B. F. SCHWEIER,

VOL. XXXIV.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 1880.

NO. 12.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S

COMPOUND

FLUID EXTRACT

PHARMACEUTICAL.

A SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR ALL

DISEASES

OF THE

BLADDER & KIDNEYS.

For Deklitty, Loss of Memory, Indisposi-tion to Exertion or Business, Shortness of Breath, Troubled with Thoughts of Discase, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Chest, and Head, Rush of Blood to the Head, Pale Countenance, and Dry Skin.

If these symptoms are allowed to go on, very frequently Epileptic Fits and Con-maption follow. When the constitution becomes affected it requires the ald of an invigorating medicine to strengthen and lone up the system—which a little before going in. "Helmbold's Buchu"

DOES IN EVERY CASE.

IS UNEQUALED

By any remedy known. It is prescribed by the most eminent physicians all over the world, in Rheumatism. orrhos, uralgia,

Nervousness,
Dyspepsia,
Indigestion,
Constipation,
Aches and Paies Spermatorrhosa, General Debility, Kidney Diseases,

Liver Complain Nervous Debility, Epilepsy, Head Troubles, Paralysis, General Ill-Health Spinal Diseases, Female Complaints, &c.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders Cough, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Eruptions, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a thoosand other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

Helmbold's Buchu

Invigorates the Stomach,

And stimulates the torpid Liver, Bowels, and Kidneys to healthy action, in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system. A single trial will be quite sufficient to convince the most hesitating of its valuable remedial qualities.

PRICE $1 PER BOTTLE

Or Six Bottles for 85.

Delivered to any address free from observa-Patients" may consult by letter, receiv-g the same attention as by calling, by swering the following questions:

1. Give your name and post-office address county and State, and your nearest express office ?

2. Your age and sex?

2. Your age and sex?
2. Occupation?
4. Married or single?
5. Height, weight, now and in health?
6. How long have you been sick?
7. Your complexion color of hair and eyes?
8. Have you a stooping or erect gait?
9. Relate without reservation all you know sqout your case. Enclose one dollar as consultation fee. Your letter will then receive our attention, and we will give you the nature of your d'sease and our candid opision concerning a cure.
Competent Physicians attend to correspondents. All letters should be addressed to Dispensatory, 1217 Filbert treet, Philasciphia, Pa.

H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist and Chemist.

and many of the neighbors besides, soon stock.

The train steamed in. There was pretty Gracie Basset's face at a parlor-car win-saw what it would come to. And Nellie grew older and graver day by day. But as vet she kept her own secret, and she hoped more and more that Edward had forgotten her foolish, thoughtless words on a certain And the clouds they grow bolder along the sky. moonlight night, now some seven or eight

EMIGRANIS.

For the sun's dusk red in the western fold

Silver new-molten meets ebbing of gold.

On a wandering isle without a footbold;

On the silent waters that shadowy grew,

l brows a purple pall o'er a woman's face.

The young is come in place of the old.

Silver and gold, silver and gold-

Silver and gold, silver and gold-

The sun is lost in the wide sea-wold,

The vail falls over the mother's head,

On a journey new is the traveler sped.

Moonb ams and sunbeams, silver and gold;

How He Learnt His Lesson.

Oh, what have I done! What have I lone!" exclaimed Nellie, under her breath, as sad and dismayed she hurried up the

But, oh, Edward, how could you be so unkind? Oh, how could you?"

night have done so.

upon, he told himself.

out replying.

slightly despising him.

hope that he may forget it."

had always treated her as a mere child.

ose, Nellie?' inquired her mother.

A life is hidden, a life doth unfold:

ne goeth hence to a brightness afar

Silver and gold, silver and gold-

A vessel alone on the lonely seas,

Tells that the end of a day draws nigh,

Silver and gold, silver and gold!

sweet night.

through.

word.

white.

For the moon in the East is a queen to Lohold, At last the engagement was announced As she reigns with her spells o'er the calm, Gracie Basset had no friends to interfere with her, and flattered with Edward's at-Holding tremulous sceptre where ghosts walk tentions, and really believing that she loved him "quite enough for happiness," she had agreed that the marriage should take place as soon as all needful arrangements

Stirred with the sigh of the fanciful breeze. The wedding was over. The honeymoon Moonbeams and sunbeams, silver and gold! was over also, and Mrs. Melville, richly And they toyed with the bark as she idly dressed, and looking very lovely, with Edward as an attentive and devoted husband beside her, was receiving her guests. And the night-gloom fell, and the stars stole

