one corner of my heart sacred to his name, and it was with a strange thrill that I heard he was again near me, and that I soon should That day he called with his friend, Harry Mills. He was a tall, fine-looking man,

When sabers are rusty and spades When prisons are empty and granau polished, refined, and fascinating in his manners. I could hardly identify him with the slender youth that I had once known; When the doctors go on foot baksrs on horseback; but he referred so gracefully to our former The empire is well governed.

2,000 Miles in a Canon acquaintance, and expressed so much pleasure at renewing the intercourse so sud-A canoe voyage, unprecedented in the annals of canoeing in this country, was undertaken and successfully accomplished How pleasant were the days that followby Mr. Charles E. Chase, a correspondent ed. We called each other "Will" and for the Boston Journal, who traversed a "Lizzie" in the most friendly way, and distance of over 2,000 miles in his canoe Lottie and Cornie seemed already to regard Pubble, a craft fourteen feet long, thirty-"Oh what shall I do now? 'twas looking at you, him in a very sisterly manner. We read, in depth, and weighing about forty pounds. walked and talked together, and night after Mr. Chase started on his trip on the 7th of Sure, sure, such a pitcher I'll ne'er meet night his deep, rich voice would accompany May last, from the foot of East 110th Str., night his deep, rich voice would accompany those of my sisters, while I played the old familiar tunes upon the piano.

I fancied that my own voice might have lost a little of its early sweetness, and so the Harlem river to the Spuyten Duyvi, of the countries. The King owned that the provisions of the Hudson commenced in the countries. The King owned that the provisions of the countries. The King owned that the provisions of the countries. The King owned that the provisions of the countries. The King owned that the provisions of the countries. The King owned that the provisions of the countries of the countries. The King owned that the provisions of the countries of the countries. did not attempt to join the others, whose and entering the Hudson commenced in real earnest his solitary voyage. Proceed-Several other invitations were sent as ing along that majestic stream, under paddle and sail, Mr. Chase soon reached fast forgetting that I was an old rapid when A kiss then I gave her, and ere I did lave her She vowed for such pleasure she'd break it at an evening party, I overheard the envious and reached Waterford, the end of the ing New York. From Waterford he pad-dled through the Champlain canal to Lake kind first adopted by the English; for Fitz-stephen, in his description of amusements "Just see that Elizabeth Whittaker. Champlain, over which he cruised for some of the Londoners in his day (temp Henry How those wirds rang in my ears long one extremity of the lake, by dint of hard washes Moorfields at the north walls of the after the lights, the music, and the dancing paddling, as he had constantly to encounter city is frozen over, great companies of were shut out, and I was alone in my own lead winds. Passing from the lake to the roor. How I catechised myself, and tried Richelieu river, the voyager glided by some striding as wide as they may, do slide room. How I catechised myself, and tried of the finest scenery on this continent, and suffix Nothing is more mortifying to a person, especially if that individual is a maiden appropriated Will's attention as a matter of the Richelicu river he entered the St. Law-bead with sharp iron, which sometimes the Richellett river he emerged the St. Lan headed with sharp iron, which sometimes rence, and sailed up that broad stream to Quebec, were he was hospitably received by some of the leading residents and the by some of the leading residents and the that others begin to consider her too old for the society of young people. It is a "laying" Was it not far more likely that he would Palisade Boat Club. After remaining a say that some, imitating the fashion of the on the shelf" that is by no means agreeable. choose Lo. ie or Cornie—if indeed he were short time at Quebec, he traveled by portage tournament, would start in full career Al least, such was my feeling as I glanced to pay court to any of us? Even this was over one hundred miles to the Chaudiere against one another, armed with poles; at the invitations to a little moonlight ex- by no means certain; he might go again as cursion on the lake, which were handed in suddenly as he had come; and I was startled tiful stream. Paddling some distance along strike each other, when one or both of them cursion on the lake, which were handed in suddenly as he had come; and I was startled the river, he remained nearly two weeks at the Chandiere Gold mines, discovered a Specimens of these old bone skates are oc breakfast-table in Snow Cottage one lovely make in our circle, and still more in my own short time ago, exploring the magnificent casionally dug up in fenny parts of the scenery, and examining the mines, which, England. There are some "Ah, Elizabeth, Elizabeth," I solilo- by the way, Mr. Chase says are returning Museum, in the Museum of the Scottish a handsome profit to the English company Antiquaries, and probably in other collecwho are working them. From the Chau-tions, though perhaps some of the "finds" The next morning I rose with a new re spinster. The last word I announced almost audibly, with a bitter smile, which at unasked, give my heart. The world should buttary of the Connecticut. Entering the was not entirely superseded by implements most audibly, with a bitter spile, which attracted the attention of my pet, Corme, no; have cause to laugh at the silly foolishness of an old maid. Strengtened by these who said tenderly—

