

SUPREME JUDGE, HENRY GREEN, OF SOUTHWEST DISTRICT.

AUDITOR GENERAL, JOHN A. LEMON, OF BLAIR COUNTY.

Forge Fires—Free Trade—Democratic Trick—Democrats, Coffroth and Blackburn.

The Democratic majority in Congress was obtained on a false issue. It was obtained by fraud, fraud in this way, that while the Democratic party claimed to be the friends of American labor they were free tariff men.

When Randall was made Speaker of the Democratic Congress he put free-traders as chairman of all the committees that had to do with the tariff laws.

The free-traders were coaching a bill to get it through Congress. The Republicans were watching them closely. The free trade bill should have gone to the committee of Ways and Means, but a trick that should be far beneath a common Congressman was resorted to.

LAST Saturday an effort was made before the State Board of Pardons at Harrisburg, to have the men pardoned who were convicted by the Dauphin county court, of bribery in the effort to pass the late bribery act through the late Legislature.

Coffroth says soon after eleven o'clock, having become disgusted with the action of the free-traders, he strode over to the Kentuckian's seat and told him plainly that the filippic had gone far enough.

The Greenback State Convention met at Harrisburg last week. F. P. Deceus was nominated for Supreme Judge. Col. A. L. Roberts was nominated for Auditor General.

"The choice some people make of matrimonial partners is hard to understand. A young Maine farmer married a high-flying Boston girl who didn't know the first thing about house-keeping, but had devoted her youth to the study of geology and mineralogy, and when he took her home, instead of attending to her household duties, she went roving about the farm and soon discovered on her husband's land a gold mine worth $3,000,000.

The friends of the boys that fired on Fort Sumter in 1861, were strong enough in the United States Senate last week to put Senator Kellogg out of the Senate.

The price of land in the eastern part of the State is higher this year than it has been in a number of years past.

A WHOLE sixty-five feet long was caught in the vicinity of New York city last week.

The Democrats call Wallace the Knight of the rod—plume.

Missouri, too, joins the column, her Legislature having decided to give woman the ballot.

STATE ITEMS.

One dealer in Tioga has already made a ton of sugar. The fifteen puzzle has driven Daniel Conroy, a respectable citizen of Erie, insane.

The winter just closed was the warmest in Pennsylvania according to general records, for ninety-one years. Pike county has a female hermit, who has lived alone in the mountains for seven years without fire, remaining in bed when the weather is too cold to get out.

A wild monkey in the woods of Luzerne county is attracting the attention of all classes. A hunt is to be organized.

There was a leap-year church festival at Pittston the other night, at which the men waited on the tables and did the cooking.

A Conellsville folk ate four mince pies in four and a-half minutes on a bet, and physicians were in vain.

Den Higgins, the reformed prize-fighter and whiskey seller, is now learning to read and write.

There are seventeen female applicants for census enumerators in Montgomery county.

Miss Kneiss, of Redbank township, Armstrong county, age 15 years, weighs two hundred and thirty six pounds.

There are twenty persons in the Lebanon county jail, held for trial on a charge of jumping railroad trains.

C. A. Greene, John Campbell and Mrs. Harriet Swery have been at Lancaster to answer in Court for practicing medicine without a diploma.

An 8 year old boy named Bennett, living in Lower Yoder township Cambria county, was kicked in the abdomen by a playmate a few days ago and died from the injury.

The Methodists in the northern part of the State are holding the largest revivals they have had for years.

In Bradford, Tioga and Susquehanna counties there are reported to be fifteen cases of cholera, and after it was completely gagged by the truthful statement that the expenditures in 1879 were less than in 1878, excepting for such things as bridge repairs, which could not be counted against; but with all that the Democrat and Register could not refrain from scolding, and when it was absolutely dunned and overwhelmed as completely as the old lady in New England, by the truthful statement of fact, that after the Commissioner's report of the reduction of two hundred thousand dollars in the valuation of property in the county to get the same amount of revenue to help pay of the Court House debt, which was built by Democratic Commissioners, it was necessary to lay a tax of 8 mills; notwithstanding the fact that they have revealed the true inwardness of the scap business, and pointed out the remedy, and notwithstanding all that, the Democrat and Register, in being carried away from the scene of the delusion, and the deluge of facts, like the New England old woman, snaps back, "You did! You did! You did! Old bridges! Old bridges! Eight mills! Eight mills! Eight mills! Eight mills! You did! You did! You did!"

LAST Saturday an effort was made before the State Board of Pardons at Harrisburg, to have the men pardoned who were convicted by the Dauphin county court, of bribery in the effort to pass the late bribery act through the late Legislature.

The Board of Pardons did not pardon the guilty parties. Monday had been set as the day on which the Court would sentence the parties. Court convened at 2 o'clock P. M. The names of Charles B. Salter, William H. Kemble, Emil J. Petroff, W. F. Rumberger and Jesse R. Crawford were called by the court clerk, but they were not there. They had failed to put in an appearance. The names of the bondsmen were called, but they, like the culprits, were not there to respond.

The Greenback State Convention met at Harrisburg last week. F. P. Deceus was nominated for Supreme Judge. Col. A. L. Roberts was nominated for Auditor General.