Nellie was among them. She was paler than usual, and her free, happy, girlish siderationlaugh was gone for ever. Yet she, too, And the sun that is wasted in cloudland cold looked lovely this afternoon, in her pretty There death's colorless fingers are smoothing blue silk dress and cottage bonnet, and there was a beauty in the expression of her trators!" interrupted neighbor Jones. Moonbeams and sunbeams, silver and gold- gentle young face that went far beyond any mere beauty of feature. A seal set on lips that have said their last

Only a few weeks passed. Nellie was invited to dine with them. After dinner And lips that ne'er opened before are stirred. they were moving about the drawing-room, Lights of earth, light of heaven, shower silver and Gracie was exhibiting to Nellie some choice bouquets of flowers which had been Come aboard, the great ship is a traveler bold sent to her that morning. They had all she rose np. Twilight and moonlight, in soft mantle hide. | been arranged on one table, in accordance
One that vanishes silently o'er the ship side. | with white of the many wife who dewith a whim of the young wife, who de- band. clared that the the effect of their richness time I met a constable!" and color was lost when they were scatter-

But Edward had not heard her say this, "Let me put this blue vase here, Gracie," the waves, as if bells by the star rays knolled he unwittingly began, removing it, as he Ring of death, and of ghosts that dance all in spoke, to another table. There; it shows to advantage now!"

And the babe's cry breaks on the calm, sweet Gracie, with heightened color, deliberately walked to the table, and put the vase in its former position. "It is quite out of the way there ?" she said stiffly, 'and this is where I wish it to One hath found the way here by the light of a be Edward. "How great a matter a little fire kindleth!" Edward's color also rose, yet he did not look angry. "And I wish that it should stand here," returned, once more taking up the vase; and then he added, half reproachfully, half stub of a pencil, and wrote, playfully, "You promised to obey me. Gracie.

garden path. "He will never be kind to This proved to be only the beginning of me any more. How could I have said such small discomforts and disagreements. Many months passed, Gracie grew more

And her hands trembled so that she could scarcely lift the latch of the old fashioned its brightness, and he seemed day by day to m

many years. How she loved it! Every marking sometimes to Nellie as they went on covenanting and agreeing and assigning circuitous and difficult, and that through nook and corner that it contained was dear lownstairs for the evening.

'I have not dressed, Nellie. Of course, said, in a soft, sad tone; "and dear father you don't mind, and theres nobody else but and mother, too. A happy, happy home it has always been, and I am thankful for it!

Nobody but Edward! Love would have made him all the world to Nellie.

With lofty looks and disdainful curve of I care for them?"

But Gracie, only frowned for reply. his rather thin lips, he was on his way home along the winding lanes, He was a man of five and thirty, while Nellie was scarcely twenty. She was simple and inknelt by the bedside of his unconscious wife lesson in the school of life ere this. And he felt all the old love for her filling his nocent as a child; but he had learnt many a one lesson which Edward Metville prided heart once more.

But what will even the tenderest love hinself on having learnt was the value of money. He was a bachelor, and so he avail in hours like these? Gracie's last moande up his mind he would remain until he inents's were numbered, and she passed could find a woman with money who would away, leaving her little one to Nelhe.

creasing practice, it would never do to practice—he had no need of it now-and doctor, and, with a very small, and not inwent abroad. marry and have nothing but that to depend Eighteen months passed away. A mar He had generally escorted Nellie to her wn door, after their evening walks, but this evening he had left her just outside the gate. He was her aunt's step son. She had known him all her young life, and had arms. "What is your name, little one?" always called him Cousin Edward, all un- And in a baby-voice she told him, "Gra-

"Aunt Nellie," she said and slid down "You will go to meet Miss Basset, I sup- from her father's arms. "Cousin Edward!" exclaimed Nellie,

"Oh, yes, mother. Edward was good gladly, the color rising very rapidly to her mough to say that he would drive no to usually quiet pale face. the station in his carriage, and he will drive And he shook hands with her; then keep us both home, too. He says that a rich ing the hand he had taken, he led her into roung lady like Miss Basset will not care the house. to walk a mile along our lovely lanes, he is "And will you tell me now, once more Nellie dearest, that you love me better than Perhaps there was the slightest under- any one else in the world---!" tone of sarcasm in Nellie's voice, for her Nellie swiftly covered his mouth with mother glanced at her as if in surprise with- her hand, while burning blushes dyed her cheeks.

Edward had given Nellie, bit by bit, and with a good deal of tact, his ideas upon ever said so !" the subject of money, and of the com-

Outwardly the two were as good friends as have learned my lesson since that evening. ever. At heart, however, he was carefully I have learnt to value love, not as it deseron his guard, while Nellie, tender and gentle-natured though she was, could not help carthly. My Nellie! do not tell me that ed. your love for me is dead !"