""" was not entirely superseded by implements of steel at the latter part of last century. Using course to Long Island Sound, and paddled down to Little Hell Gate, and paddled down to L That very day Will Loftus came, and inquired for me alone. I caught a quick seventy-eight days, four hours and fortyglance passing between Lottie and Cornie five minutes after his departure, and makrapid pulsation at my heart as I entered the replete with incidents, his canoe on three "Elizabeth," he said tenderly, as he took cosions having holes stoves in her while shooting rapids in the Canadian streams, and his kind recpetion by people living on treasure I have come to ask? I hardly dare the route of his journey, surprised at his be so bold, and yet 'faint heart never won be so bold, and yet 'faint heart never won attempting to make so long a journey in so fair lady' and i must not lose my courage." attempting to make so long a journey in so frail a craft, and did all they could to make

How Bismark Did Resign in 1877.

"Do not think me precipitate in my affection, though the acquaintance has been so brief, for I cannot be mistaken in my feelings and only wait for your permission to offer my hand to your pet sister. Cornie. You stand in the place of a parent to her, Ah, Will. Will! It was well you could convulsive sob, and replied that he had my will family. would send Cornie to him directly, left the Lottie was the fair and stately bridesmaid while I witnessed with a maternal complacency the ceremony which united the destinies of the only man I had ever loved and dian angels that night, and with a screnity both sincere and unaffected I returned the kiss which the bridegroom gave me, as he betty vexatious are friends. Affect a plea-ant, but natural and the bridegroom gave me, as he betty vexatious are friends. Affect a plea-ant, but natural and crimson His atoming blood. The King property vexations are friends and designed to the order of the friends and the friends and the friends are friends and the friends and the friends are friends and the friends ar said, tenderly and gently, "Sister Elizanessenger ordered the Prince immediately to appear at the Castle unless he were so ill color or oil-painting of her own to the fair, as to have to keep his bed, in which case the Emperor would call upon him. Prince wonder why people are driving along the The late David Paul Brown, of Phila-Bismark had to obey, and was closeted for top of the water in a wagon. Also, try to ness whose veracity he suspected. Nothing, nore than an hour with the Empeaor. On spell out the name of a hotel on the elmreturning home he at once sent in his resigbull dozing"than his courtly politness. Yet the wretched perjurer who fell into his nation. hands had better have borne the whips of the mard-wood Decoration.

namentation where doors are introduced at the witnesses. Grown confident, the man ries dividing apartments are suspended or ings dropping from pole cornices. The wood-work appearing in dining-rooms is for the most part mahogany, to suit the resent fancy for lighter woods than were ormerly employed in this part of a house. led-rooms show a finish of oak, while par ors are fitted chiefly in ebony or rosewood, he taste for which is reviving. Not un equently the woodwork of drawing and ception rooms is relieved by a little line of either white holly or ivory. For floors a lark wood, walnut, for instance, forms the ase on which many colored woods are inlaid in intricate and artistic patterns.

The Kohmoor Pearl.

pearl fisheries was signalized by the discovery of an agatized pearl, weighing forty six and a half grains. The groundwork i eautifully agatized with the pearly irides cence shining through. It is the only pearl of the kind in pearl history, a history ears, for the Ceylon fishery has been rnown for quite that length of time. Being the first of its kind, its value can not be all others taken from this river were found between the flesh and the shell, or imbeded in the shell. The prosecution of this industry is due largely to Mr. Israel Harris, a banker of Waynesville, Ohio, who has already a collection of over a thousand Miami of odd and irregular forms. Some resemble human hands, one is a small shell to which a coating of pearl has been added. His latest important acquisition, the agatised pearl, he calls the "Kohinoor."

