

B. F. SCHWEIER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Republican State Ticket.

SUPREME JUDGE, HENRY GREEN, OF NORTHAMPTON COUNTY.

AUDITOR GENERAL, JOHN A. LEMON, OF BLAIR COUNTY.

With Republicans, it is only a question of choice, or preference, as to which, of the several good men, who are candidates for the Presidency, they shall nominate, but such is not the case with the Democracy. Every candidate that they have has a dark spot on his political standard that can not be rubbed out.

The daughter of Spotted Tail, a tall, ungainly young woman of 18, is studying in the Government School for Indians at Carlisle Barracks, Pa. She has lately married the half breed interpreter employed at the barracks and when sent to do some scrubbing the other day her lordly husband, in a fit of pique, ordered her to scrub the floor.

A preacher who had been preaching on trial in a country church in the northern Pennsylvania, was tackled by an older preacher and told that it would please the congregation greatly if he would give a little Latin, Greek and Hebrew in his sermons.

John Cosma of Bedford county has been chosen as Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee. Mr. Cosma will make a vigorous Chairman.

Lawyer Hiseard, of Coxsackie, N. Y., publishes a card in the News of that village, in which he announces that he surrenders up all his property, real and personal, for the cause of Christ and the Gospel.

The river and harbor bill, passed by Congress in 1879, provided for an examination of the Susquehanna river, from Wilkesbarre to the New York State line in order to discover how much it would cost to make the channel of this part of the stream two feet deep at low water.

Nicholas Meirs, of Pittsburg, possessed of large means, died last week, and it was found when his will was registered that after leaving his son $10 and making small provision for some friends, that the balance of his property was to be divided between a Catholic Church and a number of charitable institutions.

Wooden bridges weigh about the same as iron ones of equal strength. At Strasburg, Lancaster county, on Saturday a week Dave Homsher, a notorious character and a friend of his by name Bieker, laid in wait for a man named Wicker, against whom the former had a grievance.

The Liverpool Courier says: The imports of American live cattle for this winter have been on a reduced scale, partly in consequence of the lower prices ruling here, and partly because of the great mortality attending the transit. The steamers' hatches during bad weather have to be battened down, impairing ventilation and rendering the atmosphere where the cattle are penned so vitiated that the animals soon succumb.

The other day Senator J. D. Cameron received a letter from a prominent German citizen of Cleveland, Ohio, stating that a memorial protesting against the nomination of General Grant for a third term, had been circulating among the German element "by a few men," and that "they will roll up a heavy memorial; but the writer alleges that some of the persons signing it never voted anything but the Democratic ticket, and he closes his letter with the remark that if "we (the Germans) have to be consulted every time, I think we had better ask Bismarck to come over and rule."

Some crazy reformers put several pounds of dynamite under the winter palace of the king of Russia, and set it off on the 17th inst. The explosion killed eight soldiers, and wounded forty five more who were stationed about the building. The probability is, that the nobility are at the bottom of the atrocity, and not the people of the empire, as is generally supposed.

Information from Lancaster county says. On Saturday the 14th inst., the sheriff of Leri Lane, in Bainbridge, Lancaster county, was broken into by the neighbors, who suspected something wrong, when, on entering the room, a most horrible sight met the eyes of the visitors. Lying on a miserable bed were the dead bodies of the husband and wife and an infant child.

The Renova shops are running two a day and have 683 men on the pay roll. Pottstown is to have 200 dwellings built this year.

Women are in demand in Dakota. One of the newspapers of that Territory says: "Dakota wants women; would like to have them healthy, handsome and young; but any of passable quality are welcome."

North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee are to unite in celebrating the centennial of the revolutionary battle of King's Mountain, which was fought at the junction of their three State lines on October 7, 1780.

Col. Thomas A. Scott has subscribed one thousand dollars to the Irish relief fund of Philadelphia.

A Democratic member of the Ohio Legislature who can't read, refused to serve on the committee on the library because Williams, the educated colored member from Cincinnati, was appointed on the same committee.

It takes $115,000 a month to pay the Reading railroad shop hands at Reading.

The Huntingdon Presbyterians cancelled a debt of $16,000 last Sunday week.

A number of colonies are forming in Berks county to go to Kansas early in April.

Women are recommended for census enumerators. A deer was shot by a Lewistown hunter on Monday, which is not as the law directs.

The farmers of Clinton county are raising a great deal of tobacco. In three townships 465 acres were planted last season, and the increase throughout the county this year will be thirty per cent.

Diphtheria has broken out among the children at Romanville, Chester county, and is affecting to a considerable extent the schools of that place.