Never mind Nellie's reply. Two months Nellie's and an heiress, and she had taken from that day she became Edward's wife, meilleur monde is seated in a corner and Government from the district would suffice a fancy to spend the remainder of the sum- and he never had the smallest need to re- does not appear much more amused than to pay the expenses of garrisoning the prinmer in the old tumble-down farm house mind her that she had promised to obey which Nellie called home.

Confederate service. Only one returned, and that was the one now living—Colonel as there was thirty years ago. Sound health visited Herat in 1783, described the city as the control of the United States Pharmaconeia it is said.

Andrew Jackson. The latter went through which necessarily secures the firm nerves. Edward was very attentive, even speci- do as he wished was a pleasure.

dow; and in a few moments she was seated them all."

in the carriage beside Edward, chatting to And that was not the only drive they had, nor the only evening the only nor the only entire chatting and laughing.

Nellie, her father and many of the neighbors besides, and neighbors does not neighbor the preciated. The laxative tendency does this today where, thirtong the market a white foot on the site of one of the four cities of Arriange and the modern city stands on the market and phosphorus. To each of these its meditation on the site of one of the four cities of Arriangle and the modern city stands on the market and phosphorus. To each of these its meditation on the site of one of the four cities of Arriangle and the modern city stands on the market and phosphorus. To each of these its meditation on the site of one of the four cities of Arriangle provided the bran is fed as it should be. A slight laxative condition of the bow-less its better than the constipation of the bow-less its better than the constipation of the market and success of constitution of the bow-less incomplete and the disorder, always the minute quantities of lodine, bromine on the site of one of the four cities of Arriangle provided the bran is fed as it should be. A slight laxative condition of the bow-less in the market and coloured say that the minute quantities of lodine, bromine on the site of one of the four cities of Arriangle provided the bran is fed as the should be. A slight laxative condition of the bow-less in the case of opinion among authorities, and the modern city stands on the steed as white foot on the site of one of the four cities of Arriangle provided the bran is time minute quantities of lodine, bromine on the site of one of the section the of the market and success may be the market and the difference of opinion among authorities, and the and laughing with him as if she had known | BRAN as a food has not been fully aphim for years; and Nellie had taken the preciated. The laxative tendency de And that was not the only drive they had, nor the only evening they spent in els is better than the constipation that

The Awful Majesty of the Law. One of the officials of Justice Alley, of Detroit, was the other day called upon by together with a neighbor, and outside the door they hitched an old half-blind horse whose cash value was reckoned at $25. "You see," explained the old farmer naybur Jones wants to buy the old hoss one for us. printed blanks, filled it out, and then said: and see if it is all right. All ready now: "Know all men by these presents. That "Presents! Why, I'm not going to present him with that hoss!" interrupted the

"And we don't want any present from him!" added the wife. "That's all right-only a legal form," exclaimed his Honor. Listen: Wayne—first part—con-sum of $25 — grant — bar-"County Wayne-gain and sell-party-second parthis executors, administrators "I haven't got any executors or adminis-"No; all he's got is a wife and two girls." added the owner of the horse.

"All form-all mere form," the justice, and he went on: "And assigns forever-covenant and defend the same -- heirs, executors and administrators---

"William, I shall never sign no such paper!" suddenly exclaimed the wife as "Nor I, either!" stoutly replied the hus-"Why, I'd shake in my boots every

"It is all mere form and according to law," explained his Honor. "All bills of rant him? "And what has this hoss-sale got to do walked around. "We've always kept clear stood still on the avenue of human progress of the law, and we ain't going to get into no scrape and lose our farm now—not if walked out. While they were unhitching quently in the northwest corner of Afghanithe horse along came a house-painter, and stan. Due north, at a distance of about 200 together, and ordinary conversation bewhen he had heard their story he picked up miles, is Mery; due east, at a distance of comes possible. Strangers do not shake bulb in the glass so that the lower end is She knows my ways and my needs, she a piece of paper in the alley, pulled out a nearly 400 miles, is Cabul; considerably hands, a colt, and his name is Andrew Jackson.

he took very little pains with herself, re- my name to that paper binding us to keep to the north of the Hazarch mo old hoss!"