Fisk selected him, because of his courage, time. Unless some strange mistake has been made in the figures, the weight of the under in the figures, the weight of those which the chief butler handed round, to rather carved, was sometimes not less than seventy pounds, and it must have been a serious and arduous question what was the best method of cooking such a monor of odd and irregular forms. Some resemble human hands, one is a small shell to which a coating of pearl has been added. His latest important acquisition, the agatised pearl, he calls the "Kohinoor."

Fisk selected him, because of his courage, time. Unless some strange mistake has been made in the figures, the weight of those which the chief butler handed round, to rather carved, was sometimes not less than seventy pounds, and it must have been a serious and arduous question what was the best method of cooking such a monor as which are control of the chief butler handed round, to rather carved, was sometimes not less than seventy pounds, and it must have been a very some free the chief butler handed round, to rether carved, was sometimes not less than seventy pounds, and it must have been a very some from the German, and signifies that seldom occurs. Williamson was in those which the chief butler handed round, to rethe chief butler handed round, to rethe chief butler handed round, that seldom occurs. Wellow that the self with the self which the chief butler handed round, that seldom occurs. Wellow the chief butler handed round, that seldom occurs was sometimes not less than seventy pounds, as it must ha

Skating. Frequent allusions occur in the old North- having a clear track, you can just bet he never which prove that professions in flew. He left the rails echoing behind like skating was one of the most highly esteemed a never ending water-fall. The station Kentucky, on the farm of H. J. Duncan. ern poetry, which prove that proficiency in accomplishments of the Northern heroes. One of them, named Kolson, boasts that he wild with fright thinking it was a runaway line, was fought a duel which created is master of nine accomplishments, skating engine, nobody on it. At Salisbury Mills being one; while the hero Harold bitterly complains, though he could fight, ride, swim, glide along the ice on skates, dart the lance and row, "yet a Russian maid distinct own eyes. They the lance and row, "yet a Russian maid distinct own eyes. They thought it was a spectre, which they could plishment is singled out for special praise: "Then the King asked what that young man could do who accompanied Thor. Thialfa, answered, that in running upon skates he would dispute the prize with any states he would dispute the prize with any the force of congress non the Nashville distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry, the postmaster at Nashville, surpressed and failed to deliver the Curry seat him a challenge by Gen. Thialfa, answered, that in running upon skates he would dispute the prize with any the further states and sending bome for distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry, the postmaster at Nashville, surpressed and failed to deliver their own eyes. They distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry, the postmaster at Nashville, surpressed and failed to deliver their own eyes. They distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry, the postmaster at Nashville, surpressed and failed to deliver their own eyes. They distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry, the postmaster at Nashville, surpressed and failed to deliver their own eyes. They distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry, the postmaster at Nashville, surpressed and failed to deliver their own eyes. They distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry, the postmaster at Nashville, surpressed and failed to deliver their own eyes. They distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry, the postmaster at Nashville, surpressed and failed to deliver their own eyes. They distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry, the postmaster at Nashville, surpressed and failed to deliver their own eyes. They distribution a number of public documents, he claimed that Curry the p swim, glide along the ice on skates, dart of the countries. The King owned that the talent he spoke of was a very fine one."

Olaus Magnus, the author of the famous of the famous of the countries of the famous of the countries of the washingtonvile talent he spoke of was a very fine one."

Olaus Magnus, the author of the famous of the famous of the famous of the countries of the curve of the Washingtonvile temptible source, throwing it on the temptible source, throwing it on the ground and stamping on it. Gen. White of track hands, rails, tools and forth. They said he was surprised, as no one expected. chapter on the Snakes of Ireland, tells us that skates were made of polished iron, or of the shank bone of a deer or sheep, about cluded that he could not stop in time, so of the shank bone of a deer or sheep, about and the next morning continued to the a foot long, men down in the days after leaven nevigable Hudson, in ten days after leaven the nevigable Hudson, in ten days after leaven the leaven to jump off. There were a nozer of the place of the child to the sailow one skates were the leaven t in the British been, to the Misses Whittaker, which would of course, include Elizabeth Whittaker, spinster. The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not, to the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

The last word I announced all the sweet delusions of love—would not.