The delusion of the Speaker from the charge of infidelity to his party, and insisted that the southern men should be the last to bring such an infamous imputation against him. Blackburn sneeringly retorted, "All you Pennsylvania Democrats are traitors to your party," to which Coffroth quickly replied, "Do you mean to include me?" To this the retort was, "Yes, I do." Coffroth then said, "You are a liar." Blackburn at this point reached out for the Pennsylvania man. The blow was not struck, however, as several members rushed in and prevented it. Coffroth got in the last shot, however, in these words: "Randall and myself are true to the Democratic party, while you were a traitor to your country, was guilty of treason, and ought to have been hung. If you come outside, sir, I will slap you in the face." Blackburn did not go. Coffroth added: "I want it to be understood that no rebel brigadier shall hold me in check. This is alleged to be the true story of an episode which has caused much talk in Washington. Mr. Blackburn denies that he charged the Speaker with partisan infidelity.

If the Republicans had not discovered the trick of the Democrats to get their free trade schemes before Congress there would have been no such scene as that between Coffroth and Blackburn, for the last would have been put on and the free-traders would have succeeded. But free trade measures gotten through by a miserable trick would politically kill a Democrat in Pennsylvania.

The report that General Grant had gone in a strata to the bottom of the sea, while he was on his way from Mexico, turned out to be not true. He arrived safely at Galveston, Texas, where a grand reception awaited him.

The Democrats who are pinning their hopes on the nomination of General Hancock for the Presidency may as well give up. He was too good a fighter on the Northern side.

STATE ITEMS.

Chester county has ninety-three dairy farms. Mrs. Katy Watson, of Robeson township, Berks county is 92 years of age. She walked two miles to attend a funeral last Sunday.

Forty thousand railroad ties have been cut in Monroe county this winter. Nearly fifty-two years ago the first pretzel was baked in Lancaster county. Lexington, aged nineteen years, was killed in Penn township, Chester county, the other day while assisting Lewis Mendenhall in cutting down a tree. The tree fell on Sloan's neck.

John Hough, the boy who was struck over the head with a coupling pin a few days ago near Bradocks, during a quarrel with Thomas Cochran, about a chest of drawers, died last week.

The large and most valuable load of tobacco ever delivered at Lancaster came in on Saturday a week. It was raised by Jacob L. Brubaker near Rohrerstown, on five acres and a-half.

Judge Shupe of Fulton county, Ill., sentenced Frank Barrett, a tramp for 74 years in the penitentiary for burglary. After sentence the tramp picked up a quart ink bottle and threw it with all his might at the Judge's head, but missed it and hit him on the shoulder. He said he'd rather be hanged than go so long to the penitentiary.

A dwarf in East Nottingham township, Chester county, named Cassett, is fifty-one years old, thirty-nine inches high, forty-nine inches around the waist and weighs ninety-eight pounds. When he lies down he has to be helped up, so great is his obesity.

Em. Gross, a colored woman who was committed to Washington county jail not long ago, tried to set the jail on fire, but the sheriff discovered her bedclothes in flames just in time.

Antie Graham, of West Chester, celebrated her one hundred and third birthday last Friday. It has been the custom of the members of the Presbyterian Church in former years to give Antie a dinner at her home, so on Friday a large number of the ladies connected with the church met at her house and prepared an excellent dinner, of which they all partook.

Principal William Davis, of the Edenburg school, dismissed the pupils the other day because the desks were not dusted, and laid all the blame on the janitors, whom he pronounced "one of the most indolent specimens of humanity on the face of the earth."

The janitress, "a most worthy young lady," had a brother, who proceeded to knock the teacher down with a shoe handle, and when the injured man went to a lawyer the latter refused to take up the case, telling him that he deserved all that he had got. Here the case rests for the present.

GENERAL ITEMS. Fox hounds are in demand at Anderson, S. C., at $15 a head; sheep are at $2.

A Cleveland drummer was upset in the bad roads of Mill Creek township Mercer county, spoiling his samples, and received $200 damages.

The Rev. Mr. Aldrich of Hornellsville, N. Y., has sued ex-Sheriff Stephen N. Bennett for services in preaching the funeral sermons of Bennett's father and Carrie Gilbert, a ward of the family. Bennett is executor of the estate, which is worth $50,000 or more. Aldrich had to travel about 30 miles to attend the funerals.

The Rev. McDeade of Cleveland was sued by Lucy Jane Chumblin, a member of his church, for breach of promise to marry, but she failed to appear on the day appointed for the trial. The case was dismissed, and the pastor received a vote of confidence and the congratulations of his congregation. Now she comes out with a statement that he hired her to keep out of the way, and he has been arrested again.

A woman who is six feet in height and big in proportion has been elected School Director in Middletown, New York.

U. S. Grant, Jr.'s fall in love with Miss Bonanza Flood was brought about in a manner decidedly unromantic. It was when the General was at Frisco last September. They had a picnic, and as the son of his father was pampering with Miss Flood's hand, she said to him, "I have a favor to ask of you, if you will, to marry me, but she failed to appear on the day appointed for the trial. The case was dismissed, and the pastor received a vote of confidence and the congratulations of his congregation. Now she comes out with a statement that he hired her to keep out of the way, and he has been arrested again.