Are We to Lose Ningara Falls? Those who want to see the Horseshoe Nellie.

to change its form more quickly than it has the distance may be called 350 miles. The for a century past. Already a great change road from Mery is so nearly straight as to departing footsteps yet. And perhaps she my husband, Gracie, she said. "As for has taken place in its appearance. About be less than 250 miles long; it is a good my husband. Gracie," she said. "As for two years ago the shoe was rent in twain, one, being even at its worst part, where it and a vast rent made in the toe of the cliff erosses the Hazrat-i-Baba Pass about thirty over which the great river falls. The con-Gracie had a little danghter, but instead of rejoicing in Fdwards's house, there was bitter sorrow, and as the young husband little sorrow, and as the young husband likely by the bedside of his unconscious wife agged gorge of the cliff, thus splitting the supplies and water are very abundant. Whenever the race for Herat begins, if sequence is that instead of driving straight of the service. It traverses a fertile counagged gorge of the clin, the distance of the case of a horseshoe, with there is a fair start, the Russians a cata act in the center. Much more mist, get down the perpendicular of the L from too, is produced by the cataract than was Mery before the English can get up the formerly occasioned by the sheer fall of the thick side of the V from Candahar. horseshoe, and the view of the falls consequently obscured. The river might have allen for centuries over this solid weir of of an extensive and fertile valley, well hardest scist; but a fissure having been watered by channels made from a pere could find a woman with money who would be his wife. He himself was a country be his grief was over, sold his likely that the river will continue its excand granary of Central Asia. It is situated vation, begun near Lake Ontario, and do in a plain about 2500 feet above the sea, its work more quickly than of late. Now and is fortified with mud walls, presenting that a breach has been made in the for- the form of a square, each side of which tress, it seems certain that the volume of is something under a mile in length. bronzed and bearded stood at the gate of water, acting as a perpetual battering ram streets are ill-built, narrow and dirty; inin the wind. The stranger took her in his alter the whole form and character of the "Only man is vile" at Herat, however, for famous Horsehoe Falls.

good that can result from the celerity with have a proverb, "If the soil of Ispahas, which people supposed to be dead are ice the cool breezes of Herat and the waters packed; it is, that should they not at the time be dead, they are certainly frozen to death ere the manner of the Walers of the Union as death." The leath ere the moment of interment. Hor- waters of the Heri, Conolly described in rible as this is, it is much less horrible than being buried alive. It is the general ignorance of people, and not want of proper pie enter the gardens and eat at will, being rance of people, and not want of proper sensibility, that causes them to comply so readily with the usages of burying a body within three days after death. In this way, where ice has not been abundantly supplied, where ice has not been abundantly supplied, people who are believed by their friends to han one indication of lurking life, are hur- prietor into his debt. The soil is extraorried to the tomb. We do not call attention to these probabilities from any desire to corn-fields and vineyards stretch to the awaken a morbid sensation upon the subject. We do not take the absurd ground "Oh, Edward, do please forget that I ject. We do not take the absurd ground that out of all the people buried the larger "Not likely," he returned, smilingly, Ah, Nellie," and he was serious now, "I sert that it is not impossible that a case of are as famous in Central Asia as its horses. fort to be got from a proper use of it. "Ah, Nellie," and he was serious now, "I sert that it is not impossible that a case of at the surface, and the scimitars of Herat this kind sometimes happens, simply be are as famous in Central Asia as its horses.

The Heathen Chinee at Home.

is not a road in all of the broad expense of slaughtered at this second sack. In 1398, resting places on earth. Those who own capturing and pillaging the city. The Justice reached down one of the private gardens bury their dead and those the Persians soon afterwards took the city, "Now you listen while I read this over no gardens or plots of ground lay the bodies the four royal places of the Khorassan, it of a great chain which they say enables age. them to reach up to the supreme source of life and ruler of the universe. This is the reason why these remarkably keen, quick witted people will not tolerate the con-> in China can only be attained by literary in the other. merit. All Chinamen can read and write, because education is compulsory. Every four different words having that meaning man in China is free to complete for a li terary degree, and last year 107,000 candifor examination. Those of this large number who passed muster then are free again to advance to the higher national there, and when they pass this ordeal they become Mandarins and live in high estate with his heirs and covenants?" inquired the has probably been the great and potent factor of their remarkable vitality and preservation as a nation, but at the same time it