For Young Men at Church Fairs. r charitable acts to avoid being annoyed?" tables ask the price of the same, and, when dierid. The evening hours are spent in "How so, Count" asked the Emperor. "Why, sire," replied the Count, "the Empress gave officially 200 marks (about £50) to the Ursuline nuns who had been expelled from Berlin; but secretly Her Majesty sent gine what you are. This never fails to left side. These are the symbolical colors 1,000 marks." Encouraged by the Emper-or, Count N. cited a great number of other according to the orders of Prince Bismark.

The Emperor, evidently much annoyed, left undisguised, Lorror of the tidies, and designate the worsted work as "stuff." Wonder placed a translation of the Owen's letter to early, and the next day he sent for Prince what the lambrequins are for, and laugh him is every church of his Kingdom. One Bismark, who pleaded ill-health. A second short, explosive, sardonic laugh when the of this model ruler's London agents was the ladies tell you. If some girl has sent a water > it for an old-fashioned swinging country-Kailroad Incidents.

inn sign.

tree in the foreground, affecting to mistake

Hard-wood decoration is characteristic of he interior of many of the fine new houses marked Carpenter. "Jule Parker once told manifested a miserly desire to accumulate that have recently been built, the rage for me about his running after two full grown a large number of eggs, and has in many marquetry floors and wood decoration on bucks on a Southern railroad." Parker ways shown her objection to being deprivceilings and walls have again been revived. was a chivalrous, dare-devil Southern en- ed of an egg after having laid it. Wainscoting and doors exhibit the same or- gineer, then running the light sing expresses | About ten days ago it was noticed that "He the hen would come from the chicken-house on the Eastern Division of the Eric. all, but they are not unfrequently omitted altogether between drawing and reception rooms and the dining-hall, portieres being the track from a thick wood, and so frightubstituted as much more artistic and in ened were they by the roar of the approach on for a week, and then by an accident the ome respects more convenient. The tapes- ing train they started down the track not point of an egg was discovered by its project more than twenty feet in front of the en- ing from the soil below the nests in the gine. Parker put on all the steam his boiler chicken-house. Investigation brought to would make and carried his train along at light the egg, and further search revealed a break-neck speed, but in spite of his the fact that six other eggs were concealed fireman's efforts he could not turn his in the same manner. The day following drivers fast enough to overtake the fleet the discovery the hen was watched, and deer. He never said how fast he was was seen to carefully dig a hole, after the running at the time, but we know the man egg was laid, place the egg in it and then and when he told that he was going at cover it with dirt. This work completed, breakneck speed we can imagine some-thing about it. The road was a splendid ing the whole time it was in progress, walked one for speed. It was mostly new, the bed out of the chicken-house and announced the was in prime order, but notwithstanding lay. his engine chawed up fuel as fast as his ffreman could feed it to her, he could not run the deer down. It looks astounding, but he said he finally chased them after a sudied the history of the queen of vegeta- what your name is." run of ten miles into a village. There they bles, the truffle had become a favorite dish left the track, ran up and down the streets in Egypt, long before the time of Moses, a cage hanging near, and visible through a as wild as cows, and scared the people into spasms, but before doing any serious harm legends which tell of a grand feast made to cannot leave be in peace, and begins, a viggreatly enjoyed the venison steaks that It appears that the menu of this royal ban- der the cap. greatly enjoyed the venison steaks that it appears that the menu of this royal oan were afterwards presented to him by an old bootmaker, sixty years old, who was oral tradition, and then by patriotic annaliap into the attitude of a wax doll, and beginning the story is related, which is said to have he lucky shot." "Did you ever hear 'Hughey' William-son tell of his adventure at Washington-ville on the Newburg Branch?" asked Car-not, however, be supposed that the truffles ly. the first of its kingular too, that it was found embedded in the flesh of the mussel; all others taken from this river were found between the flesh and the shell, or imbedded to run the Chicago relief train. "Well," been made in the figures, the weight of and Mand say that, is repeated over and the stimulation of the control of the co berg with nothing but his engine, and, he only blew his whistle to warn the men challenge followed from White which teeth into it, and to judge from this what to jump off. There were a dozen of 'em, and they had a wonderfully parrow exerces and conditions were, "fifteen feet distance; pun, and crowbars shovels, pickaxes, After the first shots had been exchanged amping bars and spikes made a complete kaleidoscope in the air. One of the axles of the car, to which was attached one wheel, bounded over the smoke-stack and toward the state line with a view of escapwheel, bounded over the smoke-stack and came crashing through the cab window on the fireman's side, who was nearly killed the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with pistol still in hand, and indicate the crowd with an enchanting hands and she calls, "Moonic! The most of the car landed on the front of quired if there were any officers of the law Moonie! Come, moonie!" the engine, and before 'Hughey' could stop among them, and being answered in the King John of Abyssinia.

going through the air like an electric curgoing through the air like an electric current when he couldn't stop an empty engine before hitting such a dangerous fashioned silk neckerchiefs through the wound. Gen. White recovered from his wound. There ain't no water. Marme fearful wound as much to the joy of Houston as to himself. During the week Tell the centleman where you are going King John, of Abyssinia, although only preceding the duel Gen. Houston remained Maud." in his thirty-eighth year, has already proved at the home of Sanford Dunean, near the himself a man of no ordinary calibre, both field, practicing meanwhile with pistols. her flaming check toward her mother, found about 1839 in Moorsfields, near sa a soldier and a sovereign. He has thrice the 20th ult., and landed at Captain to that district, says that "it is formed of the bone of some animal, made smooth on formally cancer, to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the forces of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt, while at the same time to the force of Egypt at the force of Egypt the bone of some animal, made smooth on one side, with a hole at one extremity for a cord to fasten it to the shoe. At the other powerful vassals, who have since made in the same time time time time by, says the making head against the disaffection of two larger than the same time by, and the same time by, says the making head against the disaffection of two larger than the same time by, says the making head against the disaffection of two larger than the same time by, says the making head against the disaffection of two larger than the same time by, says the making head against the disaffection of two larger than the same time by the same time by, says the making head against the disaffection of two larger than the same time by the same time b ing the longest cance cruise ever attempted in this country. Mr. Characteristic response the cause of the Jackson man where you are going, Maud." in this country. Mr. Chase related to an inquirer the story of his cruise, which wish another cord to secure the story of his cruise, which wish in this country. The hour of the cived a plug, with another cord to secure the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia, the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia many that the Ras Warenia many that the conquered Chief or constant winner in the fractal many that the Ras Warenia m the Amhara Province, who seems quite con- arising and preparing for the duel on the words I hear as I leave the car are—"Can't tent with his position at the court of his arrival of the day was 3:40 a. M. Just beconqueror. A traveller, who spent some fore that hour "Gen. Jackson" barked Maud?" time with the King in his camp at Am. beneath the window of his admirer's room, The following bits of advice, culled from bachura, describes him as short in stature, awakening him, Houston arose without the leading magazines of the day, are in- with small hands and feet, but perfectly disturbing his attending friends, and began air lady' and i must not lose my courage."

Thow very timid he has grown!"

A few years ago Mr. Hammond was attempting to make so long a journey in so the dady, are instanced in the star of the grown i ing, and cheerful. When they offer you icate mouth and chin, and almost feminine the seductive bowl of oyster-soup, bend smallness of ear, are striking enough in a over it, affect to examine it critically, smell barbaric African chief. "He is grand to crowded a loud, clear note. Housion, with The boat had been on New Orleans it, then rise up, shake your head sadly, and see on his beautiful charger," continues the that element of superstition which finds a It will be remembered that about the end of March, 1877, a report was current that thank you, I guess not." This adds greatly barcheaded and barefooted, with only the early greetings of his friends as a happy Prince Bismark had resigned and that his resignation had been accepted by the Emperor William. In Mr. Hansen's "Coulist boldly to the first lady who wants you to peror William. In Mr. Hansen's "Coulist boldly to the first lady who wants you to peror William. In Mr. Hansen's "Coulist boldly to the first lady who wants you to peror William. In Mr. Hansen's "Coulist boldly to the first lady who wants you to take a change in the paramagnetic of the silver haired, great toe of each foot in the stirrup which is merely a silver ring. He is a splendid the other for the chicken, made the dog and that his pistol should be loaded game of some kind, or a bet on something, with it and their law would fire the bullet one side for the chicken, made with the gambler's business.