The more the justice tried to explain the bigger the words looked, and the tro finally the slope of the Hindoo Koosh, and conse- which it is shouted becomes shorter and as a rule perfect their flowers in water because they are earlier, more hardy, and with the Jacksons by marrying Alfred, body as a rule perfect their flowers in water servant of General Jackson, after they came convey a fair idea of the situation from a strategical and political point of view, let them suppose a capital L mounted on top of a capital V; Mery will be at the top of imperious than ever; Edward's face lost all the horse, and as the farmer received the the L. Herat at the angle, and Cabul at the door, and she turned away to quiet herself door, and she turned away to change the water, the cotant as a dacched him to the weep that the seed of the day of the found that sa excellent and the seed of the day of the found that sa excellent and the seed of the weep the day of the found that sa excellent and the seed of the weep the day of the found that sa excellent and the seed of the weep the day of the found that sa excellent and the seed of the we 'That's all there is to it, law or no law, Candahar will be down at the angle of the and administrating a whole lifetime on one the Hazarch country is equally roundabout and more arduous. The mam route, and, so far as is known, the only road by which a large force could be moved from Cabul following. to Herat runs through Candahar. From

The nature has done everything for the city and its environs. The climate is the finest in We are giad to see that attention is at last Asia; only two months of the twelve are suspicious of the feeling which was gradu-ally gathering strength within her heart, till this evening. And Edward, for his part, pebbles and casting out ballast as he took in lading, so as to bring the astonished prodinarily fertile, and the orchards, gardens, cause the relatives of the unfortunate crea- Silk is spun there largely, and carpets of ture are too ignorant to detect the subtle wool and silk are manufactured. The At the last opera ball. A young man du that under British rule the income to the

it was a city of 12,000 shops, 350 schools, 144,000 occupied dwellings, and 6000 baths.

Khan took it after a siege of six months populous China where even a wheelbarrow Miran Shah, and in 1447, Jehan Shah, could be driven or a horse led except around smote it severely, and twice in the sixteenth Shanghai, and here the English have con- century it was attacked by the Usbecks. out there, but he wants a bill o' sale signed by wife and I. We want you to draw up no tombstones mark and honor their last of their friends therein. Those who have which they had always claimed as one of of the dead in rough boxes on the surface was "not only the richest city in Central of open fields. The Chinese regard the Asia, but the resort of the greatest divines, souls of their ancestry as links in the length philosophers, poets and historians of the African Salutation > ionials observed by the Tubu struction of a railroad in their country.

>
> They declare that the locomotives and rattling trains would certainly violate the They declare that the property of their countries that the rattling trains would certainly violate the when two strangers meet in this wild countries acred charm influenced in their behalf by sacred charm influenced in their behalf by try. Each of the performers covers all his try and the property of their countries that the property of their countries are considered. causing the abrupt seared flight of their face but his eyes with this turban, seizes ancestry who are ever hovering around and his spear and throwing-iron (a curious over them. They have no banks in China, bowering-like weapon with a long project-and no coin of value except our silver and ing prong on the concave margin), and that of Mexico. They have no lawyers, but thus prepared, the two approach one anthat of section from the principals alone of the principal alone of the principals alone of the principal alone of th can plead their cases. The first social rank with spear upright in one hand and iron The one then asks "How do you do?" about a dozen times by means of used alternately, the reply being varied of the use of two words Laha, or Killala. dates for this honor were entered at Canton | Then one of the two loudly sings the word a similar tone. The word is exchanged again to advance to the higher national grade competition at Pekin, annually held loud high pitched note and gradually run down the scale until it reaches a low bass murmur. When it has become so slow as Looks to me as if it was sort o' tangled at the public expense. No military man is scarcely to be heard, on a sudden it is is not easily obtained in the drawing-room; away. Looks to me as if it was sort o tangled up, "said neighbor Jones. "The old hoss in Chies. This annual relations from the in China. This annual selections from the whole Chinese people of its rulers, who represents its best thought and mental power, long while, the performers going through it as a strict matter of ceremony, and appropriate ornament to the draw-fering themselves as escort to the tomb. through it as a strict matter of ceremony, and taking no interest in one another all the while, but looking round at the horizon "I won't sign—I won't have a thing to do with it?" exclaimed the wife, as she do with it?" exclaimed the wife, as she increases the wonder that they should have increases the wonder that they should have 'After a while various forms of the question "How are you?" and the answer "Well," are introduced; at last questions or other topics are brought forward, although now and again the "ihilla" bursts out in the ub of a pencil, and wrote,

"We hereby sell this horse to Jonn Jones from Cabul and Herat, is Candahar. If strangers is considered as a most important for $25, cash down. We raised him from our readers want a war map which will matter of etiquette. Checks or drafts must be presented for payment without unreasonable delay. Checks or drafts should be presented horizontal extremity of the letter, while during business hours; but in this country,

If one who holds a check, as payee or otherwise, transfers it to another, he has a right to insist that the check be presented that day, or, at the farthest, on the day nserted, it is held payable on demand.

the place of business or to residence of the are bright and black, her rayon nair show-themselves were held in custody until the party notified.