He had tried everyone on the boat for a splendid that his pistol should be loaded game of some kind, or a bet on something, with it and the the world fire the high failed in every attenue. He was see de la Diplomatie" the following account take a chance in the parsonage-cake. Tell meanor is extremely simple, being entirely with it, and that he would first fire that but had failed in every attempt. He was given of the event: The Emperor Will her that you have already taken two devoid of the beastfulness and vanity that am spent the evening of Thursday, the chances. This will make it easier for the distinguish most savage princes; and he is terward said that the was not supersti-27th of March, in the house of Prince Annext lic. Then, when she looks over her ton Radziwill, who is distantly related to list and says she can't find your name, tell read in the laws of Ethopia, and of remarkthe royal family, and there met Count N., her you bought your chances of the other able temperance and piety of life." King ing his own words. The bullet was used who also is an intimate friend of the Radzi- young lady. Then, when she says she is John's ceaseless activity and wonderful ca. and White fell at the first fire, as stated. will family. "Well, Count," said the Emthe only person selling chances in this cake, peror, "are you going to dine off the Easter tell her then it must have been in the other amb with Prince Ferdinand on Easter Sunday?" "Certainly, your Majesty," replied cake they are raffling on, brace up, look her the Count, "unless Herr Ealk confiscates right in the eye, and tell her, "O yes, you and reads the Psalins of David by candles when as president of Texas and senator in "" There is not much to add. Corme's love was alrerdy given to the handsome man so recently a stranger, and a very few months later she became his wife.

Lottie was the fair and stately bridesmaid.

There is not much to add. Corme's love the lamb." "In that case," replied the const. "and the lamb." "In that case," replied the const. "and the lamb." "In the const. "and the lamb." "In the const. Then comes church, after which he holds his court of justice for several bours, often before tasting food. The rest of the day is divided between State and reads the Psalans of David by candle-time the lamb." "In that case," replied the lamb." "In that "for how can your subjects feel safe when you will have to keep it up. If you pick affairs and the native sport of gohacks, a en route to Washingto even her Majesty, the Empress, has to hide up any pretty little article on the fancy sort of javelin-throwing, like the Moorish ton's term as senator. "How so, Counti" asked the Emperor. you are told, drop it from your nerveless study, and by nine he is in bed, as belts Fassing Children to Death-A Railroad Incident. Opposite is a young woman with a little exaggerate her beauty. She is as delicate and the enchanting, laughing mouth, absolutely illuminated by the sweet baby teeth, and the finishing touch of a loose yellow curl the deck, and left the obtrusive gentlemen late well-known publisher, Mr. Henry S. showing below the white cap. King, in whose store on Cornhill the autograph of "John King, of Ethiopia," is still is not only becoming, but very expensively miles when, sure enough, it did blow up. dressed, and when it becomes manifest Mr. H. somehow got upon an earlier stars that the mother is probably the wife of a than his late prosecutor, and went up quite mechanic, it occurs to one to wonder what a distance. As he was coming down, he A gentleman resident of the Sixth district, New Orleans, is telling his friends of the nother of this class on seeing a child of out, as he passed: singular and wonderful performance of a hers arrayed in all this lace, embroidery and favorite hen of his. This hen is one of the the softest and showiest of woolen wraps. best layers he has, and his stock of poultry At once all eyes are drawn to this swee is a large one, but for some time she has est of sweet things-a beautiful child. The first person to notice her is a pleasant look ing man, who sits with his wife in the seat ext the baby. Something about them makes one feel that this is a childless pair. The baby, at this moment, is half sitting, half lying, on her mother's lap, kicking up here perfectly happy and at ease. Friend-loes not look very pretty up there." "What is your name?" asks the man. The baby, tless her heart! has now worked herself down again into her pretty ttitude, and again kicks up the little red the mother seizes the foot, glancing anxously around at us all, and repeating:"Why Maud: Tell the gentleman what your name is, tell the gentleman what your According to the French author who has name is, Maud! Maud! tell the gentleman Baby is gazing happily now at a bird in were shot and captured. Parker said he celebrate the birth of the infant legislator, orous pushing back of the yellow hair un-We can all feel how it pulls. ists-down to the present day, and that the gins the exhibition again: "Can't you tell "Most two," the baby answers promptknows how to read, straightway holds out er arms to him, and he lifts her over the In 1826, six miles south of Franklin, back of the seat with that expression. wholly pleased and half surprised, which line, was fought a duel which created of compliments—the confidence and preferwidespread excitement throughout the ence of a little child. How have any of the population of which village is but a Union, owing to the reputation of the prin- us ever deserved that the kingdom of few feet from the track, the people rushed out of their houses utterly dismayed and unable to believe their own eyes. They said he was surprised, as no one expected piece of what looked like pound cake was assed over to her by her m

A Sharp Hen.