The holder of a note may give notice of protest either to all the previous indorsers or only to one of them; in case of the latter e must select the last indorser, and the who knew them best that when the youthlast must give notice to the last before him, ful Mrs. Andrew Jackson went to the White and so on. Each indorser must send notice House there arose a question as to whom the old farmhouse. A little toddling creature and down the path, her fair curis flying detach other portions of them, and dearming the streets are ill-built, narrow and dirty; into the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of resulting her indoser must send netice the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of them, and thus indoser must send netice the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of the place is, indoser must send netice the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of the place is, indoser must send netice the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of the place is, indoser must send netice the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should belong of the honor should belong of the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should be a half, wetting her last the honor should be a half, wetting her last the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should be a half, wetting her last the same or the last before him, and so on. Each the honor should be a half, we can be a same that the same or the last before him, and the honor should belong of the last before him, and the honor should belong of the honor should be a half, we can be a shou day following. Neither Sunday nor legal Donelson was already in that position and holiday is to be counted in reckoning the had filled it acceptably and gracefully.

> excuse for not giving notice of protest. If two or more persons, as partners, are one of them is sufficient. Not Much Fireworks. In India the husbandman, being averse of her declining years. to toil "that asks tough sinews," prefers to tickle the surface of his fields with a stick White House, I believe, Mrs. Jackson?" instead of plowing them. To convince him of his error, an English plow was once im- born here at the Hermitage." ported by an enthusiastic official, and a They refused, of course, and so more and the family circle of Mrs. Marion Adams, more were added, until at last the plow began to move; but whether from the inexpe-Half a century ago it paid an annual revelopment of $450,000, and Malleson declares did not think much of it—as fireworks.

| Half a century ago it paid an annual revelopment of $450,000, and Malleson declares did not think much of it—as fireworks. | Rachel, was an event that broke into long, ranguil years.

to poke fun at the ennuied couple.

far surpassing Candahar in the extent of the United States Pharmacopeia it is said, 'Go away, you bother me,' said the 'Go away, you bother me,' said the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicissitudes of war with honor, but was and muscles, is the surest preventative of the vicins to the vici ally kind to Nellic on the way to the staally kind to Nellic on the way to the station, and her heart went out to him again.
"If only I had not said that to him,"she thought, as the carriage stopped, and he thought if the placed to be population at 100,000; Conolly's esticarefully lifted her out. "I hope—oh!! do hope that he may forget it."

And having at great risk and cost learngentleman, "you are tipsy, go and mind your own business."

And having at great risk and cost learngentleman, "you are tipsy, go and mind
your own business."

The following are the same, a prisoner at Camp gentleman, "you are tipsy, go and mind
your own business."

The following are the state that the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
gentleman, "you are tipsy, go and mind
your own business."

The following are the state that the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
gentleman, "you are tipsy, go and mind
your own business."

The following are to state that the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp guise in 1810, is as loud as Conolly in his that fish "and other species of Gadus."

The following are to state the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp guise in 1810, is as loud as Conolly in his that fish "and other species of fish from which the codifish, the guise in 1810, is as loud as Conolly in his
that the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
guise in 1810, is as loud as Conolly in his the to close the first heart Christie, who spent a month there in disthe close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
that the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp at the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
the close of the same, a prisoner at Camp
the close of the same, that loves you. Neither money, nor position, nor anything else, can bear the least comparison with love, which will outlive them all."

A crowd gathered around.

A crowd gathered around.

A crowd gathered around.

A crowd gathered around.

See here, said the young man, without moving. "you are pretty tall, you believe yourself mighty strong. Very well; there is one thing you can't be made was 40,000, and the present number of instound to contain are margaric, stearic and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and biliary matters, on which I read that paragraph was the yourself mighty strong. Very well; there is one thing you can't be lackest, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are liquids, glycerine and cetylic acids, all of which are white solids; oleic acid and volatile acids, which are white solids; ole is one thing you can't do!"

is only a shadow of its old splended self, "What! I'll bet you a hundred francs!"

Its origin and early history are unknown or little known. There was a town there besilk stocking, and rested a white foot on fore Alexander, and the modern city stands.

Its only a shadow of its old splended self, and gaduine. These are shown in the relative proportions in which they exist in the little known, and myself unable to little known. There was a town there besilk stocking, and rested a white foot on fore Alexander, and the modern city stands to like in the labit of lacing, to the most part, of the habit of lacing, to the most part, of the habit of lacing, to the most part, of the habit of lacing, to the most part, of th the bulbs should be potted, as early as they pleasure of the trip would be canvassed, can be obtained, in small pots of rich, light the cost counted up, and, alas! the slim earth, and placed in a cold-frame, or some purse was always found too attenuated to protected place in the garden where they admit of the expense. Then the bright may be secure from heavy rains, cover them anticipations would fade, the trip be given with at least one foot of newly-fallen leaves up and the humdrum life flow on in its un and being once well watered soon after be-ing potted, they may remain for a month But there again came a change in this at least, to form their roots, when they may quiet life, and a sad one. Mrs. Jackson be secure from heavy rains; cover them for years had been sustained and cared for with at least one foot of nearly fallen leaves, by her less feeble sister, Mrs. Adams, but and being once well watered soon after be. to the latter came a long and serious illness. ing potted, they may remain for a month Slowly she began to recover, and when con at least, to form their roots, when they may valescence seemed certain she met with an be uncovered, and the most forward accident, causing relapse, and she sucprought out and repotted into large pots, cumbed to the inevitable. and placed in a moderately warm room, curred about two and a half years ago, succeed best in a humid atmosphere, which | solitudes she desired her own life to glide shorter. At last the ihilia is got rid of al. better than the double varieties, 3, Use to Tennessee. Mrs. Jackson said: "I don't rain or soft spring water. 4. Set the know what I would do without Gracev. but acquaintances do. The cover- almost but not quite in contact with the anticipates my every want. water. 5. When the built is placed, put and well, and I do hope that her life will the glass in a cool, dark closet, or any con- last longer than mine." venient place where light is excluded, there to remain for about six weeks, or until the roots fill the glass; which they will do sooner than in the light, as they feed more freely in the dark. 6. Fill up the glasses retaining its purity which, in her youthful trace of the real culprits discovered.

It has always been understood by those time in which notice is to be given.

The loss of a bill or note is not sufficient still preside, and the younger lady yielded any claims she might have had.

In my conversation Mrs. Jackson rejointly liable on a note or bill, due notice to marked that she first visited the Hermitage before the birth of her eldest son, whom she named Andrew Jackson, and who is now Colonel Jackson, the stay and support

"None of your children were born in the "No, they were all-four in number-

When the terms of Jackson expired and number of the cultivators of the neighbor- he repaired to the Hermitage, Mrs. Jackhood were invited to witness the great deeds son, her husband, Andrew Jackson, Jr. of the new implement. Bullocks were so- and their family constituted the household, lemnly attached to it and urged to proceed. afterward increased by the admission into rience of the plowman or the conduct of Jackson passed away and was placed in conclusion by two of the bullocks joining ing and were reflected in the long mirrors. in a single combat. The peasants assem | The marriage of the only daughter of the bled were very much impressed by the be- household, named in honor of the beloved tida, gum, saffron and pistachio nuts, havior of the plow as a plow, but confided and long-departed wife of General Jackson,

Then came the distracting times of the war. Three young men-two of the Jack-The fish from which the oil thus named son sons and one Adams-went into the

Mrs. Adams, together, were going, hand in of life. No bustle and stir of the busy out the most extended application of the word. side world broke in upon them now, either Detroit, was the other day called upon by an old gray-headed farmer and his wife, an old gray-headed farmer and his wife, sult of six or seven thousand years of Chicaravanserais and water-mills. Of the inthe most extended application of the word, side world broke in upon them now, either habitants, 160,000 are said to have been The number of its varieties is now fully with its cares or its gaieties. From time to time, when the evenings grew long, and They are not only desirable for planting in they, with Colonel Jackson or some of the beds in the flower-garden, but for forcing bright young grandchildren, gathered arto flower in the dull, cheeriess months of around the blazing fire, a visit to their relacharm not otherwise to be found. For native city and mingle again with their growing in the conservatory or drawingroom kinsmen and friends of long ago. The