It was hard to see her put her little white and sent 'em flyin' in the air in all directions. A low hand-car with rails on it pointing at you is the most dangerous thing you can possibly hit, but the rails this time, instad of piercing every part of the boiler and engine, swerved off and did little injury. The dinner ketties of the known to either principles or seconds. laborers flew up like popcorn on a frying- known to either principlas or seconds. the S. P. C. C. present to prevent this case of cruelty to children, and then standing and White had fallen to the ground for a moment on the man's knees she

"Why! she never did that before," said he had carried it through one of those old negative he advanced to the side of his late her mother. "Maude, sit down and tell he had carried it through one of those old fashioned covered wooden bridges nearly a antagonist and kneeling by him took hishand antagonist and kneeling by him took hishand the gentleman where you went with parquarter of a mile off. In all my experience," concluded Carpenter, "I don't think lever heard tell of such a miraculous escape as 'Hughey' had. He must have been where wound above the hirs, and to cleanse the wound and to cleanse the wound and to cleanse the wound and the must have been above the hirs, and to cleanse the wound and tell fashioned covered wooden bridges nearly a antagonist and kneeling by him took hishand the gentleman where you went with parper, "Where did you go with parper, and the gentleman where you went with parper, "Where did you go with parper, white replied, "I know it and forgive you." White had been shot through just above the hirs, and to cleanse the wound above the hips, and to cleanse the wound down, -from the companionship of the Tell the geutleman where you are going

My journey is ended. Poor baby goes night though it be, and the you tell the gentleman where you are going

A Dead Sure Thing.

o to Mr. Hammond's it

Along in the afternoon he approached Mr. Hammond who was setting on the hurricane deck, and called his attention to a couple of gulls flying across the river, a few hundred vards ahead of the boat.

"Yes, I see them," said Mr. Hammond, Well, I'll bet you five dollars one of them falls into the water before we get by "I never bet, you ought to know that," was the renly. "Well, I'll make it twenty to fit how Mr. Hammond turned on his heel and

The gambler looked mournfuly after him a few moments, and then continued his walk again. Presently be came back and accosted M.

"I'll bet you twenty to five that this boat child. An angelic child. This is no com-mon creature, and it would be difficult to Now there's a good but what do you say?" Now there's a good bet, what do you say ?" He was informed again of Mr. H.'s calling, and that such propositions were scan-"But that's a dead sure thing-you cannot possibly lose; come, what do you say?"

Mr. Hammond sought another part of Very soon, with the "dead sure thing" to himself. would be the emotions of a European was met by our sporting friend, who cried

"Hallo parson! Bet you ten dollars I got higher than you did; what do you say?

About two miles north of Hill church, in Pike township, Berks county, Pa., is a real natural currosity called the Stah Roll. It is a large rocky surface. about 200 feet long and about 100 feet high one little red shed foot against the back of at the highest point. This surface for the next seat. She is almost the only un-conscious creature in that car, as he lies little more uneven. The position of surface is a little steeper than the root of a y man stretches out his hand toward her.
Up springs the mother, and with a nervous house. Down this surface hundreds of Up springs the mother, and with a nervous stones were thrown down, whence it re-band serzes the little foot, puts the baby i to a conventional attitude, saying with an conventional attitude, saying with an there are about 10 feet of stones laying at the bottom of it, which have been roled down. All the 'cose stones within about fifteen yards, from the size of a head up to as large as the people were able to roll them have been rolled down. They make a terfoot, making answer to the stranger. Again rible noise rolling down the rocky surface. and are generally broken to atoms when they come down. This place is often visited by the young people of that vicinity on Sundays during the summer season. It is said that there was as high as fifty persons there at one time. The height has been considerably reduced as there were stones broken off at the top and also filled up at the bottom, so that the original height might have been about 120 feet. Since the loose stones are all rolled down the young men are trying the experiment of clim happened some years ago: A hound was after a fox, the latter ran down the embankment and away. The hound followed. but was dashed to pieces down the steep