The size of the pot will depend much upon the size of the bulb, as a rule, the first pott- Jackson's daughter, Mrs. Lawrence, be-After the death of Mrs. Adams, Mrs. ng should be in four and the second six- sought her mother to leave the sad hermitinch pots. Some care is necessary in the lage and make her home with her, but Mrs. application and increase of heat, or the Jackson sadly shook her head and said lowers will be abortive. For the first "No; it will not be for long now!" It would three weeks it should not be above fifty de- not be long ere she joined those gone begrees at any time of the day; after that the fore. Here at the loved Hermitage she had heat may be increased to whatever degree heard her children's infant prattlings reis desirable in the room where they are to echo through the long hallways and listened bloom. Water should be slightly warm to the patter of their young feet in and about "ihilla," which is returned by the other in when applied, and given in proportion to the doorways. They had grown to manthe development of foliage and flower; in hood and womanhood beneath that roof, no case should the earth in the pots become and had passed out from it to the duties of dry, neither soddened, an excess of water life. All her joys and all her sorrows had being as injurious as drought. Hyacinths been witnessed here, and in its peaceful but little trouble. To those contemplating Jackson family, and now in their old age they these interesting branches of floriculture do not care to leave it. It is upon this do not care to leave it. It is upon this we make the following suggestions: 1. if faithful couple that Mrs. Jackson relies for you choose your own bulbs, pay more at- household assistance. Speaking of them tention to weight than size, and be sure she said Gracey had been her own hund-that the bulb is sound at the base as well as maiden, and had been with her during all at the top. 2. Use the single kinds only, her married life. She domesticated herself

Giorgia Leill.

When Christina of Spain was about twenty years of age, a dwarf named Giorgia with water as the level sinks by the feeding of the roots or by evaporation. 7. It is not necessary to change the water, if a few so much that she attached him to her serceive the gold pieces and hand bills which the Liliputian relative had left behind them, and these innocent countrymen on their re-In a conversation with Mrs. Jackson, I turn to Rome were fellow-travelers with asked her incidentally when and where she three persons who became very friendly A note indorsed in blank (the name of met her husband. She smiled at the ques- with them. The feigned travelers, were Falls of Niagara must, I fancy, come out soon, or they will not be able to form an idea of what it was, for I think it is going idea of what it was, for I think it is going idea of what it was, for I think it is going is not very direct, and for military purposes is not very direct, and for military purposes bearer.

A note indorsed in blank (the name of the indorsed in blank (the name of the indorsed in blank) and the indorser only written is transferable to fine as if all the romance of her youth residuely the is not very direct, and for military purposes bearer.

A note indorsed in blank (the name of the indorsed in blank (the name of If the time of payment of a note is not with a least of the time of payment of a note is not with a least of the time of payment of a note is not with a least of the men of Aquila told the secreted, it is held payable on demand.

As we passed I turned—it was not exactly them that they carried the heritage of $10,-The time of payment of a note must dethe thing for a young lady to do—and looked 000 in a small value, one of them said they pend upon a contingency. The promise at him, only to find that he had done the also had a large sum of money with them, must be absolute.

In this in the had done the also had a large sum of money with them, same thing. He called that evening, and and proposed putting it all together. The A bill may be written upon any paper, or so began the acquaintance which ended in countrymen agreed to this novel arrange-substitute for it, either with ink or pencil.

That was during father's ment, and one of the three travelers took The payee should be distinctly named in (meaning General Jackson, whom she al- charge of their united treasure until arrivthe note, unless it is payable to bearer.

An indersee has a right of action against all whose names were on the bill when he Washington, and the White House was our the hands of the Aquilinesi, and promising home as long as father was President," soon to return. But they never did, and If the letter containing a protest of non-payment be put in the postoffice, any mis-the lady not a little. She was seated in a carriage does not affect the party giving cushioned arm-chair in a rather gloomy replaced by some lumps of leads. When notice. Notice or protest may be sent either to in which General Jackson died. Her eyes in Rome, it seemed so improbable that they

A High street woman was trying to do some figuring recently, "Let's see," said she, "seventeen yards at a quarter a yard. pencil with the tip of her tongue-"two would be four quarters, that's four times three-ob, dear! no, it isn't." Then the pencil was wetted again, and another start was made. "Seventeen yards at a quarter a yard. How much is seventeen quarters? Two quarters and a half. Seventeen quarquarters one half, six quarters three halves, that's one and a half, seventeen quarters would be-six times three arepause occurred, and the pencil went up to the tongue again, while the forehead of the mathematician corrugated and was bedewed upside down, downside up. looked at it several times, sighed, and was about to commence all over again, when her husband entered. "John, how much is seventeen yards at a quarter a yard."

"Four into 17, 4 and 1 over-$4.25, "That's what I had it," said his wife but I wasn't sure I was right."

"Figured all over that paper to get it?" queried John.
"No, sir!" she answered, indignantly, growing as red as the red, red rose, 'I guess I studied mental arithmetic a school, and," crumpling the paper up and putting it in his pocket-"have just got as much sense as some people who think they are so awful smart.

found that piece of paper, a few hours afterwards, he whistled. The habit of Fainting.

John didn't say anything but when he

SOLD EVERYWHEED